CLIFF'S NOTES

Editor's note: No new notes from Management

Lost and Found Dog/Cat: If you have found a dog or cat, you can post on a site called pawboost.com or call Animal Service on Walsingham. If you call, Animal Services will come out, free of charge, to pick up an animal. Any questions, please call Rose Kalp at 459-4808. We have sent quite a few animals to animal services.

PLEASE BE a responsible owner and have your animal fixed. This service is very low cost through animal services.

Snowbirds [and Vacationers]: Before you leave:

1. Please make sure you have someone doing your weeds, trees, etc., and keep mobile clean on the outside during the summer.
2. Make sure anything that can be pitched around with the wind is put away.
3. If you have a change of address, please make sure you notify the office.

All Residents: Rules commonly broken:

1. Parking overnight on street and/or every day.
2. If you have someone living with you, make sure you have registered in the office.
3. Do not pile garbage in front of garbage bins. When you throw garbage, throw it to the back so when you open the door, it doesn't fall out and there is space.
4. Check mobile for cleaning, trim, awnings, driveway and/or painting. We will have someone out soon checking your mobile.

Still relevant announcements Cliff made this year at Koffee Klatch:

1. Keep the dumpster area neat, especially on the weekends. If the dumpster is full, please put extras neatly beside it.
2. Parking on the grass or sidewalk is against the rules. If necessary, park on the road.
3. Cars parked on the street after midnight will be towed. [Eds. Note: you have to pay the fine even if you run out before the tow truck takes your car away. We have nice neighbors who remind us when we are parked on the street at night.]
4. The Office must authorize overnight parking at the Clubhouse.

These messages are posted in the Clubhouse and pertain to every month:

Every Friday from 9 to noon: please turn off your hot water tanks. We use this time to fix leaks in the park.

Every Sunday at 5 p.m.: please flush your toilet(s). Our sewers were designed for more pressure than they get with low flow toilets. Flushing simultaneously will increase pressure and help keep the lines clean.

Help for Severe Aortic Stenosis

Severe aortic stenosis is a narrowed aortic heart valve that doesn't open and close properly, reducing blood flow to the rest of the body.

Morton Plant Hospital is now enrolling eligible patients in the Medtronic Evolut R low-risk trial, which investigates the safety and effectiveness of a transcatheter aortic valve replacement (TAVR) system in patients with severe aortic stenosis who are at a low surgical mortality risk. TAVR is a minimally invasive alternative to open-heart surgery used to treat failing aortic heart valves in patients with severe aortic stenosis. Morton Plant Hospital was chosen as the first hospital in Tampa Bay to offer the TAVR procedure for patients with severe aortic stenosis who were at an intermediate or high surgical mortality risk. Our team has completed more than 700 TAVR procedures over the last five years.

To see if you or a loved one with severe aortic stenosis may be eligible for this trial, or for more information on the trial, call the Center for Advanced Valve and Structural Heart Care at Morton Plant Hospital at (855) 44-VALVE (855-448-2583) or visit MortonPlantValveTrial.org.

Just Sayin'

By Jeanne Hunter, President

(Jeanne's column will be back next month.)

FROM THE EDITOR

By Carol Raabe, Editor

The frost is on the punkin', so to speak, so many of us snowbirds are ready to fly back to our winter home. How's that for a mixed metaphor? Truth is, for this snowbird summer is a little long. You all probably know I go north to see "the kids," mostly my sister's grandkids and now, one of my own. Didn't see as much of them as I had hoped, but did see my son who is still recovering from a bike (yes, I mean bicycle) accident on July 4. He was wearing a helmet, so the worst didn't happen.

My summer activities are heavily loaded with gardening. Jan is really into it, too, so we have fun outside together until it gets too hot. Where we live, luckily mosquitoes are not a problem because it's so windy . . .

Our gardening is limited at Bay Ranch, but once in a while I hear an inkling that some of you have wonderful gardens hidden away in your backyards. Wouldn't it be fun to have a series of columns with pictures featuring Bay Ranch gardens? For example, I hear Dee Murphy's backyard is wonderful . . . I'll be looking for volunteers to feature their own garden or their neighbor's, so please be thinking. Patios, too, could be featured, if you admire one or more.

One thing I'm really looking forward to this fall is the November 11 Flea Market in the clubhouse. My sisters and I have been making crafts to display and hopefully sell, so I hope buyers come with a mindset to buy Christmas and holiday gifts.

Thanks to Dot Lawrence for stepping in for Joan Seiders to head up this project. She has all 35 tables sold and lots of good ideas to fill them up. She is even thinking of holding a kind of Antique Roadshow to appraise your vintage and antique goods.

And thanks to all those who have stepped in for Joan. She and Bill have been part of the life blood of this park since we moved here, and I for one am hoping Joan will soon resume some of her previous activities.

November 11 is also Veteran's Day, the real and the observed one. I don't know if this is true historically or only for the last 50 years or so, but I've seen this country's admiration for veterans swing like a pendulum from really low, during the Vietnam era (a real travesty, in my opinion) to very high in the present. Certainly the men and women and their families who sacrificed always deserve our thanks and our respect. THANK YOU.

And now, I sign off with the sometimes but not always ominous phrase: Winter is coming.

BOB'S CORNER

By Bob Lupton

Hi folks,

I just got out of the pool so I decided to try and put something together for this month. I am writing this in October but it is my November article so I must think ahead. By the time you read this we will have celebrated Halloween and the dance was a HUGE (read in the style of Billy Fuccillo), we're talkin' HUGE success. Oh and my birthday is only 2 weeks away so set your calendars for a birthday celebration on November 15th. Last year we went to the Legion and I was told I had a great time. The best thing about November is most of our snow birds return. I miss them a lot!

Random thoughts

Why did Cinderella's shoe fall off if it was supposed to be a perfect fit?

If a turtle loses his shell, is he naked or homeless?

Bob's Joke of the month:

An elderly couple had dinner at another couple's house, and after eating, the wives left the table and went into the kitchen. The two gentlemen were talking and one said, "Last night we went out to a new restaurant and it was really great. I would recommend it very highly."

The other man said, "What is the name of the restaurant?"

The first man thought and thought, and finally said, "What is the name of that flower you give to someone you love? You know, the one that's red and has thorns?"

"Do you mean a rose?"

"Yes, that's the one," replied the man. He turned toward the kitchen and yelled, "Rose, what's the name of the restaurant we went to last night?"

Ok guys . Yes I am just filling space, .lol I know I will have a lot more to add next month when everyone returns. Until then Love you all...Bob

Ed. Note: I'm not aware of any special events for November, but watch the Bulletin Board outside the Clubhouse for planned events. We usually have dinner at the Clubhouse on Thanksgiving. Also, since many snowbirds have returned or will soon return, most/much of the activities will get up and running. Come to the Monday Morning Meeting and/or watch the bulletin boards at the Clubhouse for information. Here's what we do know now:

Sunset Club Schedule

October 18	TBD
November 15	The Reef Seafood and Steak
December 20	TBD
January 17	Cruise, Lanlubbers choice
February 21	The Post Pizza
March 21	The Hurricane Restaurant

Flea Market and Craft Sale

Bay Ranch Residents' Club will sponsor a Flea Market and Craft sale on November 11. Besides flea market consumables and crafts, the sale will include cakes and a concession. Dot Lawrence has taken over for Joan Seiders on the sale, and of course she will appreciate any offers of help. This will be a big project!

At this late date, all 35 tables are reserved. Dot posted these messages on "Neighbors:"

I will need help on Friday night after bingo Nov 10....setting up tables....vendors may set up Friday pm after bingo or Saturday am starting at 6am...I will post here if anything presents itself....

Goodwill will come to the clubhouse the afternoon of the sale to pick up things you never want to see again...

In looking for things to sell do not overlook costume jewelry.... clocks and watches working or not... tools..(lots of guy shoppers)....paintings and old photos....kitchen stuff...etc

And i want to see your crafts out there... christmas is coming so gift shoppers will be there...

I am thinking of running my table as an "antiques roadshow" type of verbal appraisal booth... charging $5.00 for an appraisal. What do you all think... i have been an antique dealer for over 45 years .. i need to use my knowledge.

Eds. Note: Neighbors is a private Facebook page reserved for Bay Ranch residents. If you don't have access and want it, please contact Bob Lupton.

Please address questions to Dot Lawrence, Coach 265.

2016-17 RESIDENT CLUB SPORTS ACTIVITIES

*Sports and Games, Director, Paul Puerling, Coach 170, 533-9324
Entertainment Director*

Some sports activities, like Shuffleboard, are likely to start up during October, but this month is really “preseason.” Continue to watch the bulletin boards at the Clubhouse for changes and additions to activities’ schedules. Many changes to the activities happen during the summer as people come up with spur-of-the moment things to do.

Horseshoes

Boyd Stonerock, Coach 1364, 269-501-0146

The final game of the Horseshoe season was March 27. A few people are planning to continue to play Mondays after that time. Horseshoe aluminum cans collecting for fundraising will continue through the summer. Please drop off soda and beer cans at Boyd’s coach across the street at John Trygsted’s, Coach 1377. . Horseshoe competition will begin again in January.

Line Dance

Elda Hastings, Coach 210, 223-4512, and Carol Olson, Coach 230

The Variety Show on March 25 was the last Line Dance activity for this year. Watch for it to start up again in December or January.

Men's Golf

William (Bill) Kovacs, Coach 1351, 286-6752

Organized Men’s Golf has ended for year. Watch the Review for information about start-up in the fall.

Mermaids

Doris Lanier, Coach 1358, 230-1991

Swimnastics has ended for the year.

Shuffleboard

Sharon Allen, President, Coach 1342, 532-4071

Season: November to March

All Shuffleboard practices and games, including Hoss Collar, will start up this month. Watch the bulletin board, or ask anyone practicing on the court for details.

Women’s Golf

Jan Kovacs, Coach 1351, 286-6752

Organized Women’s Golf will likely start up when Jan returns to Bay Ranch. Watch the bulletin board for information. Jan always attends the Monday Morning Meeting when she is here, too, so information about plans for golf will be available in person.

Veterans Day

By Carol Raabe

Veterans Day honors all veterans of the United States armed forces.

A traditional observation is a moment of silence at 11 AM remembering those who fought for peace, commemorating the cease-fire in the 1918 armistice which was scheduled for "the eleventh hour of the eleventh day of the eleventh month."

Many cities around the country celebrate Veterans Day with a parade. An annual Veterans Day parade takes place on 5th Avenue in Manhattan with over 500,000 attendees. A quick internet search found 2017 parades scheduled in Colorado Springs, Phoenix, Atlanta, Detroit, Boston, Dallas, Las Vegas, and many more. In Florida, Jacksonville, St. Augustine, Orlando, and Tampa plan parades in 2017.

Across the country, many restaurants and fast food chains offer free meals to veterans.

President Woodrow Wilson first proclaimed November 11, 1919, a day of recognition for Veterans of the Great War (World War I). In May 1938, the 11th of November in each year was declared a legal holiday and was known as 'Armistice Day'.

In 1953, a shoe store owner named Al King started a campaign that the day should celebrate all veterans, not just those who served in World War 1, suggesting it should be renamed 'All Veterans Day'.

Al's idea was taken up by his local Chamber of Commerce and then by a local congressman, who helped push a bill for the holiday through Congress. President Eisenhower signed it into law and in May 1954, Congress amended the law and officially replaced 'Armistice' with 'Veterans'.

The source of most of this information and some of the language is <http://www.officeholidays.com/countries/usa/veteransday.php>.

On The Lighter Side: A Story for Thanksgiving

By Carol Raabe

How Indian Corn Came into the World

Ojibwa legend

Wunzh, the eldest son of a kind, poor Indian, is the age when boys in his tribe fasts so he can see a vision of his Spirit Guide. Wunzh is a good boy and wishes, more than anything, that he could do something great for the people of his tribe. Wunzh withdraws to a small lodge apart from the village and begins his fast.

On the first day, he walks through the forests and meadows, filling his mind with the flowers, trees, all the growing things in hopes that he will dream of them in the night.

“Truly,” thought he, “the Great Spirit made all things. To Him we owe our lives. But could He not make it easier for us to get our food than by hunting and catching fish? I must try to find this out in my vision.”

He returns to his hut and sleeps. On the third day of fasting, when he is becoming weak, he sees a vision of a young brave dressed in green and yellow come down from the sky. This stranger tells Wunzh that the Great Spirit has seen his fast and knows of his wish. The stranger says that Wunzh must wrestle him, that Wunzh will learn the secret only by defeating him. The two wrestle, but Wunzh is too weak. The stranger tells him to stop for now, that he will return tomorrow. On the third day, Wunzh overcomes the stranger.

“O Wunzh, my friend,” said the conquered one, “you have wrestled manfully. You have met your trial well. Tomorrow I shall come again and you must wrestle with me for the last time.

“When you have prevailed, strip off my garments, throw me down, clean the earth of roots and weeds, and bury me in that spot. When you have done so, leave my body in the ground.

“Come often to the place and see whether I have come to life, but be careful not to let weeds or grass grow on my grave. If you do all this well, you will soon discover how to benefit your fellow creatures.” Having said this, the stranger disappeared.

The next day, everything happens as the stranger said. After burying the stranger, Wunzh returns to his father’s house, but he never forgets to tend his friend’s grave, pulling weeds, keeping the soil moist. One day, near the end of summer, he has his father follow him to the spot and there, where the brave was buried, grows tall, strong stalks bearing clusters of sweet, gold corn.

“It is my friend!” shouted the boy joyously. “It is Mondawmin, the Indian Corn! We need no longer depend on hunting, so long as this gift is planted and cared for. The Great Spirit has heard my voice and has sent us this food.”

The family feasts and gives thanks to the Great Spirit. And that’s how Indian Corn came into the world.

GOOD TIMES AT BAY RANCH

October turned into party time, with Bob Lupton and others back in circulation. These photos, taken by Bob Lupton and Ruth Flescher Moore, are mostly from different social events last month. Party on, Bay Ranch.

As usual, these pictures were downloaded from Facebook. If you take pictures of Bay Ranch events and don't put them on Facebook but want me to consider putting them in the Review, you can email them to nelsonraabe@gmail.com or message them to 605-730-0476.
