HOA BOARD MEETING October 4, 2016

The first meeting of the 2016-2017 Amber Glades HOA was called to order by president, Wayne Davis. All board members were present except Wayne Fletcher. Nine residents were also in attendance.

Wayne announced that Wayne Fletcher was stepping down from the board and a replacement would need to be found to fill in between now and the January elections. There was no further discussion.

Treasurers report balance was $20857.01.

Complaints were on road repairs that needed to be done, security gates being left open, refuse trucks coming late in the day and trees needing trimmed. It was noted that 7 parking violations occurred during July, August and September. A relatively low number. 82 have occurred so far this year.

The board talked about streamlining channel 95 and 732. Richard Sandford will look into methods to make running the channels easier.

A resident suggested a garden club be formed and she was directed to Liz Johnson.

The next HOA Board Meeting will be held Tuesday – November 1, 2016.....7pm

All residents are invited to attend the HOA meetings. There is a question and answer session after the regular meeting of the board. The meeting is held in the Clubhouse Library.

SOCIAL COMMITTEE MEETING October 5, 2016

Social Committee Chairman, Liz Johnson, opened the meeting with the Pledge of Allegiance and reverence to the Canadian flag. David Suderman led the prayer. The only board members present were Liz and Sandy Jones, treasurer. Sandy's report balance was $2666.66.

Ed O'Neil ask for volunteers for the Neighborhood Watch and said that shuffleboard would start the first Monday in December.

Liz announced that Sandy would be stepping down from the social committee. Patty Peterman will be taking her place as treasurer and Arline Horslin will fill the secretary position.

Don Horrigan spoke about the October breakfast, Randi Sandford invited everyone to the Mystery Lunch, and ML Faiola announced that they are hoping to have a Carport Sale in December if enough people sign up (see related article in newsletter).

The next Social Committee Meeting will be held Wednesday – November 2, 2016....7pm

This meeting is open to all residents and it goes over the activities that are coming up and includes a raffle and Coach Drawing (you must be a member of Amber Glades HOA and be present to win). Held in the Clubhouse.

POT LUCK SUCCESS

Liz Johnson

I can't think of a better way to spend a Saturday evening than enjoying the company of so many of my Amber Glade neighbors and friends while dining on a vast variety of great dishes.

That's what a pot luck is all about. As usual, the food was delicious.

This pot luck was even more special because we all met some of our new neighbors who moved in over the summer. It's a great way to show them how welcome they are and we look forward to seeing them at future events.

Millie Ricci, Linda Fletcher and Georgia Chesney did an awesome job of preparing the tables and all of the drinks before-hand. David Suderman once again led us in the blessing before eating. There were many who helped clean up afterwards. A big "Thank You" to all of you.

MYSTERY LUNCH IS NO LONGER A MYSTERY

The Mystery Lunch in October was attended by 31 ladies and gentlemen. A good time was had by all as they dined just around the corner at Jack Willies Grill. The heaping portions left many with leftovers for lunch the next day and the wait staff and kitchen did an excellent job of getting us served in a timely manner. With a group this size service is always a challenge – but they rose to the occasion and I heard no complaints (WHICH IS A GOOD THING)!

When the group was ask if they would like to see more Mystery Luncheons it was pretty much a resounding YES! So, watch the newsletter for future opportunities to join us for lunch at an area restaurant.

BOO! HALLOWEEN DANCE COMING SOON BOO!

On Saturday, October 29th, Janet and Paul Fether will be chairing the Halloween Dance here at Amber Glades. The party starts at 7:00 p.m. and will go til 10:00 p.m. We will be dancing to music by the "Baby Boomers". You may contact Millie Ricci at (727) 386-5790 Lot #367 to get your tickets. For members the ticket price is $5.00 and for non-members it is $6.00. Tickets available at the door.

Costumes are optional but there will be a costume contest. Please bring snacks for your own table and whatever you want to drink.

FLAG CEREMONY AND BREAKFAST ON VETERAN'S DAY

We will be honoring our Veterans on Friday, November 11th and we hope all of you will join us. The Honor Guard from American Legion Post 238 in Safety Harbor will be performing a flag ceremony at 8 a.m. in front of the Club House. A pancake breakfast will follow. Breakfast will be served at 9 a.m.

You will need to get breakfast tickets from your block captain. Veterans' tickets are free, members are $3.00 and non-members are $4.00. Even though the veterans are free, we still ask that you get a (free) ticket from your block captain. This helps us in the preparation of your breakfast.

We also look forward to hearing any stories that our veterans would like to share with us.

Pot Luck / Game Night Friday - November 18th 6 p.m.

Now that most of our Northern friends are back, we are having a fun get together. Bring a dish to share along with your place setting. We will provide ice tea, lemonade and coffee. If you want anything different, please bring it.

Afterward, stick around for some socializing and game playing. If you have a game you would like to play, bring it along with you. i.e. Cards, LCR, Horses boards, Bunco, or whatever. Looking forward to seeing everybody.

Michigan vs OSU Saturday, Nov 26, 2016 Noon

Come join your friends and neighbors of Amber Glades at the club house and watch the big game.

You don't have to be a football fan to come and have a good time.

Bring your own beverages and snacks. We will have chili and hot dogs at half time. A hat will be passed to help cover the cost.

Hope to see you there. Hosted by Doc and Hazel Holliday, the House Divided.

PLEASE. If you have taken kitchen towels home to wash, would you please return them to the clubhouse. We are running low and need them for other functions.

Thank you,
Herb and Rose Hendershot

A troubling trend: Americans overdoing antibiotics

Antibiotics are a boon to doctors and their patients, but they pose dangers if they're overused. That makes this news especially concerning: A Texas study reported on the UPI website found that about one in 20 adults have stockpiled supplies of antibiotics in their homes and use them without a physician's advice.

The study of 400 adults in the Houston area found that 14 percent of adults have a stash of antibiotic medications in their home, and 5 percent have used them without a doctor's guidance in the past year. The medications come from a variety of sources: 40 percent came from a store or pharmacy, 24 percent were purchased outside the United States, 20 percent came from family or friends, and 12 percent were left over from past prescriptions.

In 4 percent of cases, the drugs obtained without a prescription were intended for use on animals, not humans.

Millennials worry about debt

Millennials aren't the carefree kids you might think they are. A FICO survey found that they're concerned about debt—with good reason. According to FICO's online survey of approximately 1,000 Americans over 17, 32 percent of millennials owe $20,000 or more in student loans, and 45 percent owe at least $7,000 on car loans.

In all, 37 percent of millennials ages 25-34 say they're concerned about their level of debt, and 33 percent would like assistance in managing their debt. For example, 65 percent would like to receive an email alert when their student loan payments are overdue by less than 90 days, and 35 percent want to be notified by app when their mortgage payments are less than 90 days late (but they'd prefer a phone call if their payments are more than 90 days overdue).

A lesson in determination

British runner Derek Redmond was one of the favorites for a gold medal in the 400-meter sprint at the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona. But halfway through the race, Redmond—in the lead—collapsed on the track with a hamstring injury.

Medical staff rushed to help him, but Redmond waved them away. He somehow got to his feet and started staggering down the track. With thousands watching, and officials unsure of what to do, Redmond's father ran out to him.

“You don't have to do this, son,” he said.

“Yes, I do,” Redmond replied.

His father helped Redmond down the track, tears streaming down both their faces, waving away anyone who tried to stop them.

The crowd roared when Redmond finally crossed the finish line. The feat is considered by many to be the defining moment of the Barcelona Olympics.

Keep learning at any age

As you and your family members age, you may find you have more difficulty remembering things. Try to help you stay on top of the knowledge game and keep you learning as you age:

- Visualize. Mentally rehearse an event, conversation or activity before it actually happens. This visualization helps eliminate the stress you may feel over the unknown. Plus, when you're more relaxed, you're better able to learn.
- Take a break and exercise. If you're trying to remember information you're reading, take frequent breaks. Don't just sit around, though. Engage in some kind of activity to keep your mind alert and your blood flowing.
- Focus on concentrating. Distractions are the bane of any learning attempt. If you're attending a class or lecture, sit near the instructor and maintain eye contact with him or her. Try not to fidget; simply relax into the session and let your focused attention do the job.
- Say it out loud. Read aloud the material you're trying to learn and repeat out loud the facts you want to retain. This way, both your mind and your ears are taking in information.
- Tame frustration. If you grow frustrated over material you're trying to learn, remind yourself that getting emotional will only hamper your ability to retain information. If you have to, step back and take a long break.

Get more creativity with a clear focus

Creativity and innovation aren't always accidental. A consistent focus will produce better results, so you don't have to wait for lightning to strike. Try these techniques to spur your imagination as you work:

- Start your day with a purpose. Instead of rushing out the door without a plan, spend a few minutes in the morning thinking about what you want to accomplish that day. Do this before checking your cell phone or email. You'll be less likely to get distracted by other demands.
- Shake up your routine. Get out of your comfort zone so you aren't always surrounded by what's familiar. Get up earlier than normal, take a new route to work, do your tasks in a different order, try something new and exciting—anything to shake your mind free of its preconceptions and look at your work in a different light.
- Be mindful. Don't go on autopilot. Pay attention to everything around you—the people you work with, the tasks you work on, the environment you work in, and so forth. The more aware you are of what's going on, the more likely you'll see a new connection or find an idea where you least expect it.

Don't be afraid to ask questions

Alyssa Mastro Monaco was deputy chief of staff in the Obama White House until 2014. She told a radio station an important lesson she learned early on about the importance of asking questions:

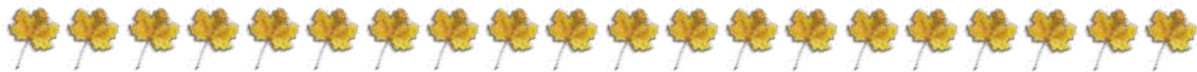

During an Oval Office meeting on the economic crisis, she was close to panic, worried that the president would ask her a question about issues she knew nothing about, such as quantitative easing. She began quickly writing down key words and phrases to look up later.

Economic adviser Larry Summers noticed and tapped her on the shoulder. "Come to my office later," he said.

Worried that Summers was mad at her, Mastro Monaco went to his office after the meeting. Summers asked about her list.

When she told him what she'd written down and why, Summers said, "I'll tell you anything you need to know." He proceeded to give her a quick lesson on economics. She left the office feeling relieved—and better informed than before. Nowadays she knows that admitting you don't know something is better informed than pretending you do—and she never thinks asking for information is stupid.

Did you know that November is also...

National Epilepsy Awareness Month. Learn about the different types of seizures and how to prevent them—or help someone suffering from them. A seizure is a short change in normal brain activity that can cause changes in awareness, behavior, or body movement. Because anyone can have a seizure, recognizing symptoms and knowing how to help is vital.

Native American Heritage Month. Established at the turn of the 20th century as an effort to gain a day of recognition for the significant contributions the first Americans. In 1990 President George H. W. Bush approved a joint resolution designating that November “National American Indian Heritage Month.” Similar proclamations have been issued each year since 1994.

Military Family Appreciation Month. Throughout November, military families serving around the world are honored and recognized for their commitment and the many contributions they make every day in support of the military and our nation.

National Animal Shelter and Rescue Appreciation Week, Nov. 3-9. Approximately 3,500 animal shelters across the United States serve the estimated 6 million to 8 million homeless animals who need refuge each year. Get acquainted with your local shelters and rescuers, and learn how you can assist their lifesaving work.

National Nurse Practitioner Week, Nov. 13-19. Held annually to celebrate these exceptional health care providers and to remind lawmakers of the importance of removing outdated barriers to practice so that NPs will be able to practice to the full extent of their experience and education.

American Education Week, Nov. 14-18. The 2016 theme, “Great Public Schools: A Basic Right and Our Responsibility,” will present all Americans with an opportunity to celebrate public education and honor individuals who are making a difference in ensuring that every child receives a high-quality education.

U.S. Election Day, Nov. 8. Get out and vote!

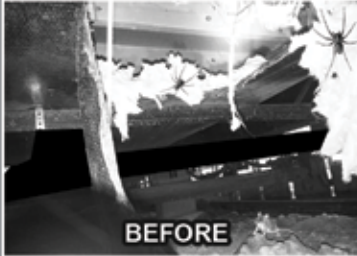

World Diabetes Day, Nov. 14. Celebrated worldwide by the more than 230 member associations of the International Diabetes Federation in more than 160 countries and territories.

International Games Day, Nov. 19. Raising awareness of games and gaming in libraries to publishers and the public around the world.

Thanksgiving, Nov. 24. Turkey, football, pumpkin pie, and family. What could be better?
