"Thank you for doing a very professional job on my roof. I am not easily pleased with most contractors, ASC is the exception! Your crew was on time, sometimes even early. There are no leaks and it looks great. ASC was not the cheapest, which proves you get what you pay for."

CARIBBEAN ISLES NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH – MARCH 16, 2016

On March 16th at 10:00 AM, a representative from the Pinellas County Sheriff's Office, Deputy Webb, made a presentation to the residents of Caribbean Isles about neighborhood safety and the role of the Sheriff's Office.

He suggested that any concerns regarding people or activities in our area be reported to the Sheriff's Office. He offered stickers and brochures with a special phone number. The number 727-582-6200 is for non-emergency calls.

There was open discussion about some of the concerns of the residents and the general level of safety in the park. Deputy Webb suggested that if you have any doubts to contact the Sheriff's Office and do not confront a person or situation. Also, if an enforcement helicopter is flying in the neighborhood or overhead, please turn on your exterior lighting because the light helps locate people.

There were a few stickers and brochures left after the meeting, they are : Neighborhood Watch Sticker; Avoiding Scams; and Getting Started The Neighborhood Watch Group. If you missed the meeting or could not attend and would like a brochure or sticker please contact Kate at 727-698-3311.

Deputy Webb said he could return and discuss any topic of interest to the community.

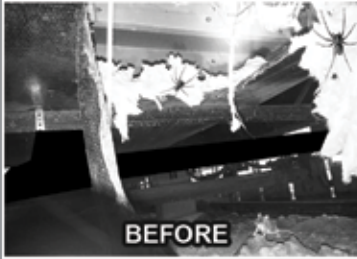

SUNSHINE

Blanche Onley, 584-7372, is our sunshine person for the park. If you know of someone who needs a thinking of you card, is in the hospital or re-hab, please let her know. Get well cards were sent to Peter Bertoia – ill, Richard Klein – ill, Karen Olsen – Broken Shoulder. Sympathy cards were sent to the families of Richard Klein and William Hall. As a side note, our Sunshine person recently underwent major back surgery. Since she probably wouldn't send herself a get well card, we'd like to take this opportunity to wish her a speedy recovery and a return to bowling. She must be well on her way because she didn't miss the deadline.

THANK YOU

The Committee for the 4th Annual Charity Golf Outing to benefit the Wounded Warriors Project would like to thank all the residents of Caribbean Isles, Boca Ciega, their families, friends, and acquaintances for contributing to the activities of the Outing, which was held April 3rd, 2016 at Largo Golf Course. We had 10 4-person teams participating and combining the proceeds from the outing, the 50/50, and the wine and liquor basket raffles, we were able to raise $1100.00 for the project. The winners of the baskets were: Wine Basket #1 – Jim Pietrocarlo from Lot 331, Wine & Liquor Basket #2 – Richard & Linda Hickson from Lot 122, and Liquor Basket #3– Henry Sbrogliaenrico from unit 179. Once again all basket winners were from Caribbean Isles. In the 4 years of this tournament’s existence, we have contributed $4,000 to the project. This year, the Committee decided to award the contribution to a local Wounded Warrior endeavor, the Wounded Warrior Abilities Ranch located in Pinellas Park. This project was started by a wounded warrior from that city, a Sgt. Mike DeLancey who was wounded by sniper fire in Iraq and lost both his legs. The project is taking a different tack in rehabilitation by stressing physical and mental activities to get these warriors back into normal life. Scheduled to open in 2017, it will feature fishing ponds, kayaking, wheelchair sports, a memorial garden, and private areas for meditation and visitation. If you would like to know more about Mike and his project, visit the website at www.WoundedWarriorsAbilitiesRanch.org. The success of this endeavor could not have been accomplished without your support. Again we thank you for your giving spirit and hope you will continue to support our future charitable projects.

Thank You!

GOOD TIMES

The CI Golf Cart Poker Run was enjoyed by all seven of the participants. The best hand was Barb & Norm Paul winning $21. The low hand belonged to Gwen McMillan for $14.

The Horse Races were again a massive success in fun and monies brought in. Thank you Sue Alexander and helpers for a wonderful time yelling for our horses, food and all the fun you could handle. The net for the evening was $416.01.

The Sunday Sundae/Penny Pingo. SS was enjoyed by 38 people who devoured the vanilla, chocolate and strawberry ice cream and multiple toppings. Thank you to June Salvato chairing this event. About half stayed to play Penny Pingo (Bingo on Pokeno cards). Bob Pesta called the cards. Jeanne Muncaster and Toni Pesta sold cards and collected pennies. Everyone had a great time and are eagerly waiting for the next SS/PP.

Painting with a Twist, chaired by Barb Cleaver, was a big success. We have 18 new artists in our park. We enjoyed painting step by step a beautiful beach scene. Amazing how the same scene had 18 different looks.

May 2016.....

Here it is May already and a lot of our northern friends have packed up and ventured home and most of our winter activities have settled down. But those of us who are still here will be taking on new challenges, albeit not so hectic, and keeping an eye in the sky for hurricane season.

In Bowling news, the 55 & Alive League season is in the history books. Even though the league is not sanctioned by the USBC and thus no official championship, it still offered a chance on Wednesday's to unwind and socialize with friends while still keeping the spirit of competition. Our Caribbean Isles teams are looking forward to ramping it back up in September.

In golf news, the Caribbean Isles golf group held their final season scramble and dinner on April 1st. Again the weather cooperated and the scoring was close. The winners of the scramble were Dart Williamson, Pat Young, Dick Alexander, and Ed Demps. The dinner afterward, emceed by Cheryl Meyer and Scoop was delicious and entertaining. The group is already looking forward to next year.

On April 3rd, the Committee for the Charity Golf Outing supporting the Wounded Warriors held their 4th annual outing at Largo Golf Course. In keeping with golfer's luck, the weather was spot-on and the 40 golfers who took part were rewarded with great conditions. The tournament winners were Vern King, Rich Curran, Tom Schulz, and Dick Panowich. But the real winner was the Wounded Warrior Project for which the tournament was played. For more info on this event, please see the article appearing earlier in this newsletter.

Staying with golf, the Michael Phelps of Caribbean Isles, Ed Demps, added to his collection of medals from the Largo Good Life Games by winning 3 more – a Bronze in Specialty Golf, and Gold's in Par 62 Scramble Golf (with partner Al Pumbo) and Shuffleboard (with partner Herb Hayden). Congratulations Micha...oops Ed.

Also congratulations and a Scoop "shoutout" to Ed Marchant (Lot 90) who had a hole-in-one at Pinecrest Golf Course.

Sign of the times:

A UK man reportedly deleted his entire company with one line of bad code on his computer. The only more expensive mistake involving computers was for all the men who lost half of what they own when their wives figured out their Facebook password.

ANSWER TO LAST MONTH'S WHERE IN THE WORLD IS SCOOP:

Scoop was in Stade Roland Garros in Paris, France, site of tennis' French Open. A Scoop "shoutout" to Kathleen Dudley for recognizing the venue.
