FROM THE PRESIDENT'S DESK

Let me take this opportunity to wish each and every one of you, a Very Happy, Healthy, and Prosperous New Year. At this point in Life you can't take anything for granted. Each day is a gift and we must appreciate each one. If you are not out enjoying our many activities, why not? Both the Co-Op and the HOA spend many hours setting up and hosting activities to entertain, amuse, and feed our residents. Come and be part of these events. We have a great community but at the core are the residents. You make the Caribbean Isles what it is and we live here as a whole. I have been over the many aspects of what we do here so instead of listing the activities again just look through this Media Magazine and decide which event appeals to you.

As you read this article, I hope you are enjoying the Spectrum package that was negotiated and we were able to receive a great package of channels along with Wi-Fi at no cost for the Bronze package. Thanks goes out to Mark Lind, our Community Manager, for all your efforts to make this a reality. Also, if you are looking for a home in our community take note, there were 11 share homes and 10 lease homes sold this year, most on the market for a short time. You sometimes must move fast because the inventory is low and demand is high.

I hope everyone enjoyed the HOA Holiday Dinner in December. Great effort was put into it this year to give us a fabulous meal in a relaxing atmosphere. At the same time thanks to all who generously donated gifts by taking Angels from the Angel Tree. The Salvation Army's gratitude was expressed and the thought that we made a difference in a Merry Christmas for many children and adults is satisfying. Thanks to all who participated.

In closing I want to thank everyone who sent speedy recovery, blessed thoughts and assisted with clubhouse, and board duties while I went through knee replacement surgery in December. It gives me a comfortable feeling that we have residents that will volunteer to step up and serve when one of our leaders goes down for a period. See you at the Spaghetti Dinner next month. My plans are to be able to be there to put on the dinner just as in the past.

Happy New Year

Ray

JANUARY LAWN MOWING SCHEDULE

The lawn mowing dates for the month of January, 2020 are:

Monday, January 13th

Please remember, these dates are subject to change depending on the weather and with management approval. As always, check Spectrum cable Channel 732, your email, or the Clubhouse bulletin board for changes.

DID'JA KNOW??

With so many park residents undergoing joint replacement surgery and various other operations, this seemed appropriate. In any surgery involving a prescription for a cane, generally you hold a cane on the opposite side of the "bad" or injured limb. Otherwise, you may develop a labored gait and be more likely to fall. But if you have no "bad" side and use a cane only for general mobility (such as for help with balance), you hold it in your dominant hand. In any case, it's best to consult your doctor or physical therapist.

GOOD TIMES SOCIAL PLANNERS NEWS

Think about making a New Year's Resolution and joining in on the Good Times Social Planners events by attending our meetings, helping with our events or even attending the events that we sponsor.

Our January meeting is at 10:00 on January 8th. It is usually the first Wednesday of the month but that is New Year's Day and we don't think anyone would want to meet then.

Some activities that will be going on in January are as follows:

Tuesdays, January 7th and January 21st are scheduled Hot Dog/Hamburger Nights anytime between 4:30 and 6:00. We can always use help with this busy event as our main griller, Ray Sears, is out with knee surgery.

Once again Jerry Eckert's Sarasota Jazz Project Concert will be performing on January 26th starting at 6:30 P.M. It was very enjoyable last year. Tickets are $10 each and available at most events or see Elaine Eckert.

Future upcoming events are as follows:

Sunday, February 9th features again the Mike Calzone Show of Music and Madness with a social at 6:30 and the show from 7-10 PM. It is for your listening or dancing pleasure.

Sunday, February 16th is our yearly famous homemade spaghetti dinner starting at 5:00. Volunteers are needed to set up, serve and clean-up. Call Sue Sears if you can volunteer in any capacity. She will find a job for you. 813-476-3831

The Good Time Ladies are also planning to attend a play for any lady in the community at the Early Bird Theatre which will also include a luncheon. The play to be presented is "The Wild Women of Winedale". The date is February 20th seating at 11 AM. If interested contact Brenda Milobowski. More on this later.

GREETINGS CARIBBEAN ISLES RESIDENTS!! SCOOP HERE!! SPEAKING OF SPORTS.....

January 2020.....

Well here we are in the new year, most of us wondering what 2020 will hold. There will be plenty to look forward to in the sports world both globally and here in Caribbean Isles. We have 3 sports actively going on so I have plenty to report on. In bowling, our representatives are doing well in the 55 and Alive league at Seminole Lanes. The team making the biggest move is the Niners, with Glen Lyday, Tom Turner, Kathleen Dudley, and Larry Milobowski who find themselves in 3rd place through week 14. Right on their tails are the Beach Bums with Ray and Sandi Duford who are tied for 4th. Caribbean Isles with Chris and Deb Barberly and Rick and Nancy DeCamp and the Late Comers with Wayne and Cheryl Lively are waiting to make their move.

My sources tell me that Caribbean Isles new shuffleboard activity got off to a rousing start in December with 12 2-person teams. The season started on December 5th and if those matches were any indication, the inaugural season looks like a big success. We'll report on scores next month.

The golf group held their 1st scramble on December 6th on a beautiful day for golf at Largo Golf Course. The winning team with a 6 under par score of 56 consisted of Denny Little, Sue Alexander, Bob Loveman, and Rick DeCamp. Tied for 2nd place with 4 under par scores of 58 were Vern King, John Johnson, Chris Barberly, and Joan Hardy and also Ray Sears, Jerry Gonsowski, Ed Demps, and Sue Sears. In third place with a score of 3 under par 59 were Al Meyer, Brenda Adamowich, Larry Hostetter, and Bill Penrod. The gang is looking forward to the next get together on January 10th.

In our sibling news, a familiar face has surfaced with more outstanding accomplishments. Hope Pietrocarlo, cross country runner extraordinaire and granddaughter of Jim Pietrocarlo (Lot 331) who runs for Edinboro College in Pennsylvania, had a momentous day at the NCAA Division II Nationals Championships in Sacramento, California. She not only finished 15th out of 265 runners with a time of 20:39.2 but became a two time All American for the school. Edinboro finished 18th out of 34 teams, the highest finish among the three Atlantic Region teams. And since Hope is only a junior, Edinboro can look forward to more accolades in the future

Groaner of the month:

I set out to lose 10 pounds this month...only 15 to go!!

Quotable Quotes:

“Patrick Reed was penalized for twice improving his lie at the Hero World Challenge. The fact that he was caught shows he didn’t improve his lie quite enough.” ...Jim Barach, political humorist

Answer to last month’s “Where in the World is Scoop”:

Scoop had to make his last trip in a hurry since he had to make travel arrangements in Maltese. The place Scoop was looking for was the city of Gozo on the island of Malta. This was the birth place of some very good friends and old neighbors, Carmen and Tony Grech. Bob McAuliffe (Lot 57) and Ray Sears (Lot 207) gave some good if somewhat wild answers (Ogigia for Bob and Calyp Isle for Ray). But I’m going to give them Scoop “Shoutouts” anyway.

This month’s Trivia Question:

Which NHL team plays home games closest to the Equator?

Remember to let me know of stories and/or accomplishments by residents, friends, and/or family and we’ll publish them here. Call me at 727-581-1334 or email me at nilerivers@gmail.com. And remember, when it’s news in Caribbean Isles, it’s news to me.
