FROM THE HOA PRESIDENT

Colleen McNeill

Hello everyone. Sorry that we don't have much to talk about since COVID-19 has taken over our lives. I hope that everyone is doing their part with social distancing and staying home as much as possible.

Who would have thought that we would be fighting to stay alive by being by ourselves. I'm sure that we're all looking forward to the days we can start socializing with our friends and family. Just being able to give them a hug and enjoying each others company means so much. The time with your loved ones should never be taken for granted.

Hopefully this will come to an end soon and we can get back to some kind of normalcy.
Stay Safe Everyone.

DYCA PRESIDENT

Michael J Higgins (President DYCA)

Well Well, As we sit at home during these troubling times, take a minute and reflect on what a we had, and there was always time for bitching and complaining about that. Now look around and see, we really didn't have it that bad.

As this month goes by, everything will slowly come back to the new normal, [SLOWLY] and were going to have to accept and comply with the new rules. I, as the President of the DYCA will do everything in my power to get functions up and running, remember we have rules to follow and will comply.

Maybe now that restrictions are loosing a little, you might want to check on a neighbor, write a letter, try to make yourself feel better about yourself, believe a little kindness goes a long way and when all said and done we come back a stronger community.

When I was a boy and I would see scary things on the news, my mother would say to me, "look for the helpers. You will always find people who are helping." To this day, especially in times of "disaster". I remember my mother's word's and I am always comforted by realizing that there are so many helpers, so many caring people in the world trying to keep us safe.

May God bless them and keep them safe.....

OK. with that being , I will be seeing more and more of you around the park, and remember social distancing.

Take Care and Thank You!!!!

Michael J Higgins (President DYCA)

SUNSHINE COMMITTEE

How is everyone doing? Keeping well I hope and trying to enjoy the alone time. Hard to do but has to be done so please, please stay in and keep your distance when you do go out. Be safe, be well.

The park has been very very quiet. Only one I know that has been ill is Connie Brinker. Connie was in the hospital for a few days with pneumonia. She is home now and doing well. Welcome back Connie. Heard another former resident Glen Mason passed away. Our prayers are with you Irene if you see this.

Again keep safe, stay in please only go out when it is very necessary. We will all get thru this together. Walk for exercise or ride you bike if you can. Hope by next month things will be much better. Keep well.

Marlene

May Days

Hug Your Cat Day, May 1. You should be doing this every day, but in case you're not, today is the day to show your kitty some affection.

Learn to Ride a Bike Day, May 2. Slap on the training wheels if it makes you feel better. The point is, just get on a bike and go for a spin.

No Diet Day, May 6. You don't have to follow the latest trends to change your relationship with food. Start today with a commitment to live a healthier life by decreasing your consumption of junk foods.

Letter Carrier's "Stamp Out Hunger" Food Drive, May 9. Check with your local postal carrier and station to find out what items they are accepting during the largest national food drive in the U.S.

Stay Up All Night Night, May 9. Reconnect with your inner child and have some fun as you stay up (and out) well past the time when the streetlights come on.

Mother's Day, May 10. She carried you in her womb for nine months, and that did a number on her back. Now give her some flowers and take her out to brunch. It's the least you can do.

How to set reasonable goals

Setting a goal is important, but setting a good goal is what really counts. What is a good goal? A good goal usually has a few definable characteristics. Good goals are:

- Specifically focused.
- Neither too hard, nor too easy.
- Shared and agreed upon with others who will be working on them.
- Written down and visualized.

Global Civility Awareness Month. This is an opportunity for schools, community organizations, businesses, and people throughout the world to promote dignified, respectful behavior in their daily interactions with others. Take up the charge and be your best, well-mannered self every day, this month.

Mental Health Month. It's estimated that one in five Americans has some form of a mental health issue. Get the facts and get help for yourself or a loved one. Education and action will help to diminish the stigmas surrounding these diagnosable and treatable conditions.

National Good Car-Keeping Month. Clean it out. Get it tuned up. Change the oil. Rotate the tires. Take time to make sure your car has undergone necessary repairs and is up to date on scheduled maintenance.

National Meditation Month. Learn to quiet your mind, focus on your breathing, and appreciate the stillness. Now exhale. Find a class, app, or audio recording to guide you through the process of meditation and discover the benefits it can have on your health and well-being.

Weekly

Choose Privacy Week, May 1-7. The American Library Association and libraries across the nation will help educate and raise public awareness regarding privacy concerns in our digital age. Check your local branch and learn how to safeguard your information and identity.

Update Your References Week, May 3-9. Now is good time to check in with the folks providing your personal and professional job references. Make sure their job titles and contact information are accurate. In the event you have to put yourself out there, at least you'll know the people who are looking to hire

Teacher Appreciation Week, May 4-8. The school year is almost over, so there's no better time than the present to do something nice for the people who take on the job of educating your kid. Check with your local PTA to find out what you can do to honor the special teachers at your child's school.

DID YOU KNOW?

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

If it's not the flower, it could be the flour

National Allergy and Asthma Awareness Month serves as a reminder to tackle your spring cleaning projects to maintain a safe environment for optimal health.

There's no better time than the present to address these areas:

- Around the house. Shampoo carpets and upholstery, clean window treatments, vacuum out corners and crevices, and address those areas in your home where dust, mold, and allergens could be lurking and waiting to trigger an asthma event.
- In the kitchen. If you or someone in your family is one of the 32 million Americans with a food-based allergy, you'll want to check your pantry and cupboards. After you toss out all the expired food items, take time to review the ingredients of those remaining for known allergens such as wheat, dairy, eggs, soy, nuts, tree nuts, fish, and seafood.

Here are a few more areas you'll want to check for allergens that might be hiding in plain sight:

- Your child or grandchild's room. Make sure stuffed animals and bean bag toys aren't filled with nut shells, crayons are soy-free crayons, and play dough is the wheat-free version.
- Fido's corner. Your dog loves those biscuits and bone treats you give him, but if they contain peanut butter or milk by-products, more sensitive members of your household might have adverse reactions.
- The bathroom. The biggest culprit here might be your shampoo, conditioner, soap, or lotion, so read the labels carefully.

As I get older, I think about the quality of my life and a balanced way to enjoy that. That's true wellness—being well from inside out.

Make fitness a part of your daily routine

The warm sunny days of May invite us to go outdoors and play. It's also National Physical Fitness and Sports Month, so you have no excuse to be sitting on the couch doing nothing. Even if you think there's not enough time in your busy day to squeeze in a workout, you can find the time to make fitness part of your day.

Here are four strategies that will help you get active. They're inspired by Cat Kom, a working mom, physical trainer, and CEO of the digital exercise platform Studio SWEAT onDemand:

1. Make it a part of your day. Check your schedule and you're sure to find 30-minutes to an hour you can set aside for a workout. It might not be the same time each day, but surely you have free time you can commit doing something for your health.

2. Do what you love, and then some. Start with an activity you like and will be easy for you to commit to. Once you've found your groove and your plan is become a consistent part of your routine, begin to incorporate some different workouts to make sure you are addressing all muscle groups. Don't forget to make warmups, cool downs, and stretching a part of your routines.

3. Try something new. There are so many different ways to stay active these days and you should try some of them. Consider spinning, hula hooping, working out with resistance bands, or a cardio-trampoline class. You'll never get bored trying new things, and it will help you continually develop fun and diverse goals.

4. Be reasonable. Some weeks will be more challenging than others, and there just won't seem like there is enough time to squeeze in a workout, but you can. If you only have 15 minutes you can jump rope, hula hoop, walk/jog around the block, or repeat a circuit of push-ups, planks, and burpees. The point is to do something physical every day.

The clock is ticking. Are you becoming the person you want to be?

—Greg Plitt
