OFFICIAL NOTICES

HOA

Anyone interested in acting as Secretary of the HOA, please contact President Malcolm L. Deane (Deano), Coach 345, 637-3160. According to Deano, the Secretary’s duties won’t take a great deal of time.

The Homeowners’ Association meets as needed in the southwest corner of the clubhouse. The HOA addresses issues with management and owners of Bay Ranch. If you have an issue you wish to address, put a note about it in the suggestion box near the piano in the clubhouse. Your name, coach number and phone number are helpful if you want a response.

FMO

If you like to stay in the know about policies and events that affect your mobile home ownership, membership in the FMO is the way to go. If you like the idea of sharing what you learn, become the Bay Ranch representative to the Federation of Manufactured Home Owners of Florida (FMO).

RESIDENTS' CLUB

Come to the Monday Morning Residents' Club Meeting, every Monday at 9 a.m.

Ranchers come to Florida to have fun, or they live at Bay Ranch all year to enjoy the ambiance Florida has to offer. The Residents' Club does all it can, given we are all volunteers, to make that happen. As the name suggests, the organization is for residents, full and part time. It is the hub of our social network.

Most days, the Monday Morning Meeting is a casual get together where we drink coffee and eat donuts that we buy there or bring from home, talk to friends and neighbors and learn about activities and events in the park during the next week or month. The meeting part itself can be pretty repetitive but the company is great.

The first Monday of the month is a business meeting, where we hear what the elected Board of Directors have been considering and how much money we have. It's usually short and sweet.

Please join us.

CLIFF'S NOTES

Rules: The Park has rules that everyone received and reviewed when they bought or rented their coach. Please read and follow them. Failure to follow rules is grounds for eviction, and management has shown that it is willing to evict.

No cars may be parked on the street at night. Failure to follow this rule may lead to the offending car being towed, resulting in fines. [Ed. Note: I can verify this. EVEN IF you run out to the street before they hook up your car to tow, you will get the fine.]

Cars parked on the street during the day should be staggered so emergency vehicles can pass by.

Garbage: Do not bring garbage to the bins on Monday morning. By that time, the bins are overflowing. Wait until Monday afternoon or later, when the bins are empty.

Do not put tvs in the trash.

Fires: Test your smoke detectors to make sure they work. Recommended action: purchase a fire extinguisher if you don't have one and know how to work it. If a fire starts, spray it with the fire extinguisher immediately and GET OUT OF THE HOUSE. Fire destroys mobile homes very quickly.

Visitors: Reminder:that rent is based on one or two per household. Each person above the two must pay an additional $30 a month, including visitors who stay over 30 days. Please be proactive about this and pay the money without first being reminded.

Other announcements:

The purified water dispenser at the clubhouse operates on its own schedule. After someone has filled containers, it may take the dispenser some time to regenerate enough water for more containers. There is a light on the dispenser that tells whether it is ready.

The pool has been shocked and heated and is ready for use. Remember not to be in the pool alone.

Some have questioned why the application fee is “so high.” One reason is to help cover garbage fees, since new owners usually throw away most of the furniture and electronics. Cliff is considering a fee of $10 for each tv in newly purchased homes.

Mr. Larson (the owner) calls the lawn service for lawn care on an as-needed basis. The park pays for lawn mowing, etc., once a month but the need sometimes goes unnoticed. If you notice the lawn needs trimming, please let Cliff know so he can call Mr. Larson.

Sometimes an automobile will leak oil onto our new, nice looking pavement, creating an eyesore. If you notice a leak by your house, call Cliff to have it cleaned up. Let’s keep these streets looking nice!

Lost and Found Dog/Cat: If you have found a dog or cat, you can post on a site called pawboost.com or call Animal Service on Walsingham. If you call, Animal Services will come out, free of charge, to pick up an animal. Any questions, please call Rose Kalp at 459-4808. We have sent quite a few animals to animal services.

PLEASE BE a responsible owner and have your animal fixed. This service is very low cost through animal services.

All Residents: Rules commonly broken:

1. Parking overnight on street and/or every day.
2. If you have someone living with you, make sure you have registered in the office.
3. Do not pile garbage in front of garbage bins. When you throw garbage, throw it to the back so when you open the door, it doesn’t fall out and there is space.
4. Check mobile for cleaning, trim, awnings, driveway and/or painting. We will have someone out soon checking your mobile.

Still relevant announcements Cliff made this year at Koffee Klatch:

1. Keep the dumpster area neat, especially on the weekends. If the dumpster is full, please put extras neatly beside it.
2. Parking on the grass or sidewalk is against the rules. If necessary, park on the road.
3. Cars parked on the street after midnight will be towed. [Eds. Note: you have to pay the fine even if you run out before the tow truck takes your car away. We have nice neighbors who remind us when we are parked on the street at night.]
4. The Office must authorize overnight parking at the Clubhouse.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

These messages are posted in the Clubhouse and pertain to every month:

Every Friday from 9 to noon: please turn off your hot water tanks. We use this time to fix leaks in the park.

Every Sunday at 5 p.m.: please flush your toilet(s). Our sewers were designed for more pressure than they get with low flow toilets. Flushing simultaneously will increase pressure and help keep the lines clean.

Just Sayin'

By Jeanne Hunter, President

Been watching some really good documentaries on Netflix lately. While watching The Roosevelts, taking me through American politics in the first half of the nineteenth century, I realized that our politicians haven't gotten more greedy and power hungry. We just didn't know about it back then without Facebook and Twitter and the rest. Then I started watching Rome. Holy cow! Even two millennia ago, it was the same stuff. The only difference? In Rome, they really poisoned their rivals. Now they poison with words (via the media and internet).

I can't remember anything anymore. So I changed all my passwords to incorrect. That way when I log in to anything with the wrong password, the computer will tell me my password is incorrect.

Here's the latest solar report. I checked in with the son-in-law to see how he fared through our frigid December. Evidently, it was cold, but sunny. I hadn't noticed since I mostly stayed inside bundled up. Their bill was $20!! Remember how high ours were? Wondering why more people aren't switching to solar.

Remember the disastrous oil spills and all the damage they caused. Whenever there is a huge spill of solar energy, we just call it a nice day!

You know how fate has a way of catching up with you? Well, I should never have bragged about my $2 Social Security increase. Yes, fate has stepped in and said I can take that $2 and throw it into the donut hole. I'm very happy that modern medicine has combined so many chemicals and created treatments to keep us around a few years longer. I'd complain about the cost, but it beats the alternative. So, I am rapidly approaching that point where I have used enough expensive meds that I fall in to THE GAP. From what I've read, it takes a lot longer to get back out. Gives a whole new meaning to being in poor health.

Here's a story to teach you life isn't really complicated. The Lone Ranger and Tonto went camping in the desert. After they got their tent all set up, both men fell asleep. Some hours later, Tonto wakes the Lone Ranger and says, "Kemo Sabe, look towards sky, what you see?"

The Lone Ranger replies, "I see millions of stars."

"What that tell you," asks Tonto.

The Lone Ranger ponders for a moment and says, "Astronomically speaking it tells me there are millions of galaxies and potentially billions of planets. Astrologically it tells me that Saturn is in Leo. Timewise, it appears to be about three in the morning. Theologically the Lord is all powerful and we are small and insignificant. Meteorologically, it seems we will have a beautiful day tomorrow. What does it tell you, Tonto?”

Tonto replies, “You dumber than buffalo shit. It means someone stole the tent.”

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

The Library

Thank you to all the people who have worked this year to keep the library in order. I don’t know who all has been involved, including Mike Conway and Jeanne Hunter, as well as other elves who remove extra books.

Just a reminder: please bring more than 2 or 3 books in paper bags and leave them in the bags. Please help us keep the library in order so we can all use it.

FROM THE EDITOR

By Carol Raabe, Editor

The Snowbird season is winding down, and for the second year, it has hardly begun for me. Starting with my broken wrist soon after we got here and continuing with Jan’s broken hip, our time has been consumed with hospitals, doctor’s office, trips to pick up prescriptions for opioids, and physical therapy. And yet, I’m already looking forward to coming back next fall.

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

Hi everyone . Two years ago I had the pleasure and honor to interview a true hero and good friend. I know a lot of new residents have arrived since the printing of that article. Therefore I think it is about time to remind everyone we have a real hero living among us. So here is the interview in its entirety from The Review, April 2016.

In the spring of 1953, I was 7 years old, the in Korea war was winding down and talks were underway to end the fighting. But at the same time one of the bloodiest battles of the war was taking place at Pork Chop Hill. One of our neighbors, Jerry Olsen, walked right into the middle of it. I had the opportunity to sit down and talk to Jerry about his experience during those harrowing times.

Jerry started his basic training in Arkansas. He started infantry training but never got to the rifle range, as he and 11 others guys were “volunteered” to join Communications. Luckily he had finished bayonet training as that would be helpful later. Also he had handled guns all his life, though never the military M1. Command told him and the other “volunteers” they would have it easy as they would have nine months of training before they were deployed. “Well, seven weeks later we were sent overseas,” Jerry said with a grin. His job was to repair or replace radio lines for “as quick as we were laying down wire, the North Koreans were cutting the lines some-where.”

On a chilly morning in April 1953, Jerry was woken up by a sergeant and told, “Today is your day, Olsen”. Jerry thought he was going to have to clean toilets or some other chore. But he was told, “The lines were down up on Pork Chop Hill and to get 2 donuts of wire and head up there. I grabbed some wire and my 45 and headed to the hill.”

And Jerry walked into a hell on earth. He approached a bunker that had been blown up, and four dead soldiers were on the ground. All around him Chinese were firing in his direction.

He returned fire with the his 45, and after emptying the 7 rounds in the gun, he grabbed an M1 rifle from a dead soldier and continued to fire. Jerry did not go into the detail of the next two days, as the memory is not pleasant and the two days he was there seemed like weeks. I am guessing the bayonet training was very helpful as well.

At the beginning of that battle, 415 men were on that hill, and when it was over there were 16. Jerry was one of the survivors. On the last day he was there, he was down to 3 shells and figured, “Well, it's do or die.”

“About that time a young man with clean clothes arrived and asked me what unit I was in. I told him my unit, and I was ordered if I was to find anyone from the 21st still alive, to get them out of there. By that time I was out of water and headed back down the hill.”

After that day there were many sleepless nights and recurring nightmares. And although they may have subsided a little over the years, they still occur from time to time. “About 3 years ago a fellow said, ‘Welcome home,’ and I thought, Wow! That is the first time I was ever welcomed home.”

If you see Jerry in the park, welcome him home and thank him for his service.

Note: Jerry and Carol have been married for 10 year and live at coach 230

Love you allBob

Bay Ranch Profile: Charlotte Augustine

By Wayne Redshaw

Her trademark is the various hats she wears but there's more to Charlotte Augustine than just hats.

As Beverly Gray, who shares the mobile unit with Augustine on San Miguel Dr. put it, "Everybody loves Charlotte. She is such a kind, sweet person who never says anything bad about anybody. That's the way she is and she just enjoys being active and helping out."

And Charlotte is very active around Bay Ranch. However, a lot of that activity is behind the scenes where the residents don't see or notice. For example, she is a Director of the Resident's Club, treasurer of the Shuffleboard League, usually pitches in selling 50/50 tickets at dances or at Monday Morning Koffee Klatch sessions and helps out at the Friday Night Bingos plus the various card nights. Then there's the various dinners and banquets that Charlotte lends a helping hand to. In addition, at the recent Variety

Night she wasn't one of the entertainers on stage but she played a role behind the scenes making sure things ran smoothly.

That's the way Charlotte likes it. She is willing to help anyone or any group but she doesn't want to be in charge or be in the forefront. "I like helping out," said Charlotte. "Wherever they need somebody, I try to help out. I am retired, have time on my hands, have no medical issues and I enjoy doing it."

Charlotte has been a resident at Bay Ranch for eight years. She moved in with Beverly and Shane Ritchie, who passed away two years ago. The trio met at a powwow and hit it off. All three have Native American ancestry and had been divorced. They became friends and when they moved to Bay Ranch, shared costs.

"When we moved in we knew just about everybody in the park," noted Beverly. "Now with so much turnover the last couple years, we don't."

Charlotte agreed. "Things are changing. The new people coming in aren't interested, don't have the time or don't want to participate in the various activities. A lot also don't want to volunteer. You see the same people volunteering."

Being a year round residence, Charlotte says it is a lot quieter in the park in the summer when the snowbirds head north. "We still play cards and hold dances. Sometimes there may only be 14 people at a dance but we still have fun."

As for the hats: "I have about 150 different hats in my bedroom. I like wearing hats that kind of go with my outfits. Almost 99 percent of the time, I go out with one on. If I don't wear a hat someone will say to me, 'Where is your hat?' I can't go anywhere without wearing one. I guess you could say that's become a trademark."

At the Valentine's Dance Charlotte sported more than a hat as she fashioned a pair of shoes that lite up and glowed in the dark. She got the shoes as a Christmas present from Debbie Heil. Could this be the beginning of another trend? Charlotte didn't say but one thing we do know. Both Charlotte and Beverly love it Bay Ranch and plan to stick around. "We've had some ups and downs but we both agree we couldn't have picked a better place to live. We'll be here until we die."

Wayne Redshaw, Hall of Famer

By Carol Raabe

Wayne Redshaw's insightful and compassionate columns have graced the pages of the Bay Ranch Review for several years. His column, "Bay Ranch Profile," is one we look forward to reading when the Review is dropped in our mailboxes, so we know Wayne is one of our treasures. The sports world in Canada has recognized this for a long time.

On May 2, Wayne will be inducted into the Ontario Golf Hall of Fame, celebrating his contributions of golf in Ontario, and they are many. He has covered close to 40 PGA tour events, including 30 Canadian Opens. Two of his three books are about golf. And in 1996, he launched the hugely successful magazine FORE! Golfers Only in the Niagra Region. At the time it was the only weekly golf publication in Canada. He sold the magazine after 12 years but still writes for it. Wayne credits his late wife Dianne for playing a major role in the success of the magazine.

Wayne has been a sports journalist since 1962, beginning his career at the daily Welland (Ontario) Tribune as a sportswriter and moving up to sports editor in 1965, a position he held for 30 years. As editor, he reported on major events in numerous sports. He covered three World Series, in 1968 when the Detroit Tigers faced the St. Louis Cardinals, and in 1992 and 1993 when the Toronto Blue Jays won back-to-back championships. He also covered a number of Grey Cup games in the Canadian Football League.

But besides golf, hockey has been another major interest for Wayne. He wrote about hockey for two national wire services, the Canadian Press and the Associated Press. He also reported on hockey as a freelance writer for major newspapers in Canada and the United States. In those capacities, he covered international hockey, including traveling to various countries. He is delighted to have reported on games in the memorable 1972 Summit Series between Canada and the Soviet Union. He also covered four Stanley Cup finals, including two involving the Buffalo Sabres. And, of course, his third book was about hockey.

Wayne is very proud of his recent election into the Ontario Golf Hall of Fame. But this is not his first foray into celebrity for his work. In 1987, he was named a Life Member of the Professional Hockey Writer's Association. Hockey honored him again in 2000, inducting him into the Buffalo Sabres Hockey Hall of fame for his NHL reporting. In 1991, he was named an Honorary Director of the Canadian Professional Golfers Association. In 2001, he was named Welland's Sportsman of the Year and in 2013, he was inducted into the Welland Sports Hall of Fame for his overall sports writing.

None of these past honors takes the shine off Wayne's most recent accolade. Congratulations, Wayne, from your friends and neighbors at Bay Ranch. Wayne's induction into Ontario's Golf Hall of Fame will take place in Uxbridge at the Wooden Sticks Golf Club northeast of Toronto.
