From the Board of Directors

Penny Gilray President

A lot of “sprucing up” has been done over the last few months - from painting to cleaning street signs and fixing water leaks and fences, we want to thank the many volunteers that have given their time to keep our community looking great. We appreciate you!!!

Many of our snowbirds will be leaving for the north in the next few weeks. Here is a checklist of items to do before you leave –

1. Make sure someone is in charge of your property and notify the Association who it is.
2. Update your contact address with the Association before you leave. Forms can be found in this news bulletin or at the clubhouse and may be left in the depository at the clubhouse.
3. Change the batteries in your sprinkler timer and make sure they are on the correct time.
4. Make sure ALL items around your home have been stowed. During hurricane season, a mat or mail basket can become a projectile and do damage to your home or your neighbors.

For those of you who will be staying in Blue Jay over the summer please be sure to have an emergency plan and supplies in case there is a weather event. Better to be ready and not need it than scramble at the last minute.

The next Board meeting will be held on Tuesday April 19th at 7:00pm. Mark your calendar and plan to attend.

I will be heading north April 23rd however, I plan to attend the operational meetings on Mondays by telephone to stay current and involved. I can be reached at 905-430-3132 or by e-mail at lpgilray@aol.com. Sheila Voss will be handling the day to day activity. Any complaints - or accolades - should be put in the box.

Did you know that you can view the monthly bulletin on line – great for those heading north!! The address is www.monthlymedia.info. Then look for Blue Jay.

For those heading north, have a safe trip and for everyone make it a great summer!!

From the Social Club

Bud Fox, Chairperson

April is upon us. As anticipated, Ron and Nancy Beardsley did a great job with the Valentine's Day dance. The anniversary party was a very wonderful event celebrating 50 years of marriage for so many couples in the park. This year's honorees were the McLinns and the Whitworths with the Balls, Blanchards and Gilrays as hosts. Emcee, Ron Beardsley did a wonderful made the presentation meaningful and thoughtful with his poems and tributes. We were entertained with piano music from his son Newton.

Our activity ladies (Betty Ball, Linda Dingman and Barb McCorkel) hosted a great pizza party. The restaurant gave them a big unexpected discount, all of which provided a healthy donation to the Social Club's account. And, of course, Rich Williams provided sounds of "our seasons". Thanks to all for a great evening.

March had the St. Patrick's Day dance, spring White Elephant sale, the annual golf outing and Easter Breakfast. It's still a little strange writing about these events in the past tense when they haven't yet occurred, but that's the way it has to be to make it into the book on time. More about them next month.

Some of you will be preparing for your journey back to your "part time" homes up North. To you, we wish a safe journey and a healthy summer. To those of us who stay here, get your a/c's checked 'cause you know what's coming (90° and 90% humidity). YUK.

November's Blue Jay Rummage Sale

by Sally Ericson, Editor

I know we have just finished with our spring individual rummage sale. Hopefully all had fun as well as being lucrative!

Now we are already planning our annual fall "Trash & Treasures" sale. Joan Addington, #66, is Chairlady of this big event.....(and, works very hard and diligently on making it such a success)!.....Joan has told us that sometime ago a box of plastic bags from a Food-Sealer was donated. She was pleased to find these bags were great for separating and packaging many items for sale.

Also, other, much needed items are - many bags for new linens of any size; masking tape, or clear packing tape.

Joan thanks all of you for your support and participation.....

St. Patrick's Dance

by Mike McKenna

On March 12th there was "Irish Thunder" at Blue Jay. We had 115 coming to our popular St. Patrick's Dance. With the band playing "When Irish Eyes Are Smiling" in the back ground, Mike McKenna opened up the night and welcomed everyone. If you were there that night, the celebrations went this way:

"Top of the evening to ya.. And a Happy St. Patty's Day too. It's great to be here and at my age it's great to be anywhere. Ah. I know what yer thinking---No, I'm not a Leprechaun. Just a fun lovin Irishman. But I have a Leprechaun joke for ya. Knock- Knock, Irish. Irish who? I--rish you would have found that big pot O-gold. Sorry. But me-self found it first! Ah- begoorah. Now I see yer Irish eyes a smilin. On behalf of your Irish Hosts; That would be Ms. Jackie Triplett, me-self, Mike McKenna and me pretty little Irish wife, Patty. A big warm welcome to everyone. We're glad ya could make it to the "Ole Blue Jay Pub" for a really big Irish jig. Aye,I luv ya. We're happy ya made it.

Lookin out over this crowd I see a whole bunch of ya Irishman. I didn't know we have so many of them here at Blue Jay. Who said "Canada" is taking over? It's the Irish! I see 50 shades of green. Green socks, green bloomers, green knickers, and a couple of green Poodle skirts.-----And that's just the men! Now then I see yer Irish eyes a smilin again.

Enough of the Balarney baloney. Are ya ready to party?! I feel the excitement in the room. So everyone grab your Leprechaun and made this Irish Jig happen. Band are ya ready? Take it away. And away we go. How sweet it is. Erin Go Bragh."

And it truly was.....To all who were there, you made it a wonderful magical night. Slante.

Red Hat Mamas

Paulette Derr, Queen Mother

Thirty three of our Red Hat Mamas and two guests went to Ruth Eckerd Hall on Thursday, February 11, 2016 to see “Deana Martin Presents Dean Martin & Frank Sinatra”. Claire Wilson’s daughter, Debbie, accompanied her mother and Elaine Braga’s friend, Donna, joined us for this gala event. The show was wonderful! Deana has a beautiful voice, sang her Dad’s and “Uncle’s” songs along with some of Sammy Davis’ hits, told some jokes and the music kept every one moving in their seats. We all had a box lunch with a sandwich of our choice, a small container of potato salad and a cookie. We could also have iced or hot tea, coffee or punch and we ate in the dining area. All in all, it was a very nice day and all the ladies seemed to enjoy both the lunch and show.

Some of us, of course, stopped along the way home for more dessert and a bit of chit chat. We always have to discuss what happened during the course of the day and what might take place in the days to come.

Remember, gals, every one of you are invited to join the Red Hat Mamas. We now have a membership of over fifty women, but we can always make room for more! All you need is $3.00 to join, a red hat or something red for your hair and a purple top and you’re in. Have you paid your $3.00???

From the Welcome Committee

by Sally Ericson, Editor

Happy to report our Welcome gals met and welcomed a few new residents. Here are some people you will want to know.

Unit #76 – Kathy Shanks. Originally from Bel Aire, Kathy has many interests. Among them are doing crafts, gardening, reading fascinating novels, science/futuristic and, historical fiction. She looks forward to many of our regular activities here in the park and also exploring Florida’s beaches and parks.

Unit #163 – John & Linda Neville. Merrimack NH is where they hail from. Besides having a great time with great-grand kids, they are the perfect retirees... They like to just hang out and (sometimes) do nothing. But besides that, perhaps joining up with the Swedish weaving class may be of interest. Bingo and occasionally going to Casinos are always part of their fun time.

So.....Kathy, John & Linda , we welcome you, and we are excited about getting to know you too. We hope to see you at some of Blue Jays’ activities

The Early Days of Blue Jay

by Peg McConnell

By 1982 more stage coaches arrived with anxious people seeking their home in "Paradise." As more and more came the natives became restless and needed activities to keep them busy. So, activities there were----we had a choir, kitchen band, cards, bingo, bowling, crafts, shuffleboard and shuffleboard tournaments, a game called "bunco" and you could even learn to ballroom dance.

We had the officers that did the Wednesday morning coffee hour, but then we had a "social committee." This committee was made up of 8 to 12 residents that were responsible for all the parties and entertainment for the whole year. Each year new residents would take over with the guidance from some of the residents from the year before. These activities were from September until June. Now, this did not include the once a month pancake breakfast or the monthly soup and sandwich luncheons that were put on by other residents. In July and August there were pool parties, pot luck suppers, and picnics.

The dinner-dances were always a full house, as were the other entertainment provided. The kitchen was half the size as it now, but we managed to cook and prepared all the dinners in the kitchen and almost everything was made from scratch. Everything was served on the iron stone plates that we had in the kitchen, but they were heavy to handle, but again we managed to make it all work. I am so glad we now have all new corelle plates and all new silverware. The refrigerator was just a small one, like you have in your home, you know the one with the freezer on the top. There was a dishwasher, when it worked, otherwise everything was washed by hand. Hard work you say, yes it was but we had so much fun doing it. There are a couple of my favorite stories about the kitchen that I will write about another time or perhaps tell them at a coffee hour sometime. I could go on about more things that took place in the "early days of Blue Jay," but there is always another time, so I guess "That's All Folks"

Peg McConnell # 217

I will gladly share with anyone what I learned and experienced when I cooked and planned parties "many moons ago."
