FROM THE EDITOR

Russ Trombley and I have the same problem: it's hard to write when not too much is going on. From following, Facebook, I know some of you have kept busy with travel, grandkids and great grand kids and others with travel, like Linda Goldstein. Some of you have a summer routine, like Nancy Peterson swimming every morning. Still others seem to be spending the summer taking care of health needs. I'm guessing, from watching the weather reports from Tampa Bay, that most Bay Ranchers are running (as best we can at our ages) from air conditioned house to air conditioned car to air conditioned destination (unless, Linda Goldstein, it's the beach). Insert picture of early morning Largo.

This month, I'll be turning a rather sparse newsletter in to the publisher, without recipes or personal stories. Thanks to Bob Lupton, Russ Trombley and Ana Peck for sending in copy.

The next issue (September) of the Bay Rancher will be the Directory, so all the writers get a month off. If you think we may have wrong information about you (or no information at all), please get in touch with Linda Goldstein, Bob Lupton, or Debbie Eakin in the office.

LETTERS

Russ's Random Thoughts

For some strange reason, I still get my dates mixed up and I'm usually one month behind or one month ahead. I'll get this straightened out one day. I had a nice little episode I wanted to tell you about the 4th of July and I'm one month behind to report this. Next year.

The Sunset group headed for post 273 Madeira Beach American Legion for a bite and to watch the sun set on July 1. We got there way too early and it was beastly hot on the deck, so we toasted one another and decided to go home. Chris, Avis and I opted to watch the Rays get beat again. Almost a no hitter, but I believe it was Butler who got a ninth inning hit to spoil a beautifully pitched game. The Rays lost again in the ninth inning but they looked a lot better since coming home. Oh well, they are on the right road now so maybe a few lucky bounces and they're right back in the hunt.

Nice 4th party was put on by Cliff, Rose and entourage. I didn't eat too much as I wasn't feeling good, so I cut the victuals short. Good going group.

Went to the dance last night [July 5]. A crowd of 24 showed up, but better than nothing. Bob Lupton did the DJ gig and we had a good time.

Gonna cut this short as I can't remember if I had sent anything else in. Hard to write when not too much is going on. Luv u guys and take care of one another. Russ

AUGUST QUESTIONS (TO BE PUBLISHED IN THE OCTOBER ISSUE)

Get Published!

As usual, answer one or all of the AUGUST QUESTIONS OF THE MONTH and submit to the editor (Carol Raabe, nelsonraabe@gmail.com) by the 10th of the month for consideration. If you don't have email, please give it to Linda Goldstein, Coach 189 or Evelyn Bair, Coach 167, or Bob Lupton, Coach 188. Your submission must be in your own words and may be edited (I'm a nice editor, I promise). Please try to keep it to 300 words or less, unless it's great.

Recipes are back! Share your favorite ones. Recipes are not copyrighted, but please include your source, if there is one.

"I recommend . . ." can be anything you believe is worth recommending, such as restaurants, activities, movies, books, concerts, plays or happenings.

Thoughts about Autumn, Autumn colors, Halloween, etc., would all be good for October. Pictures of your garden would be good, too.

August Sudoku

How to play: The numbers 1 through 9 will appear once only in each row, column, and 3x3 zone. There are 9 such zones in each sudoku grid. There is only one correct solution to each sudoku. Good luck!

GOOD TIMES AT BAY RANCH

Picture of early morning Largo

Designer: it would be nice to have the paragraph take up one side of the page and the picture take up the other, like this:

Russ Trombley and I have the same problem: it's hard to write when not too much is going on. From following, Facebook, I know some of you have kept busy with travel, grandkids and great grand kids and others with travel, like Linda Goldstein. Some of you have a summer routine, like Nancy Peterson swimming every morning. Still others seem to be spending the summer taking care of health needs. I'm guessing, from watching the weather reports from Tampa Bay, that most Bay Ranchers are running (as best we can at our ages) from air conditioned house to air conditioned car to air conditioned destination (unless, Linda Goldstein, it's the beach).

August Is...

American Artist Appreciation Month. From Maxine Albro (1903-1966) to Karl Zerbe (1903-1972) and everyone else in between, celebrate American art in all its forms and the people who create it.

Get Ready for Kindergarten Month. This is the time of year when young children (and their parents) prepare for that all-important first day of school. Relieve their jitters by talking about what to expect, visiting the school and the teachers, and getting excited about the upcoming school year.

National Immunization Awareness Month. National Immunization Awareness Month (NIAM) highlights the importance of immunization—not just for kids, but for everyone. Activities focus on encouraging all people to protect their health by being immunized against infectious diseases.

National Spinal Muscular Atrophy Awareness Month. Spinal muscular atrophy (SMA) is a genetic disease affecting the part of the nervous system that controls voluntary muscle movement. An SMA diagnosis doesn't mean an end to your hopes and dreams. Changes and challenges lay ahead, but also opportunity, fulfillment, and hope for a future free of spinal muscular atrophy.

Celebrate Weekly

Clown Week, Aug. 1-7. Everyone loves a clown. Celebrations during this week take on a variety of forms, such as putting on shows in malls, child care centers, hospitals and nursing homes or educational events about clowns and fundraisers for numerous charitable causes.

International Assistance Dog Week, Aug. 2-8. Created to recognize all the devoted, hardworking assistance dogs helping individuals mitigate their disability related limitations.

Elvis Week, Aug. 8-16. Held every year in Graceland, Tennessee, Elvis Week celebrates the life and legacy of Elvis Presley, “the King of Rock and Roll,” with special events, live music, concerts, movies, and more.

National Safe At Home Week, Aug. 23-29. The National Safety Council estimates that 245 people die of unintentional injuries in and near their home every day. The purpose of National Safe At Home Week is to raise awareness of safety practices to prevent injury and death in and around your home.
