Crosswinds MHP Christmas Parade

The Christmas Parade took place on December 5th and was very well attended. Santa and the elves collected non perishable food along the way. The participants in the parade were very creative with the costumes. After the parade everyone gathered at the Large Hall for a fun meal. We thank all the residents for their participation and their generous donations to Northside Baptist Church. Special thanks to the Special Events Committee for organizing the event!

Searching

We go through life searching and hoping
To find that special someone
To hold us, to hug us, to love us
And to comfort us when we cry
And to say that everything is going
To be all right
To love us when times are good
And to love us even harder
When times are tough
To walk through the fields of wildflowers
And to feel the rain on our faces
And to be there on those cold,
Dark and stormy nights
So, I'm in front of you now
To say I love you-
And everything's going to be all right
Because I know like life,
Love is fragile as a heart made of glass

Never too late to succeed

A poor boy named Harlan with only a sixth-grade education wouldn't have made anyone's list of the most likely to succeed. His first major success came when at the age of 39, when he was able to come up with the financing to open a small-town gas station and restaurant. He did pretty well, too—but only for a while.

With the onset of World War II, Harlan's once-solid customer base left the small town to enlist in the military or take factory jobs in the city. Still, he managed to hold on until a new interstate highway eliminated his drive-by trade. Then, after nearly 30 years in business, Harlan was forced to sell his dream to pay off his debts.

Broke and nearing 70, Harlan could have closed the curtain on his career ambitions. Instead, he took to the road, offering to share his pressure-cooking techniques with other restaurant owners if they'd agree to become his franchises. He sold only five in the first two years, but he stuck it out.

Four years later the self-proclaimed Colonel Sanders had sold more than 600 Kentucky Fried Chicken franchises. And by the time Harlan Sanders died at age 90, KFC was a worldwide brand.

Is today's success holding you back?

Timanthes was a celebrated Greek artist of the 4th century B.C. As an aspiring young painter, Timanthes worked with a respected tutor to learn his craft. After several years, he produced what he believed was his masterpiece.

Delighted with his accomplishment, the young artist stopped striving to further his art. Instead, he devoted hours each day to gazing at his painting, mentally patting himself on the back for his achievement. Then one morning, when he arrived at the studio, he was horrified to find that someone had slathered paint across the canvas, destroying his work. The tutor eventually confessed that he'd done the deed.

"I did it for your own good," he explained. "The painting was holding you back." He urged the artist to try again: "See if you can do better."

Timanthes took his teacher's advice. His next effort, "The Sacrifice of Iphigenia," became his signature work and is regarded as one of the finest paintings of its time.

You should celebrate jobs done well. But don't get so caught up in yesterday's achievements that you forget tomorrow's challenges.

Learn the ABCs of skin cancer

That dark spot on your skin may be a freckle—or it may be skin cancer. How can you tell? The American Academy of Dermatology takes an alphabetical approach to identifying potentially dangerous skin conditions:

- A: Asymmetry. Is the spot or mole generally circular, or does one side look different from the other?
- B: Border. Is the edge of the item uneven, notched, or blurry?
- C: Color. Does the object vary in color in different areas?
- D: Diameter. Is the area larger than a pencil eraser?
- E: Evolving. Has the object changed its size, shape, or color?

Contact a dermatologist if you answer “yes” to any of these questions.

Just a rash? Check it out

A rash may be nothing to worry about, but sometimes it can be a sign of something serious. Doctors recommend you pay attention if a rash exhibits any of these symptoms:

- The rash spreads quickly across your body, which could indicate a major allergic reaction.
- You have a fever along with the rash. This could be a sign of a serious infection, so get to the hospital immediately.
- Your rash forms blisters or becomes painful.

The foundation of success in life is good health. That is the substratum fortune; it is also the basis of happiness. A person cannot accumulate a fortune very well when he is sick.
