JUST SAYIN'

By Residents' Club President Jeanne Hunter

Bay Ranch is booming with activity this time of year. Last month's Superbowl Party was a big success (unless you are a Panthers fan). And the Valentine Dance rocked the house. Now we're looking forward to the Frank & Dean Show and Dance. This one is sponsored by the Shuffleboard crew and is a guaranteed fun evening. The Annual Pig Roast provides fun, food and socializing with neighbors. Don't forget to buy your $5 ticket for the drawing – the winner gets a free month's rent! Your odds are a lot better than the lottery and the proceeds go to the Help Fund, giving back to our neighbors in need of a hand.

Stop by the clubhouse and check out the bulletin boards. Sign up for a day trip or a cruise, enjoy a lunch out with the Women's Club or join the Sunset Club for a dinner on the beach and great view of our Florida sunset on the gulf.

The monthly Review will update you on all the activities. Check for weekly line dancing or exercise classes. Get outdoors and join shuffleboard, golf or horseshoes groups. Times for poker, canasta, euchre and more are listed.

Join the Koffee Klatsch Monday mornings from 8AM to 9AM, visit with neighbors and start your day with a cup of coffee and a doughnut. Stay for the Residents Club meeting and get the most up-to-date information on all the Park activities.

Something to think about... Twenty years ago, we had Johnny Cash, Bob Hope and Steve Jobs. Now we have no cash, no hope and no jobs. PLEASE don't let Kevin Bacon die! Just sayin'!

CLIFF'S NOTES

Pig Roast

The annual Pig Roast is coming up in March. Watch the bulletin boards in the Clubhouse for more information.

Raffle for One Month's Free Rent

Every year Bay Ranch Management has a "Free Rent Raffle" for one month's free rent. Tickets are $5.00. Ticket sales started on December 30th at the Monday Morning Koffee Klatch, or call Rose Kalp at 507-8693. The drawing will be held at our Annual Pig Roast in March. Buy as many as you like, and Good Luck.

LETTERS

Please Be A Responsible Dog Owner

This has been addressed many times by the management but somehow, some are not paying attention. On Saturday I drove down to the dumpsters to take my trash. Arms full, I deposited my trash in the containers then drove back home. Going into my house as usual. I headed down the hall way. On my return trip back to the kitchen, I saw a large spatter of mud on my kitchen floor. I got a paper towel to clean it up but PHEW! The smell hit me. It was dog poop.

Now I am not a dog owner and I'm not in pet section, so I am not in contact with dog poop except to take out my trash. I don't like or appreciate tracking such in my car and then on into my house and scrubbing the bottom of my shoes.

If you are a pet owner--and I know dogs need to walk--you really need to take care of your dog's waste so others don't do as I did. If you want a dog then take care of it responsibly.

Very irritated,
Linda Goldstein

FROM THE EDITOR

Tornado Preparedness

Source: <http://www.pinellascounty.org/emergency/tornado.htm> and others

Compiled by Carol Raabe

It is important to have a plan for all types of emergency situations. This article will focus on tornado preparedness. Unlike hurricanes or floods, an approaching tornado allows you only a brief amount of time to make life-or-death decisions. Advance planning and quick response are the keys to surviving a tornado.

Mobile homes offer poor resistance to tornado winds; hurricane straps or other tie-downs will not protect a mobile home from the wind gusts associated with tornadoes. You should plan on leaving your mobile home to seek shelter elsewhere. The Bay Ranch Clubhouse could offer safe haven.

Q. When should you leave your home due to a possible tornado?

A. When a tornado warning is issued for your area by the National Weather Service.

A Tornado Warning indicates that a tornado has been sighted in your area, or is indicated on weather radar. You should proceed to safe shelter immediately.

A Tornado Watch is issued by the National Weather Service when tornadoes are possible in your area. You should remain alert for approaching storms and carefully monitor radio or television reports for further developments.

Q. How will I know Bay Ranch is in a tornado warning area?

A. There are several ways to get notified of a possible tornado.

1. Use a cell phone enabled for Wireless Emergency Alerts (see article below).
2. Sign up for Alert Pinellas, an emergency notification service. It is FREE to Pinellas County residents and will give the county multiple ways to get the word to you whenever an urgent situation arises. All you have to do is register your contact information with Alert Pinellas and an automated message will be sent to alert you to local emergencies. <http://www.pinellascounty.org/alertpinellas/default.htm>
3. The Weather Channel. Notification can be sent to your cell phone or desk-top
 - Free mobile and e-mail alerts (message and data rates from your mobile phone company may apply) at <https://registration.weather.com/ursa/alerts/step1> and <http://www.weather.com/mobile>
 - Free desktop alerts at <http://www.weather.com/services/desktop.html> and <http://www.weather.com/services/twcalerts.html>
4. Sign up with local tv stations
5. Purchase a NOAA Weather Alert radio with an alert feature.

Wireless Emergency Alerts Surprise Florida Residents

Ed. Note: this is an excerpt of an article by Kevin Spear, McClatchy News | April 2, 2014

As dark clouds and lightning bore down on Central Florida in April 2014, countless cellphones in the region vibrated and sounded off with a dire message: "Tornado Warning in this area. ... Take shelter now."

Many cell owners were surprised and wondering how the alert showed up on their phones. Phones from Sanford to Walt Disney World sounded off as part of the federal government's Wireless Emergency Alerts system set up in 2012 for Amber Alerts and warnings about terror threats, chemical spills, tsunamis and potentially deadly weather.

It's meant to be used sparingly, said Chuck Hagen, logistics chief with the Florida Division of Emergency Management. "We don't want to be lighting phones up every 10 minutes."

The alerts are not text messages or emails. They have their own format, cannot be replied to and arrive with their own tone and vibration pattern. There's no charge for them.

The voluntary program has been ramping up gradually among carriers and cellphone makers. And phones that weren't initially programmed to receive WEA information are getting updates to receive the alerts.

AT&T is able [at the time the article was originally published] to send WEA messages to 33 models of phones. The company says on its website that it is working to bring more phones into the system: "Please check back regularly to see if your smartphone has been added." Other carriers, including Sprint, T-Mobile and Verizon, provide similar information on their websites.

The WEA system also doesn't care what a phone's area code is; alerts are sent from cell towers in areas in harm's way to all phones capable of hearing them. That's why out-of-state tourists at Central Florida theme parks got the messages last year. If somebody driving along a highway enters a danger zone after a warning was initially sent out, the driver will still get pinged with a WEA message waiting in a queue.

I Remember Maggie Morgan

By Chris Christenson

Here are some of my random thoughts of Maggie I wanted to share with you. Maggie was here before I was (yes, that's hard to believe). She told me years ago that she and Jim were the first to build on the north side of the park and that she could see cars (yes, cars) driving on Ulmerton Road when she stood in her front yard and looked. She remembered the dirt removed from the south side of the park was used to help level our north side.

Bay Ranch was at one time called the “Gay” ranch—that was the previous owner’s name. We laughed about that.

She and Jim were involved in many activities and loved to dance and have a good time. For many years Maggie led the exercises in the club house, and when it was taken over by others through the years, she would whistle the tune “Tiny Bubbles” while we, the exercise group, did the hula—both in the club house in the winter months and in the pool in the summer.

Once Maggie made up her mind, nothing could change it. Several years ago, I took her a bowl of my chili (I made good chili—I really do), but she refused it saying, “I am tcherman and don’t eat chili.” She always said it like it was! You could count on Maggie.

I know many others have memories of Maggie, too. She was my good friend and I miss her—and her whistle when we do the hula.

LET'S EAT

by Ione Jones

Everyone seems to be so busy these days that cooking meals is often difficult to fit into your schedule. Your slow cooker or crockpot can often help have meals ready even when you have been gone for most of the day. Using the barbecue rub found below on chicken or pork makes a very quick and easy start to a great meal. The recipe makes enough to use on several meals. It can be used on meat in the oven, on the grill, cooked on the stovetop.

Barbecue Rub

- 4 Tablespoons paprika
- 4 Tablespoons brown sugar
- 2 Tablespoons chile powder
- 1 Tablespoons ground black pepper
- 2 teaspoons garlic powder
- 2 teaspoons onion powder
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme

Combine all ingredients and store in an airtight container. Makes about 1 cup.

St Patrick's Day is coming soon and Irish Stew is a favorite of many. Here is a recipe found in Taste of Home for this all-time favorite. It makes multiple servings and great leftovers.

Irish Beef Stew Recipe

- 8 bacon strips, diced
- 1/3 cup all-purpose flour
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1/2 teaspoon pepper
- 3 pounds beef stew meat, cut into 1" cubes
- 1 pound whole fresh mushrooms, quartered
- 3 medium leeks (white portion only), chopped
- 2 medium carrots, chopped
- 1/4 cup chopped celery
- 1 tablespoon canola oil
- 4 garlic cloves, minced
- 1 tablespoon tomato paste
- 4 cups reduced-sodium beef broth
- 1 cup dark stout beer or additional reduced-sodium beef broth
- 2 bay leaves
- 1 teaspoon dried thyme
- 1 teaspoon dried parsley flakes
- 1 teaspoon dried rosemary, crushed
- 2 pounds Yukon Gold potatoes, cut into 1-inch cubes
- 2 tablespoons cornstarch
- 2 tablespoons cold water
- 1 cup frozen peas

Directions

1. In a stockpot, cook bacon over medium heat until crisp. Using a slotted spoon, remove to paper towels. In a large resealable plastic bag, combine flour, salt and pepper. Add beef, a few pieces at a time, and shake to coat. Brown beef in the bacon drippings. Remove and set aside.
2. In the same pan, saute the mushrooms, leeks, carrots and celery in oil until tender. Add garlic; cook 1 minute longer. Stir in tomato paste until blended. Add the broth, beer, bay leaves, thyme, parsley and rosemary. Return beef and bacon to pan. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer for 2 hours or until beef is tender.
3. Add potatoes. Return to a boil. Reduce heat; cover and simmer 1 hour longer or until potatoes are tender. Combine cornstarch and water until smooth; stir into stew. Bring to a boil; cook and stir for 2 minutes or until thickened. Add peas; heat through. Discard bay leaves. Yield: 15 servings (3-3/4 quarts)

A LAUGH OR TWO

Submitted by Mary Lou Foos

ODE TO A PILL

A little pill here in my hand
I wonder how you understand
Just what to do, or where to go
To stop the ache that hurts me so.

Within our covering lies relief
You work alone in unbelief
You sink in regions there below
As down my throat you quickly go.

But I wonder, little pill
How do you know where I am ill?
And just how do you really know
Just where you are supposed to go?

I've got a headache, that is true!
My broken ribs need attention, too.
So how can anything so small
End my aches in no time at all?

Do you work alone or hire a crew
To do the good things that you do?
I'm counting on you mighty strong
To get in there where you belong.

Don't let me down and please don't shirk
But do your undercover work.
So down my throat be on your way
And end the aches I feel today.

Don't make a wrong turn, is my plea
"Cause I can't take another 'til after three.

MONTHLY QUESTION:

What I miss about winters up North

By Carol Raabe

Some people can't stand the heat and some, the cold. Honestly, I can't stand either. My range of comfortable temperatures is very small, so winters in Florida are perfect. Nearly perfect.

Nearly, because there ARE some things I miss about winter. I miss the sunny days right after a wet snowstorm when everything is coated with glittering crystals, a winter wonderland. I miss watching my cat hunting voles below the birdfeed, watching, watching, watching, then diving headfirst into the snowbank. I miss playing in the snow, skiing, making a snowman or snow angels.

I miss many things. But I'd still rather be here.

The QUESTION OF THE MONTH for April: A Favorite Spring Memory.

As usual, answer the April QUESTION OF THE MONTH and submit to the editor (Carol Raabe, nelsonraabe@gmail.com, Coach 228, 605-730-0476) by the 10th of the month . Your submission must be in your own words and may be edited (I'm a nice editor, I promise). Please try to keep it to 300 words or less.

Bay Ranch Profile: Bob and Gin Lupton

By Wayne Redshaw

Bob and Gin Lupton are more than just involved in an activity at Bay Ranch. They have been totally involved in numerous activities over the years.

Since moving to Florida from Pennsylvania 11 years ago for Bob and 10 for Gin as she required another year at work to collect her pension and other benefits, both have been actively involved with organizations and starting new events at Bay Ranch.

Bob for example served one term on the Homeowners Association. He then became involved with the Residents' Club and was asked to read the birthdays and anniversaries every Monday morning for a couple of years. Then Russ Trombly, his good friend, suggested he should run for president as there was an opening. Bob recalls saying he would if someone would take over reading the birthdays and anniversaries every Monday. Fortunately there was so Bob ran for president and won. He would serve two terms, then step down. However, he returned to the post last spring when the president resigned and Bob served as interim president until the fall elections.

In addition, Bob has become a D.J. as he has always had a love for music and oldies. "I am not a great singer but I love karaoke and I have built up quite a collection," said Bob. "I have also invested in a gigantic speaker and equipment and last summer had a lot of free dances in the clubhouse with about 25 to 30 showing up. It wasn't big but they had an enjoyable time." This past January, Bob and Gin were the D.J.'s. For the Help Fund Dance and it was a success as his music was well received from the participation on the dance floor and he was able to fulfill the 30 requests he received during the night.

Recently, Bob started up a Facebook organization within the park called "Neighbors" and it has taken off. It's a friendly site with only one rule: No negative comments allowed. The page lets you know what's going on in the park and features pictures which Bob is also known for as he loves taking pictures. Neighbors started with with just a few friends participating but at last count 101 residents in the park are on board.

Of course what Bob is best known for in the park is organizing the Sunset Club. What started out as a picnic on the beach with a few park residents two years ago has mushroomed into a monthly outing. And from the sandy beach, they are now indoors viewing the picturesque sunsets from various restaurants and dining rooms. The numbers have grown too according to Gin, who is now in charge of the Sunset Club as Bob has a work commitment on Wednesdays when the club assembles. "From our first outing, it has kept growing and growing and we've had over 60," said Gin, who now heads up the Club. "All we ask is that residents going please sign up in the clubhouse so we can let the place know in advance how many are coming."

Bob and Gin have been married for 44 years. They have two children, Megan and Michael, and two grandchildren, Zachary and Ryan. They both feel they made "the best choice" they ever could have made coming to Bay Ranch. "The people made us welcome," added Bob. "At Christmas time, I really like the Christmas Eve service Cliff puts on every year because it's with my family. This is my family now."

Going the store? Why leave the house?

Shopping online has exploded in recent years. One example: A survey conducted by 72 Point Inc. and commissioned by Door to Door Organics, an online organic grocer, found that shoppers increased their online grocery purchases by an average of 29 percent in the past year, and those shoppers do about 19 percent of their weekly grocery shopping via the Internet.

Extra sleep may not lead to longer life

Most of us look forward to sleeping late on the weekend. After a hard week of work, we deserve a few extra hours, right? But a study from the Journal of Clinical Endocrinology & Metabolism suggests that sleeping in may contribute to a higher risk of diabetes and heart disease.

Researchers tracked more than men and women age 30-54, using devices that recorded their movement to determine when they fell asleep and woke up for a one-week period. Close to 85 percent went to bed later and got up later on their days off from work, and those people tended to experience lower levels of HDL cholesterol (the good kind) along with higher triglycerides, greater resistance to insulin, and a higher body mass index, even after controlling for factors like physical activity, calorie consumption, and alcohol use.

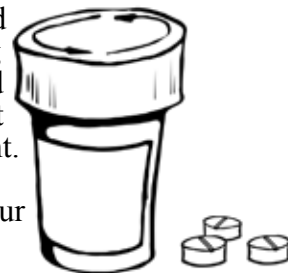

The implications are clear: Maintaining a consistent sleep schedule, even on weekends, is better for everyone's long-term health.

Aspirin prevents skin cancer?

Aspirin is known to cure our aches and pains and improve heart health. It may also be useful in preventing certain kinds of skin cancer, according to an article on the Discover magazine website.

Non-steroidal anti-inflammatory drugs (NSAIDs) like aspirin and ibuprofen are already known to help prevent cancers in the colon, lungs, prostate, and breasts. A meta-analysis of studies, some previously unavailable to researchers, turned up evidence that non-aspirin NSAIDs can reduce the risk of developing squamous cell carcinoma by 15 percent, and that when aspirin is added to the mix, the risk drops to 18 percent. NSAIDs are known to inhibit COX-2, an enzyme produced by skin cells in response to ultraviolet light.

Talk to your dermatologist about aspirin, and otherwise limit your exposure to UV light to stay safe from skin cancer all year round.
