A MESSAGE FROM THE OFFICE

DeeVon Schisler, LCAM, Office phone 727-584-1413, email: secretary.fourseasonsestates@gmail.com

Well, May is here with all its uncertainty. As we are preparing this May newsletter (in mid-April) for publication, who knows what will be current information by the time this goes to print. We receive many changes in a week. Sometimes it's been daily! I think the only certainty we have is uncertainty right now.

The office will do its very best to send VOLO messages out with updates and changes during this time. Many of you may already be aware that our office is operating only by phone and email until further notice. Our hours remain the same Monday-Friday from 9-3. We are all in this together folks. There have been some issues with VOLO, but they have told me those issues have been resolved. If you get a phone message, please be patient and wait for it to come through or touching any key will immediately start the message playing. If you wait for it, it sometimes has taken up to 10 seconds to hear the message. Of course, if it doesn't play for you, call the office and we are more than happy to relay that message for you.

At the date of writing this, the Clubhouse as well as all of our amenities remain closed. This is for the safety of the entire community. There have been no changes with trash collection to date. I don't foresee any changes with that. Please continue with social distancing of no closer than 6' from each other. Also, as I write this, please remember we have a Stay at Home Order in place. I am in constant contact with the Board of Directors and am keeping them updated on the changes that occur daily as it relates to this COVID-19, as well as the goings on in the park. Be assured that all our Board members are very much involved in our daily operations, even though some of them may not be here physically. Hopefully, we will have that behind us as this publication of our Monthly Media reaches us all.

As we enter into our rainy seasons, be aware that weeds are going to grow at a more rapid rate. Hopefully, you have all made arrangements with someone to keep them at bay. Our community looks great and I would like to personally thank you all for your efforts! It's not easy, but you have all managed to pull it off! So, thank you for that. I have sent some letters for garbage violations, very few, I might add. Thanks to all who continue to comply with our rules and regulations in the park. Violation letters are not my most favorite part of my duties, nonetheless, I am tasked with it. Oh, the taller, bigger Queen palms will have been trimmed by now as well (we hope) and the rest of them will continue to be maintained in house.

FOUR SEASONS HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION NEWS (or not)

Janice Lamore, Secretary, Lot #332, Phone #802-879-0501

For quite a while now we had thought about writing an article or have one written by one of our neighbors and call it "Spotlight on our Neighbor". Since there aren't any meetings or much activity regarding our Homeowners Association, I have written the following as something different to break the tedium of another day of isolation. This has also given me something to do that I enjoy – original writing. Here's hoping that you enjoy it too!

"A Slice of Life in the Country" by Janice Lamore

My house is a small ranch-style home which was built by my husband and a friend in 1969 on a ten-acre parcel of land that we had purchased. We raised our three children here. (I acquired sole ownership in 1984 as part of our divorce settlement.) This land came with a huge two-story barn with a gambrel roof built in the 1940's. My family had also lived here during my childhood in the late 1940's when it was a 366-acre farm which my father worked and managed for a few years. (The original farmhouse which was built in the 1800's was too deteriorated to be lived in or saved when we bought it.) My home is located on a dirt road called Lost Nation Road in the Town of Essex, Vermont where more signs of green are evident and just a hint of budding on my lilac bushes and apple trees. I am grateful for these signs of spring. Before it was named Lost Nation Road many years ago, the entire area of about three-square miles was called just "Lost Nation" mostly because people couldn't find it. I have long considered this to be my "piece of heaven" although I was blessed to find another "piece of heaven" in Florida.

I am also grateful for having been blessed with a daughter and daughter-in-law who have been doing all the grocery shopping for me and leaving it on my back porch. I am grateful knowing both families are close by, living either a little bit up or down the road from me, each having built their own homes on their eleven-plus acres of land that I was fortunate enough to own and sell to them many years ago. (More land that we later purchased from the original farm acreage that had been subdivided and divided once more.)

I flew home to Vermont much earlier than usual at the request of my family, leaving behind my sunny seventy and eighty-degree “piece of heaven” in Florida and coming home to a mostly rainy forty and fifty degrees with a few inches of snow in the mix. It feels very cold here to me so this has required a “period of adjustment” on my part which includes a blanket for watching TV from my couch and turning up the heat a degree or two.

During the first few weeks at home, the usual staples were not available; toilet paper, Kleenex, all liquid soap and cleaning supplies, etc. But most important to me, there was not a fresh or frozen carrot to be found to go into my lentil soup or my pea soup or my rice and red-bean soup. I did have onions and spices but it just wasn’t the same. Needless to say, I am very grateful to now have a carrot or two in my soups and salads. It’s amazing to think what a difference one or two carrots can make in life or I should say my life.

The only signs of animal life I’ve seen each day are two very fat and persistent squirrels chewing everything in sight on my lawn and one small bird that likes to visit a large bare bush out by my mail box. I did follow deer tracks on a walk down to my meadow behind the barn. And there are a couple of piles of horse manure under my apple trees left over during the winter from my neighbor’s horses who like to escape and venture up the road at least once or twice a month. Oh yes, I forgot; I did see those three horses trotting around the corner and down the road toward their home last week after another adventure out. I found out yesterday that there are two horses down at the end of my road that sometimes get out accompanied by two goats. I’m looking forward to that!

I also enjoy seeing the little four-year old blond-haired boy next door riding his little bicycle along the road in front of my house with his mom or dad out for their daily walk. How soon will he realize how much his life has changed by the blessed event last Thursday that gave him a baby brother? We can only hope that he will not dwell on the fact that he has lost his spot as an only child and that he will be able to enjoy his new position as older brother without more than the usual amount of teasing. Looks like he’s taking it all in stride; he was pushing the baby carriage as they were out for their walk today.

We know that there will be some bad to come out of this current health situation, but let’s keep our eyes open for the many good things that will also come and embrace the good. Also, we could give some consideration to how little it takes to be grateful for what we already have. That’s it for now. Stay well. Stay safe. And please stay grateful.

P.S. The Governor of the state of Vermont has asked everyone to postpone their spring cleaning so that the landfills do not overflow. I am so happy to be using this as an excuse not to do any housework. Well, that’s my story and I’m sticking to it.

And now for a quick commercial from the Four Seasons Homeowners Association: We, as a Board, are doing our best to represent all the homeowners in our park and work together with the ROC for the betterment of the community and the residents of this great park. We have many new homeowners and welcome them to our park. If any homeowners, new or old, have about five hours a month to spare, please consider volunteering for our Board. We are searching for two new members to join our Board. We know that many of you have served

FOUR SEASONS ESTATES SOCIAL ACTIVITIES, INC. (SAC)

Did you know that this newsletter is put together by SAC community volunteers? Volunteers write articles; the volunteer editor formats the newsletter articles each month and submits to Monthly Media Publishers. MMP print and deliver the newsletters (free of charge to us) and then the newsletters are hand delivered (door to door) to all residents of FSE. This takes a great team of dedicated volunteers.

The SAC is looking for some new people to get involved and become part of the newsletter team. Our current long time editor is going to take a well-deserved break. We are in need of someone to take this position. Anyone interested in this, please contact Marilyn Franz (#411) at moosicldy@aol.com or Director of Information Lynn Ruhl at lynnruhl6@gmail.com. As long as you have a computer, you can do this volunteer job from anywhere in the world!!

To be a part of the distribution team, contact Mandi Harman-Ashley (#373). We're always looking for new folks to be involved.

In addition, our FSE Phone Directory is updated every spring. This, too, is published at no charge to our residents by Dial Directories. If you would like more information on how to help, talk to Marilyn Franz or Lynn Ruhl.

ANNUAL 2020 CANUCK GOLF TOURNAMENT

Thank you for understanding the reason for the cancellation of our 2020 golf tournament scheduled in March. The good news is that the tournament is rescheduled for March 2021 - same time - same place! You will have all summer to practice! Stay safe and healthy and God willing we'll see everyone in the fall of 2020. Donna Robertson and John Fisher

SHED UPDATE

Judy Ingram, #243. Phone: 603-769-0710

Hopefully, we'll be back in business by the time you read this May newsletter. Remember – please don't leave your donations in the clubhouse! Tuesday and Thursday are the days to drop off donations in front of the Shed. Thanks, as always for supporting the Shed and the Social Activities (SAC) of Four Seasons!

Check out these exercise suggestions below for an effective at-home workout. The number of repetitions and sets of each exercise is up to you. You can customize this routine based on the amount of time you have.

 If you're new to an exercise routine, please obtain clearance from your medical doctor before starting a new program or attempting any of these activities.

Warm-Up. First, warm up your body! If you can, go on a brisk 5-10 minute walk around your neighborhood to get your muscles warmed up. Prefer to stay inside? March in place, step side to side, or turn on your favorite tunes and dance around the living room for a few minutes. After heating up your muscles, dedicate some time to your joints. Think about starting at the top of your body and working your way down. Move your head left and right and tilt your head side to side to warm up your neck. Raise your shoulders up and down, then add some shoulder circles. Roll your shoulders forward for 30 seconds or so then reverse the motion rolling your shoulders back maintaining the circular pattern. Holding your arms out directly in front of you (you may choose to sit in a chair), do some wrist circles in one direction and then reverse the motion. Next, stand with your legs hip width apart, slowly making a figure 8 shape with your hips. Continue in one direction for about 30 seconds and then reverse. Have a seat in a chair and lift one foot off the ground and begin making circles with your ankle. Start in one direction, then reverse the motion. Repeat with the other ankle. Whatever warm-up you prefer, the goal is to warm your muscles and joints to prepare your body for exercise.

Chair Squats. If you have knee issues, you may choose to skip this exercise (please consult with your doctor). Squats are a great way to strengthen your lower body. If you can, find two chairs to use for this exercise. One chair will be used for squatting, and the other chair will be used for balance. Place the chairs one behind the other facing the same direction leaving enough room for you to stand between the two chairs. Place your hands on the chair in front of you for balance, then slowly push your hips back, bend your knees, and lower your body to the chair. You may choose to lightly sit on the chair or barely touch it before standing up and returning to the starting position.

Wall Push Ups. Wall push-ups are a great way to strengthen your upper body. Stand about two feet behind a wall and place your hands on the wall about shoulder height. Begin to bend your elbows out to the sides as you bring your face and chest close to the wall. Your heels will most likely come off the floor – that's ok! Press your hands into the wall to straighten your elbows and return to the starting position.

Toe Stands. Grab one of the chairs you used for the squatting exercise and stand directly behind it using the chair for balance. Slowly raise up onto your tiptoes then slowly lower your heels back to the floor.

Knee Extensions. Using the same chair, have a seat keeping your back straight and knees bent. One leg at a time, slowly extend your leg out in front of you. Hold this position for a few seconds and then lower back to the starting position. Repeat with opposite leg.

Chest Expansions. While still sitting in your chair. Bring your arms straight out in front of you (shoulder height) and place your palms together. As you inhale, open your arms wide extending your fingertips in opposite directions. As you exhale, bring your arms back to the starting position. Continue moving in these motions along with your breath.

Relax. At the end of your routine, you may choose to stay sitting in your chair for a little relaxation time. You're encouraged to maintain proper posture and place your hands in your lap. If you'd like, close your eyes and take a few deep breaths. Imagine your favorite person, place, or thing; think about anything that brings you joy and gratitude. With a smile on your face, slowly blink your eyes open, take one last deep breath, and celebrate the positive work you just completed for your body and mind!

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

TRAVEL AND ENTERTAINMENT

Sandra Hansen, hansens167@gmail.com, 765-719-5177

This month's article is focusing on future travel ideas. This past month has not been one where travel was upmost in our thoughts. Picture the following destinations as possible items to bring a lift to your spirits.

PAWHUAKA, OKLAHOMA - have you been there or even heard of it? More women than men will have some knowledge when they hear this name REE DRUMMOND! PAWHUAKA is the setting for Food Network's Reality Show "PIONEER WOMAN", hosted by Ree Drummond. She lives on a ranch outside of town and portrays her life of family, cooking, book writing and the Pioneer Woman Mercantile. This bus trip will feature a visit to the Mercantile, local museums, Woolaroc Museum and Wildlife preserve, and 3 nights at the Osage Casino. Air fare is included plus additional items. Dates are Sept. 16-19.

FALL IN THE SMOKIES: Oct.25-30. Travel by bus to the Chattanooga and Dollywood area. Colorful foliage, Dollywood shows, Southern Belle river cruise, train rides, some meals plus other surprises are on the agenda for the trip.

I do have the cruise on 1-17-2021 on the R/C HARMONY out of Port Canaveral with the ports of St. Maarten, San Juan and Perfect Day at Coco Cay. Trip taxes, Port charges, travel insurance and two private cocktail parties are included in the price. Cabin pricing for this trip starts at $1173 inside; Ocean view $1233; Central Park Balcony $1338; Boardwalk Balcony $1420; Ocean View Balcony $1443.

For information on all three events listed above I would ask that you call Advantage Cruises & Tours Agency 727-576-4010 or 866-824-1613 when all the after effects of the virus are settled.

CLUBHOUSE SCHEDULING

Lynn Ruhl, #482, email: lynnruhl6@gmail.com

If you wish to schedule the clubhouse for a function or private party, please contact Lynn Ruhl. Due to deadlines for the monthly newsletter, the request must be received by the 14th of the previous month to be included on the next month's calendar. Updates after the 14th will only be posted on the calendar in the clubhouse. To complete the process for private parties, you will need to fill out the appropriate paperwork and a deposit will be required. If Lynn is not available, please check in with the Four Seasons office. We very much appreciate your cooperation.

FOUR SEASONS ESTATES SOCIAL ACTIVITIES, INC. (SAC)

Summer picnics are still on schedule – check the calendar for dates and time. And just as soon as the clubhouse is open again, we'll be ready for Friday afternoon Bingo.

Join us on Wednesday mornings for Koffee Klatch – coffee is ready at 8AM (bring your own cup to help us save on paper products and trash) - and say hello to your neighbors! If you are new to the park and want a name tag, there is a sign up on the bulletin board or give Terry H. a call. A short meeting of announcements takes place at 9AM.

Clubhouse Rental: Scheduling of all events in the Clubhouse must go through the SAC, (Four Seasons Estates Social Activities, Inc.), Information Chairperson. This is to check on availability of clubhouse and posting on the activity calendar. Residents can use the clubhouse for private events by filling out the current form and paying a $100 deposit.

VETERANS WALL OF HONOR

Dan Gregorio, #378, 584-8236

If you have served in the U.S. military or U.S. Military allies (male or female) we would like you to take your place on the Wall of Honor in our clubhouse. We would like to have a picture of you in uniform and a current picture. Please pick up an information form at the office to provide certain stats about your service and return the form and photos to me or to DeeVon in the office and I will prepare them for the Wall.

You will notice that a small dove has been placed on the photo of those Park veterans who are deceased. We are proud of each of our residents who have served our countries. And we are proud of our Wall of Honor – it is a beautiful tribute to all of our Park veterans. THANK YOU FOR YOUR SERVICE.

MONTHLY MEDIA NEWSLETTER DISTRIBUTION

Mandi Harman-Ashley, #373, 255-2437

We have available wooden park mail boxes made by our resident Harold Bell. Let me (Mandi at #373) know if you want one. Sign up to receive one when the next batch is available. PLEASE if you get a free wooden box put it up within a week of receiving it. Please locate it under your carport toward the front of your unit if possible. If you are not able to do this please don't take one. The cost is a non-perishable food item. You can leave that at my door (#373) & I will get it to the food pantry persons.

The publisher delivers only enough newsletters for our park - one per coach. We generally don't have any extras and many are blown away or get wet unless there is a park mail pouch. If you don't get a newsletter delivered to your door, you may pick one up in the clubhouse after the first of the month AND when the clubhouse reopens for the summer. I will leave a box with extra newsletters in my carport after the first of the month also. The newsletter is also available on line at www.monthly-media.com.
