Weather Event Safety Month

We are currently in hurricane season, and the safety of our residents remains our highest priority. Preparedness is a collective effort that requires the involvement of our entire community. We encourage everyone to have a comprehensive plan in place. Smaller items can easily become hazardous projectiles during severe weather, so we kindly ask that you secure all belongings in your shed when a severe weather alert is issued. Thank you for your cooperation in keeping our community safe. Additional information and materials available at the community office.

Home of the Month

Our home of the month starts again in September. If your home and yard look great you may be elected the monthly winner. We understand it takes work and we thank everyone's effort

Trash Compactor Woes

Recently our trash compactor took a holiday. Mostly because patrons neglect to follow the operational rules.

Please, for everyone's convenience, only dispose small yard debris and bagged household trash. Items like furniture, carpet, construction materials, office equipment cause the compactor to fail.

Larger Items can easily be disposed just 4 miles away here:

August Fun Facts & Recipes

The month of August is named after the Roman Emperor Augustus. Originally, the month was called "Sextilis" in Latin, meaning "sixth" month, as it was the sixth month in the original ten-month Roman calendar. In 8 BC, the Roman Senate renamed it "Augustus" to honor the emperor, according to Wikipedia. This was done in recognition of Augustus's many triumphs and his association with the month, including the conquest of Egypt and other significant events, according to Wikipedia. The name August originates from the Latin word "augustus," meaning "venerable," "majestic," or "exalted".

Recipe Mesopotamian Stew (c. 1730 BCE):

These recipes are inscribed on cuneiform tablets from the Yale Culinary Tablets, dating back to approximately 1730 BCE. They provide insight into the culinary practices of ancient Mesopotamia, demonstrating their sophisticated understanding of cooking.

It is important to note that these recipes were not discovered in August, but rather represent some of the earliest recorded culinary practices from a time when August was a part of the calendar year.

Ancient Mesopotamian Stew (c. 1730 BCE) - Tuh'u (A Modern Adaptation)

This recipe is based on interpretations of one of the oldest known recipes, originating from ancient Babylonian clay tablets. While the original tablets provided basic instructions, modern cooks have adapted them for contemporary kitchens.

Ingredients:

Lamb or goat meat. Sesame or olive oil. Onion, beets, arugula, cilantro
Shallot, leek (Persian and Egyptian varieties if possible)
Garlic, cumin, salt, black pepper (long pepper is more authentic)
Beer (unfiltered wheat or sour barley preferred), water
Optional: barley grains, pomegranate molasses or dates

Instructions:

1. Heat oil in a pot and sear the seasoned meat.
2. Add onion, shallot, and leek and cook until softened.
3. Stir in beets, arugula, cilantro, garlic, and cumin and cook until moisture evaporates.
4. Pour in beer and water, stir, and bring to a boil.
5. (Optional) Add pomegranate molasses or dates.
6. Reduce heat, cover partially, and simmer until the sauce thickens and meat is tender (about 1 hour).
7. (Optional) Prepare garnish by pounding kurrat and cilantro into a paste.
8. Serve stew with crushed coriander seeds and the kurrat/cilantro paste if using.
9. Consider serving with sides like steamed bulgur, boiled chickpeas, or naan bread, as suggested by Lapham's Quarterly.

Notes:

This is a modern interpretation of a 4,000-year-old dish.

Some ingredient translations from Akkadian are uncertain.

For more authenticity, use lamb or goat meat, animal fat instead of oil, long pepper, and sour barley beer.

The stew is said to improve in flavor the next day.

Did You Know?

More babies are born on September 9th than any other day out of the year, and babies born in September supposedly excel more in school and sports when compared to others. The later birthday leads to them being considerably older, giving them a slight competitive, and scholarly edge against their peers

August Heat

Why did the sun go to school in August?
Because it wanted to be a little brighter before fall!

It's so hot in August...

I saw a squirrel fanning his nuts.

Why don't people tell secrets in August?

Because the heat makes everything leak!

What's the best way to enjoy August heat?

From inside an air-conditioned room with ice cream in hand!

You know it's August when...

You open the car door and feel like you've entered a pizza oven.

Why did the popsicle break up with August?

Because it couldn't handle the heat of the relationship!

What's August's favorite type of music?

Anything with a cool beat!

Why did the air conditioner break up with August?

Because it couldn't handle the pressure of a hot relationship!

What do you call a lazy breeze in August?

A fan with commitment issues!

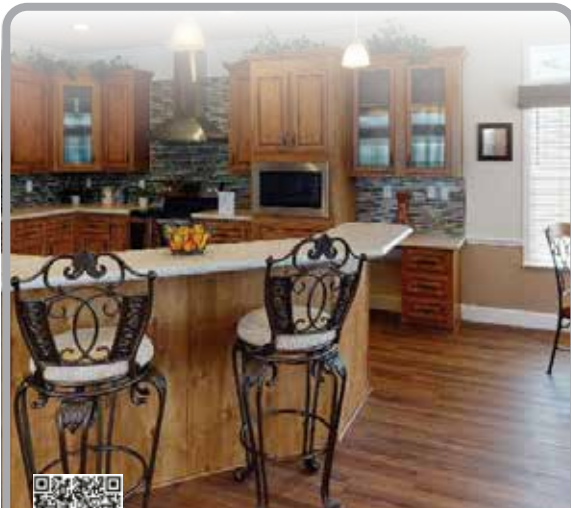

"If you can't stand the heat, get out of the sunscreen."
— Unknown

"I need six months of vacation, twice a year."
— Unknown

"Deep summer is when laziness finds respectability."
— Sam Keen

World Elephant Day

Celebrated every year on August 12, is a global initiative dedicated to the preservation and protection of elephants—both African and Asian species.

Origins and Purpose

- Founded in 2012 by Canadian filmmaker Patricia Sims and the Elephant Reintroduction Foundation in Thailand.
- Created to raise awareness about the urgent threats elephants face, including:
 - Poaching for ivory
 - Habitat loss
 - Human-elephant conflict
 - Mistreatment in captivity

Why It Matters

- African elephants are listed as Vulnerable, and Asian elephants as Endangered on the IUCN Red List.
- The global elephant population has declined drastically due to illegal wildlife trade and shrinking habitats.
- Elephants are admired for their intelligence, empathy, and strong social bonds, making their protection a moral and ecological priority.

How People Participate

- Educational events and documentary screenings (like Return to the Forest and When Elephants Were Young).
- Sanctuary visits and virtual tours that promote ethical elephant experiences.
- Social media campaigns to spread awareness and support conservation efforts.
- Fundraising for organizations that rescue and rehabilitate elephants.
