MANAGER'S CORNER

By: Victoria Greenwood
November 1, 2025

HOME MAINTENANCE

Flower Beds and Trimming are the focus for November. Please take a look at yours and see if it needs to be weeded and trimmed. We also check for other home issues. With your help we can keep Sugar Creek looking its best. As always, letters will be sent out if you don't comply. Thank you for your diligence in this matter.

BBQ

The owners of the park are hosting our annual BBQ (Sonny's BBQ), on Thursday, November 13th from 6:00pm-7:30pm. This is a good time to come to the clubhouse and meet some new people, chat with your neighbors and eat some great food. The sign-up sheet will be in the clubhouse on the board until November 6. There is seating for 104 people inside. If you cannot make it to the clubhouse to sign up, please give the office a call and we can sign up for you. If you sign up and cannot make it, please let us know, so someone else can have your seat. This event is free to all residents of Sugar Creek.

RETURNING HOME

Many of our residents will be returning this month so we would like to take the opportunity to say, "Welcome Back." Please don't forget to notify the office upon your return. We are looking forward to your arrival.

HOLIDAYS

The holidays are approaching fast, and we are glad to see more functions happening. We would like to thank the Social Club for putting on the Thanksgiving Dinner for the residents of Sugar Creek. The Park owners are glad to donate money for the turkeys every year to continue this ongoing event. Also, the Social Club has many other fun events and games that are open to all, so come on down, join the fun!

HOME SALES

If you know of anyone wanting to purchase a home, now is the time to have them call the office and see all the options.

Current residents that refer someone who purchases a home from Sugar Creek's sales team will receive a $250.00 referral check after closing!

Are you considering selling your home? Give Daniel or Vicki a call or stop in the office and we will use the resources at our fingertips to sell your home as quickly as possible. 727-586-2002.

THE OFFICE WILL BE CLOSED NOVEMBER 27 & 28TH.
GARBAGE PICKUP WILL BE ON FRIDAY NOVEMBER 28TH
HAVE A SAFE THANKSGIVING DAY AND WEEKEND!

SUGAR CREEK MANUFACTURED HOMEOWNERS' ASSOCIATION

Another year is coming to an end and the HOA will be looking for volunteers from the community to fill the HOA Board Member positions, including the President. Please contact one of the existing Board members if you are interested.

Two of our Board members will be starting a membership drive shortly. If you are not currently a member, please consider joining when you are contacted.

I look forward to seeing all of you when I return in November.

Thank you, Philip Hough, President

SUGAR CREEK SOCIAL CLUB PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome November. Looking forward to the cooler weather.
Reminder Day Light Savings time ends on Sunday November 2nd. So, make sure to turn your clocks back Saturday night before going to bed.

At the September meeting it was decided not to host a Veteran's Day Ceremony/Luncheon on Wednesday, November 11. Many of the organizations around us will be hosting ceremonies & events that day that you may wish to attend. We still would like to take a moment and thank all those who have served and continue to serve.

Please plan on joining us for the Social Club Meeting on Monday, November 3 at 6:30pm.

We will have our Community Thanksgiving Dinner on Saturday, November 15th at 5pm (doors open at 4:30). There is a sign-up sheet on the board for both attendance and for the side dishes/desserts. We are requesting no more than 4 of each dish. We are asking that everyone sign up by Wednesday, November 6th so we allow enough time to get the Turkeys. Cindy Kusuplos is the point person for this event.

We have been having a problem with the trust system that we have always done with the soda and water at the Clubhouse. Within the last month we were short at least $20 in soda monies. It was decided at October's meeting to discontinue this program. We will still have soda available during events, but will no longer have soda available for purchase on a daily basis starting by the end of October.

If you would like to be added to the weekly message regarding the events and activities, please email me at Debrmccclain@aol.com please include your name and house number.

Thanks, Debbie

SUGAR CREEK LIBRARY

Happy Fall to us all! Fall is a great time to visit our library for some serious reading. Ignore the hurricane season by stopping by and picking up a few books kindly donated by friends and neighbors. New books and newer writers come in weekly. Take as many as you want and return to the basket provided. Happy reading!

JUST FOR LAUGHS

I got so fed up with trick or treaters at Halloween, that I finally turned off all the lights and pretended I wasn't in. My lighthouse.....my rules.

---

Some people ask the secret to our long marriage. It's this: We take time to go to a restaurant twice a week. A little candlelight, dinner, soft music, and a slow walk home. She goes on Tuesdays, and I go on Fridays.

College nowadays is just kidnapping done backwards. If you don't pay the school a ridiculously large amount of money, we'll send your child back.

DISTRIBUTION MANAGER:

Welcome Home to all. Glad to see The Creek filling up with neighbors & friends. Make sure you get your Monthly Media delivered, put up a clip or basket in your carport. It's time to check your clips, I've noticed some of them no longer work & need to be replaced. Don't forget to check the calendar for all events & activities.

Have a Great Month, Kate McGettigan

KITCHEN:

See anything that's running low? Please add it to the list on the fridge. Need anything special for an event or activity you are hosting, also add to list on fridge with your name & event. Anything you are leaving in the fridge, please check it for freshness & dispose of it if needed.

Thanks everyone, Kate McGettigan

Monthly

november

American Diabetes Month. In the United States, 23.6 million people have diabetes—children and adults. That's 7.8 percent of the population. For years, the American Diabetes Association has used this month as an opportunity to communicate the seriousness of diabetes and the importance of diabetes prevention and control.

Epilepsy Awareness Month. More than 3 million people in the United States have epilepsy, and 200,000 new cases develop each year. The purposes of Epilepsy Awareness Month are to dispel common myths about the disorder, promote public awareness, and inform people with seizure disorders and their families about service programs and informational resources.

National American Indian Heritage Month. To honor the original inhabitants of North America and recognize the contributions American Indian and native Alaskan peoples have made to the U.S.

Peanut Butter Lovers' Month. Peanut butter is one of America's favorite foods, and it's found in about 75 percent of American homes. For more information and ideas, browse www.peanutbutterlovers.com.

Vegan Month. Just about every food made from dairy products or eggs has an animal-friendly alternative, with products easily available in shops and supermarkets. Go to www.veganmonth.com for information and ideas on cutting meat and other animal products out of your diet.

Weekly

National Animal Shelter Appreciation Week, Nov. 7-13. Sponsored by the Humane Society of the United States in 1996 to acknowledge and promote the invaluable role shelters play in their communities, and to increase public awareness of animal welfare issues and shelter services.

Kids Goal Setting Week, Nov. 9-12. The driving force behind National Kids Goal Setting Week is to give the parents, teachers, and coaches of the world some practical suggestions and ideas to help children set goals that will equip them to lead a life full of meaning and direction. For more information browse: www.goalsguy.com.

Geography Awareness Week, Nov. 14-20. Launched in 1987, Geography Awareness Week promotes the importance of geography education in the United States. Its goals: to draw attention to what geography is, why it is important, and how American citizens can ensure access to a robust geography education that prepares them to participate in global social and economic activities and to make decisions regarding people, places, and environments.

National Games and Puzzles Week, Nov. 21-27. Encouraging families and friends to spend more time together playing games, doing puzzles, challenging their brains, and having fun.

Do you belong to ‘Team Coyote’?

In their book, Beep! Beep! Competing in the Age of the Road Runner, Chip R. Bell and Oren Harari discuss the messages we can learn from one of the most recognizable pair of antagonists around: Wile E. Coyote and the Road Runner. The authors describe two different cartoons:

In one, the coyote holds a medicine bottle labeled “Acme Hi-Speed Tonic—Contains vitamins R+P+M.” When he gives a spoonful to a small mouse, the rodent zooms around at jet speed. The coyote drinks the whole bottle and zips off after the Road Runner. But the Road Runner stops suddenly, sticks out his foot, and trips Mr. Coyote.

The second cartoon begins with a close shot on a box labeled: “One Acme Jet-Propelled Pogo Stick.” Wile E. removes the pogo stick from the box, switches it on, mounts it, and waits for the Road Runner. As the Road Runner races by, Wile E. begins bouncing up and down after him. But soon the coyote loses control of the stick and falls backward over a cliff.

“What these scenes show is that you cannot remain a coyote and expect to compete against road runners by simply copying their movements,” write the authors. “Sure, the coyote can buy high-speed tonic or jet-propelled pogo sticks, but his body and soul are still coyote. If you are a coyote team or organization, no matter what fads or quick fixes you jump into, you are just imitating a road runner—and the real thing will beat you every time.”

What is a moment really worth?

On the bulletin board of a California company, someone once posted this sign to remind everyone of how time is relative—but the value of time is priceless:

- To realize the value of one year: Ask the student who has failed his final exam.
- To realize the value of one month: Ask the mother who has given birth to a premature baby.
- To realize the value of one week: Ask the editor of a weekly newspaper.
- To realize the value of one day: Ask the daily wage laborer who has 10 kids to feed.
- To realize the value of an hour: Ask the lovers who are waiting to meet.
- To realize the value of a minute: Ask the person who has missed the train, the bus, or the plane.
- To realize the value of a second: Ask the person who has survived an accident.
- To realize the value of a millisecond: Ask the person who has won a silver medal in the Olympics.

How to carve your turkey successfully

A good Thanksgiving dinner is usually about the turkey. You don't have to be a surgeon to carve one correctly, but proper carving and slicing techniques will ensure you get the most meat from your bird and enable you to present an attractive meal to your family and friends.

Follow these simple techniques for successfully carving your holiday turkey:

- Let your 10-pound-or-bigger turkey stand at room temperature for 10 to 20 minutes after cooking and before slicing. This allows the juices to distribute evenly throughout the turkey. Netting and cooking bags are also easier to remove after waiting.
- Slice or carve the turkey on a sanitized cutting surface. Knives, pans, and covers should be sanitized, too. Resanitize boards and knives every 30 minutes. Wear disposable food-handling gloves while carving or frequently wash your hands thoroughly.
- Immediately after the 10 to 20 minutes holding time, carve the turkey into major sections (i.e., breasts, thighs, drumsticks, and wings).
- To serve turkey hot, place sections in pans. Cover with foil or plastic film to retain heat and moisture and to minimize the possibility of contamination. Hold at 140° F or higher in a hot holding device (a cabinet, steam table, or bain-marie). Your turkey should be at least 140° F when placed in the holding pans. The heating device will only maintain temperature. A maximum holding time of 20 to 30 minutes is recommended.
- Slice the sections into serving pieces, arrange them on a plate, and add garnish. Enjoy!

Where do alligator shoes come from?

A lawyer from the big city was visiting Florida. He wanted to take home a pair of genuine alligator loafers in the worst way, but he was reluctant to pay the high prices the local vendors were asking.

He was certain that with all his legal training he could negotiate a better price, but at shop after shop he had no luck. After getting frustrated with one sales associate who wouldn't budge, the lawyer shouted, "Well then, maybe I'll just go out and catch my own alligator!"

The saleswoman smiled. "I'd like to see you try."

The lawyer turned on his heel and headed out toward the swamps, determined to catch an alligator.

Later in the day the saleswoman was driving home, and she spotted the lawyer standing waist deep in the murky swamp water, shotgun in hand, a huge 9-foot gator swimming rapidly toward him. The saleswoman pulled over as the lawyer took aim, shot, and killed the creature. With a great deal of effort, the lawyer hauled it onto the swamp bank—right next to four more dead alligators.

The saleswoman stood on the side of the road, watching the lawyer struggle to flip the gator on its back.

Then, looking up toward the sky in great frustration, the lawyer shouted, "No! This one is barefoot, too!"

A Teachable Moment

A kindergarten teacher was helping one of her students put his boots on. It was quite a struggle, but after a lot of pulling and pushing, they succeeded in getting one boot on, and then the other.

Then the little boy said, "But they're on the wrong feet!" The teacher looked and sure enough, he was right. Pulling the boots off wasn't any easier than putting them on was, but she managed to stay calm as they worked together to get the boots back on—this time on the right feet.

"Why are your boots so hard to get on?" she asked when they were finished.

"But these aren't my boots," the boy said.

"Why didn't you say so? Take them off." And they worked up a sweat getting the boots off again.

"Now, where are your boots?" the teacher asked.

"They're at home. These are my brother's boots. My mom made me wear them."

"OK . . ." the teacher sighed, and again they fought to get the boots back on the little boy's feet. "Now, where are your mittens?"

"I stuffed them in the toes of my boots," the little boy said.
