OFFICIAL NOTICES

HOA

The Homeowners' Association meets as needed in the southwest corner of the clubhouse. The HOA addresses issues with management and owners of Bay Ranch. If you have an issue you wish to address, put a note about it in the suggestion box near the piano in the clubhouse. Your name, coach number and phone number are helpful if you want a response.

FMO

If you like to stay in the know about policies and events that affect your mobile home ownership, membership in the FMO is the way to go. If you like the idea of sharing what you learn, become the Bay Ranch representative to the Federation of Manufactured Home Owners of Florida (FMO).

Memorial Service

The Memorial Service held in February was a very prayful evening thanks to Ron Rowalski. The following were honored: Richard Redding, Lieselotte Taenzer, Howard Markward, Russ Trombly, Eleanor Allen, Joseph Putsis, Maggie Serra, and Alberta Beacom.

I wish to thank all who helped to make this a very special evening.

Betty Ann Quish

Memorial Service Director

Thank you from the Shufflers

The shufflers are very grateful to all who came to our games, our Christmas music by Steve Walker, the pancake breakfast in February and March, and the Frank & Dean and Then Some show and dance in March. They were all very successful socially and financially.

Thank you and have a wonderful safe and happy summer.

JUST SAYIN'

By Jeanne Hunter Residents' Club President

Our northern neighbors have left the Ranch and taken the cool breezes of spring with them. In the hot summer winds, the beautiful pool is even more inviting. Exercise classes have moved from the clubhouse to the water. That means a cool dip in the pool every Tuesday and Thursday morning with friends keeps us a little healthier through the summer months.

Bob Lupton provided the music at our May Happy Days dance and it was a real blast from the past. The tunes brought back lots of great memories while we danced the night away. Memorial Day Pot Luck dinner gave us another chance to sample a great variety of special eats. It's like a dieter's lost and found around here. Any pounds I lose at pool exercise I find at the pot luck dinners! The Ladies Having Fun went to the Dugout for their May outing. Making sure they found a few pounds too.

In June, the dance will again be hosted by Bob Lupton, this time with a pirate theme. On the 8th, the Sunset Club is gathering at Jimmy's Crow's Nest at the top of Pier 60, promising a great view to go with good food and conversation. Check out the calendar here in the Review to find times for indoor activities at the clubhouse – card games, bingo, etc. In the summer heat, outdoor activities are at a minimum. Except, of course, for the pool which is the best spot around to cool down and chill out.

A high ranking Washington official died recently and met St. Peter at the Pearly Gates. Peter said it was rare to get someone of such importance and the official thanked him and said he would like to go into heaven. Peter said he would have to wait because there were special rules for someone of his importance. The official said he just wanted to go into heaven. Peter told him he would have to spend a day in heaven and a day in hell. The official said he just wanted to go into heaven, but finally agreed.

First he was sent to hell where he was met by many of his old cronies. They were dressed in expensive clothes, invited him to play a round of golf on a course better than any he'd ever seen. Afterwards, they went to a palacial clubhouse, drank the best scotch and caroused with beautiful women until he was pulled back to the Pearly Gates.

Then Peter sent him to heaven. There he met strangers, all very contented people who spoke in soft tones and spent their time in pleasant endeavors.

Once again, he was back at the Pearly Gates and Peter asked him if he wanted to go to heaven or hell. The official said, I thought I'd never say this, but I'd rather go to hell."

He was instantly back in hell where his old friends were dressed in rags, pushing heavy boulders and moaning in misery. He called out to Peter, "What happened? This isn't the hell you sent me to before?"

Peter answered, "Yesterday they were campaigning. Today you voted!"

And you thought our politics were bad...Just sayin'

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

People are always wondering how we seem to always be going somewhere. The truth is we never spend a lot to enjoy all the events and free places available. Almost any weekend you can find something happening somewhere.

The first thing I do on a Friday is check this site on the internet (<http://www.tampabay.com/things-to-do/>). If I am still not sure where I want to venture, I get in the car and drive. It may be simply to downtown Tampa and the beautiful River Walk, or I will head west toward the beach, driving either north or south depending on my mood.

We are lucky to live by Clearwater Beach, voted the best in USA several times. Or drive further north to Dunedin, a quaint and beautiful artsy little town that reminds me of New Hope, Pa., but with a marina. From there it is not that far a drive to Tarpon Springs. If you like real Greek food there are many restaurants by the Sponge Docks.

If you have never been to Tarpon Springs, you are in for quite a treat. From the unique shops to the fabulous restaurants, you feel like you traveled back in time to a quieter friendlier world. There are several boat tours available for a very reasonable price. And you will learn more about sponge diving and soap making that you have ever known.

Of course if you decide to travel south toward St Pete, there are many more shops restaurants and other beach type places to see. I highly recommend John's Pass as a must stop place on your travels. We do miss the Pier in St Pete but I am hoping they will start building the new one soon.

There are people up north wishing they could go to the beach every week-end but the beaches up north are expensive and usually a distance away. We are already there, people. So get off your lounge chair and just drive in any direction and you will find a relaxing divergence whether it be a County Park, a beach or just a pleasant walk by the water. By the way if you haven't noticed, we are surrounded by some of the most beautiful water in the world.

That's all for today, guys. I'm on my way to my next adventure. Bob

Trip the Light Fantastic

As most people know, Harry Webber and his trusty sidekick, Becky Webber, have been active leaders for Trips and Cruises. The big exciting adventure that many of us are awaiting is a 5 night Caribbean Cruise on Royal Caribbean’s Brilliance of the Seas. Harry worked hard to find the best price possible for this cruise.

Harry also recommended that, if you are going on this cruise, you should register on the Royal Caribbean website and spend some time familiarizing yourself with the boat, the shore excursions, etc.

Notices from Becky:

- May 5: Bay Ranch Cruisers cruiseadvice.org has a nice write-up for the Brilliance of the Sea. Just click on Royal Caribbean/Brilliance of the Sea. Discusses picking the best cabin, dining, and activities available.
- May 9: Good Morning. Just wanted to let the Bay Ranchers know that we have 46 people signed up for our cruise in Jan. We hope that everyone is doing well and have a great summer.

Wayne Redshaw Honored at Home

Wayne Redshaw, Bay Ranch winter resident, Coach 1392, was recently featured in an article by Bernd Franke in The Tribune out of Welland, Ontario. Wayne contributes a column about a Bay Ranch resident or couple to the Bay Ranch Review each month during the winter. This time, the table was turned. Here is the article as it was printed:

Retired Tribune Sports Editor Wayne Redshaw Leads Skate Down Memory Lane

When Wayne Redshaw talks about the heyday of hockey in Port Colborne, much of it is from first-hand knowledge.

Long before he joined the newspaper in 1962, the former Tribune sports editor knew all about the fierce rivalry between Port Colborne and Welland from a fan's perspective that dates back to the late 1940s. Redshaw can remember boarding the trolley at Stop 17 on Quaker Road and getting off at Elm Street in Port Colborne.

"Back then, the fare was something like 15 cents, but it was worth it. You got to see good hockey," the 72-year-old Buffalo Sabres Hall of Famer said.

Battles for bragging rights in intermediate hockey weren't limited to the Port Sailors, the Crowland Bisons and that team's successor, the Welland Com-bines. "Dunnville was a big draw, too. You could always count on a mudcat get-ting thrown on the ice," he recalled with a chuckle. Thrown in celebration or in consternation? "Sometimes, it was both."

Those storied rivalries will be among the headlines ripped from local sports history next Monday when Redshaw leads a skate down memory lane at Portal Retirement Village. Port Colborne Historical Society has invited him to give a talk beginning at 7:15 p.m., and the theme of his 30-minute presentation is Port Colborne's Golden Years in Hockey.

An era that began in the late '40s, just after Teeder Kennedy left Port Col-borne on his way to a hall of fame career with the Toronto Maple Leafs, lasted well into the 1970s. Over that time Port Colborne won seven intermediate cham-pionships and twice travelled to compete in the eastern Canadian finals. "They also hosted the finals from time to time."

While the players, many of whom stayed close to home, weren't profes-sionals, it was nonetheless good hockey. "You have to remember for a long time it was only a six-team NHL, and the American Hockey League wasn't paying crap," Redshaw said. "Don't kid yourself, it was very good hockey."

Wayne Redshaw spent 30 years as sports editor of The Tribune. Photo by Bernd Franke, Welland Tribune

Until Hockey Night in Canada came to the small screen, at the beginning not picking up the action until the end of the first period, local hockey was the only game in town. “In those days that was hockey. For some reason, Hockey Night in Canada started at 8:30 and only showed the end of the first period.”

Redshaw, a Welland Sports Wall of Fame inductee and a life member of the Professional Hockey Writers’ Association, doesn’t know whether he be feel-ing more nostalgic or a “just old” when he makes his Port Colborne Historical So-ciety presentation. “Probably a little of both.”

The historical society meeting taking place in the Portal Village auditorium gets underway at 7 p.m. Admission is free and the public is invited to attend.

LET'S EAT

by Ione Jones

Summer is almost here and summer is salad time. Cold salads are usually easy to put together and refreshing to eat. Many salads call for broccoli, a healthy vegetable some people can't eat because it interferes with their medication. I have had very good results substituting cauliflower for broccoli in salad recipes. Cauliflower is stashed with nutrients. It is low in fat and carbohydrates and high in dietary fiber, water, and vitamin C. Vegetarians, vegans, and people watching their carb intake tend to choose cauliflower as a reasonable substitute for carbohydrates instead of potatoes and rice.

Broccoli Apple Salad

Ingredients

- 4 cups fresh broccoli florets, (about 2 medium heads)
- ½ cup shredded carrots
- ¼ cup diced red onion
- 2 large apples, finely chopped (gala apples are a good choice)
- ½ cup pecans, coarsely chopped
- ½ cup dried cranberries

Creamy dressing ingredients:

- ½ cup lite mayonnaise
- ½ cup low fat Greek yogurt
- 2 Tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 Tablespoon sugar
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper

Instructions

1. In a large bowl combine broccoli, carrots, red onion, apples, pecans, and dried cranberries.
2. To make the dressing: Whisk together mayonnaise, Greek yogurt, lemon juice, sugar, salt and pepper.
3. Add the dressing to the salad and toss to coat. Chill until ready to serve.

Broccoli Cashew Salad

Ingredients

- 1 pound bacon
- 1 cup mayonnaise
- 2 teaspoons cider vinegar
- ½ cup white sugar (you may substitute an artificial sweetener)
- 2 pounds fresh broccoli, cut into florets
- 1 cup roasted cashews
- ¼ red onion, finely chopped

Instructions

1. Cook and crumble the bacon. Set aside. In a large mixing bowl, combine mayonnaise, cider vinegar, and sugar. Whisk together until sugar is dissolved.
2. Add the broccoli, bacon, and cashews. Mix together until the salad is coated well in the mayonnaise mixture. Chill for 2 hours and let stand for 15 minutes before serving.

Apple Cranberry and Almond Coleslaw

Ingredients

Dressing

¾ cup fat free Greek Yogurt (I recommend using Age, other brands may will be too thin)

- ¼ cup mayonnaise
- ¼ cup honey
- 2 Tbsp apple cider vinegar
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper

Coleslaw

- 1 small cabbage, shredded (6 - 7 cups packed)
- 1 ½ cups matchstick carrots
- 2 large gala apples, sliced into matchsticks (about 3 cups)
- ½ cup sliced green onions
- ¾ cup sliced almonds or 1 cup slivered almonds
- ¾ cup dried cranberries

Directions

1. In a mixing bowl whisk together Greek yogurt, mayonnaise, honey and apple cider vinegar until smooth, while seasoning with salt and pepper to taste.
2. In a large bowl toss together cabbage, carrots, apples, green onions, almonds and cranberries. Pour dressing over cabbage mixture and toss to evenly coat. Serve immediately for best results.

Apple Pecan Rosemary Greek Yogurt Chicken Salad

Ingredients

- 1 lb boneless skinless chicken breasts, cooked, cooled and dice into small cubes
- 1 1/4 cups chopped golden delicious, gala or Fuji apple (chop small)
- 1/3 cup chopped pecans
- 1/3 cup dried cranberries, roughly chopped

Dressing

- 1 (5.3 oz) container fat-free plain Greek yogurt (heaping 1/2 cup)
- 2 Tbsp mayonnaise
- 1 Tbsp red wine vinegar
- 2 1/2 tsp finely chopped rosemary
- 1 tsp Dijon mustard
- 1/2 tsp honey
- 1/2 tsp onion powder
- Salt and freshly ground black pepper
- Lettuce or whole grain bread, for serving

Directions

Add chicken, apples, pecans and cranberries to a large mixing bowl. In a separate small mixing bowl mix together Greek yogurt, mayonnaise, red wine vinegar, rosemary, mustard, honey and onion powder. Season with salt and pepper to taste. Pour over chicken mixture then toss to evenly coat. Serve in lettuce or on whole grain bread.

Chicken Salad

Ingredients

- 1 1/4 lbs boneless skinless chicken breasts, cooked, chilled and diced into small cubes*
- 1 1/3 cups red grapes, halved
- 3/4 cup small diced celery
- 1/2 cup sliced almonds, toasted
- 1/3 cup chopped green onions (green portion only)

Dressing

- 2/3 cup plain fat-free Greek yogurt
- 1/4 cup light mayonnaise
- 2 Tbsp honey
- 1 Tbsp red wine vinegar
- 1 Tbsp poppy seeds
- 1 tsp Dijon mustard
- 3/4 tsp salt, or to taste

Directions

Mix all dressing ingredients together in a medium bowl until well combined.

Add all chicken salad ingredients to a large mixing bowl or a salad bowl. Add dressing and toss to evenly coat. Store in refrigerator. Serve within 1 - 2 hours for best results (it's still good for another day but the almonds soften a little and the grapes juices run into the dressing).

Kiss THE COOK

A LAUGH OR TWO

Submitted by Linda Goldstein

This poem has been making the rounds on Facebook. Maybe you've seen it there, but it's fun enough to read again.

That Was Us

A little house with three bedrooms,
One bathroom and one car on the street
A mower that you had to push
To make the grass look neat.

In the kitchen on the wall
We only had one phone,
And no need for recording things,
Someone was always home.

We only had a living room
Where we would congregate,
Unless it was at mealtime
In the kitchen where we ate.

We had no need for family rooms
Or extra rooms to dine.
When meeting as a family
Those two rooms would work out fine.

We only had one TV set
And channels maybe two,
But always there was one of them
With something worth the view.

For snacks we had potato chips
That tasted like a chip.
And if you wanted flavor
There was Lipton's onion dip.

Store-bought snacks were rare because
My mother liked to cook
And nothing can compare to snacks
In Betty Crocker's book.

Weekends were for family trips
Or staying home to play
We all did things together --
Even go to church to pray.

When we did our weekend trips
Depending on the weather,
No one stayed at home because
We liked to be together.

Sometimes we would separate
To do things on our own,
But we knew where the others were
Without our own cell phone.

Then there were the movies
With your favorite movie star,
And nothing can compare
To watching movies in your car.

Then there were the picnics
At the peak of summer season,
Pack a lunch and find some trees
And never need a reason.

Get a baseball game together
With all the friends you know,
Have real action playing ball --
And no game video.

Remember when the doctor
Used to be the family friend,
And didn't need insurance
Or a lawyer to defend
The way that he took care of you
Or what he had to do,
Because he took an oath and strived
To do the best for you.

Remember going to the store
And shopping casually,
And when you went to pay for it
You used your own money?
Nothing that you had to swipe
Or punch in some amount,
And remember when the cashier person
Had to really count?

The milkman used to go
From door to door,
And it was just a few cents more
Than going to the store.

There was a time when mailed letters
Came right to your door,
Without a lot of junk mail ads
Sent out by every store .
The mailman knew each house by name
And knew where it was sent;
There were not loads of mail addressed
To "present occupant."

There was a time when just one glance
Was all that it would take,
And you would know the kind of car,
The model and the make.
They didn't look like turtles
Trying to squeeze out every mile;
They were streamlined, white walls, fins
And really had some style.

One time the music that you played
Whenever you would jive,
Was from a vinyl, big-holed record
Called a forty-five.
The record player had a post
To keep them all in line
And then the records would drop down
And play one at a time.

Oh sure, we had our problems then,
Just like we do today
And always we were striving,
Trying for a better way.

Oh, the simple life we lived
Still seems like so much fun,
How can you explain a game,
Just kick the can and run?

And why would boys put baseball cards
Between bicycle spokes
And for a nickel, red machines
Had little bottled Cokes?

This life seemed so much easier,
Slower in some ways.
I love the new technology
But I sure do miss those days.

So time moves on and so do we
And nothing stays the same,
But I sure love to reminisce
And walk down memory lane.

With all today's technology
We grant that it's a plus!
But it's fun to look way back and say,
Hey look, guys,
THAT WAS US!

The winning argument?

William Gladstone, prime minister of Great Britain for many years in the 19th century, was known as a master of argument, even within his own family. On one occasion Gladstone and his sister Mary argued over where to hang a picture in their house. A workman stood around while the argument went on and on. Mary wouldn't yield, and eventually Gladstone simply stopped talking.

The workman finally hung up the picture where Mary wanted, but when he was done he walked to the other side of the room and hammered a nail in the wall where Gladstone had wanted the picture to hang. Mary asked him what he was doing.

“Well, Miss,” the worker replied, “that’ll do to hang the picture when you come round to Master William’s opinion.”

One act of kindness

One rainy night many years ago, an elderly gentleman and his wife entered the lobby of a small hotel in Philadelphia. The man asked the clerk if he had any rooms.

The clerk was a friendly man who prided himself on superior customer service. He said that unfortunately the hotel was completely booked. “However,” he said, “rather than send you out in the rain at 1 in the morning, I would be happy to offer you my room. It’s not a suite, but it will be comfortable for the night.”

The elderly man tried to object, but the clerk insisted. The next morning, as he paid his bill, the elderly gentleman said to the clerk: “You are the kind of manager who should be the boss of the best hotel in the United States.”

Two years passed. One day the clerk received a letter from the elderly guest, inviting him to New York for a visit with a round-trip airline ticket. When the clerk arrived in New York, the man met him and led him to the corner of Fifth Avenue and 34th Street. He pointed to a brand-new building. “There is the hotel I have built for you to manage,” said the elderly man.

“You must be joking,” said the astonished clerk.

“I can assure you that I am not,” said the old man, a smile on his lips.

The elderly gentleman was William Waldorf Astor, and the palace that he had built for the young clerk was the original Waldorf-Astoria Hotel.

The moral: You never know when kindness will come full circle.

How fast do you want that package?

Americans tend to be an impatient bunch. A study by fulfillment software vendor Temando found that 80 percent of U.S. consumers want same-day shipping from retailers, and 61 percent want their purchases shipped out even faster, within three hours.

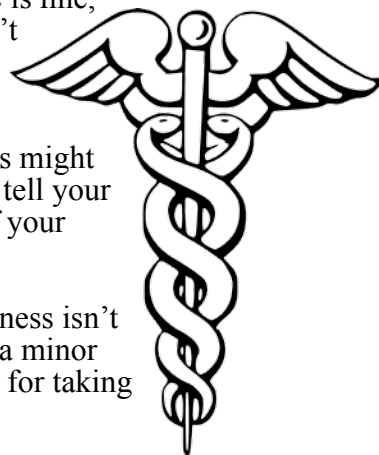

Retailers haven't responded, at least not yet. The study noted that only 53 percent offer same-day shipping even though 55 percent of buyers indicated they'd be willing to pay for it, and only 20 percent send products within three hours, although 31 percent said they'd be ready to pay for that.

Watch your words when talking to doctors

Communicating with your doctor is important, but you can overdo it. From the Prevention.com website comes this lists of things doctors don't want to hear from their patients:

- "I'm sure I have ____." Researching your symptoms online is fine, but most doctors want to diagnose illnesses themselves. Don't walk into the doctor's office insisting you know what's wrong.
- "It's probably just stress." Writing off your problems to stress might keep you from fully describing what's going on. Be ready to tell your doctor all your symptoms so he or she can get a clear idea of your illness.
- "I'm sorry for wasting your time." You may feel that your illness isn't important, but doctors would prefer that you come in before a minor ailment turns into a serious one. You don't have to apologize for taking care of your health.
- "Haven't you heard of this new drug?" Doctors are busy people who don't have time to keep up with every new medication, no matter how hard they try. Don't insist that your doctor prescribe something you saw on TV, but do print out articles that might be helpful in treating your illness.
- "You're supposed to be the expert." Again, doctors are human, and they sometimes miss things. Have realistic expectations, and talk openly about your needs so the doctor can make an informed decision.
