Anecdotes

Fireworks and Friendship

“When I was 10, my family went to a Fourth of July fireworks show at the local park. I got separated from my parents in the crowd and started to panic. A kind older couple noticed and stayed with me until we found my family. Every year since, we’ve met at the same spot to watch the fireworks together. They became like honorary grandparents to me.”

The Great Watermelon Contest

“One July, our neighborhood held a watermelon-eating contest. My little brother, who was 6 at the time, entered just for fun. He didn’t win, but he made everyone laugh by wearing a watermelon helmet he carved himself. It became a tradition—now every year, someone shows up in a watermelon hat!”

The Picnic That Wasn’t

“We planned a perfect July picnic—blanket, sandwiches, lemonade, the works. Just as we sat down, a sudden summer storm rolled in. We ended up eating in the car, soaked and laughing. It wasn’t the picnic we planned, but it’s the one we still talk about every year.”

A Dog’s First Fourth

“Our rescue dog, Max, had never experienced fireworks before. On his first Fourth of July, he was terrified — until he realized he could sit in my lap and get belly rubs the whole time. Now, every year, he climbs into my lap as soon as the first firework pops.”

Grandma’s Garden

“Every July, my grandmother’s sunflowers would bloom taller than me. She’d take a picture of me standing next to them each year. When she passed, I planted sunflowers in her honor. Now, every July, I take a photo with them and feel like she’s still with me.”

SCAM

Family Scams

Scammers are good at pretending to be someone that they're not. They try to trick you into thinking a loved one is in trouble.

Once the scammer makes you think they're your grandson and in trouble, they pressure you to quickly send them money. But it's all a scam.

Your family member was never in trouble.

- The scammer will say it's urgent and that you're the only one who can help.
- The scammer might tell you it's important to keep it secret. They don't want you talking to other family members and friends and realizing it's a scam.
- The scammers will play with your emotions. They're counting on you to act quickly to help your family or friend. And they're counting on you to pay without stopping to check out whether there's really an emergency. If you get a call like this, you can be sure this is a scam.

Slow down. Verify.

Example of a Family Emergency Scam Call

Hi Grandpa, it's me.

Sebastian? Is that you?

Yes, it's me, Sebastian. Grandpa, I'm in trouble, and I need money for bail.

What happened?

Please don't tell Mom or Dad. I'll get in so much trouble.

Please help me!

The source of true power

One night after a boxing match, Howard Cosell, the world-famous sports commentator, and a friend were making their way back to their hotel room via a chauffeur driven limousine. While being driven by an alley, Cosell and his friend saw a crowd of young people whooping it up as two boys punched and kicked each other.

“Pull over,” Howard said to the driver.

“I’m sorry, but this is not a safe neighborhood!” said the chauffeur.

But Cosell was adamant, “Pull this limo over NOW!” he commanded.

Before the driver was able to get the car to a full stop, Cosell had the door open and was out on the street striding over to the gang of teens. And then Cosell did something truly unexpected. He did not try to break the fight up as the onlookers had assumed he was going to do. Instead, he started calling the fight.

In only minutes the fight broke up and the teens gathered round the famous sports announcer. Cosell handed out autographs and talked to the young people about what it meant to be a real man—instead of a punk.

When Cosell got back into the limo, the driver turned back and asked, “How did you do that?”

Cosell answered simply: “Because dear lady ... I know who I am.”

— adapted from YogaTeacher.com (originally retold from a TV interview)

A lesson in asking advice

One day a young man was going out of his village to visit a neighboring village that he had never traveled to before. As he made his way out of town, he noticed the village wise man sitting in his usual spot meditating.

The young man decided to ask him how long it would take him to get to the neighboring village. He stopped in front of the wise old man and said, “Oh, wise one, how long will it take me to get to the neighboring village?”

The wise man opened his eyes but said nothing. And so the young man asked once again, “Please, wise one, could you tell me how long it will take to get to the neighboring village?”

Again the wise man said nothing and continued to meditate. This angered the young man who said in a fit of frustration, “Please, wise one, I am in a hurry. Tell me how long it will take me to reach the neighboring village?”

Still the wise man refused to answer.

Disgusted, the young man tromped away toward the neighboring village. After he had taken a few steps the old man called out, “It will take you between five and six hours.”

Curious, the young man stopped and asked. “Wise one, why would you not answer my questions before? I asked you three times how long the journey would take.”

The wise man answered, “How would I know how long it would take you to get there if I did not know how fast you could walk?”

The moral: When you ask someone a question you should ask yourself if that person has all the information necessary to answer with accuracy. — adapted from the Heart N Soul Ezine as originally narrated by Khoo Chong Kok

Hurricane Season is June 1st to November 30th

Make a plan today. Your family may not be together if a disaster strikes, so it is important to know which types of disasters could affect your area. Know how you'll contact one another and reconnect if separated. Establish a family meeting place that's familiar and easy to find.

Make A Family Plan

Step 1: Put together a plan by discussing these 4 questions with your family, friends, or household to start your emergency plan.

How will I receive emergency alerts and warnings?
What is my shelter plan?
What is my evacuation route?
What is my family/household communication plan?

Step 2: Consider specific needs in your household. As you prepare your plan tailor your plans and supplies to your specific daily living needs and responsibilities. Discuss your needs and responsibilities and how people in the network can assist each other with communication, care of children, business, pets, or specific needs like the operation of durable medical equipment. Create your own personal network for specific areas where you need assistance.

Step 3: Create an Emergency Plan

Step 4: Practice your plan with your family/household

You can download the Make a Plan Form | Ready.gov.

Independence Day

The Fourth of July, also known as Independence Day, is a major national holiday in the United States, celebrated every year on July 4th. It commemorates the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, when the thirteen American colonies declared their independence from British rule.

Historical Background

On July 4, 1776, the Continental Congress formally adopted the Declaration of Independence, primarily authored by Thomas Jefferson.

This marked the birth of the United States of America as a sovereign nation.

The document emphasized principles like liberty, equality, and the right to self-governance.

How It's Celebrated

The Fourth of July is known for its patriotic displays and festive atmosphere. Common traditions include:

Fireworks: A symbol of celebration and freedom, often held in parks, cities, and waterfronts.

Parades: Featuring marching bands, veterans, floats, and local organizations.

Barbecues and Picnics: Families and friends gather for grilled food, watermelon, and summer treats.

Concerts and Festivals: Many cities host live music, fairs, and community events.

Wearing Red, White, and Blue: People dress in the colors of the American flag.

Reading the Declaration of Independence: Some communities and schools hold readings or reenactments.

Symbols of the Day

- American Flag
- Bald Eagle
- Statue of Liberty
- Fireworks and Sparklers
- Patriotic Music like “The Star-Spangled Banner” and “America the Beautiful”

“Liberty is the breath of life to nations.”

— George Bernard Shaw

“Freedom is never more than one generation away from extinction.”

— Ronald Reagan

“Those who deny freedom to others deserve it not for themselves.”

— Abraham Lincoln
