NEW TOWING COMPANY AND EXPECTATIONS

Notification to park members via email June 13, 2025 from Robert Patrick, Community Association Manager

This is to inform you that we have hired a new Towing company that will begin services on July 1st. They will be looking for vehicles parked on the grass, cars parked on empty lots and vehicles parked on the street between 11pm to 6am. These will be immediate towable violations. They have been instructed not to tow anyone that is slightly parked on the grass by a tire length or less, but if your vehicle is parked totally on the grass, they will tow your vehicle. Make sure your vehicles are registered and have a license plate up to date.

Parking at the clubhouse and laundry facility for overnight parking spaces is still permissible, but you will need to get a signed and dated parking pass from the office prior to parking a vehicle there.

As per the state of Florida, any time your car is towed, there will be an immediate lien put on your vehicle at the sum of $250.00. This does not include the tow price and/or storage fees. So, the total cost of your vehicle being towed could be as high as $500 or more.

If your vehicle is towed, I will have the ability to look at pictures on their website for validation of the tow.

To avoid having your vehicle towed, please make sure you are parked in compliance with the Rules and Regulations and posted notices.

OUR GATEWAY COMMUNITY

Peter Soehnen

As part of the NewsNDos monthly magazine ‘team’ I typically take part in receiving and distributing to other residents who perform the actual delivery to each home each month. This past month virtually all the delivery persons and myself were away from Gateway. As you are aware your July magazine did arrive and I wish to thank Cheryl Williams and her husband Mike Daniels for their efforts in performing this task.

GHA Homeowners Association of Pinellas County, Inc.

Matt Soehnnlen, President

The first GHA meeting of the 2025-2026 season will be held TUESDAY, September 9, 2025, at 7 pm in the laundry room.

The September meeting is scheduled for Tuesday to avoid conflict with the observation of the Labor Day Holiday and extended vacations. The date change will be reflected in the September calendar. Thank you in advance for your understanding.

Subsequent GHA meetings will be held on the 1st Monday of the month unless otherwise notified.

SUMMER BOOK READ

Cindy Taylor, Editor

We continue the adventure of the Summer Book Read activity and again several members of the Gateway Community have shared the books they have read or are reading this summer. With their permission the books that are entertaining your neighbors are:

The Midnight Library by Matt Haig. I absolutely LOVED the book. Somewhere out beyond the edge of the universe there is a library that contains an infinite number of books, each one the story of another reality. One tells the story of your life as it is, along with another book for the other life you could have lived if you had made a different choice at any point in your life. While we all wonder how our lives might have been, what if you had the chance to go to the library and see for yourself? Would any of these other lives truly be better? Very thought-provoking!!! - MIKE TARBET

I'm currently reading Change of Heart by Jodi Piccoult. Piccoult does a great job of relating events through multiple characters' points of view so that the reader is challenged to reconsider preconceived ideas, or to at least become more understanding of the events that drive others' choices. I love that about her novels! - MICHELLE JOHNSON

I just started "Free Ride: Heartbreak, Courage, and the 20,000-mile Motorcycle Journey that Changed My Life" by Noraly Schoenmaker. It's a nonfiction account of the author's transcontinental motorcycle ride. - KATHRYN NEGRI

I've completed 2.5 books, and as with any other reader, have 3 in process!
ebook from Pinellas: "Strange Pictures," by Uketsu - can't-put-down Japanese detective fiction. I think I gained skills!
audiobook "Home," by Toni Morrison: bittersweet homecoming for WWII vet; mesmerizing to hear author give voice to her characters.

SCAM

Identity Theft

Warning signs of identity theft

- Bills for items you did not buy
- Debt collection calls for accounts you did not open
- Information on your credit report for accounts you did not open
- Denials of loan applications
- Mail stops coming to, or is missing from, your mailbox

How to report identity theft

To report identity theft, contact:

- The Federal Trade Commission (FTC) online at IdentityTheft.gov or call 1-877-438-4338
- The three major credit reporting agencies. Ask them to place fraud alerts and a credit freeze on your accounts.
- The fraud department at your credit card issuers, bank, and other places where you have accounts

How to protect yourself from identity theft

- Do not answer phone calls, texts, social media messages, or email from numbers or people you do not know.
- Do not share personal information like your bank account number, Social Security number, or date of birth.
- Collect your mail every day and place a hold on your mail when you will be on vacation or away from your home.
- Review credit card and bank account statements. Watch for and report unauthorized or suspicious transactions.
- Understand how ATM skimming works and how to protect yourself
- Learn when it is safe to use a public Wi-Fi network
- Store personal information, including your Social Security card, in a safe place. Do not carry it in your wallet.

Imposter Scam

The top types of imposter scams:

An imposter scammer may call, text, or email to convince you they are someone in authority. They may even use caller ID to make it look like they are calling from an official government or business' number. To commit identity theft, they try to get you to send money or a gift card or share personal information.

- Government imposter scams - Unless you contact them first, government agencies typically initiate communication with you by letter. Unexpected contact or demands through any other method may be a scam.
- IRS imposter scams - scammers pretend you owe the IRS money for taxes and may threaten legal action
- Social Security imposter scams - scammers claim there is a problem with your Social Security account or promise to increase your benefits
- Charity scams - scammers pretend to be from a real or fake charity and try to get you to contribute
- Grandparent scams - scammers pretend to be a grandchild or other relative who needs emergency financial help
- Tech support scams - scammers tell you your computer's security is at risk and try to remotely access your device and steal personal information or ask for payment
- Scammers may also pretend to be from your bank or a company you do business with. You might be told you owe money or there is a problem with your account.

Hurricane Preparedness

Cindy Taylor, Editor

We all hope that the hurricane season will be gentle to our community this year. We have new neighbors in Gateway therefore the hurricane preparedness information is going to remain as a recurring article this hurricane season. Let's all be prepared!

Pinellas County has an extensive 20 page, multi language preparedness guide which you can access at <https://pinellas.gov/hurricane-guide/> Pinellas County also has a mobile app in English and Spanish: Personalize emergency plans, use checklists, save insurance information, contacts, inventory and more. Emergency notifications will be sent to your phone when possible. Printed copies of the Pinellas County Hurricane Guide are available at: Pinellas County libraries Municipal buildings, Pinellas County offices Lealman Exchange, 5175 45th St. N., St. Petersburg. Open Monday – Friday 8 a.m. – 5 p.m. The Centre, 1500 16 St., Palm Harbor. Open Monday-Thursday 8 a.m. – 8 p.m., Friday 8 a.m. – 4:30 p.m. and Saturday 10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Below is a sneak peak of the hurricane guide.

The time is now to learn about your risks, make a plan, and be ready to take action in time to be safe

This Hurricane Guide will help you prepare and know what to expect before, during and after a hurricane.

READY: WE ARE AT RISK

Storm impacts can extend far outside of the forecast cone. Know what actions to take based on your risks.

GATEWAY MEMORIAL SERVICE

Peter Soehnlén

The Memorial Service for current and former residents who have passed away will be held the 4 th Sunday in January of 2026. As of the end of May I have a listing of 16 individuals known to have passed away who will be memorialized.

They are: Russ Arsenault, Winnifred Farquhar, Anne Flaherty, Elise Freeman, Jennie Hammond, Richard Harmon, Robert Harris, Mary Jane Jackson, Betty Kennedy, Corey Koeppen, Barb Koubeck, Joseph Lopez, Teri Mikoloski, Thomas Mills, Paul Sink and Kathleen Soehnlén.

Anyone knowing of someone who should be recognized at this service please text message Peter Soehnlén at 727-269-9569 or email at GAOnews@tampabay.rr.com with the name and any pertinent information you might have. It is important to understand you should not rely on the thought that someone else may report that someone you are aware of has died. We would much rather be told several times than neglect to have them mentioned.

REMINDER - HOW TO SURVIVE THE HOT DAYS OF SUMMER!

To stay cool during hot weather, prioritize hydration by drinking plenty of fluids, especially water, and consider eating water-rich foods like fruits and vegetables. Limit strenuous physical activity during the hottest parts of the day and seek shade when outdoors. Dress in loose-fitting, light-colored clothing and use fans to encourage airflow. Taking cool showers or baths, especially before bed, can help regulate body temperature.

Detailed Tips for Staying Cool:

Hydration is key:

Drink plenty of water throughout the day, even if you don't feel thirsty. Consider water-rich foods like fruits and vegetables.

Seek shade:

If you need to be outside, find shaded areas to rest and avoid direct sunlight, especially during peak heat hours.

Limit strenuous activity:

Avoid intense physical exertion during the hottest parts of the day. If you must be active, do so in the cooler hours or take frequent breaks in shaded areas.

Wear appropriate clothing:

Choose loose-fitting, lightweight, and light-colored clothing to help your body stay cooler.

Use fans:

Fans can help circulate air and create a cooling breeze, especially when used in conjunction with open windows.

Cool showers or baths:

Taking a cool shower or bath can help lower your body temperature, particularly before bed.

Keep your home cool:

Close curtains and blinds during the day to block out sunlight and open windows at night to let in cooler air.

Be mindful of others:

Check on family members, neighbors, and pets to ensure they are staying cool and hydrated.

Know the risks:

Be aware of the signs of heat-related illnesses like heat cramps, heat exhaustion, and heat stroke, and seek medical attention if needed.

Consider a cool compress:

Applying a cool, damp cloth to your neck or forehead can provide quick relief.

Eat light meals:

Lighter meals can help your body stay cooler than heavier, richer foods, according to the Red Cross.

Stay inside during peak heat:

If possible, avoid being outside during the hottest parts of the day.

Use a fan to enhance airflow:

Open windows on opposite sides of your home to encourage airflow.

Seek medical care if you feel affected by the heat.

STAY SAFE & COOL FRIENDS!

GATEWAY COMMUNITY DIRECTORY

Peter Soehnlen

Each year in association with Gateway Activities and Homeowners Associations there is published a Directory of Park Residents. On average there are about 15 – 20 new arrivals to the Gateway community each year. This year as a result of our storms the number is significantly greater. I had hoped to contact all the new residents to obtain verification prior to including your names and addresses. I have been able to for some but not all.

New Residents - Your inclusion in the Directory is voluntary and should you wish to be included in the 2026 directory please contact Peter Soehnlen at 10402 1 st Street or 727-269-9569 for Details.

The 2025 Gateway Directories were delivered along with the May issue of NewsNDos. As you will note, Pinewood Village information was not included. There are a limited number of the new Directories available should your copy be lost or eaten by a pet.
