Tail-Wagging Treasure of Honeymoon Park

Honeymoon Park is full of fabulous furry friends, and this month we're rolling out the red carpet for our Pet of the Month: Brody Bear!

Brody is a sweet and lovable 14-year-old Yorkshire Terrier who lives at Lot #70 with his proud mom & dad, Sue & Mack Petty. Don't let his small size fool you, this little guy has a BIG personality! He was the tiniest pup in his litter, but the moment he laid eyes on Sue & Mack, he knew he'd hit the jackpot with his forever family.

Brody's days are filled with the things he loves most: chasing after his favorite ball, cruising around in the golf cart, enjoying leisurely strolls, and—of course—indulging in his ultimate guilty pleasure: ice cream!

He also adores his sister Scarlett and never turns down cuddles or attention from the Honeymoon Park crew. With his lovable charm and puppy-dog eyes, Brody has stolen all our hearts!

Way to go, Brody Bear—you're paws-itively perfect! 🐾🍦❤️

Community ★ Super Star ★ of the Month

Chris Cook – A True Honeymoon Park Superstar!

At Honeymoon Park, we're lucky to have many wonderful residents, but today we want to shine the spotlight on someone who truly goes above and beyond: Chris Cook — with the help and support from her husband, Jim.

Chris is the heart and soul of so many activities here in the park. Whether she's leading chair aerobics, playing a competitive hand of cribbage, or organizing one of our delicious pancake breakfasts, she brings energy, enthusiasm, and a huge smile to everything she does.

She's also an active and dedicated board member, always stepping up to help make Honeymoon Park the special place it is. From cleaning the kitchen to putting together celebrations like our Memorial Day party, Chris never hesitates to lend a hand or pitch in wherever help is needed.

But if there's one event that Chris is famous for, it's her Legendary St. Patrick's Day Celebration. Every year, she cooks and serves the most delicious, corned beef in town — a highlight that the whole community looks forward to!

Chris Cook truly embodies the spirit of Honeymoon Park: kind, welcoming, cheerful, and always ready to help. So next time you see her around, don't forget to give her heartfelt thank you for all that she does. Chris, you are truly one of our community superstars, and we are so grateful to you!

If you know someone who deserves to be recognized as a Honeymoon Park Superstar, please email a photo and a little description of all they do to Tracey at tgariano14@yahoo.com. We'd love to spotlight them!*

Celebration of Life

Donna K. Hill

WITH DEEPEST

With heavy hearts, the residents of Honeymoon Park gathered to say a final goodbye to a cherished friend and neighbor. A moving Celebration of Life was recently held in honor of our beloved Donna Hill, who had long been a familiar and welcoming presence at Lot 108 on 3rd Street.

Donna passed away several months ago in her hometown in Missouri, leaving behind a deep sense of loss for both her Honeymoon Park community and her loving family back home. Her warmth, kindness, and vibrant spirit touched everyone she met, and her absence is felt each and every day.

Donna was not only a loyal friend and caring neighbor, but also a passionate Kansas City Chiefs fan. Whether it was a big playoff game or a regular season matchup, you could count on Donna to be cheering on her team with unwavering enthusiasm, proudly sporting her red and gold. Her love for the Chiefs was just one of the many things that brought her joy and connected her to those around her.

Though Donna may no longer be with us in person, her memory continues to shine brightly in the hearts of those who knew and loved her. She will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.

Honeymoon MHP Public Service Announcements

Park Management and Residents say “SLOW DOWN”

No Fireworks in the Park

- Due to the 4th of July approaching, we want to remind everyone fireworks are strictly prohibited anywhere in the park.

Golf cart travel and parking at Publix

- Park in unmarked, general parking spaces, as a car would park.
- The exception to the above rule would be to park in a handicapped space ONLY if displaying a valid, current Handicapped placard.
- Under no circumstances should anyone park in the cleared spaces adjoining a handicapped spot. These spaces are intended as clearance for handicapped persons to enter/exit a vehicle using their handicapped equipment.
- Pinellas County Sheriff's Office personnel have been observed checking for any violations of the above guidelines. Hopefully our present permission to drive our golf carts there won't ever be discontinued due to violations.

Attention dog owners

- Residents shouldn't have to remind you about your dogs waste at their homes. Please have your pets relieve themselves at your property or the designated area in the park. Thank you!

New Resident Spotlight

Welcome, Doug and Shelli, Lot#225 to Honeymoon Park! Doug and Shelli's love story began in 7th grade, and after starting to date in high school, they celebrated 41 years of marriage in April. They are the proud parents of two grown daughters and enjoy spending time with their wonderful sons-in-law and many grandchildren in Charlotte, NC. Their grandchildren bring endless joy to their lives, and family time is their greatest treasure.

As huge soccer fans, Doug and Shelli follow the US Men's and Women's National Teams, the English Premier League, and support Charlotte FC in MLS. Shelli is also a dedicated Carolina Panthers fan, while Doug enjoys cheering for his favorite teams, especially when his fantasy football players are on top!

Doug and Shelli first visited Dunedin in April 2022 and immediately knew they wanted to make it their second home. They love riding bikes on the Pinellas Trail, relaxing on Honeymoon Beach, and enjoy camping, hiking, working out, and traveling. Live music is a big part of their lives, and they appreciate the music scene in Dunedin, Ozona, and Palm Harbor.

They found their perfect spot in Honeymoon Park, drawn to the welcoming 55+ community, easy access to the trail, and the ability to drive their golf cart around town. Welcome to your new home, Doug and Shelli! We're so glad to have you here.
