LADIES LUNCHEON

The monthly ladies luncheon took place on Wednesday, March 11th, at the Sage Bistro Restaurant on West Bay Drive, and Elaine Pepper was the hostess for the day. It was the first time meeting at that restaurant, and the menu was varied and delectable. The next luncheon will take place on Wednesday, April 8th, at Alfano's Restaurant on Clearwater Largo Road. Nancy Gray and Shirley Irvin will be hostesses for that day.

CANADA DAYS 2015

Cathy Wilson, Coordinator

Canada Days went off with a bang on March 6th and 7th despite the weather, and everyone had a great time. Russ Marsden provided music all day long, so everyone stayed around, and in between the showers danced to their hearts' content. The games went off well, especially the Golf game. Beggs and Stuart provided entertainment from 4:00 to 6:00 pm, while everyone enjoyed the barbeque.

Saturday was a beautiful day, and the shuffleboard tournament was at full capacity. The overall winners of the competition were Doris Pickrem and Don Tamblyn. The busy day was followed with a dance in the evening with Russ and Diane Marsden providing the music to entertain us. Everyone was having such a good time, at 12:30 pm we had to turn the lights on so everyone could leave for their homes.

Many thanks are extended to everyone who helped make this another great Canada Day celebration. Without your help, none of this would have been possible. We hope to see all of you again next year, and remember - - if you don't want to be left out, get your tickets early. Again many thanks to one and all.

SILVER TEA

Judy Hoke

We would like to thank everyone who attended the Silver Tea this year. It was a great success. A donation was made to the 'Abused Women and Children', and we were able to purchase different special feet attachments for the sewing machines for some of our new projects.

A very special is sent out to thank everyone for the overwhelming support and help (setting up, preparing dessert trays, and cleaning up) from the MidWest Club. It was greatly appreciated.

Sincerely, Embassy Sewing Guild.

PANCAKE BREAKFAST

The final pancake breakfast of this season sponsored by Embassy's Shuffle Club was held on Saturday, March 14th to a huge crowd. The lines were outside the door throughout the entire morning, well beyond the planned final hour. The shuffler elves really worked their hearts out to make sure everyone obtained seats, scurrying around to fill coffee pots on each table quickly, and to clear the tables with new settings for the newcomers. This breakfast gathering is one of the more popular social occasions of the winter season. And let's hear it for the kitchen chefs crew who do such a great job. Wonderful job by all ! !

INFORMATION, PLEASE!

Two of the important information periodicals in our park are the monthly Embassy Park Bulletin by Barbara Whitman, Lot #922, telephone #238-3200, and the Embassy News & Views by Beverly Doucette, Lot #515, telephone #531-4544. Please be sure to advise us of any information such as birthdays, telephone number changes, personal and group activities, illnesses, hospital stays, or the demise of any of our residents, and also any praiseworthy items which you might like to share with us. Lots of people enjoy writing and reading poetry or family history type stories, serious or humorous, in the News & Views. Come on! I'll bet you have a few you could share with your friends and neighbors here. The News & Views is always looking for extended original personal or family stories of humor or pride and special honors, travel trip experiences, etc., you'd like to share. These are your publications. Your contributions will be most welcome at all times.

A PERPLEXING THOUGHT

My recent trips to the supermarket have been an eye-opening experience for me. I can't believe how much the bottom line of my market shopping receipt has increased by leaps and bounds over the last several months. I have certainly scaled down my casual run through the meat department. And I can't believe how the fresh fruits and vegetables have truly become precious commodities. And so it goes, as I travel up and down all the market aisles. Somehow it doesn't seem to compute when I realize that my Social Security cost-of-living income rate increase for the entire remaining year of 2015 to cover my living expenses was calculated at a 1.7% increase ??? Math was never my best subject, but I'm bewildered by this revelation.

SHUFFLE CLUB SEASON

Sue White

Another busy shuffling season has come to an end. We have had a great season with 50 members. Our A Team finished in second place, B team in first place, and the Friendly team finished in second place. But the end of this season also comes with the departure of our long time President Jake Schnarr, our Secretary Muriel Marks, and our Director Bill Marks. They will certainly be greatly missed by a very appreciative membership. We now welcome our new President Susan White, Vice President Randy Poulin, and Danny Czepiewski as a Director.

We had a very good year, and welcomed many new and experienced members. About 60 shufflers turned out for the Canada Day shuffle tour, and we are hoping to see some of those new faces next year on one of our teams. The Frank & Dean Show was a tremendous success with 125 attending. We hope to have them back again next year. Our Pancake Breakfasts have also been very successful each month. The season's final breakfast held on March 14th, had lines out the door constantly, well beyond our usual ending hour. Many thanks are extended to the busy breakfast committees.

Our In-Park Tournament will be held at the Embassy Clubhouse Courts on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 23, 24 and 25. Please come to cheer for your friends and neighbors who are competing. On March 27th, our Annual Banquet will be held at the Quaker Steak & Lube Restaurant.

On behalf of the Embassy Shuffle Club, the executives would like to extend a big Thank You to all who have helped to make this year a huge success - - baking cakes, setting up tables, cleaning and maintaining the courts, selling tickets, and in so many other ways..

BEGGS – STUART DANCE

The last Stuart-Beggs dance of the season was held at the Clubhouse on Saturday night, March 14th. The hall was set up, and people kept streaming in, until several extra tables kept being set up for the capacity crowd. These dances have been one of the most enjoyable activities at Embassy Park. Many visitors and friends have joined us, and have complimented us on our friendliness and camaraderie. Looks like we're becoming famous around these here parts!!

The dance floor was crowded all night long, and people also enjoyed participating in a sing-along type performance with Glenn Beggs of lots of Irish standard songs for the special St. Patrick’s evening of celebration. Almost everyone was regaled in their green outfits and flashy paraphernalia. What Fun! Glenn thanked those present for the most generous contributions made to the food pantry at every dance this year, and for the most generous financial donations offered to Cathy Russell’s wonderful charitable endeavors.

This has been one of the most successful gatherings throughout the year, and we will surely look forward to Arlene Stuart and Glenn Beggs returning to our fold next year. Thank to two wonderful people. And Arlene looked absolutely wonderful after her long winter of recuperating in the north country. Keep up the good work, girl!

SCAMS AND FRAUDS

By: Officer Julie Williams, Crime Prevention - Largo Police Department; cited from www.ftc.gov

IRS IMPOSTER SCAMS ON THE RISE

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) is the government agency that collects federal taxes. Scammers pretend to be IRS officials to get you to send them money.

HOW THE SCAM WORKS

Your caller ID might show it's the IRS calling. The caller might give a badge number and know the last four digits of your Social Security number.

“you owe money.”

“you better pay now, or you'll be arrested.”

“put money on a prepaid debit card or wire it to us.”

You find out it wasn't the IRS. It was a scam. The money is gone.

GOT A CALL?

Don't give the caller information such as your financial or other personal information. Write down details such as the number and name of the caller.

Hang up

Contact the IRS directly

If you're worried the call is real, contact the IRS directly at 800-829-1040 or go to irs.gov.

Report the call

File a complaint with:

1. The Treasury Inspector General for Tax Administration (TIGTA) at tigta.gov or 800-366-4484.
2. The FTC at ftc.gov/complaint or 877-FTC-HELP.

Warn friends and family - Tell people you know that these calls are scams.
