Golden Gate Multi-Club Committee News

You've heard about multi-vitamins and multi-tasking...but now let me introduce to you our own, GGMCC...Golden Gate Multi-Club Committee! Our members represent the many clubs and activities that happen in our community. The committee was initially formed by members of the Nuggets Club. The goal was to meet on a regular basis and share ideas, needs, or concerns. The committee has a written agenda and notes are taken. Board members are also present at our meetings. Thanks Jackie Ondra and Debby Johnson!

Several tasks and improvements were accomplished this year. One was a deep clean and reorganization of the kitchen. Thanks to a small group of volunteers, we now have a cleaner and more functional kitchen. Many thanks to Bonnie Goodenhooft and her group!

In addition, Cindy Winters, our new Nuggets president, designed a comprehensive checklist for groups to complete when they've used the kitchen. (The checklist is located on the wall to the right, just inside the kitchen doorway). Many thanks to Cindy!

Another major accomplishment this season was arranging for the company, Universal Church Directories, to send photographers to Golden Gate. Over a period of five days, about 130 photos were taken for our new Photo Directory. Now we can put some names and faces together and continue to get to know each other better. Thanks to Rene Wehner and her committee!

With so much going on here in Golden Gate, we understand the importance of keeping our calendars up-to-date. (Hmm...sounds like a rap!) At our recent meeting of the GGMCC on Thursday, March 27, 2025 at 10:00am, we all looked at the master calendar for the 2025-26 season.

Some events and activities in our community are scheduled on an annual basis such as the recent Cornhole Tournament, organized by Charleen Socha, Jackie Patrick and Cindy Winters. Nice work, Ladies! The Rotary Club's Bowl-a-Thon has always depended on GG's participation. Many thanks to Marcia Dupont and her group for continuing Pete and Sally Hervey's Bowl-a-Thon legacy. They recruited 20 teams, sold raffle tickets, and advertised the day. Thanks, Marcia!

Other events: Labor of Love has their delivery days three times a year. Theatre Club sponsors the Halloween Dance and does shows at Christmas and in March. The Nuggets and Women's and Men's Clubs hold a variety of events and activities each season. And did I mention Shuffle, Bocci, Cards, Ping Pong?? Golden Gate is a busy place!

Several clubs now have signs that they post around our community to remind residents about meetings and events. Terry Cross sends out emails, (thanks, Terry!) and many use the Golden Gate Facebook page. Meanwhile, our GGMCC will meet again on Thursday, October 30, 2025. All are welcome!

SHUFFLEBOARD CLUB UPDATE

With regular season teamplay completed - Golden Gate proudly hosted FUN tournaments for each of our three leagues.

On March 6 we had 25 NOVA competitors from various teams.

Rene Wehner came in 1st, with Dawn Williams 3rd in the main competition.

Shelley Wilson came in 2nd in the consolation round.

On March 14 we hosted the BLUE SKY tournament.

Frank Poirier came in 1st overall with Sue Bannister in 2nd place.

Mariann Cardello came in 2nd, Milt Webster was 4th in the consolation event.

March 25 Golden Gate hosted the SEMINOLE event with 29 players from 6 participating parks.

In the main event Ray Barr placed 1st, with Rich Murphy coming in a close 2nd and Milt Webster 4th place.

Randy Purcell came in 1st in the consolation round.

Congratulations to ALL the deserving winners. Special recognition and thanks to Bill Fournier, with Roberta of course, for convening both the Nova and Seminole events. It takes plenty of skillful planning and organization to be so successful. Well done indeed Bill!

It deserves mention that players from other parks rave about the condition of our shuffleboard facility - very suitable in all types of weather. It has taken plenty of resources over the years but we should certainly be proud of the results. Come on out and experience the FUN on our shuffle courts.

With team events over with, the FUN continues each and every week.

HORSECOLLAR on Tuesday and Saturday at 10. Arrive early with 50 cents.

Regular or doubles will carry on Thursdays also at 10.

Stay tuned for updated times and events.

RHYME AND REASON

BY Donna Olander

A COMPLIMENT

“She’s such a ray of sunshine” she said to her friend, who replied
“yes, she always seems to brighten my day”
It was such a precious compliment, I CLUB RECIPE BOOK couldn’t throw away.

To be seen in that light was indeed a real gift, to give somebodies life a boost, or a lift.

“Just be yourself” they’ve told me for years.

Seeing myself as someone’s sunshine, brings me to tears.

The remarkable thing about being this way I find, is just being warm and try to be kind.

To say any more would give my heart a real grumble.

So I end this here and try to stay humble.

Memorial Day

Memorial Day is a federal holiday in the United States, observed on the last Monday of May. It honors and remembers the men and women who have died while serving in the U.S. military. Originally known as Decoration Day, it began after the Civil War to commemorate fallen soldiers by decorating their graves with flowers.

Today, Memorial Day is marked by various activities, including parades, ceremonies, and moments of remembrance. Many people visit cemeteries and memorials to pay their respects. It's also considered the unofficial start of summer, with many families enjoying barbecues, picnics, and outdoor activities.

In Englewood, Florida, you can attend the Memorial Day Wreath Laying Ceremony at Gulf Pines Memorial Park, which includes a 21-gun salute and a special guest speaker.

There are also various events and activities throughout Florida, such as concerts, festivals, and fireworks

Mother's Day

Mother's Day is a special occasion celebrated to honor and appreciate mothers and mother figures for their love, care, and contributions. It is observed on different dates around the world, but many countries, including the United States, celebrate it on the second Sunday in May.

The modern Mother's Day was first celebrated in the early 20th century, largely due to the efforts of Anna Jarvis, who wanted to honor her own mother and all mothers for their sacrifices. The day is often marked by giving gifts, cards, flowers, and spending quality time with mothers.

Here are some thoughtful gift ideas for Mother's Day:

1. Personalized Jewelry: A necklace or bracelet with her initials, name, or a special date engraved.
2. Spa Day: Treat her to a relaxing day at a spa or a gift basket with spa essentials for an at-home experience.
3. Custom Photo Book: Create a photo book filled with cherished memories and family photos.
4. Cooking or Baking Class: If she loves to cook or bake, a class can be a fun and enriching experience.
5. Subscription Box: There are many options, from beauty products to gourmet foods, that can be tailored to her interests.
6. Handwritten Letter: A heartfelt letter expressing your love and appreciation can be incredibly meaningful.
7. Plants or Flowers: A beautiful bouquet or a potted plant that she can nurture and enjoy.
8. Tech Gadgets: If she's into technology, consider a new tablet, e-reader, or smart home device.
9. Books: A collection of books by her favorite author or in a genre she loves.
10. Handmade Crafts: Something made by you, like a knitted scarf or a piece of artwork, adds a personal touch.

The golden rule of the home

If you want one gold rule that will fit everybody, this is it: Have nothing in your houses that you do not know to be useful or believe to be beautiful.

— William Morris

Cinco de Mayo

Cinco de Mayo, or the Fifth of May, is a celebration held on May 5th each year. It commemorates the Mexican army's victory over the French forces at the Battle of Puebla on May 5, 1862. This victory was significant because the Mexican forces were vastly outnumbered and less equipped, yet they managed to defeat a powerful European army.

While Cinco de Mayo is a relatively minor holiday in Mexico, primarily celebrated in the state of Puebla, it has become a much larger celebration in the United States. In the U.S., it is often seen as a day to celebrate Mexican culture and heritage, especially in areas with large Mexican-American populations. Festivities typically include parades, music, dancing, traditional foods, and events highlighting Mexican traditions.

Here are some popular dishes for Cinco de Mayo:

1. Tacos: Soft or crispy tortillas filled with meats, beans, cheese, and various toppings.
2. Enchiladas: Tortillas rolled around a filling and covered with a savory sauce.
3. Guacamole: A creamy dip made from avocados, lime, onions, tomatoes, and cilantro.
4. Tamales: Masa (corn dough) filled with meats, cheeses, or chilies, wrapped in corn husks, and steamed.
5. Chiles Rellenos: Poblano peppers stuffed with cheese or meat, then battered and fried.
6. Quesadillas: Tortillas filled with cheese and other ingredients, then grilled or fried.
7. Pozole: A hearty soup made with hominy, meat (usually pork), and seasoned with chili peppers and other spices.
8. Mole Poblano: A rich, dark sauce made with chocolate, chili peppers, and spices, typically served over chicken.
9. Sopes: Thick corn tortillas topped with beans, meat, cheese, lettuce, and salsa.
10. Horchata: A sweet, creamy beverage made from rice, milk, vanilla, and cinnamon.

*Why did the tortilla chip start dancing?
Because it heard the salsa!*

*What do you call a day when you eat too many tacos?
Taco 'bout a fiesta!*

Here's a charming anecdote about May:

In a small village in England, there was a long-standing tradition of celebrating May Day with a grand festival. Every year, the villagers would gather in the town square, where a tall maypole stood decorated with colorful ribbons. Children and adults alike would dance around the maypole, weaving intricate patterns with the ribbons as they moved.

One year, a young girl named Emily was chosen to be the May Queen. She was thrilled and spent weeks preparing her flower crown and practicing her speech. On the day of the festival, Emily stood proudly at the top of the hill, overlooking the village. As she was crowned with her flower wreath, she felt a sense of pride and joy that she had never experienced before.

The festival was a huge success, with laughter, music, and dancing filling the air. Emily's parents watched with tears of happiness as their daughter led the procession around the maypole. That evening, as the sun set and the bonfires were lit, Emily realized that this May Day would be a memory she would cherish forever.

This story captures the essence of May Day celebrations—community, joy, and the beauty of spring.

Here are some famous May festivals around the world:

1. Cannes Film Festival (France): Held from May 13-24, this prestigious film festival showcases new films of all genres and is attended by celebrities and filmmakers from around the globe.
2. Vivid Sydney (Australia): Running from May 23 to June 14, this festival transforms Sydney with stunning light installations, music performances, and creative discussions.
3. Bergen International Festival (Norway): From May 21 to June 4, this festival celebrates music, theatre, and dance, making it the largest arts festival in the Nordic countries.
4. Hamamatsu Festival (Japan): Held from May 3-5, this festival features kite flying and traditional music to celebrate the birth of firstborn sons.
5. Cinco de Mayo (Mexico and USA): Celebrated on May 5, this day commemorates the Mexican army's victory at the Battle of Puebla and is marked with parades, music, and traditional foods.
6. Florence Nightingale's Birthday (UK): Celebrated on May 12, this day honors the founder of modern nursing with various events and activities.
7. Memorial Day (USA): Observed on the last Monday of May, this day honors fallen military personnel with parades, ceremonies, and family gatherings.

These festivals offer a glimpse into the diverse cultural celebrations that take place in May.
