Social Committee Tidbits

Ingrid Eby

December has arrived and with that comes a lot of preparations and excitement. The Club House is decorated and as usual the decorating team did a fantastic job. It looks like Santa is about to drop in any minute. The fence all around the pool is festive with garland and bows. This is just such a magical time of year.

Unfortunately, many of the residents who migrated down in October and November have jumped on planes and are planning to be with their families up North. It will be lonely around here until they all return once again. Our Boca Ciega Family is never quite the same unless everyone is here and participating in the events. It takes a lot of people to make a community.

We did not have a Social Club meeting after the Thanksgiving Dinner. Hopefully, everyone has read last months newsletter to be up to date on the happenings in the park. The major event that occurs in January is the rummage sale. There will be an organizational meeting on January 9th at 10:00 am in the Club House for Chairman and workers. There are a couple of changes this year so make sure you attend to get the scoop.

Here's wishing everyone a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR from the social Committee.

News and Notes

Bob Bulmer had a little set back in his recovery. He had to return to the hospital for a brief stay and has changed re-hab facilities. We pray he is on the road to recovery now and will be back home soon.

Yogi Heaphy took a tumble at the Thanksgiving dinner. She was carrying some dishes and sustained some cuts on her hands and bruises when she fell. Fortunately, two of our residents are nurses and patched her up. Luckily, there were no broken bones and we pray for healing so she can be back on the golf course soon.

As always stay healthy and be safe.

We need old friends to help us grow old and new friends to help us stay young.

BBQ and Ice Cream Social

Santo Amenta

Although the weather was uncooperative and a little too cool to have our BBQ and Ice Cream social by the pool on November 17, our first event of the 2019/2020 season took place in the Clubhouse instead. Fifty five people gathered together to sit around, and socialize as both permanent residents and returning snowbirds caught up on news, travels, and happenings inside the Park and up north. The grill was sizzling with burgers and dogs which were cooked to perfection by our master grillers, Darryl Paquette and Gary McQueston. With fresh toppings and a side of potato salad the meal was excellent. This was followed by ice cream sundaes (both chocolate and vanilla) with so many delicious topping that no one could resist the temptation to have more. And all this came for the meager price of $2. What a deal!!! Thanks go to Judy and Santo Amenta for hosting and running around purchasing all of the food and organizing the event. Helpers Debbie & Gary McQueston, and Paula Paquette made serving go quickly and efficiently. We're sure that everyone will be looking forward to the next BBQ on Sunday, December 15 and hopefully it will take place around the pool.

Thanksgiving Dinner - 2019

At our annual Thanksgiving Dinner, seventy one residents and their guests, along with two take-outs, enjoyed a full turkey and ham dinner with all the trimmings. Three large 23 lbs turkeys and two huge hams were purchased by the Social Committee as well as the gravy, cranberry sauce, and bread. This was all supplemented with a variety of potato dishes, vegetables, stuffing, and salad dishes, as well as many desserts made by all the attending residents. As you may very well guess, the feast was delicious. This event could not have happened without the work of many people, too many to mention by individual names, but much appreciated. However, a special thanks goes to Judy and Santo Amenta, who coordinated and put this event together.

Aquafit

Sue Pranger

There will not be any Aquafit the month of December due to the "instructors" being out of town. Aquafit will start back up in January depending on the weather. The temperature must be at least 65 at 9:00 a.m. Aquafit will be held on Mondays, Tuesday's, Thursday's and Friday's. See you then!!!!

Welcoming Committee

Deb McQueston

Welcome New Owners!

We are so happy that you have decided to become part of the Boca Ciega community!

We welcome you and encourage you to share with us any interests, ideas or suggestions you may have for future events.

Please help us to continue to provide the residents with interesting activities by volunteering for one of our many committees.

A community is only as strong as the members who participate.

Please feel free to contact anyone listed in the newsletter if you need any help or information about our park.

Also please visit and register at our new website - www.bocaciegaresidents.com

Thank you!

Debbie McQueston

Sharing “Canadian Thoroughbred News” about our Boca Ciega resident Nick Nosowenko

SATURDAY at Woodbine is the SIR BARTON STAKES, named for the American Triple Crown winner who was Canadian owned. One of many nice stories of 2019 at Woodbine has been that of COOLER MIKE, owned and bred by the Nosowenko family, Nick and father Mike. Trained by Nick, Cooler Mike (Giant Gizmo – Executive Affair by Bold Executive) was bought back by the family who had a reserve of $58,000 on the horse as a yearling. As a four-year-old in 2019 the gelding has become a stakes winner and will be one of the choices for the 1 1/16 mile Sir Barton.

It will be Cooler Mike’s 10th race of the season and 20th overall and he has a 2-2-3 record from nine starts this year.

Both victories on the campaign were in added-money events, the first coming in the OLG Halton Stakes on August 28, followed by a victory in the Bunty Lawless Stakes on October 20.

Cooler Mike heads into the Sir Barton off a gutsy third-place effort to Special Forces in the Grade 2 Autumn Stakes on November 3.

“He’s coming into this great,” said Nick, who also trains the chestnut. “Luis (jockey, Contreras) worked him last Saturday, in :59.4, and when he came back, he said he had a ton of horse. He said he’s good and he’s sharp. He’s just a good-feeling horse.”

The Ontario-bred, who sports a 5-4-5 mark from 19 starts, didn’t finish lower than fourth in his first 10 starts. He won his debut on August 7, 2017, was second in the Simcoe Stakes next time out, and earned his second trip to the winner’s circle one race later.

In his sophomore season, Cooler Mike contested two of the three Canadian Triple Crown Series races. He was third in both the Queen’s Plate (June 30, 2018), at Woodbine, and the Prince of Wales (July 24, 2018), at Fort Erie.

“He was the last one that we had out of the mare (Executive Affair),” recalled Nick, who took out his trainer’s license in 2004 and saddled his first career winner at Churchill Downs. “He went through the sale here and he actually got purchased but the buyer wouldn’t sign the ticket, so we ended up taking the horse back.”

It’s been a thrill ride ever since.

Cooler Mike is showing signs he’s up for the challenge this Saturday. His connections know the look well.

“He just stands there and blows bubbles all day,” said Nick. “When he’s coming into a race and you know he’s happy – he’s actually doing right now – he just blows bubbles all morning. He’s a happy camper... he’s just standing there looking at everybody. He’s in the No. 1 stall and everybody comes by and gives him mints. He knows he’s a good horse.”

Trainer Sid Attard – who sends out Royal Laser this year – has won three (2015, 2017 and 2018) of the past four editions, all with Kingsport. Mark Casse trainee Arch Hall won three consecutive runnings of the Sir Barton, from 2004-06. Banqueroute won the first running of the stake in 1975.

The Sir Barton is carded as race eight on Saturday's 11-race program. First post is 1:05 p.m. Fans can also watch and wager on all the action through HPIBet.com.
