FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK:

The Holidays are behind us and things are still bustling in Caribbean Isles. Activities abound so there is no reason to sit at home and be bored. There is Shuffle Board, Pool Exercise, numerous card afternoons and evenings with pokeno and euchre, bowling, golf galore and of course bingo. There are food events to keep you nourished all week with men and women's breakfasts along with Koffee Klatch, Pancake Breakfasts and this month the annual Spaghetti Dinner which is a sit-down event, you will be served at your table with the best Spaghetti and Meat Balls this side of Italy. Don't forget the monthly dances that in January and February will both have bands for those of you that want to socialize while you exercise.

The Annual HOA Holiday Dinner was a huge success and I would like to thank all those who helped put on this popular event. The recreation hall was decorated stunningly and the food was delicious. Everyone that requested a ticket was accommodated and a few shut-ins were delivered a meal.

The Pancake Breakfast will continue in January, February and March with the addition of sausage gravy over biscuits that has been popular.

The continuing of all these activities depends upon your participation. Great effort is put forth by the different committees to provide recreational and social activities for your benefit and enjoyment and your involvement in these activities is our indicator of want and desire. Please enjoy yourself and keep active in our beautiful community.

Sale of homes in Caribbean Isles took a big jump in 2016, there were 20 Lease Homes and 20 Share homes sold during the year. The turnover is fast but I guess that is expected because where else can you find a community that is well kept, entertaining and full of activities as Caribbean Isles.

Ray Sears, HOA President

couple of months ago, I reported on the Bank of England's new plastic 5 pound note which was supposed to be stronger, cleaner, and safer – but apparently not suitable for vegetarians. The Bank of England confirmed on Twitter that the notes contain a trace of a substance known as "tallow" – a rendered form of animal fat. An online petition says the use of tallow is "unacceptable to millions of vegans, vegetarians, Hindus, Sikhs, Jains, and others in the U.K." To paraphrase one of our country's favorite sayings – "Only in the U.K."

GREETINGS CARIBBEAN ISLES RESIDENTS!! SCOOP HERE!! SPEAKING OF SPORTS.....

January 2016.....

I hope everyone had a safe and happy Christmas and are anticipating a happy and prosperous New Year. The sports activities are going strong with Euchre, Shuffleboard, Bowling, and Golf all reporting results. My head is spinning.

Let's start with Euchre. You can view the results earlier in this newsletter. Looks like participation is going strong.

In Bowling, the Beach Bums, represented by Bob Brun and Ray Duford from Caribbean Isles, are currently in first place with 2 weeks to go before the end of the first half of the 55 & Alive Bowling League. Awesome Foursome, represented by Wayne and Cheryl Lively, are solidly in 4th place, and in some good news, The Niners, represented by Glen Lyday, Bob Pesta, and Dick Alexander, are currently tied for last place but based on total pinfall are listed in 15th place out of 16. My sources tell me that this was pre-planned, however, as they are hoping the other teams will lay down for them and the Niners will zoom straight to the top in the second half. They also plan on adding a fourth bowler, Kathleen Dudley, a bowling veteran, to their roster. I'm not sure she drinks beer, though so the boys will have to watch their X's and /'s.

Bob Pesta reports that the Caribbean Isles Shuffle team are holding their own in the Ulmerton League. They have a win under their belts and are in contention in the other matches. He says they could still use more players so try the Fun Shuffle on Tuesday evenings and see how the game is played.

In golf news, the Friday League played their first scramble tournament of the season on Friday, December 9th at Largo Golf Course. Despite weather conditions that made it seem more like The Iditarod rather than a golf tournament, 32 golfers braved their way through  $3\frac{1}{2}$  hours of competition. In the end, the winners were:

1st Place: Ray Sears, Pat Marchant, Larry Milobowski, Joanie Hardy 2nd Place: Bob Loveman, John Semmler, Sue Sears, Dick Alexander 3rd Place: Vern King, Pat Young, Larry Hostetter, John Johnson 4th Place (Tie): Dart Williamson, Elaine Eckert, Dave Hartsell, Lynda Hardy Bob Hardy, Jim Pietrocarlo, Ed Demps In addition, John Johnson won the Closest to the Pin contest.

Quotable Quotes:

"Major League Baseball has reached an agreement to keep working with wearable technology. While gadgets like Fitbit are having trouble keeping track of heart and breathing rates, they are excellent at determining exactly how many times during each plate appearance a player has scratched himself." – Jim Barach, Political Humorist

Answer to Last Month's Where in the world is "SCOOP"?:

Scoop took a holiday swing through the North Pole. Shout-outs to Ray Sears and Dale Wilkewitz for guessing correctly. I think these guys are in cahoots. They seem to get the answers a lot.

This month's Trivia Question:

What is the term for a thoroughbred's daddy?

Remember to let me know of stories and/or accomplishments by residents, friends, and/or family and we'll publish them here. Call me at 727-581-1334 or email me at nilerivers@gmail. com. And remember, you don't have to play a sport good to be a good sport...

Punctuation is powerful

aria Feodorovna, the wife of Tsar Alexander III of Russia, was known for her charitable works. According to one story, she once saved a condemned man from exile in Siberia by moving a single comma in the warrant signed by her husband.

The original document read: "Pardon impossible, to be sent to Siberia." The Empress moved the comma so the warrant read: "Pardon, impossible to be sent to Siberia." The man was saved and released.

There is no greater agony than bearing an untold story inside you. —Maya Angelou

Entice children and grandchildren to go on walks

Taking a walk is one of the simplest forms of exercise you can imagine. It's also a fun way to spend time with your family, especially your children. Try these tips for getting them out of the house and on the trail:

- Make it an adventure. Don't just say, "Let's go for a walk." Spark your child's interest with something like, "Let's look for leaves to collect," or "Let's find some animal footprints." This makes the walk sound like more of an activity and less like a chore.
- Think ahead. Before setting off, think about where you want to go. Will it be safe for your child? You don't want to wear children out, let them get too muddy, or force them to dodge cars and other obstacles. Plan a short walk at first. If children are still enthusiastic, you can always lengthen it.
- Walk at your child's pace. Don't make it a race (unless your child actually wants to run one). Match your speed to your child's. Encourage kids to stop and look at things—bugs, rocks, trees, etc. Be willing to go off and explore in a different direction if your child wants.
- Take your pet. Most children love animals. If you don't have a dog of your own, ask your neighbors if they'd like you to take their dog for a walk. Children will get a chance to run and play, making the walk more energetic and enjoyable.
- Dress appropriately. Make sure you and your children have the right shoes and other clothes. Sunscreen and hats are a must for bright days. Dress in layers so you can add or remove clothing depending on the temperature. If the weather is wet, wear boots.

Monthly

National Bath Safety Awareness Month. In the United States, an average of 370 people across all age groups suffer bathtub or shower-related injuries every day. Slips, falls, and hotwater burns are the prime causes of accidents in the bath and the second leading cause of accidental death and disability. Remember: Bath safety is an integral part of general home safety.

National Blood Donor Month. Some give blood because they've been asked to. Some know a family member or a friend who might need blood someday. Some simply believe it's the right thing to do. Whatever your reason, the need is constant and your donation is important to maintaining a healthy and reliable blood supply.

National Stalking Awareness Month. The National Center for Victims of Crime launched National Stalking Awareness Month (NSAM) in January 2004 to increase the public's understanding of the crime of stalking. The National Stalking Awareness Month website (www.stalkingawrenessmonth.org), launched in January 2009, provides a wealth of information about this crime and about the nationwide observance.

National Train Your Dog Month. The Association of Professional Dog Trainers began the National Train Your Dog Month campaign in 2010 to raise awareness of the importance of socialization and training, to inform the public that training your dog can be easy and fun, and to help new pet parents start off the year right with their newest family member.

Weekly

Diet Resolution Week, Jan. 1-7. This week is about focusing and altering the types of food you consume rather than just reducing the amount. Try eating at least one piece of produce every day (fruit or vegetable), eating fish at least once a month (once a week would be better), and drinking at least two glasses of water a day.

National Sugar Awareness Week, Jan. 16-20. Can you go five days without sugar? Take the challenge to find out how difficult finding foods that do not contain some form of sugar can be, as well as how this substance can affect your body, mind, emotions, and life.

No Name-Calling Week, Jan 16-20. No Name-Calling Week was inspired by the popular young adult novel The Misfits, by James Howe. The No Name-Calling Week Coalition was created by GLSEN and Simon & Schuster Children's publishing and has been adopted by schools around the U.S., growing into one of the largest bullying-prevention initiatives in the country.

Marriage in trouble? Watch for these signs

Just because you're not having fights with your spouse doesn't mean everything is fine in your marriage. It could be in trouble without you and your partner realizing it. Watch for these signs that you need to get back on track:

- Your partner isn't first on your list. When you've got big news, whom do you tell first? If it's not your spouse, you may be disconnecting from him or her. Communicating about what's important to both of you is vital in an honest, healthy relationship.
- You're focused on yourself. Strong marriages rest on mutual goals. If you forget your partner's needs while making your own plans, he or she may begin to do the same. Although you each may want some personal time, carve out time to spend with each other—talking, taking a walk, watching a movie, or something else you both enjoy.
- You compare your spouse to others. Try to avoid thoughts like, "I wish Lynda was more like Diane," or "Why doesn't he bring me flowers like Paula's husband?" Comparisons lead to dissatisfaction and resentment. Be open about what you want so your partner has a chance to fulfill your needs.
- You lead separate lives. You may not be fighting, but you're also not doing much together. Do you watch separate TV shows, go to bed at different times, eat meals without the other person? Make more of an effort to get in sync so you don't find yourself living alone without actually moving out.

Quick hits

ant to liven up the conversation at your next party? Try some of these one-liners:

- "I've been diagnosed with a certain type of brain disorder where I deny the existence of certain 1980s rock bands. There is no Cure."
- "My wife probably tells me I never listen to her."

- "And the award for best neckwear goes to ... well, look at that. It was a tie."
- "No matter how nice your son or daughter is, German children are kinder."
- "Thank you for my student loans. I don't think I can ever repay you."
