EDITOR'S NOTE REGARDING RECIPE OF THE MONTH:

I was recently given a copy of a book, titled: Embassy Park, "Great Recipes". It belonged to Arlene Stuart. I am not sure what year it was printed; 23 of the recipe contributors still live in the Park. Unfortunately, the names of the recipe contributors was not listed with each recipe....perhaps some of you will recognize them. Speedy Printing helped with the expense of printing, and the proceeds went to ARK, which stands for "Acts of Random Kindness 4 Kids in Desperate Situations".

Every month that I do not receive a recipe, I will print one from this collection.

RECIPE OF THE MONTH

7 LAYER SALAD

Ingredients:

1 Head lettuce, chopped
1 green pepper, chopped
½ cup celery
2 cups mayo
Cheddar cheese, grated
1 pkg. frozen peas
3 carrots, shredded
½ cup onion, chopped
8 slices bacon, cooked & chopped
sugar

Instructions:

In a 9 x 13 dish, start with lettuce layer, and then layer each vegetable. Spread mayo over salad. Sprinkle sugar over mayo. Place bacon on salad. Cover with shredded cheese. Refrigerate. Can be made ahead of time.

AUTHOR OF THE MONTH

In "The Professional" four women are being blackmailed for their indiscretions and turn to Spenser to make it all go away. See what he does and doesn't do with their "problem"! The Professional was written by Robert B. Parker. He was an American author of mystery/detective novels, most of which are set in the Boston area. His best known series are: Jessie Stone; Sunny Randall and Spenser. After Parker's death his publisher and heirs decided to continue his series using different authors.

FROM THE OFFICE:

The first manager's meeting with a new day and time was held on September 12, 0218. The new day is the 2nd Wednesday of the month at 9:30 a.m. Cake and coffee served 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. I encourage everyone to attend; current events and projects in the Park are discussed. At this meeting we discussed the status of removing the fire damaged mobile on Lot 1303. There are still City of Largo issues to be resolved at Lot 834. 25% of the park residents received letters regarding cleaning their weeds and carports; it was a 30 day notice with a $50 fee if the Park needs to clean it up for them. The rent committee has met and will be meeting with Mr. Larson soon; rent letters should be received by the time you are reading this. If you receive an additional letter with the rent notice, it means that we are missing critical information in your file. Please take the time to stop into the Office and take care of it. Homeowner's insurance is available for older mobile homes at reasonable rates depending on the coverage you choose. Insurance agents will be speaking at the Social Club meeting on November 7th (see article in this issue regarding the Social Club). There will also be an insurance representative at the Jan. 14th, 2019 HOA meeting. Garbage remains an issue; people are putting yard waste into the wrong dumpsters, not breaking down cardboard boxes in the recycle bin, etc. Be a good neighbor, follow the rules!

The next Manager's Meeting will be Wednesday, October 10th at 9:30 a.m. Coffee and cake will be served 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m., 50/50 tickets will be sold to benefit the Library, and everyone is welcome. The office will be closed until after the meeting on meeting days.

EMBASSY EDITOR NOTE: The Officers of the various Clubs, people in charge, etc., located on the back page of each News and Views Issue, will be changed to the Officers for the new season, beginning in November....if you know of any changes, please let me know by October. 15th.

SOCIAL CLUB

It's October and the start of a new season at Embassy.

Soon all the Clubs and groups will be holding their first meetings. One of the more important Clubs is the Social Club or Gathering, as some like to call it.

We have a new President and Board members, which we hope will add a new spark to the meetings. The meetings are the first (1st) Wednesday of each month (November thru April), with coffee and treats 9:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m. and the meeting beginning at 9:30 a.m. All meetings are held in the Clubhouse.

Why is it important to join this Club and attend? The Annual planning meeting is part of the program. The Newcomers Night is handled by the Social Club; All of the Park Christmas festivities are part of the Social Club, as well as Fun Night, the Fashion Show and the 50th Anniversary party.

I have had people ask why no community yard sale this coming season...well, the answer is that the members present at the March meeting of the Social Club voted not to have one because of low participation and the number of people it takes to make it happen. If you become a member and want to revisit this event you could bring it up and we will talk it over.

Another important function of the Social Club is that it pays for the bulletin to be printed and decides what months it will be bi-weekly, monthly or as part of the News & Views (summer).

These are only a few of the reasons why you should become a member of the Social Club. Membership is $2.00 per person, or $3.00 per couple. (defined as spouse, significant other or someone who shares your mobile.)

This season we are planning guest speakers to speak on topics of interest to everyone. The first meeting will have an insurance agent speak on mobile home insurance.

So come, join us and see what this Club is all about.

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

EXERCISE IS COMING BACK!

Hello Park residents;

The fall is arriving, and with it is the arrival of the many snowbirds; me included! My name is Elaine and I run a few exercise programs for the benefit of park residents. For those new to the park, this is what I do:

On Mondays and Thursdays will be strength/conditioning using weights, stretch bands and balls. We sit in a chair or stand; no one wants to get up off the floor! On Tuesdays and Fridays is Zumba Gold, an aerobic work-out designed for the active older adult. (I'm no spring chicken!) All classes run from 7:45 a.m. To 8:30 a.m. in the clubhouse. All classes are free.

Come and get to know your neighbors, become a little more fit and flexible, and have fun! Classes will begin mid-October. Watch your bulletin for more details. I'll be in the park beginning October 1st if you have any questions.

REMEMBER SLOW FOOD?

Someone asked the other day, “What was your favorite fast food when you were growing up?” We didn’t have fast food when I was growing up, I informed him, All the food was slow.

“C’mon, seriously, where did you eat?” It was a place called, “at Home”, I explained. Mom cooked every day and when Dad got home from work, we sat down together at the dining room table, and if I didn’t like what she put on my plate I was allowed to sit there until I did like it.

By this time, the kid was laughing so hard I was afraid he was going to suffer serious internal damage, so I didn’t tell him the part about how I had to have permission to leave the table.

But here are some other things I would have told him about my childhood if I figured his system could have handled it:

Some parents NEVER owned their own house, never wore Levis, never set foot on a golf course, never traveled out of the country or had a credit card. In their later years they had something called a revolving charge card. The card was good only at Sears Roebuck, or maybe it was Sears & Roebuck. Either way, there is no Roebuck anymore, maybe he died.

My parents never drove me to soccer practice. This was mostly because we never had heard of soccer. I had a bicycle that weighed probably 50 pounds and only had one speed (slow). We didn’t have a television in our house until I was 11. It was, of course, black and white, and the station went off the air at midnight, fater playing the national anthem and a poem about God: it came back on the air at 6 a.m. and there was usually a locally produced news and farm show on, featuring local people.

I was 19 before I tasted my first pizza; it was called ‘pizza pie’. When I bit into it, I burned the roof of my mouth and the cheese slid off, swung down, plastered itself against my chin and burned that, too. It’s still the best pizza I ever had.

I never had a telephone in my room. The only phone in the house was in the living room and it was on a party line. Before you could dial, you had to listen and make sure some people you didn’t know weren’t already using the line.

Pizzas were not delivered to our home; but MILK was.

All newspapers were delivered by boys and all boys delivered newspapers---my brother delivered a newspaper, six days a week. It cost 7 cents a paper, of which he got to keep 2 cents. He had to get up at 6 A.M. every morning. On Saturday, he had to collect the 42 cents from his customers. His favorite customers were the ones who gave him 50 cents and told him to keep the change. His least favorite customers were the ones who seemed to never be home on collection day.

Movie stars kissed with their mouths shut. At least, they did in the movies. There were no movie ratings because all movies were responsibly produced for everyone to enjoy viewing, without profanity or violence or most anything offensive.

If you grew up in a generation before there was fast food, you may want to share some of these memories with your children or grandchildren.

Just don't blame me if they bust a gut laughing. Growing up isn't what it used to be, is it?

WHAT IS SEPSIS?

Fifty-eight percent of the population does not know what sepsis is. There are 1,600,000 cases of sepsis each year. Sepsis kills a person every two minutes. Thirty people a day have to have an amputation due to sepsis. Sepsis is toxic response to an infection. You do not get sepsis due to hospitalization but because you have an infection. It is not blood poisoning, not contagious, not rare. Ninety-eight percent of sepsis is caught in ER. It mimics flu symptoms with joint and muscle pain, problems breathing, sleepy, fever greater than 100.4, extreme pain, rash, and feel like you are going to die.

My son's mother-in-law did not get treated for pneumonia until she had sepsis. Two years ago she had her hands and feet amputated.

The following information was taken from the WebMD article:

Sepsis is caused by your body's defense system (immune system) working overtime to fight infection.

The large number of chemicals released into the blood during this process triggers widespread inflammation. This can lead to organ damage. Blood clotting during sepsis reduces blood flow to limbs and internal organs. This deprives them of nutrients and oxygen. In severe cases, one or more organs may fail.

In the worst cases, sepsis leads to a life-threatening drop in blood pressure. Doctors call this "septic shock." It can quickly lead to the failure of several organs – lungs, kidneys and liver. This can be fatal in some cases.

Bacterial infections are most often to blame. But sepsis can also result from other infections. It can begin anywhere bacteria or viruses enter the body. So it could sometimes be caused by something as minor as a scraped knee or nicked cuticle. If you have a more serious medical problem such as appendicitis, pneumonia, meningitis, or a urinary tract infection (UTI), and bed sores.

Anyone can get it, but certain groups of people are at greater risk. They include:

- People whose immune systems are not working well due to illnesses like HIV/AIDS or cancer
- People who take drugs that suppress the immune system, like steroids and those used to prevent rejection of transplanted organs
- Very young babies

- The elderly, especially those with other health problems
- People who have recently been hospitalized and/or had major surgeries
- People with diabetes

Because it can begin in different parts of the body, this illness can have many different symptoms. The first signs may include rapid breathing and confusion. Other common warning signs include:

- Fever and chills
- Very low body temperature
- Peeing less than normal
- Rapid pulse
- Rapid breathing
- Nausea and vomiting
- Diarrhea

If your doctor believes you might have sepsis, he'll do an exam and run tests to look for the following:

- Bacteria in the blood or other body fluids
- The source of the infection (he may use an X-ray, CT scan, or ultrasound)
- A high or low white blood cell count
- A low platelet count
- Low blood pressure
- Too much acid in the blood (acidosis)
- Altered kidney or liver function

If you do have sepsis, your doctor will likely place you in the hospital's intensive care unit (ICU). There, he'll try to stop the infection, keep vital organs functioning and regulate your blood pressure (IV fluids and extra oxygen can help with this).

Prevention:

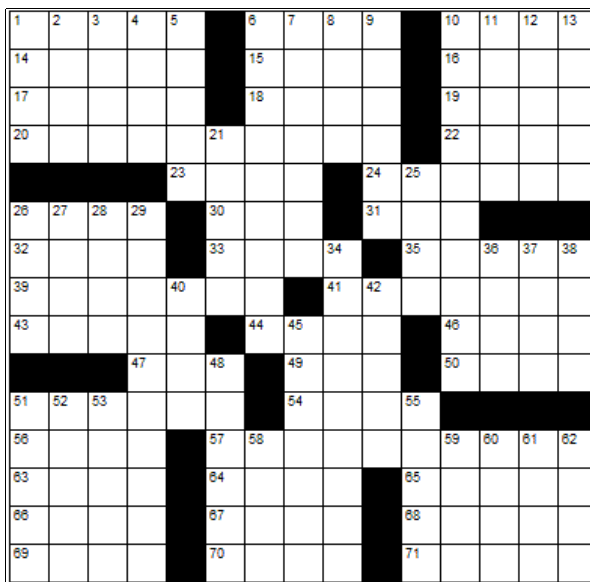

Hand washing
Clean open wounds
Take antibiotics as prescribed
Keep up-to-date with vaccinations
