Fairway Social Committee Message

Jan Wallace, Chairperson

You still have a few more days to sign up for the Labor Day Picnic! This event is free, but we MUST know in advance how many supplies to purchase in order for all to have plenty to eat.

The sign-up sheets are located on the rotating bulletin boards in the clubhouse. The event will begin at 1pm on Monday the 7th of September, in the Clubhouse. We will begin eating at that time. Our menu is grilled all beef hot dog (relish, ketchup, mustard, onions, chilly & cheese), chips, soda and cookies. Don't miss this fun time for fellowship and yummy food. The CUT OFF DATE for signing up is Saturday the 5th of September.

We have to give a big thank you to Ed & Skip Day and their crew for the great job of organizing and executing the "Sweet Time" at the Ice Cream Social. The crowd certainly appreciated the time to chat and cool off.

Appreciation also goes to Gail and Richard Christensen for the Summer Fun Pot-Luck Dinner/Dance these summer months. Whoo Hoo!! They have agreed to chair these events again next summer!!

Koffee Klatch

Gary and Carol Ourtzs

Come to the Fairway Village Koffee Klatch on Saturday, September 19 from 8-9:30 a.m.

Everyone is welcome--residents and their guests. Sign-up sheet is on the bulletin board in the clubhouse. Donations accepted.

SUMMER FUN SHUFFLE BOARD

SUNDAYS 6:30 PM COME JOIN US!

Beginners Welcome!

This new event is a success. Despite the inclement weather since it started in mid July seventeen played the first Sunday and 12 the following week. Back to our normal weather we had 24 shufflers at our Sunday August ninth session. Mark your calendar for our September dates.

The program was started to take advantage of the improvements made to the court. The roof over keeps the sun and in most cases the rain out of the area. We encourage you to attend and learn this game. Once you learn rules and how to keep score residents and their guests can play and enjoy the game anytime the court has not been reserved.

Bingo

Come join us for Bingo. Our new season begins Thursday, September 3. New bingo games will make for an exciting time.

Cards are sold from 6:15 to 6:45. The Early Bird game begins shortly after that. Bingo ends about 9 pm, or shortly afterwards. I recommend you be at the clubhouse by 6:30pm to get settled in.

To play six cards (recommended for beginners) and all other games costs less than 10 dollars. The money paid in is returned as prizes except for a small amount saved to replenish supplies.

Bring goodies, but no alcoholic beverages, and enjoy an evening with your neighbors. If you have new neighbors invite them to come with you.

Call me, Sue Boone, if you have any questions - 727-531-5236. See you at Bingo.

Summer Fun Party

I would like to thank each and everyone of you for making the Summer Fun Party possible. The food was great as well as meeting everyone at our Club House.

I have to thank my husband, Bob Dunn and Cal Converse for all their help, so till next year, we look forward to seeing you around the Park.

Architectural Review Committee

The ARC Policies and Procedures Manual defines and outlines the guidelines for all exterior changes to homes as well as for replacing homes. This manual is available from the office or may be downloaded from the FVRA website (Fairway Info; Home Buyers information, ARC Revised P and P). Before you begin your project please obtain a Home Replacement or Modification Request form from the FVRA office or download it (page 12, Exhibit D, in the manual) and return the completed form to the FVRA office. The ARC, which meets most Mondays in the clubhouse, looks forward to working with you in replacing your home or planning the changes to the outside of your home.

OKTOBERFEST

Joanne Thueneman, Chairman

October will be here sooner than we think. Just a reminder of our Annual event which will be held the last Saturday of October on the 31st. We serve a German dinner and dancing from 4 to 8 pm. Start making plans to attend. We will have reserved tables for groups of 5 to 8 persons wanting to be together. Tickets will go on sale at the clubhouse beginning in October.

Come and join the fun. For more information please call Joanne.

BOWLING

Hey bowlers, it's time to think about bowling. We are one month away from starting our league.

Fairway Village bowling season starts on October 1, 2015 through March 31, 2015, starting at 11:15 a.m. at Seminole Lane, on Park Ave with a nice banquet at the end of the season.

So, no matter if you've lived in Fairway Village for a long time or you just moved in, we are looking for full time bowlers and subs for each week.

If you know of someone or you are interested in bowling with us, please call Darryl Bums, president of the Fairway Village League or Diana Bums, secretary. 727-239-7161.

years. They turned in their score cards laughing and telling me their scores were high but they really had a good time. It was challenging and fun. We had 2 teams come in with 32, 3 with 33, 2 with 34, 2 with 35, 1 with 36, 1 with 39 and the high was a 41.

Thank you Bill Keen and Rick Moser for having our soggy course open and in good condition considering all the rain we've had. Also a big thank you to our Almighty Father for holding off the rain. Next scramble will be Sept 5th.

Ladies Golf League - 2015-2016

Sue Reed

The summer is quickly coming to an end. The season is upon us. If you would like to pay your membership donations of $14 for the season, they can be paid to Carol Kriebel at #278. Checks must be made out to Fairway Village FSC. In order to play this must be done prior to October 30 to be on the schedule for the first day of league play which is Wednesday, Nov. 4. As of August 10, there are 85 PAID members plus our 8 honorary members, those 85 years and older. Unfortunately, we sadly lost active member, Sue Peck in May and inactive member, Christine Adkins in July. They were both longtime members in their 90's. This has been a lousy summer for golfing on our course - too much rain and heat!!! Check out our Fairway Village website under GOLF for the Ladies League article, 2015 - 2016 events, and winter pairings which will start appearing in November.

VFW Annual Poppy Drive

Around Veterans Day each year, the Fairway Village VFW Post conducts our annual Poppy Drive fund-raiser. Last year, more than 70 Fairway resident volunteers stood a two-hour shift at a nearby grocery store, distributing Buddy Poppies and accepting donations. Together, we raised more than $3,500 in three days!

Every year we donate all that we collect to hospitals, support groups and training organizations serving wounded and needy veterans. On their behalf, we offer to you and your thoughtful neighbors who helped us, our sincere "Thank you for your service"!

This year, we have arranged with three local Publix stores to distribute our Buddy Poppies on Thursday, Friday and Saturday October 29-31 at the Tri-City, East Bay and Bardmore stores. These three stores have supported our efforts for many years and we are very pleased to have found a free weekend in their busy schedule for our campaign. Our process runs like this: Volunteers sign up in pairs to stand (or sit) near the exit of one of the stores for a 2-hour shift; 10 to noon, noon to 2pm, 2 to 4pm, or 4 to 6pm, either Thursday, Friday or Saturday. As you can see, this takes 8 folks each day for each store; 24 each day for 3 days, or 72 smiling volunteers. Last year, for the first time ever, we had a full slate of helpers such that nobody was asked to do more than one shift!

Please begin now to mark your calendar, find a partner and choose a favorite store, day and shift where you can lend us a hand. Each year we have fewer veterans among us who can still commit to a 2-hour shift, and some of our other regular volunteers will need to drop out for various reasons. So we need to count on some fresh faces to step up. Last year we recruited 29 new volunteers. Some were a bit apprehensive at first, but all came away with an appreciation of the experience and said they'll be back this year.

If you have a veteran in your family, or have a friend or neighbor who served, here is a chance to show your appreciation. Send me a text or email, or give me a call.

City life? Not for all young adults

The TV sitcom Friends depicted a group of young New Yorkers enjoying life in the big city—but in the end, at least two of them chose to move to a house in the suburbs. Young adults in real life appear to be making the same choice (without the laugh track). A survey of more than 1,500 people born since 1977, released by the National Association of Home Builders, found that few of them want to remain in the city for their entire lives.

Sixty-six percent indicated they'd like to live in the suburbs, and 24 percent have their hearts set on a rural residence. Only 10 percent want to live in the center of an urban area. They're mostly looking for space: Eighty-one percent said they want three or more bedrooms wherever they end up living.

Online videos bigger than TV these days

Video has taken over the Internet, especially among the younger generation. A survey of 13- to 24-year-olds by Defy Media found this evidence of the influence of YouTube and other video providers on youthful fans:

- Millennials watch an average of 11.3 hours of free online video a week, and 10.8 hours of subscription video—but only 8.3 hours of scheduled broadcast TV.
- Videos are more popular than online TV content. Seventy-six percent of young people in the survey said they find YouTube more entertaining than TV programs (more popular with 55 percent of participants).
- They're tolerant of advertising on the Internet. Fewer than half—41 percent—said online videos have too many advertisements, but 63 percent feel TV does.

Mathematics is the art of giving the same name to different things.

—Henri Poincaré

Get the full impact from these healthful foods

Certain foods have definite health benefits, but you have to eat them the right way to get their full impact. Here are some common foods you might be eating “wrong,” according to the CNN website:

- Flaxseed. Full of fiber and omega-3, these little seeds may improve your heart health—as long as you grind them up first. Sprinkling them whole over your cereal or yogurt will keep their nutrients locked inside.
- Broccoli. Eat this raw or steamed, not cooked, to receive the full dose of vitamin C, chlorophyll, and antioxidants this vegetable offers.
- Strawberries. Slicing this delicious fruit exposes its healthful nutrients to light and oxygen, which can dilute their effects. Eat them whole, or hold off cutting them until the last minute.
- Garlic. The enzyme allicin, found in garlic, may help ward off cancer, but its benefits are more pronounced when it’s exposed to air. Let garlic sit for about 10 minutes after chopping to release this enzyme fully.
- Tomatoes. Fresh tomatoes are tasty, but you’re better off cooking them. The antioxidants in them increase in potency when they’re heated to about 190 degrees Fahrenheit.

Stone tools point to early use by primitive humans

Humans have been using tools for longer than we’ve known. As reported by the journal Nature, a team of archeologists in Kenya have found stone tools dating back 3.3 million years, some 700,000 years older than the oldest tools previously discovered.

Before this find, the oldest known stone tools came from sites in Ethiopia and were believed to have been used some 2.6 million years ago. Still, evidence of earlier tool use suggested that humans may have been using stone for longer than that—fossils of animal bones, also in Ethiopia, show signs of cutting some 3.4 million years ago.

The Kenyan tools were dated with an analysis of the sedimentary layer where they were uncovered. Scientists speculate they may have been used to open nuts or fruits with hard surfaces. Weighing in at about 6.6 pounds, the tools are 10 times heavier than any stone tools discovered so far.

Keep relationships healthy over long distances

Ten years ago, some 2.9 percent of all marriages were long-distance relationships. Today that number has grown. Maintaining any kind of relationship takes work; when partners are separated, the effort grows. Keep your relationship steady and solid with these tips:

- Set ground rules. The secret to success in a long-distance relationship is managing expectations. Talk over how you'll handle the separation—who will be responsible for bills, child care, and other household issues. Do this ahead of time so nothing falls through the cracks. Set up a schedule for regular phone calls so you can plan conversations effectively.
- Communicate—but not too much. Regular contact is essential to the health of any marriage, so make a point of getting in touch as often as you need to. Just don't overdo it. If one partner feels crowded or badgered by insistent demands, he or she may back off, making the relationship even more complicated.
- Vary your channels. Don't rely on the telephone alone. Use e-mails and texts to send quick messages without interrupting the other person at work or at an awkward moment. Variety helps strengthen any relationship, so look for different ways to connect.
- Plan positive visits. You'll want to get together with your partner as often as you can. Don't put too much pressure on yourselves to make each visit spectacular, though. Give yourselves time to relax so no one feels personally responsible for the visit's success. You both need some downtime to get used to being with each other again.
- Be flexible. Travel plans can change at a moment's notice. An emergency may delay or interrupt a phone call. Although you're disappointed, do your best to respond positively and patiently when other demands disrupt your planned activities. Getting into a fight over every minor crisis won't keep your relationship strong.

Physical fitness is not only one of the most important keys to a healthy body, it is the basis of dynamic and creative intellectual activity.

—John F. Kennedy

Keeping up with current events

How much do you know about current events? The Pew Research Center News IQ survey examined the knowledge of more than 3,000 U.S. residents in an interactive quiz that asked them to identify a series of photographs, charts, and maps. Here's how the participants measured up when asked to ...

- Identify a photo of Martin Luther King Jr.: 91 Percent
- Identify the country led by Kim Jong-il from a photo (North Korea): 82 percent
- Identify the location of Guantanamo on a map (Cuba): 78 percent
- Name the country the U.S. recently re-established relations with (Cuba): 76 percent
- Identify the proposed route of the Keystone Pipeline on a map: 73 percent
- Identify Malala from a photo (2014 Nobel Prize winner): 93 percent
- Identify Pope Francis's home country on a map (Argentina): 52 percent
- Give the correct number of female Supreme Court justices (three): 33 percent

Have you taken your fish oil today?

Natural dietary supplements are big business in the U.S. As part of the National Health Interview Survey, researchers looked at the use of natural supplements other than vitamins and minerals. Comparing figures from 2002, 2007, and 2012, the trends they found include:

- Fish oil. This was the top product used by adults in 2012, as well as among children (though in 2007, Echinacea was the most popular supplement among children).
- Melatonin. This sleep aid came in second for children in 2012, increasing significantly from 2007.
- Glucosamine/chondroitin. Use of this decreased between 2007 and 2012, along with a drop in the use of Echinacea and garlic.
- Ginseng. This showed another large decline from 2002 to 2007, along with the use of Gingko.
- Green tea and milk thistle. Use of these held steady (though low) between 2007 and 2012.

Monkey see, monkey do, monkey—cook?

Humans and chimpanzees share many genetic traits, and scientists have recently discovered one that may surprise fans of the Cooking Channel and the Food Network: a basic understanding of how to cook food.

Chimps have long exhibited a preference for cooked food over raw. A team from Harvard and Yale decided to see if they could be taught to “cook” food on their own. Observations have shown that chimps are willing to give up something like a slice of raw sweet potato if they expect to receive a cooked one in a short time. To test their hypothesis, the scientists devised a process to mimic cooking (since they didn’t want the apes to use actual heat): two plastic bowls that fit closely together, with a bit of pre-cooked food hidden in the lower bowl.

The scientists would put a piece of raw potato into the bowl, then switch it after a few minutes for the cooked one. After a while, the chimpanzees began doing the same thing—placing a piece of food into the bowl, waiting, then looking for the tastier result.

The researchers believe this shows a basic cognitive ability to understand the cooking process, as well as the patience to carry out—traits that may have driven crucial changes in human evolution.

Follow the right FORM for effective innovation

Innovation may seem spontaneous, but it generally succeeds because the groundwork has been methodically laid ahead of time. To spark creative thinking in your organization, follow consultant Charles Day’s acronym FORM:

F: Focus. Start by deciding what’s important to your team and organization. What were you created to achieve? Identify the key goals of your vision so you have something to work toward.

O: Organization. Decide on a structure for developing and implementing ideas. Who is responsible for specific tasks? What jobs should be shared? How will you make decisions?

R: Resources. Gather what you’ll need to implement your plans. This includes not just tools and materials, but people. Identify the types of talents you’ll need to bring an idea to reality.

M: Measurement. Look to the end as you begin. Determine how you’ll know whether you’ve succeeded or failed. Goals should be specific and clear to everyone, and they must be relevant to your organization’s vision.

September Is...

Baby Safety Month. Drowning, falls, chemicals, and other hazards can endanger the life and health of any small child. During September, take a good look around your house and eliminate any threats to babies' safety that might be hiding in plain sight.

Library Card Sign-Up Month. A time to remind parents and children that a library card is the most important school supply of all. If you don't already have a library card, get one in September; if you do, visit your local library and use it.

National Bourbon Heritage Month. A celebration of bourbon as America's "Native Spirit." The U.S. Senate declared September National Bourbon Heritage Month in 2007, calling on those who enjoy bourbon to do so responsibly and in moderation.

National Campus Safety Awareness Month. College campuses are not immune to destructive behaviors and violence due to high-risk drinking, drug abuse, sexual assault, fire safety, and more. As your kids head to college this month, talk to them about safety and investigate the resources their school offers.

Week to Week

National Suicide Prevention Week, Sept. 8-14. An annual campaign to inform and engage health professionals and the general public about suicide prevention and warning signs of suicide. Awareness events are held throughout the week around World Suicide Prevention Day, Sept. 10.

National Truck Driver Appreciation Week, Sept. 13-19. Sponsored by the American Trucking Associations, a federation of state associations, affiliated conferences, and individual members committed to developing and advocating policies that promote highway safety, security, environmental sustainability, and profitability.

Pollution Prevention Week, Sept. 21-27. The best way to protect the earth and its people is to stop creating pollution in the first place. Less waste and pollution means fewer hazards to public health and the environment. Pollution Prevention Week highlights the efforts of the EPA, its state partners, industry, and the public in preventing pollution right from the start.

Banned Books Week, Sept. 27-Oct. 3. Sponsored by the American Library Association to promote the importance of ensuring the availability of books to all who wish to read them.
