KARAOKE NIGHT SUCCESS

A wonderful night of fun and frolicking and dancing took place at the clubhouse on Saturday, January 31st. Jake was at his best handling the busy karaoke presentations while the Canadian contingent regaled us with their dancing music and occasional songs and when a group acted out a rendition of “The Unicorn”. The hall was filled to capacity to everyone’s delight. Come on down to the next karaoke night on Saturday, February 28th and join the fun!!

ON A POSITIVE NOTE

Lorraine O'Connell

At a recent Association Meeting, a fairly new resident voiced her concern over the condition of our park. She could not understand how our landlord, Mr. Larson, can balk at fixing ongoing problems in our park. Soon, others complained, and a feeling of unrest filled the hall. Ron Russell, our President of the Association, and better known as “Mr. Cool”, did his best to respond to the complaints. He deals with Mr. Larson often and, like many others, has come to realize that Embassy Mobile Home Park is a business to him. He owns the park to make money.

We may not be the best-looking park in the area, but rest assured, we are not the worst looking either. I have been here since 1990 and I am not embarrassed to say, “I Love It Here!”. We have so many wonderful residents. We all watch out for each other. So the grass is not cut to perfection, and our roads need attention, and there are other issues as well. Can that diminish all the fun times put together for our pleasure?? Can it change the close friendships we all have? Can it dull the joy so obvious when we all get together at the hall for special events? Can it take away the feeling that, even though you are alone, friends and neighbors make sure you never feel alone? And we are known as the friendliest park in the area and attract many neighbors who participate in our myriad of activities because they are non-existent in their own areas.

Most of us are in our retiring years and want them to be happy years - - I know I do! Jessie is trying hard to make our park look better, but she answers to Mr. Larson. His favorite reply to some of her requests is - - “In Time!”.

This park is our home, and many are willing to give their time and efforts to keep things looking better and making sure we have many, many wonderful activities in which to participate. We are all grateful to them for caring and for their involvement. Maybe our motto should be, “You get what you give”.

Take a moment to think about all the good things we have going on. We have breakfasts, pot luck suppers, shuffling, all kinds of card games, bingo, dominoes, a really nice library, sewing and hobby groups, a swimming pool, and a nice hall to hold many, many social activities. So I guess I choose not to dwell on the things we don't have, but to cherish the love and friendships I do have to fill my days. My thanks go to all those who make living in Embassy a wonderful place to spend my retiring years.

EMBASSY FASHION SHOW

The Embassy Fashion Show was held on February 10th, with Jennifer from Bon Worth highlighting some of the Spring fashions for 2015. Jennifer discussed some of the fabrics and colors that were available at their stores. She also explained that the threat of their closing last year has been alleviated by new ownership. She indicated that they will be moving from their present location to the Largo Mall, which will make it much more convenient for our Embassy residents.

Our Embassy friends and neighbors were models for the event. They included Muriel Downie, Judi Hoke, Faye Napert, Elaine Pepper, Cay Raper, and Liz Wicklund, who all looked lovely in the outfits they chose to model. Terry Hazlett introduced each of the models.

We also had a 'surprise' opening with three special models who showed us the newest in "manty" bras for our men. Al Wilson aka Alamina; Barry Murphy aka Baramina; and Bill Burt aka Billamina graced our stage by modeling these new items. We also found a new use for the famous bungee cords (seen in our latest wonderful Fun Night show). These items can usually be purchased at your neighborhood second-hand store.

Many of our friends donated goodies for after the show. Emily Beattie, Peggy Norris, and Janet Patterson helped organize the dessert and punch tables. Thanks to everyone who helped to make the show such a success.

A TRAVEL TIP REMINDER

Beverly Doucette

A lot of people are planning special travel trips out of the United States in the upcoming year. Just want to remind every one of you to check your passport for its expiration date well in advance of your departure date. It takes at least six months to receive and use your replacement passport. Check them now, and I would suggest you renew and replace them before they are reach their expiration date, even though you are not now planning such a trip.

You may very well be invited to accompany someone on a wonderful out-of-country trip, just as I was this past year with my wonderful niece. Happy trails !!

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN

Beverly Ryan Doucette

Several years ago, my older sister Dorothy and I ventured up from my home area outside Boston to York Beach, Maine, to visit with our older sister Shirley who had not been well for a while. We arrived as many of her children and grandchildren were also visiting at that time. They were all engrossed around the kitchen table of her home on the beach sorting through piles and piles of Shirly’s family photographs, thoroughly enjoying the visual journey. We gladly jumped into the boisterous activity to join in the fun.

It wasn’t very long before I realized that Shirly kept looking at me quizzically with sideways glances. I began to realize that she didn’t even know who I was! After a while, at one point she was examining one of the photographs and showed it to me, asking, “Who is this??” It was a lovely studio photograph of her when she was in her 20’s or 30’s. I turned back to her and said, “That’s YOU, dear!” She paused and said to me, amazed, “I was very pretty, wasn’t I?”. “You certainly were!” I replied. I had surprisingly glanced toward the others gathered there, and they gave me a very pitying look. That, then, was my first very personal introduction to the terrible thief called Alzheimer’s Disease!

Through many former years, occasionally (very occasionally) we would become aware of friends’ older parents and grandparents losing their memories here and there. And at that time we attributed it to hardening of the arteries. But through the ensuing years, these occasions would become known as Alzheimers more and more, until now, it is practically running rampant and considered a somewhat usual part of aging. Almost everyone has been touched by its devastation one way or another, through friends, acquaintances, newspaper accounts, and, most heartbreaking, as it touches our own parents, siblings, close friends and associates. Alzheimers is just too familiar to us!

One resident here at our Embassy Park, Joni Allen is in the health care profession, and recently asked me if I could reproduce a poem that a relative of one of her Alzheimer’s patients had given her. She wanted to frame it as a gift for family members of those patients. I thought it was so beautiful, I am sharing it with you. May its words give you and the precious caretakers the comfort that I immediately received from it.

ALZHEIMERS PRAYER

Author Unknown

Dear Lord,
Please grant my visitors tolerance for my confusion, forgiveness for my irrationality, and the strength to walk with me into the mist of memory my world has become.
Please help them take my hand and stay a while, even though I seem unaware of their presence.

Help them to know how their strength and loving care will drift slowly into days, and it will be there just when I need it most.

Let them know, when I don't recognize them, that I will . . . I will Keep their hearts free of sorrow for me, for when my sorrow comes to me, it only lasts a minute, then it's gone.

Please let them know how very much their visits mean to me.

How, even through this relentless mystery of Alzheimers . . I can still feel their love.

And on a final personal note, as I approach the older end of my "senior citizen" designation, I frequently become more and more forgetful as the weeks go by. I keep repeating over and over, i.e. ("Why did I come here to the bedroom?"; "Where did I leave my eyeglasses?"; and my most scary phrase, "I'd like you to meet my very best friend of over 50 years, . . . ,(ahem, cough, cough) excuse me - - what is your name??) !!")

There are many other scary things as the days go by, too! We must learn to discern between the usual forgetfulness and what is truly a serious situation. So many of my friends, families, and relatives have also been touched in some way or other by Alzheimers. I shall always think of them and the myriad caretakers with the solace I felt from the above prayer. . Oh, and on another note, one of the previous issues of the Parade Section of the Sunday paper (2/15/2015) had listed some helpful suggestions regarding our forgetfulness.

MIDWEST MARDI GRAS OPEN HOUSE

Elaine Pepper

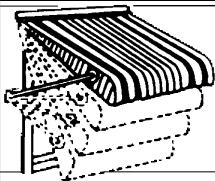

BRING ON THE JAZZ & TRUMPETS!!

Douglas Purton and Elaine Migliorati showed up in the most appropriate fashion for the wonderful Mardi Gras party put on by the Midwest Club of Embassy for our pre-Lenten and -Easter celebration. They truly outdid themselves for the affair.

A colorful and lively celebration was held on January 21st by Embassy's Midwest Club. It took place from 10 a.m. to 12 noon in our Clubhouse which was decked out for the affair. The people attending were equally as bright and beautiful. A variety of appetizers and desserts was provided to all who attended. The entertainment for the morning was New Orleans Jazz played by Ron Miller on trumpet and Terry Meredith on piano. A dance floor was available for those who wished to kick up their heels, or trip to the light fantastic! Many door prizes were distributed as well as the 50-50 drawing. This party was free, and if you missed it, you really missed a really good time.

EARLY BIRD DINNER THEATER

The next trip to the Early Bird Dinner Theater will be on Saturday, March 21st, for the luncheon performance of “Hotbed Hotel”. The owners of a “one-star” hotel” in the Florida Keys are hoping to find a buyer. In order to make it seem more prosperous to the only interested buyer, they have their staff act as paying guests. However, the only staff members that are employed are a maintenance man and a sexy housemaid.

The salad portion of the buffet at the Early Bird show usually starts about 11:00 a.m., with the play starting between 12:30 and 1:00 p.m. The cost for both the dinner and the performance is still only $32 plus the tip you leave in the basket for the waiters and waitresses. A sign-up sheet will be on the bulletin board in the clubhouse. For more information, call Barbara Whitman at 238-3200. She will collect money for the tickets no later than March 18th.

HAPPY SAINT PATRICK’S DAY

Beverly Doucette

As you probably have guessed from past issues, I am a proud former Bostonian resident of Irish/American/Canadian descent, and March 17th used to be one of my favorite days to celebrate the occasion of St. Patrick’s Day up there in Harvard Square in Cambridge. One of the favorite celebrations used to take place here in Embassy at the wonderful Corned Beef & Cabbage dinners prepared for the occasion. M-m-m-m Good !! Maybe they’ll be resurrected once again in the future. Faith and begorrah! . . . A Happy Saint Paddy’s Day to ye, and here’s wishin’ all of ye a top o’ the mornin’ and hopin’ you’ll meet a leprechaun sittin’ next to a pot-o-gold you’ll be expectin’! Erin Go Bragh !!!

WHY WE CHOSE TO LIVE AT EMBASSY M H P

Cathy Russell

The major reason seems to be location. Florida must be the only place in the world where grown adults proudly ride 3-wheel bicycles to the grocery store, drug store, and, yes, the liquor store - - all an easy commute from our winter home.

Many pristine beaches are in the area, but I suggest taking the car or a bus, not the typical park transportation of trike or golf cart.

We have several clubs and organizations in the park who hold various functions, meetings and fund raisers. There is something for everyone in this park who wants to be involved. Just read the bi-monthly Bulletin, show up and introduce yourself, and that’s it - - you’re in !!

Embassy is most importantly people. People who are a neighborhood of friends who watch out for each other, share meals together, work together, picnic together, and so on. Beggs & Stuart continued to be “Beggs & Stuart” even though our Arlene Stuart wasn’t well enough to be by Glenn’s side. Embassy MHP is Poker, Trivia, Bingo, and blankets donated from the Sewing Guild. It is Shuffleboard, Euchre, Vespers, Dominoes, Bridge, Book Club, Cribbage, Court Whist, and on and on. Surely you can find something to do!

I want to take this opportunity to thank everyone personally for all their cares and concerns while I have been sick this season. I am on the mend and will most likely be pestering you for your missionary money next season. Cathy Russell

FOOTBALL EXTRAVAGANZA

June DeRuiter

The Football Extravaganza happened to be held on the same Sunday in February as the SuperBowl. There was a 50/50 drawing, a couple of football pools, and a poker tournament. A nice touch this year was a poker run. On signing up, you were given the five locations of playing cards hidden somewhere in the park. Some participants rode bikes, went via golf carts, or walked to obtain their poker hand. The best hand won.

Yummy food included chili, hot dogs, and snacks. Our table had lots to eat. One of us ate five hot dogs and four chilis.

We enjoyed watching the exciting game on three large-screen TV’s. Hopefully, more folks will attend next year’s Extravaganza and have as great a time all of us did this year.

COUNTRY & WESTERN HOE DOWN

By Brud Livingston

For the fourth consecutive year, the New York Club of Embassy Park sponsored the mid-January Country & Western Hoedown. Good old western music was provided by Roger Noel and the Country Road Runners. Everyone dug out their western garb and ten-gallon hats. Six-shooters had to be checked in at the door. The best dressed cowboy and cowgirl prizes were awarded to Bill and Gloria Burtt.

A fun time was had during intermission as the crowd tried to bounce "road apples" into a "manure" bin. The "road apples" were supplied by horses tied up at the hitching post outside the Clubhouse. The chuck wagon had franks, and the "Saloon" had plenty of beer.

By overwhelming demand, the New York Club was urged to bring the Road Runners for the fifth time next year, probably on January 23, 2016. So, shine up your cowboy boots and belt buckles, and we'll see you all at next year's Hoedown.
