November Monthly

American Diabetes Month. For the millions of people who are at risk of diabetes, it's a time to get educated, find resources, and make sure all those around you are aware of their risk, too. And for the millions of people living with diabetes, it's a chance to tell your stories and awaken the world.

National Entrepreneurship Month. November was designated (in 2016) as National Entrepreneurship Month by presidential proclamation. To celebrate the tenacious and rebellious spirit of entrepreneurs, President Barack Obama wrote, "we celebrate entrepreneurs who serve their communities and bolster our economy."

National Novel Writing Month (NaNoWriMo). Each year on Nov. 1, hundreds of thousands of people around the world begin to write, determined to end the month with 50,000 words of a brand-new novel. NaNoWriMo, a nonprofit organization that supports writing fluency and education, runs year-round programs across 646 regions around the world and in thousands of classrooms, and empowers nearly half a million people to access the power of creative writing.

Manatee Awareness Month. November is Manatee Awareness Month—a time to celebrate Florida's beloved, iconic marine mammal and also to create awareness and shed light on the many challenges imperiled manatees face every day.

As we express our gratitude, we must never forget that the highest appreciation is not to utter words, but to live by them.

Luck at the track?

Joe was reading his paper one morning when his wife walked up behind him and smacked him on the back of the head with a frying pan.

“What was that for?” Joe asked.

“I found a slip of paper in your pocket with ‘Hot Sue’ written on it.”

“Jeez, honey, remember last week when I went to the track? ‘Hot Sue’ was the name of the horse I bet on.”

She shrugged and walked away.

Three days later Joe was reading his paper when his wife walked up behind him and smacked him on the back of the head again with the frying pan. “What was that for?” he asked.

“Your horse just called.”

At the movies

---

A man with an elephant walked into a movie theater.

“I’m afraid I can’t let your elephant in here, sir,” the manager said.

“Oh, I assure you, he’s very well behaved,” the man said.

“All right, then,” the manager said. “If you’re sure.”

After the movie, the manager said to the man, “I’m very impressed! Your elephant was well behaved, and he even seemed to enjoy the movie!”

“Yes, I was surprised, too,” said the man. “He hated the book.”

Fuel your creativity with optimism

It's hard to be optimistic these days, but you can't be creative with a negative attitude. Investor's Business Daily has these tips for creativity even in dark times:

- Broaden your horizons. Think big. Look for ideas that will shake things up. Vast ambitions have more power to inspire than shallow ideas.
- Engage your curiosity. Question everything. Ask the reporter's questions—who, what, when, where, why, and how? Don't be satisfied with superficial answers. Dig deeper.
- Visualize success. Think about what your project will do, how it will feel, and what it will say to other people.
- Move on from failure. Every idea won't succeed. Don't let that stop you. Learn what you can and apply the lessons to your next creative project.
- Control your ego. You want to be the best, but you can't do everything yourself. Seek out other creative, talented people for their ideas and support. Incorporate their thoughts into your own efforts (giving due credit, of course). Concentrate on the achievement, not your own personal glory.
- Learn from others. You're not the only creative, ambitious person out there. Associate with people who've done what you want to do. Find out how they created success and emulate their tactics.

What feeds your inspiration?

Where do you find your inspiration? The Refinery29 website surveyed its readers on where and when they feel most creative. Here's what they said:

- |                      |     |                 |     |

The secret to peace

---

A teacher and his student were walking through the forest. The student asked: “Why are most people’s minds restless, and only few possess a calm mind? What can one do to still the mind?”

The teacher smiled and told his student a story:

On one beautiful day, an elephant was standing by the shade of a tree, eating leaves. Suddenly, a small fly came buzzing and landed on the elephant’s ear. The elephant stayed calm and continued to eat, not heeding the fly.

The fly flew around the elephant’s ear, buzzing noisily, but the elephant seemed to be unaffected. This bewildered the fly, and it asked, “Are you deaf?”

“No,” the elephant answered.

“Then why aren’t you bothered by my buzz?”

“Why are you so restless and noisy? Why can’t you stay still just for a few moments?”

The fly replied, “Everything I see, hear and feel attracts my attention, and all noises and movements around me affect my behavior. What is your secret? How can you stay so calm and still?”

The elephant stopped eating and said, “My five senses do not disturb my peace, because they do not rule my attention. I am in control of my mind and my thoughts, and therefore, I can direct my attention where I want, and ignore any disturbances, including your buzz. Therefore I can stay peaceful.”

At the end of the story, the student’s eyes opened wide, and a smile appeared on his face. “Now I understand! My mind will always be in constant unrest if my five senses, and whatever is happening in the world around me, are in control. On the other hand, if I am in command of my five senses, able to disregard sense impressions, and able to control my thoughts, my mind will become calm, and I will be able to disregard its restlessness.”

“That’s right,” answered the teacher. “The mind is restless and goes wherever the attention goes. Control your attention, and you control your mind.”

Find greater passion at work—and in life

What can you do to be more productive and passionate about your work and your life? Good question. The answer can be found in asking these questions at the beginning of every day:

- Why is it vital for me to involve myself in my work fully and passionately today?
- How can my attitude affect the way I respond to stressful situations?
- When do I feel most passionate: When I'm working with a customer, solving a problem for a family member, working on a project for myself, or some other time?
- Where can I best put my passion to work? With colleagues? Customers? My family?
- With whom do I need to spend time in order to do my best work?
- How can I effectively align my interests and passion with what I have to do today?
- What kind of person am I called upon to be today to best express my passion for life and work?
