CHRISTMAS IN AUGUST AT AMBER GLADES

Saturday, August 15th has been declared Christmas in August at Amber Glades. We will be having a Christmas themed potluck at the clubhouse at 6pm. Come join the celebration by bringing your favorite Christmas Dinner food to share. Turkey will be provided. After dinner we will have a "White Elephant" gift exchange. If you would like to participate, bring a wrapped gift....something you bought and couldn't use or something you received as a gift and want to re-gift. Music and frivolity will round out the evening. Come to have fun!

FATHER'S DAY BREAKFAST WRAP-UP

Betty Yurkiewicz and her crew whipped up a wonderful breakfast in celebration of Father's Day. So glad to see everyone out and about on this day. Special thanks goes out to Betty, along with Sandy Jones, Millie Ricci, Randi Sandford, ML Faiola, Lana Snyder and Theresa Blasik. The group of you made the day a great success. Betty also made cupcakes for all the dads and Theresa gave each dad a Scratch off Lottery card.....some were even winners.

Again, thanks to all who helped and all that supported this event.

Thank You

I would like to thank Betty Yurkiewicz for the wonderful Father's Day Breakfast she put on. And, also for all the girls that helped her. GOOD JOB BETTY!--Millie Ricci

AMBER GLADES CELEBRATES THE FOURTH OF JULY IN STYLE

On July 4th a picnic lunch was held in the clubhouse with close to 80 residents attending. Thank you for spending part of your day with us. We ate fried chicken, coleslaw, potato salad, baked beans and patriotic cupcakes and ice cream for dessert. Then, the fireworks began. Thanks to Wayne Davis for shooting off several bottles of diet soda (with Mentos added) to the onlookers enjoyment. It was spectacular! Thank you to all the volunteers that made this day special: Louis and ML Faiola, Richard and Randi Sandford, Don Horrigan, Wayne and Barbara Davis, Millie Ricci and Donna Miller.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO TODAY?

Ever wanted to visit the Dali Museum? Thursday evenings after 5pm the museum offers a reduced rate, $10/person, compared to the normal $24/person. They are opened 10 – 5:30pm daily, but remain open on Thursdays until 8:00pm. And, if you go on the 1st Thursday of the month you can also catch a movie at sunset (about 8:30pm) in the Museum's Avant Garden. Bring your own lawn chair. Food and craft-beer vendors start at 7pm. More information at: thedali.org

Hall. They have several venues, large and small, with a wide variety of entertainment. It's just up the street and so convenient.

Let your inner hippie out and attend the Tarpon Springs HIPPIEFEST on August 15th from 6 – 10pm in downtown Tarpon Springs on E. Tarpon Avenue. Food, beer, music, VW Beetles and a best dressed hippie contest. PEACE DUDE!

The third Friday of each month Safety Harbor has a music fest in downtown. They close off Main Street and have food, craft vendors, live music, etc. Bring a lawn chair and just sit back and listen or browse the booths. It's right in our own backyard. AND IT'S FREE!

And, right here in Amber Glades we have BINGO every Monday night at 6:30 and BUNCO every Tuesday afternoon at 1pm. Check the calendar for cards during the week. And, on Wednesday mornings is Coffee Klatch where everyone meets for coffee and donuts ($1.00).

No need for reservations, just bring your coffee mug. Join fellow residents for some good old fashion FUN!

AUGUST. IS IT A BORING MONTH??

August doesn't really have any holidays in it to celebrate.....except, Christmas this year at Amber Glades! So, I looked up what we could be celebrating and found the following:

August 1st National Girlfriends Day.....Not for you men! This is girlfriend to girlfriend, the ones you tell your darkest secrets to and giggle thru the night with.

August 2nd Inter-national Beer Day.....Cheers. Salud. Prost. Gan Bei.

August 3rd National Underwear Day.....Believe it or not there's even a parade.

August 6th National Fresh Breath Day.....No onions. No garlic. Just breath fresheners.

August 8th National Dollar Day.....In 1786 the Continental Congress established a monetary system in the USA on this day.

August 9th National Book Lovers Day.....Caress your favorite book today. I said book, not Kindle or I-pad!

August 13th Inter-national Left-handers Day.....A salute out to my son, Austin, and all the others out there that manage everyday life with right handed tools and sit at the end of the table, so as not to knock elbows.

August 19th National Aviation Day.....On Orville Wright's birthday. Hmmmm...wonder what Wilber would say about this?

August 21st National Senior Citizens Day.....Deemed this by Ronald Reagan in 1988 to thank all seniors.

August 22nd National Tooth Fairy Day.....Just because anyone who can make a dollar bill magically appear under your pillow deserves their own day. Going price for a tooth now days?? $5.00 (according to the internet).

August 24th National Hug Your Boss Day.....Please check your company HR codes thoroughly before attempting this!

August 31st National Trail Mix Day (aka. National GORP Day).....Let's take a hike.

A Complete Listing of Resident Services can be found on the page before your calendar

Under-home Encapsulated Insulation

August Is...

American Artist Appreciation Month. From Maxine Albro (1903-1966) to Karl Zerbe (1903-1972) and everyone else in between, celebrate American art in all its forms and the people who create it.

Get Ready for Kindergarten Month. This is the time of year when young children (and their parents) prepare for that all-important first day of school. Relieve their jitters by talking about what to expect, visiting the school and the teachers, and getting excited about the upcoming school year.

National Immunization Awareness Month. National Immunization Awareness Month (NIAM) highlights the importance of immunization—not just for kids, but for everyone. Activities focus on encouraging all people to protect their health by being immunized against infectious diseases.

National Spinal Muscular Atrophy Awareness Month. Spinal muscular atrophy (SMA) is a genetic disease affecting the part of the nervous system that controls voluntary muscle movement. An SMA diagnosis doesn't mean an end to your hopes and dreams. Changes and challenges lay ahead, but also opportunity, fulfillment, and hope for a future free of spinal muscular atrophy.

Celebrate Weekly

Clown Week, Aug. 1-7. Everyone loves a clown. Celebrations during this week take on a variety of forms, such as putting on shows in malls, child care centers, hospitals and nursing homes or educational events about clowns and fundraisers for numerous charitable causes.

International Assistance Dog Week, Aug. 2-8. Created to recognize all the devoted, hardworking assistance dogs helping individuals mitigate their disability related limitations.

Elvis Week, Aug. 8-16. Held every year in Graceland, Tennessee, Elvis Week celebrates the life and legacy of Elvis Presley, “the King of Rock and Roll,” with special events, live music, concerts, movies, and more.

National Safe At Home Week, Aug. 23-29. The National Safety Council estimates that 245 people die of unintentional injuries in and near their home every day. The purpose of National Safe At Home Week is to raise awareness of safety practices to prevent injury and death in and around your home.

Little-known facts about books and language

The world of books, reading, and words is full of surprises. Take a look at some of these stories about writers and other creative people (from the BuzzFeed website):

- Green Eggs & Ham. This Dr. Seuss classic was written on a bet. Publisher Bennett Cerf wagered $50 that Ted Geisel couldn't write a children's book using fewer than 50 different words. Geisel won.
- Thomas Jefferson. The third U.S. president (and writer of the Declaration of Independence) invented more than 100 "American" words to distinguish U.S. writing from British usage—including the word "anglophobia."
- Gone with the Wind. Margaret Mitchell began work on her first (and only) novel after recovering from an auto accident. During her convalescence, she read so many books from the local library that her husband got tired of going back and forth—so she suggested she try writing a book of her own.
- Amazon. The first book sold on the now dominant website was Fluid Concepts and Creative Analogies, by Douglas Hofstadter. Its subject: whether machines could be taught to think like people.

Stay optimistic to get ahead

Successful people are optimistic. They're realistic, and they see the challenges, but they don't lose their confidence. Here are some of the characteristics of "intelligent optimists" that anyone can master:

- Don't deny problems. Don't try to pretend difficulties don't exist. Learn to live with obstacles while looking for ways to overcome them.
- Accept reality. Recognize that you can't solve every problem. Don't get too wrapped up in trying to fix things you can't influence that you ignore what's possible.
- Don't bury negative thoughts. Everyone has them—"This will never work," or "Why am I wasting my time?" Instead of trying to repress them, ask what they're telling you, and work on getting past the problems that create negative thinking.
- Look for different solutions. Many solutions start as attempts to solve a different problem. Searching the background can provide clues to resolving the current difficulty.

The right diet may guard against dementia

Could the right diet lower your risk of developing Alzheimer's disease? Maybe, according to an article on the MedicineNet website—although the results aren't conclusive yet. A study of adults who closely followed a combination of two well-known diet plans, the Mediterranean diet and the DASH diet, found that subjects had a 53 percent lower risk of being diagnosed with Alzheimer's. Other subjects who stuck to the diet only moderately well saw their risk drop approximately 35 percent.

The combination diet plan, known as the MIND diet, emphasizes healthy grains, vegetables, beans, poultry, and fish, along with a limited amount of red meat, butter, and sweets. Researchers have noted that other factors, like smoking history, regular exercise, and challenging activities like Sudoku or crossword puzzles, have also contributed to diet followers' results.

On the other hand, both the Mediterranean and DASH diets are believed to be effective at preventing heart disease, making them a healthy choice for other reasons.

Take proper precautions against electric shock

A mild electrical shock can hurt; a major jolt can cause serious injury. Whenever you're working with live power, be careful to avoid problems by following the proper procedures:

- Turn off live circuits. Always unplug equipment or turn off circuit breakers when dealing with electrical power. Don't skip this step even when dealing with low-voltage appliances.
- Keep power off. When you turn off a circuit breaker, post a note warning co-workers not to turn it back on. Better yet, lock the circuit box so no one can accidentally send power back to a "dead" line.
- Use protective equipment. Gloves, facemasks, helmets, and other gear are important for your safety. Check the documentation to find out what you need, and ask your supervisor what he or she requires. Report and replace any defective equipment before getting to work.
- Check electrical cords. Examine cords for sign of wear and damage. If you see any exposed wire, or evidence that someone has tried to repair the cord with duct tape or electrical tape, replace it immediately. The cost is minimal, especially compared against the need for safety.

ATTENTION RESIDENTS!

Did you know this Emporium/Classified listing reaches over 21,000 homes in Pinellas County? It goes into 60 community newsletters (just like this one) from Dunedin to St. Petersburg. This is a great market to sell items, advertise your next event, try and get help for a function, and many other great things. Remember to think about this the next time you're planning something.

Thanks!
