The Homeowners' Association meets as needed in the southwest corner of the clubhouse. The HOA addresses issues with management and owners of Bay Ranch. If you have an issue you wish to address, put a note about it in the suggestion box near the piano in the clubhouse. Your name, coach number and phone number are helpful if you want a response.

CLIFF'S NOTES

Lost and Found Dog/Cat: If you have found a dog or cat, you can post on a site called pawboost.com or call Animal Service on Walsingham. If you call, Animal Services will come out, free of charge, to pick up an animal. Any questions, please call Rose Kalp at 459-4808. We have sent quite a few animals to animal services.

PLEASE BE a responsible owner and have your animal fixed. This service is very low cost through animal services.

Snowbirds [and Vacationers]: Before you leave:

1. Please make sure you have someone doing your weeds, trees, etc., and keep mobile clean on the outside during the summer.
2. Make sure anything that can be pitched around with the wind is put away.
3. If you have a change of address, please make sure you notify the office.

All Residents: Rules commonly broken:

1. Parking overnight on street and/or every day.
2. If you have someone living with you, make sure you have registered in the office.
3. Do not pile garbage in front of garbage bins. When you throw garbage, throw it to the back so when you open the door, it doesn't fall out and there is space.
4. Check mobile for cleaning, trim, awnings, driveway and/or painting. We will have someone out soon checking your mobile.

Still relevant announcements Cliff made this year at Koffee Klatch:

1. Keep the dumpster area neat, especially on the weekends. If the dumpster is full, please put extras neatly beside it.
2. Parking on the grass or sidewalk is against the rules. If necessary, park on the road.
3. Cars parked on the street after midnight will be towed. [Eds. Note: you have to pay the fine even if you run out before the tow truck takes your car away. We have nice neighbors who remind us when we are parked on the street at night.]
4. The Office must authorize overnight parking at the Clubhouse.

These messages are posted in the Clubhouse and pertain to every month:

Every Friday from 9 to noon: please turn off your hot water tanks. We use this time to fix leaks in the park.

Every Sunday at 5 p.m.: please flush your toilet(s). Our sewers were designed for more pressure than they get with low flow toilets. Flushing simultaneously will increase pressure and help keep the lines clean.

Just Sayin’

By Jeanne Hunter, President

Jeanne isn’t sayin’ anything this month.

FROM THE EDITOR

By Carol Raabe, Editor

Did you know August 21 is Senior Citizens’ Day. I didn’t even know Senior Citizens had a day. I did know about Grandparents’ Day, which is probably just another commercial day requiring our grandchildren to buy cards, When did I become so cynical?

Anyway, anytime you are in the mood for a special day, all you have to do is Google something like, “August holidays,” or whatever month you want, and Google will cough up all kinds of options. A couple of examples are:

August 7 Sister’s Day; also, National Lighthouse Day

August 13 Middle Children’s Day

August 26 National Dog Day

We COULD buy cards for various people and pets for these days. I hardly ever buy cards, though. Lots of free cards come to us in the mail. Most of them are pretty generic, but they work at the last minute, which most of my card giving is. I’d say OUR card giving, but cards seem to be in my job description to the degree that dear hubby doesn’t even have to sign them.

When I have the time, I like to make cards, especially birthday cards. In fact, I’ve given my grandies personal cards for so long, they would feel disappointed if I bought one that just said, “Wa, Wa , Wa, Happy Birthday.” Unlike stampers and scrapbookers, I use my computer, pull in graphics that I like and are relevant to the person, make up (or usually, plagiarize) sentiments for the front and inside, and print. TA DA! Jan still gets his name, signed by me, on the card.

My cards are not always perfect. Just last week I gave a card that said, “Have an awesome 11th birthday to my grandnephew who was turning 12. It was still his favorite card, though, because of the graphic I used and the awesome sentiment on the inside!

Someone (or 2 someones) I did NOT make a card for was (were?) newlyweds Sharon and Larry Hammond. It’s a good thing because I surely would have had Larry’s last name wrong, as I did in last month’s Review. Thanks, Sharon, for letting me know. So sorry, Larry!

From the Editor

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

Hi everyone

Sorry I missed the last issue but I have been in and out of the hospital and finally have undergone what I hope was my last procedure, It has been an uneventful Summer with very short meetings. We have had a few Sunset Club outings which are always fun. Thanks you, Jan and Adam.

Speaking of that fun couple, Gin and I were lounging around trying to decide where to go on the 4th. I suggested the legion at Madeira Beach, but Gin reminded me they were having an open house and we probably would not get a seat on the deck. A few seconds later the phone rang. It was Jan. "We are at the Legion. Would you like to join us?" she said.

I replied "Do you have a table and 2 more seats?" Of course they did, so we drove over as quickly as possible. It was a fun night with great friends, good music and, yes, even fireworks.

This last Thursday residents of the park were invited to a meeting at the club-house to see a presentation about a new cable alternative. Here is a quick synopsis:

This meeting at the clubhouse introduced a new way to get cable stations. It is done through WIFI, which they don't provide. Also you need to purchase a box for each TV you need it for. They sell for about 160 each. After you get the boxes connected you will receive over 500 channels including many premium movies. The monthly fee is 25 dollars, plus the cost of WIFI. It would probably be wise to find out what Spectrum's WIFI price is.

We saw a demonstration and the picture was really clear. The downside is you lose local channels, but you still get all the national showings of the networks, so no local programming.

In the long run you should save money with this plan. BTW, this company is trying to include internet in the future but have a couple hurdles to overcome first as Spectrum has exclusive rights right now at Bay Ranch. That being said, I have a few misgivings myself. First of all they offer premium channels at no extra charge. I wonder if HBO, Cinemax, etc, are aware of this. Also they are planning on offering the major networks ABC, NBC, etc. Now the local stations have contracts with these networks and I am sure they would not appreciate losing the advertising dollars they generate. I am not saying this is not a legitimate deal, but I always was always taught, "If it looks too good to be true, it probably isn't." Bottom line, more research is need-ed.

The security company I worked for has been replaced by another company, and I now am again unemployed and retired for the 4th time, "LOL". I plan to visit my kids and grandkids some time in a few weeks, so it probably is a good thing.

I can't wait to see all the snowbirds return in the fall and I hope everyone has a happy and safe summer. With that I will be signing off until next month,,,,,,,,,Love you all. Bob

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Adam has prepared a long-term schedule for Sunset Club. It is in this issue twice, once here and once in Special Events, since I'm not sure everyone reads this section every month. It tends to be very repetitive.

THE FOODIE NEWS

By Adam Pirhofer

Hello everyone!

Been a bit since I gave you some new places to try. I have three that I hope you will like. First is a special pizza place, pick-up or delivery only, Rosati's Pizza, Chicago style. Next is a great seafood place with atmosphere, Frenchy's Outpost Bar and Grill. Last is a great southern food staple, Johnny Grits.

First, as a kid from Chicago, I want a real Chicago pan pizza and it is hard to find. Over the years places have come and gone. And now we have Rosati's Pizza at 10443 Ulmerton Rd, Unit 7, Largo. It is in the Home Depot plaza between Home Depot and Publix.

The Rosati family is from Chicago and has made pizza for a while. Everyone has their favorite in Chicago, but theirs is right on top of the list. I know it is not dine in, but they deliver to our park, or you can pick it up if you are out.

When you order, just keep it simple: Chicago Deep Dish, cheese, sausage, maybe mushrooms or/and green pepper. This is a true pie, so knife and fork are needed. For me, it takes me home back to Chicago-- almost want to carve my initials in the table, but I am afraid Janice would kill me. Don't forget, this pizza deserves beer if you are able. Chianti works as well. Order a small for 2 people and you will have leftovers. Be advised, these take a bit to cook, so it is not 30min or less.

Next we get a little place near the beach, Frenchy's Outpost Bar and Grill, 466 Causeway Blvd, Dunedin. This place is on your way to Honeymoon and Caladesi Island out the end of Curlew Rd. It is part of the Frenchy's Restaurant group out of Clearwater Beach. It is a nice open air place with shade and a breeze, which keeps it comfortable even in the summer. The menu is mostly from Frenchy's, so Grouper Sandwiches and peel-n-eat shrimp are staples. Awesome even here. A few items are specific to here, like Outpost Stuffed Avocados. Think tuna salad stuffed tomatoes, but grilled avocados instead; Tropical Chicken Walnut Salad; great flat-breads; and my favorite, Frenchy's Garlic Crab Fries, mmmmmm. It is a fun place to be when you are out and about or at the beach.

Last is a southern specialty place, Johnny Grits at 857 East Klosterman Rd, Tarpon Springs. It is a Southern fresh breakfast and lunch spot that puts a southern staple right out front. Grits. Yellow grits not cheap white grits. These little things seem simple but are hard to get perfect. These folks use real grits, cook slow, fold in the right additions as asked and deliver perfection. Everything here is fresh made. Corned Beef Hash mad from Corned Beef, not a can. Sweet potato waffles start sweet before you do anything to them. Crab Cake Benedict that is wonderful. And my faves, Johnny's Three Cheese Grits or the Shrimp and Grits. Smooth and creamy with a wonderful flavor. They arrive in a small cast iron skillet. Lunch is just as tasty. If you are up near Tarpon and want something different, try them out.

There you go. 3 places from near to far away. I hope you try them out and enjoy. Let me know what you think. Give me a suggestion of a place you tried, I will try to make it. But above all, Bon' Apetit!

Next month I am doing a special about the vast number of Craft Beer establishments right around where we live.

On The Lighter Side: Senior has a “senior moment” in the middle of his chore list, has a hilarious realization

By Carol Raabe

We don't know who came up with this one originally, but the following was sent in an email that made its way around the Internet. We thought we'd share it with you, because we really feel like we can relate!

Recently, I was diagnosed with A.A.A.D.D. – Age Activated Attention Deficit Disorder.

This is how it manifests:

I decide to water my garden.

As I turn on the hose in the driveway, I look over at my car and decide it needs washing.

As I start toward the garage, I notice mail on the porch table that I brought up from the mail box earlier.

I decide to go through the mail before I wash the car.

I lay my car keys on the table, put the junk mail in the garbage can under the table, and notice that the can is full.

So, I decide to put the bills back on the table and take out the garbage first.

But then I think, since I'm going to be near the mailbox when I take out the garbage anyway, I may as well pay the bills first.

I take my check book off the table, and see that there is only one check left. My extra checks are in my desk in the study, so I go inside the house to my desk where I find the can of Pepsi I'd been drinking.

I'm going to look for my checks, but first I need to push the Pepsi aside so that I don't accidentally knock it over.

The Pepsi is getting warm, and I decide to put it in the refrigerator to keep it cold.

As I head toward the kitchen with the Pepsi, a vase of flowers on the counter catches my eye—they need water.

I put the Pepsi on the counter and discover my reading glasses that I've been searching for all morning.

I decide I better put them back on my desk, but first I'm going to water the flowers.

I set the glasses back down on the counter, fill a container with water and suddenly spot the TV remote. Someone left it on the kitchen table. I realize that tonight when we go to watch TV, I'll be looking for the remote, but I won't remember that it's on the kitchen table, so I decide to put it back in the den where it belongs, but first I'll water the flowers.

I pour some water in the flowers, but quite a bit of it spills on the floor. So, I set the remote back on the table, get some towels and wipe up the spill.

Then, I head down the hall trying to remember what I was planning to do.

At the end of the day:
the car isn't washed
the bills aren't paid
a warm can of Pepsi is sitting on the counter the flowers don't have enough water
my check book still only has 1 check
I can't find the remote
I can't find my glasses and I don't remember what I did with the car keys.

Then, when I try to figure out why nothing got done today, I'm really baffled because I know I was busy all the damn day, and I'm really tired. I realize this is a serious problem, and I'll try to get some help for it, but first I'll check my e-mail....

Do me a favor.

Forward this message to everyone you know, because I don't remember who the hell I've sent it to.

Don't laugh — if this isn't you yet, your day is coming!!
