HOA BOARD MEETING HIGHLIGHTS.....March 1, 2016

All HOA Board Members were present for the March meeting, along with 12 guests. The treasurer reported a balance of $20,839.48.

In Old Business Wayne Davis read a letter from the owners of Amber Glades stating that the park is NOT for sale. The length of terms, for the Board Members, was explained. While discussing the rent increase notices that were recently sent out, a question about how the tax amount was figured came up and Wayne Davis will be checking on this.

Over the last month the By-laws were revisited by a committee of the board and brought up to date to become compliant with state laws.

The pond work scheduled for February has been delayed due to the fact that they are waiting for permits from the county.

In New Business Liz Johnson was appointed as Social Committee Chairperson. It was also discussed that several coaches do not have “park” mailboxes and this was to be discussed with Scott.

The next HOA Board Meeting will be held Tuesday – April 5, 2016.....7pm

SOCIAL COMMITTEE MEETING HIGHLIGHTS.....March 2, 2016

Barbara Lee called the meeting to order and found all committee members present. The Treasurer reported a balance of $1612.95.

During the Committee Reports, Hazel Holliday reported that the Frank and Dean show was sold out. The Sunshine Committee sent out 6 cards in February and the Welcoming Committee reported 3 new move-ins.

In New Business, Liz Johnson introduced her committee members for the upcoming year and handed out Activity Sheets for the 2016-2017 year.

Reminders of upcoming events in March were given, including the Class Reunion/Ice Cream Social, Amateur Invitational Shuffleboard Tournament, Residents Dinner, and Easter Dinner.

Next, Barbara introduced Brian McNeal from the Crime Prevention Task Force. He gave a very informative lecture that pertained to everyone. He talked about everything from identity theft, online safety and money scams to safety of yourself and your property. Many of us have heard this before, but an update is always beneficial and Brian definitely made it interesting.

Share-the-Wealth gave away 4-$10 prizes, 1-$5 prize and then a prize donated by Brian. The coach drawing was for $212 and Lot #51 was not present to claim it.

The next Social Committee Meeting will be held Wednesday – April 6, 2016....7pm

PRIME RIB DINNER

2/13/16

Barbara Lee

On a beautiful Saturday evening 72 guests, 10 staff and one harpist came together at the clubhouse for a nice evening of great company and music, topped off by wonderful, delicious prime rib, baked potato, salad, bread and strawberry cheesecake.

All was prepared by our Master Chef, Don Rahrig, and helpers, Barb and Bill Lee. Nothing could have been served without all the hard work and dedication of our waitresses of the evening; Barbara King, Joan Johnson, ML Faiola, Brenda Dreier and Randi Sandford. They made sure everyone was fed and needs attended to. All were seated to start the evening by Bill Lee and Doug Dreier. Faye Rahrig took the tickets and plates at the door. Lucien Rouleau made our coffee and he and others helped clean up afterwards.

We were entertained throughout our dinner service by Mary Ann and her harp. Her music, while we ate, made the evening grand.

Thank you all for making our dinner a success.

A VALENTINE'S DINNER THANK YOU

Millie Ricci

What a wonderful job that was done on the Prime Rib Dinner. Thanks, Don Rahrig and Barbara Lee, and all the rest of the kitchen helpers who served and poured coffee. Everyone did a wonderful job.

SOLOMON'S CASTLE.....VISITED AND CONQUERED

Randi

On an extremely nice day, thirty-eight Amber Glades residents took a day-trip to Solomon's Castle. A luxury liner picked us up and delivered us to our destination. After touring the castle itself and the museum of Solomon's works (made of recycled materials) we all enjoyed a luncheon served by the Boat-in-the-Moat Restaurant. Then, once again we boarded the bus and headed for home, arriving back, right on time, thanks to our most capable Irish driver. I think the consensus of the day was that it was very enjoyable. I want to thank everyone that supported this adventure and especially Barbara Lee for calling BINGO during the trip.

AMBER JAMS HEARD ROUND THE PARK

A fun time was had at the first ever Amber Jams. Three musicians stepped up and entertained the 30+ people in attendance. We had David Suderman on keyboards, bass and vocals. Win Wolloff on guitar and vocals. And, Richard Sandford on drums. During the evening, Tracy joined the group of three, to sing a couple of songs. They did a great job! Thanks to all four of them.

Also a big thanks goes out to the residents that came to support Amber Jams. They were truly impressed with the talent our park produced.

RESIDENTS ENJOY A FREE MEAL

Barbara Lee

Our Resident's Dinner was held March 6th at the clubhouse. We served around 200 residents of Amber Glades. Our staff, Barb Lee, ML Faiola, and Randi Sandford along with Marsha Lemons, Janet Fether, Wayne and Linda Fletcher, Don Horrigan and Ed and Karen O'Neal all worked at serving the meal

We had a lot of help setting up and doing prep-work on Saturday. Thanks to the Social staff, Linda Fletcher and Lucien Rouleau.

Our special thanks go out to all who stayed and helped us clean up and put away. The Social Committee sincerely appreciated the good turn out and all the support we had. Thanks again and may you all support the next Social Crew as much as you did ours.

A Special Thank You

Millie Ricci

I want to thank the Social Committee and the Board for a wonderful dinner they put on for the residents, and also for Barbara Lee, ML and all their helpers for serving it. Everything was delicious. Even the shut-ins loved it.

A MESSAGE FROM THE OUTGOING SOCIAL CHAIRPERSON

Barbara Lee

Well, my year as Social Chair has come to an end. My year was filled with wonderful people, hard work and lots of good, rewarding times. They say you're only as good as the company you keep. My staff this year was exceptional. My Vice-Chair, Mary Lynn Faiola is a hyper-energetic lady that has a great will to do whatever it takes to get the job done. Her heart is as big as her energy. She always kept me abreast of anything to make sure nothing was forgotten. My Secretary, Randi Sandford, is always ready and eager to help wherever she needs to be and is always full of fresh ideas and suggestions for any task at hand. My Treasurer, Sandy Jones, was always on top of the money. She made sure we were always paying the right amount and refunding others with a hug and a smile. All in all I felt we did the best job we could do for the residents of Amber Glades. Lastly, the people of Amber Glades were always encouraging and complementary to us for jobs and events done. Thank you to all, may you all be supportive to your next Chair, Liz Johnson, and her staff. I'm sure they will serve you well.

BILL The CARPET GUY 727-521-4163

IT WAS A VERY GOOD SEASON

By Don Horrigan

When Barbara and Bill head back home the day after Easter they can breathe a sigh of relief.... knowing that she and her committee did a great job in providing us with many new and interesting activities. Stepping up to the bat as Social Chairperson is just the beginningand, from what I am told, the telephone never stops ringing. Her extremely active committee, co chaired by ML Faiola, (good things come in small packages) introduced the first Harpist for the Valentine dinner dancing to the strings of a "harp" hmmm (this harp wasn't present) And the BLOCK party...not certain if the blocks came from a felled tree here in Amber Glades....what a fun afternoon it was....something for everyone. The history presentation, in the library, put together by Ginger Gustafson was a total winner. We ate, we danced, we marched in the parade..... All in all a very fine season and to all that assisted WE THANK YOU. Next up is Elizabeth (AKA Liz) Johnson and her chosen committee VOLUNTEERS ALL.....without them, we would just be sitting on the couch watching TV.

A MESSAGE FROM THE NEW SOCIAL CHAIRPERSON

LIZ JOHNSON

Our Vice Chairperson is going to be Pam Routzon. Pam and her husband, Mike, have been residents of Amber Glades since 2003. Over the years she has chaired numerous events and helped on many more. Our Treasurer will be Sandy Jones, who has lived in Amber Glades since 2009. She has done a wonderful job as treasurer this past year and has agreed to remain on for another year. Our new Social Secretary will be Patty Peterman. Patty and Bill have been residents for less than a year but she has volunteered to help at several social events already and is going to be a great asset to Amber Glades and the Social Committee. Hazel Holliday and her husband, Richard, have been residents of Amber Glades since 2006. Besides chairing many events and helping others throughout her time here, she has been Entertainment Coordinator for the past two years. She has agreed to stay on as Entertainment Coordinator for a third year. Rose and Herb Hendershot, residents since 2007, have agreed to be our Kitchen Managers. They did a wonderful job in the past at managing the kitchen and I'm happy they agreed to take on the task again. I would like to thank Randi Sandford for continuing to do the newsletter and ML Faiola for continuing to chair the Block Captains. They have both done outstanding jobs and I really appreciate them staying on another year. Millie Ricci, who is over Memorials has also agreed to be our Sunshine Lady. Thank you Millie. SueAnn Suderman will remain over the Welcoming Committee. Again, she has done a great job and I really appreciate her staying on with us. All of these people have donated many, many hours of their time throughout the years just as a lot of others in the park. Thank you all for continuing to step up and help and we welcome anyone who would like to help in the coming year.

My Friends at Amber Glades

Virginia (Gina) Barnett

I really appreciate all you have done. It means so much that you planned such a beautiful Birthday and going away celebration. I don't think I could find more thoughtful and caring friends. I will miss you. Thank you all for thinking of me. You made my day.

APRIL FOOLS FUN

One of the best media-generated April fools' joke came from a Richard Dimbleby. The "news report" aired on April 1, 1957 on BBC's Panorama opened with a line about Spring coming early that year, prompting the spaghetti harvest, in Switzerland, to be early.

Against a video backdrop of peasant women harvesting spaghetti from trees, claims about the foodstuff's cultivation were made in a straight-faced manner. He reported that spaghetti's oddly uniform length was explained as the result of years of dedicated cultivation. He continued saying that the ravenous spaghetti weevil, which had wreaked havoc with past years' harvests, had been conquered.

Over 250 viewers jammed the BBC switchboard after the hoax aired. Most of them calling in with serious inquiries about the report — where could they go to watch the harvesting operation? Could they buy spaghetti plants themselves? (For those anxious to try their hand at homegrown pasta, Panorama producer Michael Peacock offered this helpful hint: "Many British enthusiasts have had admirable results from planting a small tin of spaghetti in tomato sauce.").
