OFFICIAL NOTICES

HOA Annual Meeting

The Annual Meeting of the Homeowners' Association (HOA) will be held in the clubhouse on Sunday, January 22, 2016 at 4:30 p.m.

HOA

The Homeowners' Association meets as needed in the southwest corner of the clubhouse. The HOA addresses issues with management and owners of Bay Ranch. If you have an issue you wish to address, put a note about it in the suggestion box near the piano in the clubhouse. Your name, coach number and phone number are helpful if you want a response.

FMO

If you like to stay in the know about policies and events that affect your mobile home ownership, membership in the FMO is the way to go. If you like the idea of sharing what you learn, become the Bay Ranch representative to the Federation of Manufactured Home Owners of Florida (FMO).

Residents' Club Annual Meeting

On the first Monday of January, the Residents' Club will vote on a new structure for the By-Laws. This new structure is not intended to change the functioning of the Club, but to make the By-Laws easier to follow.

The exception is Article III, Section 4, duties of the Treasurer. The new section is reproduced below:

Section 4.

- a. The Treasurer shall have custody of all funds of the Club. All funds (with the exclusion of the Home Owners Association) for clubs, groups and organizations within the park shall be held in the Residents Club account.
- b. Each club, group and organization shall designate one or two members (one of which should be a year round resident) who may withdraw funds, their names to be kept on record with the Residents Club Treasurer.
- c. Designation may request withdrawal of funds as needed from Treasurer.
- d. Treasurer shall disperse funds as required.
- e. In order to comply with proper accounting procedures, designated representative shall sign a receipt for funds and supply the Treasurer with all receipts of monies spent in a timely manner.
- f. Treasurer shall keep accurate account of all receipts and disbursements. All funds and records in his/her possession shall be turned over to the newly elected Treasurer after the annual audit.

CLIFF'S NOTES

Cliff Wicks attended the Monday Morning Koffee Klatch to discuss some park business.

- Rent will increase by $15 beginning January 1. New rent amounts are:
- $543 + $15 = $558 for corner, pet, and El Centro lots
- $535 + $15 = $550 for others.
- Please keep an eye on your neighbors, especially if the neighbor has medical or physical issues. Cliff suggested establishing a signal with neighbors, like turning a certain light on in the morning, to signal that all is well.
- The back gate was hit and is broken. A new gate is being fabricated and will be installed.

JUST SAYIN'

By Jeanne Hunter, President

So glad to finish with the campaign season and move on to the Christmas season. All our neighbors' lights and decorations brighten the park and my spirits. Do you know why all those LED lights are better than politicians? Well, they're always bright, don't tweet AND they have an off switch.

December has been a busy month, as usual. Shuffleboard sponsored a great show/dance with Steve Walker entertaining. Our chorus brought us holiday cheer with its annual Christmas performance. The tree lighting and the bike/golf cart (even walkers) parade gave us plenty of opportunity to sing our favorite carols. Ladies Having Fun and Sunset Club events filled out the calendar.

The New Year's Eve Dance (and dinner!) take us into January. There'll be dances, shows and a big cruise trip. The icing on the cake will be an evening at Hamburger Mary's, food and entertainment beyond compare. Check the Review calendar and the clubhouse bulletin boards to get a full list of goings on.

Our government is made up of the best and the brightest, right? Two senators went on a fishing trip. They rented all the equipment – reels, rods, wading suits, rowboat, a car and even a cabin in the woods; they spent a fortune. The first day they went fishing, they didn't catch anything. The same thing happened on the second day and the third day. It went on like that until finally on the last day of the vacation, one of them finally caught a fish. They were really depressed on the drive home. One of them turns to the other and says, "Do you realize that this one lousy fish we caught cost us fifteen hundred bucks?" The other senator said, "Wow! Then it's a good thing we didn't catch any more!" Just sayin'

FROM THE EDITOR

By Carol Raabe, Editor

The Review is growing and changing. Welcome to Adam Pirhofer's new column, The Foodie News and to Harry Webber for Trip the Light Fantastic (he may choose to change the name). Also, welcome back to Wayne Redshaw's Bay Ranch Profile. Readers missed this column over the summer. Notice proposed changes to Lone Jones's column Let's Eat. Please help make these changes successful by giving her your favorite recipes.

Good-bye to Cindy DeVinney's column on birthdays and anniversaries. She has done a fantastic job of collecting the information that is available, but as you know, correct information is NOT available and it's a losing battle. Thank you, Cindy, for your commitment to this column.

January is the month for Official Business by both the Residents' Club and the Homeowner's Association (HOA).

The Resident's Club will consider new By-Laws at the January Meeting. The By-Laws are an on-going issue. The existing version has served its purpose, and we thank those who composed it over the years. The proposed new version is a little better organized and is easier to read. I'm not sure, but it looks like the only addition is a description of the duties of the treasurer. Please refer to the draft By-Laws in the Official Business column.

The Homeowners' Association (HOA) also holds its annual meeting in January, on a Sunday so most homeowners can attend. The HOA is the legal representative of Bay Ranch homeowners. It is authorized by Florida law to negotiate rent increases with the owner and to address other issues with the owner and management. The annual meeting is required by Florida law.

Given the importance of HOA business, I encourage all Bay Ranch owners to attend the annual meeting and participate in its business. Please refer to the meeting notice in the Official Business column.

Finally, the January calendar has been very difficult to compile for this edition of the Review. For those who have forgotten or didn't know, the official calendar for the clubhouse is maintained in the Bay Ranch office. Cliff Wicks needs to approve all events planned for the clubhouse before they go on the office calendar and eventually in the Review. When this doesn't happen, dates are double-scheduled and the confusion like we have for January occurs. (And just when things were going so well. LOL)

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

By the time you read this Christmas will be over, the lights will start coming down and we will be ready to begin a new year. Let's hope the coming year is a rewarding and healthy one for everyone.

I started a new computer club last month and have high hopes for it being as successful as the Sunset Club which Adam has taken to a new level. Also everyone will now be getting ready for the cruise on the 23rd of January. By now just about all the Snow Birds have returned and activities are back to normal. Karaoke Mondays at Mug's are drawing crowds again. The shufflers are shuffling. The golfers are golfing and Betty Ann has everyone singing. Life is good at the ranch.

It seems like forever since all the snow birds left us in March and April. We had to endure a nasty political campaign and some really horrible TV ads. But that is now over and the Country will get on with putting itself back together. It always does.

By the way, if you haven't joined Neighbors yet and you would like to keep up with happenings in the park, just go to Facebook, do a search for me, "Bob Lupton," and send me a friend request. Also message me that you live in Bay Ranch.

Ok , random thoughts.....My favorite restaurant for Breakfast, "Lenny's" in Clearwater, with "Adriano's" in Largo a close second. My favorite place to chill..... "American Legion 273" at Madeira Beach. Favorite view.... "Jimmy's Crow's Nest" at Clearwater Beach.

Has anyone seen that new show, Designated Survivor, with Kiefer Sutherland? Best thing I have seen on Network TV in quite a while.

Ok guys I will put this column to sleep for another month,
Love you all, Bob!

Winter Tea

Ladies Having Fun is planning a tea for January (if we can find a date.) We will have several kinds of tea along with a variety of finger food. You are welcome to dress in hats and gloves or come as you are.

Many people have said they have teapots we can use. Even if you have already told someone you have a teapot, please sign up at the club house. If we have an overabundance of teapots, we will display the others. If you bring a teapot, please have your name on it so we can get it back to you.

The sign up sheet for the teapots also has room for you to indicate that you have a special tea you would like people to try and a place to volunteer to help with food preparation the morning of the tea or bring in finger foods.

The date will be posted on the board outside the clubhouse and mentioned at the Monday morning meeting.

Mardi Gras Dance

This dance may or may not happen. Watch the boards in the clubhouse for more information.

Trip the Light Fantastic: My Picks

5-Night Caribbean Cruise, starting January 23. More than 40 Bay Ranchers are signed up to go, and there is still room for more. Call 267-752-9870 if you are interested.

Starting next month, Harry will feature day trips he thinks Bay Ranchers might be interested in.

Bay Ranch Profile: Rose Kalp

By Wayne Redshaw

Ever wonder who is responsible for the beautiful decorating of the clubhouse stage for the various seasons?

Here's a hint. She drives around the park in a red golf cart, sometimes with two adorable puppies on board named Cup Cake and Noel. If you said Rose Kalp you are absolutely right.

Rose has been decorating the stage at Bay Ranch for the past five years. Her themes depend on the various seasons --- Halloween, Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Years, Valentine's, St. Patrick's Day and Easter. And for extras she also does some of the themes for the various dances in the clubhouse. Last year for example one of those dances was for a Hawaiian Night.

It was actually the dance themes that got Rose involved in the first place. Asked how she became involved, Rose replied: "They didn't have anybody to do the dances, so Cliff (Park Manager Cliff Wicks) said: 'We'll do it.' We did it for one season, then somebody picked it up but I can't remember who it was. But they asked me if I would help so I guess that's how I got into decorating."

Rose never took a course on decorating. In fact, she doesn't even leaf through catalogs for

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

George Lordstrom, Saint Petersburg, FL

ideas. "I don't plan anything, it just happens. I can't explain it. I guess it is a magic touch. I go in blind and go from there."

"Sometimes I wake up in the middle of the night with an idea, or when I go up to the clubhouse and lay everything out, an idea will hit me. When I lay everything out it kind of just falls into place. I always try to add a lot of depth to the displays."

Rose says there's a supply of decorations for some occasions stored at the clubhouse. However, she also has her own supply, which she purchased, and keeps aside as there's not enough storage at the clubhouse for everything.

"I get an idea in my head but can't find the material I want to work with at Party City or any store. Sometimes I find things in the garbage." A good example the rainbow for last year's St. Patty's display and the stump for Halloween.

"The rainbow came from a big TV box thrown in the garbage. I cut out a half rainbow, then colored it in. The stump was in the garbage too but I was able to fit it into the display with moss. Sometimes the garbage can be good source for material."

Asked what is the toughest season to decorate, Rose promptly replied: "New Years. Because you have Christmas and right after you have New Years. I find there's a limitation of supplies unless you want to spend a lot of money."

She said a lot of residents come up to her and offer assistance. "But I don't know what to tell them. I'm not ready for help because I don't really know myself what I want to do. I also like to start early in the morning as there's no around then to bug me."

Rose does get help sometimes. For example Gary Winter is always available, especially when it comes to heights. And for the Hawaiian Night Dance last season Ana Peck gave her a helping hand.

"Sometimes I take two to three days to finish to finish a theme. I don't necessarily do it one day. Then there's the tearing down and I am very particular when I put things away that they are in the right place."

Whether it takes a day or more Rose Kalp enjoys decorating. "It's something I love doing. It's like a hobby I enjoy doing."

Hopefully the residents of Bay Ranch appreciate the time and effort Rose spends bringing the stage to life for the various seasons. It's very professional in every respect.

THE FOODIE NEWS

By Adam Pirhofer

Well hello Bay Ranchers! I finally gave into peer pressure to write about all the great, and some not that great, places to eat that Janice and I visit throughout the Tampa Bay area. I will try to give you all a selection of places from near and far to enjoy. I want to include hints of how to use all the social media sources for finding new places on your own. I hope our combined palettes will be helpful to all our friends here.

A short note before I start. I don't look for places for fast food or cheap eats. I look for great value for my money, and being the brother of a gourmet chef in Chicago, I understand great, fresh food takes time. We do expect our orders to be correct. What we order should look like what we describe or show a picture of. And a somewhat professional staff is always a must.

If you want fast and cheap, these reviews won't help you. Most places we visit are between 15 to 30 dollars a person with an appetizer, entree and a drink, not a cocktail or beer. I may throw in a couple of high end places every now and then, but we try to keep our choices somewhat regular.

Each month, I want to provide three restaurants to enjoy: one local to our area of Pinellas County, up to 20 min. drive; one to the rest of Pinellas County, 20 to 45 min.; and one that includes Pasco, Hillsborough and Sarasota counties.

Super Saro's Pizza

I will start with a shameless plug for a friend, Super Sardo's Pizza at 10839 Ulmerton Rd. It is just past Largo Mall and Seminole Blvd on the North side of Ulmerton across from the Sheriff's office. Santo is a real NYC kinda guy. The place is just like a little pizza place on any block in NYC. The basic pizza is a NYC style pizza. We both may be Chicago pizza kids, but we appreciate a great pizza. He makes his dough and sauce from scratch and you can taste it.

The best part of Super Sardo's is getting away from the pizza. Santo makes a wonderful Eggplant Parmesan. The eggplant is sliced just right with a beautiful breading, fried perfect with a flavorful sauce. He can be creative with all his dishes if you ask nice. Besides the great food, if you get a chance to be there while he is in, he does love to talk to his friends. He likes friends more than customers--it keeps a family like atmosphere there. If you are there and he is in, let him know you know us and he will treat you real special like, lol.

Sea Hag's

9555 Blind Pass Road

If you love fried shrimp, clams, or cod or haddock, there is a place on St Pete Beach called Sea Hag's. It is at 9555 Blind Pass Rd on the North end of St Pete Beach. It is a little pub at a marina that has a simple Florida waterfront pub atmosphere. They have a nice bar area, great music on the weekend and a decent view of a nice marina. The menu is very good with a great selection of appetizers. My favorite appetizer is the Caribbean Egg Rolls. It may sound spicy, but that is only the sauce to dip it in. They are a beautiful collection of chicken, beans, corn and cheese in a fried egg roll, mmmm.

The best deal here is the Buckets, both the beer and the food. The buckets are for shrimp, clams, haddock and sometimes cod. They have fish, french fries and cole slaw in each bucket. The amazing part is the amount of seafood included in each bucket. It seems like over a pound of seafood comes out of it. I don't know how much it is, but for $9.99 (any bucket) you cannot beat this deal. If you do not have leftovers to take, I applaud you. If you like New England Clam Chowder, try the Hags Seafood Chowder, a near perfect chowder topped by adding shrimp, and grouper to the mix. It may be listed as a soup, but it is a meal unto itself.

Sea Hag's is open for lunch and has music on weekends, worth the drive down the beach.

I will leave you here for my first try. I pontificated a little at the beginning and promise to minimize this from now on.

An Elementary School Teacher had twenty-six students in her class. She presented each child in her classroom the 1st half of a well-known proverb and asked them to come up with the remainder of the proverb. It's hard to believe these were actually done by first graders. Their insight may surprise you. While reading, keep in mind that these are first-graders, 6-year-olds, because the last one is a classic.

1. Don't change horses until they stop running.
 2. Strike while the bug is close.
 3. It's always darkest before Daylight Saving Time.

Brain drain: Control your appetite after a long day at the office

Ever notice that you can feel starving after a long day at work even though you've spent it mainly at your desk? Scientists, as reported by The New York Times, say it happens because your brain, feeling tired, starts to want more fuel to keep going—even though you haven't exactly been digging ditches for eight or nine hours. The problem is that you're consuming calories your body doesn't actually need because your brain is telling you to.

One way around this dilemma is exercise. In an experiment at the University of Alabama at Birmingham, 38 college students met to discuss what their favorite pizza was. After the discussion, they were allowed to eat as much pizza as they wanted. On another day, they were brought back and given a series of tests from college entrance and graduate-level exams. Afterward, half the students worked out on treadmills while the rest sat quietly. The entire group was again served all the pizza they wanted, but the treadmill group ate less—about 25 fewer calories than at their previous session. On the other hand, the rest of the group actually ate 100 calories more.

The study suggests that a light workout after a mentally strenuous day may curb one's appetite—good to know before you sit down to eat.

Eat lots of these foods to prevent prostate cancer

Prostate cancer is one of the most common forms of cancer in men—more than 180,000 cases are diagnosed each year. Diet can be a factor, doctors say, especially one of foods high in saturated fats found in meat and dairy products. Men may be able to reduce their risk of developing prostate cancer by eating more of these healthy foods:

- Broccoli. Benefits: Low in carbohydrates and rich in antioxidants and phytochemicals that may prevent cell changes contributing to cancer.
- Salmon. Benefits: Lots of omega-3 fatty acids that can inhibit prostate cancer.
- Brazil nuts. Benefits: Selenium; six to eight nuts contain 700 percent of a daily serving.
- Tomatoes. Benefits: Lycopene. Men who eat 10 portions of tomatoes a week may reduce their risk of prostate cancer by 18 percent.
- Walnuts. Benefits: Walnuts and walnut oil have been shown to reduce levels of the hormone IGF-1, which has been linked to prostate cancer.
- Coffee. Benefits: Antioxidants, as well as stimulating the body to metabolize sugars more efficiently. Green tea shares similar qualities.
