Let's live in harmony with wildlife

By Jennifer O'Connor

Believe it or not, July 16 is "World Snake Day." It's time these beleaguered reptiles got their due. Many people are genuinely fearful of snakes, but snakes don't want anything to do with us, either! Snakes avoid contact with humans, they aren't out to get you. Most species are harmless, and they help control the mouse and rat population. If you see a snake near your home, don't scream, be happy that mice and rats are going elsewhere. If you are truly terrified of snakes, keep in mind that leaving companion-animal food outside or keeping bird feeders can be an invitation to both rats and snakes.

There are so many ways to live in harmony with wildlife:

- Rinse out recyclable jars and bottles and put the lids back on them so that the containers can't become lodged on an animal's head. Cut apart plastic six-pack rings, including the inner diamonds. Crush plastic tubs like yogurt.

- Keep your trash inside or in your shed in tightly sealed containers.
- Instead of squishing them for the “crime” of getting inside, put cups over bugs or spiders and slide a piece of cardboard or paper over the bottom. Then you can let them go. You can also use humane mouse traps and relocate them outside. Please never sentence animals to a prolonged, painful death by using glue traps.
- Keep cats indoors or on a screened porch to prevent them from killing wildlife (and to keep them safe, too).
- Choose Earth-friendly garden methods. Pesticides and herbicides made of dangerous chemicals pollute the environment and poison animals’ food sources.
- Discard fishing gear properly and please clean up any you see that has been carelessly discarded by others. Countless birds, turtles, dolphins and other animals suffer and die when they get caught in fishing line, netting and hooks.

If you have any questions or issues, I’m happy to help!

Manager’s Corner

From the Manager:

I hope everyone is staying safe and well as we work through the COVID -19.

Always remember, to wear your masks when out and about. You may not have it, but someone you are around can be asymptomatic. Wash your hands often.

The office will remain locked by appointment only with masks until Corporate reopens it. The clubhouse is currently open Monday - Friday for business hours only. The signs are posted for limited capacity.

NO outside guests are to be in the pool until it is completely open again. We are working on re - opening the rest of the amenities as per CDC and Corporate ok us to do so.

I have opted to re-open the rent drop box on the office. I recommend that if you have email, you sign up to the resident portal. It does not cost you anything. This way you do not have to worry as much and can see your account. If you are interested send an email to me at eastbayoaks_mgr@equitylifestyle.com and request to be set up on the portal. .Only takes a few minutes of your time.

While we are still staying at home. Now is a good time to look at your homes and yards. Remember to renew your registrations for your homes. This is due every year by December 31st.

Thank you all for your understanding and cooperation during this time. Please stay safe and well!

Debbie

EAST BAY OAKS EXPRESS JULY, 2020 E

A HEADS UP

BY Helga Kelly and Bonnie Tonin

As many of you may, or may not know, August 18th is a very special day for one of our residents.

IT'S BARBARA BROWN'S 100th BIRTHDAY

a day that not many of us have the privilege of making.

Barbara has led a very interesting and adventurous life, some of which we would like to share with you.

So, as said above, this is a "Heads Up" to let you know some sort of celebration will take place. Day, time and location to be announced later.

The reason this notice is in the July Media is due to the fact that the August Media will have our updated address/phone directory published and will not have much space for announcements.

Recipes:

Shrimp Scampi with Green Onions and Orzo

Makes 4 servings

Prep Time: 15 minutes

Ingredients

3/4 Cup Orzo (rice-shaped pasta)
4 tablespoons (1/2 stick) butter, divided
2 tablespoons olive oil
2 garlic cloves, peeled
1 pound uncooked large shrimp, peeled, deveined
4 green onions, thinly sliced
1/3 cup dry white wine

Preparation

Cook orzo in large saucepan of boiling salted water until tender but still firm to bite, stirring occasionally.

Meanwhile, melt 2 tablespoons butter with oil in heavy large skillet over medium-high heat. Using garlic press, squeeze in garlic; stir 10 seconds. Add shrimp and saute 2 minutes. Add green onions and toss until shrimp are just opaque in center, about 1 minute longer. Add wine and toss until wine boils, about 1 minute. Mix in remaining 2 tablespoons butter and season to taste with salt and pepper.

Drain pasta; transfer to large bowl. Top with shrimp and onion-garlic butter.

Bon Appetit
