HOA President's UPDATES

Pam Mailloux, HOA President, 2025

Facebook page: Serendipity Homeowners Association

President's Message for NOVEMBER 2025:

Fall is halfway over. Halloween spooks have returned to their graves. Costumes have been put away for another year. Thanksgiving quickly approaches. Soon we will all enjoy a turkey dinner and all the fixings with family and close friends. Hello November! Can Christmas be far behind?

It is still hurricane season here in Florida so don't relax just yet. Keep those storm supplies current. In case evacuation orders are issued, know where you will go and how to get there. By Thanksgiving we should be in the clear. I highly recommend taking one of the newspapers put out by the Pinellas County Weather Emergency Team. There are copies in the East clubhouse

October saw an uptick in social activities here. Craft day began. Line dancing restarted along with the Ladies Luncheon, Euchre, cribbage, Bingo, dominoes, golf, bocce, corn hole, and many more. We had our first dance, a spooky Halloween costume-optional event. Dancing to the music of DJ Al kept us energized. Hopefully you are enjoying all Serendipity has to offer.

November also means it's time for taking nominations for the Board of Director's election in January. We need interested, community-minded individuals to run our HOA. There are 5 available positions. If you are interested or know someone who is, nominations will be taken at the November HOA meeting on Tuesday, November 17th. At that meeting I will discuss the particulars of submitting nominations and the process that follows. PLEASE don't give up your representation with our landlord! 2026 will be a rent negotiation year and ELS will only meet if the Board of Directors has representation on the negotiating committee.

As we go into the 2025 holiday season, I leave you with this: stay healthy (get your flu and RSV shots), stay safe, but, most of all, stay happy. Become part of your community. After all, it wouldn't be a community without YOU!

Until next month...Pam

Neighborhood Watch

Jeff McIntosh (618-841-0117)

Jeff McIntosh has been appointed as our "Neighborhood Watch Liaison" for Serendipity MHP by the HOA and Pinellas County Sheriff's Department. The responsibility in this position is to take calls from the residents of Serendipity and give weekly feedback to the park manager and the PCSO Neighborhood Watch Commander, Deputy Jessica Hughey.

If there are any problems, issues, or concerns about security in our park, please do not hesitate to call him. If it is an emergency, please dial 911.

Notes from OCTOBER 2025:

Just want to say that everything has been quiet. But keep an eye out for anything that looks suspicious. And as always keep an eye out for each other. Please know that Serendipity is a safe place.

-Jeff

Just a reminder if you see something dangerous or feel threatened, call 911. If it is just to report something suspicious, call the Sheriff's non-emergency number at (727) 582-6200. Then call the Jeff, the Park "Neighborhood Watch Liaison" (TBA) and he will note it in the daily log so that we can categorize the types of problems we are having, and the Sheriff can assign manpower to our park at times and places necessary.

REMEMBER...IF YOU SEE SOMETHING, SAY SOMETHING!

SQUASH SOUP

Ingredients:

- 1 (2 1/2-pound) butternut squash, peeled, seeded, and cut into 1-inch cubes
- 1 large (8-ounce) carrot, peeled and cut into 1-inch chunks
- 2 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil
- 7 tablespoons unsalted butter, divided
- 1 large (8-ounce) yellow onion, thinly sliced
- 4 medium cloves garlic, thinly sliced
- 4 cups homemade or store-bought low-sodium chicken or vegetable stock, plus more as needed
- 2 sprigs fresh thyme
- 1 bay leaf
- Kosher salt and freshly ground black pepper
- 3/4 cup heavy whipping cream
- 1/4 cup sour cream
- Pinch ground cinnamon
- Pinch nutmeg
- 20 fresh sage leaves

Directions:

1. Preheat oven to 425°F. Toss squash and carrot with olive oil and arrange on 2 rimmed baking sheets, being sure not to overcrowd the sheets. Roast until squash and carrot are very well browned on a couple of sides, about 40 minutes; use a thin metal spatula to turn pieces 2 or 3 times during cooking. Set aside.
2. In a large saucepan, cook 2 tablespoons butter over medium-high heat until just starting to brown. Add onion and garlic, lower heat to medium, and cook, stirring, until soft and lightly golden, about 10 minutes; lower heat as necessary to prevent burning.
3. Add squash and carrot to saucepan and remove from heat. Pour 1/2 cup stock into each baking sheet and scrape up any browned bits, then pour into saucepan. Add remaining stock, thyme sprigs, and bay leaf and return to medium-high heat. Bring to a simmer, then lower heat and simmer until vegetables are very soft, about 10 minutes. Discard thyme sprigs and bay leaf.
4. Using a high-powered blender, standard countertop blender or immersion blender, blend soup until completely smooth. Season with salt and pepper. Return soup to saucepan and thin, if necessary, with additional stock until desired consistency is reached. Keep warm.
5. Meanwhile, in a stand mixer, or using a handheld mixer or whisk, beat cream and sour cream with cinnamon, nutmeg, and a pinch of salt, until stiff. Set aside.
6. If you make frizzled sage leaves, melt remaining 5 tablespoons butter in a small skillet over medium-high heat, swirling gently, until foamy, and just beginning to brown. Add sage leaves, swirling to submerge, and cook until frizzled, about 15 seconds. Using a slotted spoon, transfer sage to a paper towel to drain. Sprinkle very lightly with salt.
7. Ladle soup into warmed bowls, spoon dollops of spiced whipped cream into each one, and top with frizzled sage, if using. Serve right away.

Of the seven tablespoons of butter, five are used for making the frizzled sage; if you decide to omit the sage, you will need only two tablespoons of butter.

Do you belong to ‘Team Coyote’?

In their book, Beep! Beep! Competing in the Age of the Road Runner, Chip R. Bell and Oren Harari discuss the messages we can learn from one of the most recognizable pair of antagonists around: Wile E. Coyote and the Road Runner. The authors describe two different cartoons:

In one, the coyote holds a medicine bottle labeled “Acme Hi-Speed Tonic—Contains vitamins R+P+M.” When he gives a spoonful to a small mouse, the rodent zooms around at jet speed. The coyote drinks the whole bottle and zips off after the Road Runner. But the Road Runner stops suddenly, sticks out his foot, and trips Mr. Coyote.

The second cartoon begins with a close shot on a box labeled: “One Acme Jet-Propelled Pogo Stick.” Wile E. removes the pogo stick from the box, switches it on, mounts it, and waits for the Road Runner. As the Road Runner races by, Wile E. begins bouncing up and down after him. But soon the coyote loses control of the stick and falls backward over a cliff.

“What these scenes show is that you cannot remain a coyote and expect to compete against road runners by simply copying their movements,” write the authors. “Sure, the coyote can buy high-speed tonic or jet-propelled pogo sticks, but his body and soul are still coyote. If you are a coyote team or organization, no matter what fads or quick fixes you jump into, you are just imitating a road runner—and the real thing will beat you every time.”

What is a moment really worth?

On the bulletin board of a California company, someone once posted this sign to remind everyone of how time is relative—but the value of time is priceless:

- To realize the value of one year: Ask the student who has failed his final exam.
- To realize the value of one month: Ask the mother who has given birth to a premature baby.
- To realize the value of one week: Ask the editor of a weekly newspaper.
- To realize the value of one day: Ask the daily wage laborer who has 10 kids to feed.
- To realize the value of an hour: Ask the lovers who are waiting to meet.
- To realize the value of a minute: Ask the person who has missed the train, the bus, or the plane.
- To realize the value of a second: Ask the person who has survived an accident.
- To realize the value of a millisecond: Ask the person who has won a silver medal in the Olympics.
