GATEWAY HOMEOWNERS ASSOCIATION

Tracy Schofield, President

The next GHA meeting will be held July 2, 2018 at 7:30 PM in the Clubhouse. We look forward to see you all at the next meeting. I know Management has been getting ready to start on the Kitchen remodeling in the Club house as the permits are in now. Umbrellas at pool have been replaced. They are looking into cards or bracelets for pool access that was brought up at the last meeting. They will be replacing a few of the benches at the pool also.

GATEWAY ACTIVITIES ORGANIZATION

Peter Soehnen, President

GAO as we are commonly known is responsible for the operation of the regular Park social activities. Each activity is in turn the responsibility of a multitude of unpaid full and part-time resident volunteers. The volunteer officers, president, vice-president and secretary are elected for two-year terms, the volunteer treasurer serves at the pleasure of the members. The GAO Steering Committee consists of the appointed chairmen in charge of the various activities and meets monthly October through April to plan and co-ordinate the activities.

SUMMERTIME ACTIVITIES

Peter Soehnen, GAO President

At the April GAO Scheduling meeting, attended by mostly seasonal residents, there was some discussion and consideration given to regular social activities to be carried on throughout the summer months. Florida summers are not the most pleasant or easiest of times to be arranging or participating in frequent (regular) social gatherings, weather being the major factor. Summer heat and humidity are physically oppressive and the length and severity of thunderstorms can force even the best laid plans and protected events to be cancelled or sparsely attended. The April meeting concluded with commitments that clubhouse activities, Creative Coloring, Tuesday morning Sewing Central and Wednesday Hold-em Poker together with a monthly Potluck Dinner would be maintained throughout the summer.

CREATIVE COLORING

Jayne Naska

COLORING BOOK

If you are looking for something relaxing to do on a hot summer night, come and join us at the Club House each Sunday evening 6:00 - 8:00 throughout the Summer. Supplies furnished, just bring you imagination!

Now that we are in Storm and rain season, it was discussed that should the weather be bad around 5:30 – 6:00 on a Sunday, we will not meet.

MEMORIAL DAY PICNIC

Dorinda Barnes

Memorial Picnic went well. Several veterans brought their military memorabilia for display at a Memorial table .

Karen Feyen's daughter Sarah's boyfriend Norman and his brother Famos grilled the Hotdogs and Kielbasa that everyone enjoyed. Marguerite Randolph and Sandy Vertz served the food as Jayne Naska worked as ticket seller/taker at the door. Marguerite, Ellen Mickleson, Cassie Packala and Jayne decorated and I (Dorinda) helped where I could. I cooked and prepared the pulled pork, Dale Hammond recited the Pledge and offered prayer. We had a lovely group of people and very pleasant time.

From your Dream Team - Thanks to all who attended and assisted with this event.

SUMMER POTLUCK DINNER

Dorinda Barnes, Coordinator

This month's Summertime Potluck will be held on Wednesday, July 18th at 5:00 p.m. A sign up sheet will be on the table at the east entrance of the clubhouse a week or two before and we request you sign up and let us know about how many of you are coming and what you will be bringing. This is always a fun evening and so we hope to see you there for some great food and enjoyable time with friends.

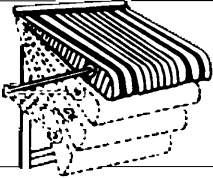

YARD AND PATIO SALE

Dorinda Barnes

Had quite a good turn out for the Summertime Yard Sales, most people said they did very well. People reported there were very nice items available for reasonable prices. Thanks to those who donated towards the TBT advertising.

ODE TO MY MEMORY:

My memory was my best filing cabinet
As I've gotten older this memory is rusticing
I've had to start writing everything down on notes
My notes got to be so many, I had to put them in file folders
My files then got to be too much,
I had to put them in cabinets
(But you must first keep out the current notes until they're settled, then put into files and cabinets. Because you will probably need them some time in the future again.)
Now, where did I file that???

I spend much time these days looking for things
I guess I need a cabinet just for my memory files.

"BOGO" TV AND INTERNET PURCHASES YOU PAY SHIPPING AND HANDLING FOR THE 'FREEBIE'

The Editor

[The following is reprinted from the Website blog RicksDailyTips.]

I'm sure you've seen those commercials on TV where an overly excited pitchman extols the virtues of a great new widget that's guaranteed to make your life better "or we'll give you your money back!". Whether it's the awesome liquid rubber in a can, the amazing twist-omatic kitchen utensil or some other "this widget will so change your life" thingy, the pitches are usually pretty much the same: "Buy one widget and we'll throw in a second one for free – just pay a separate fee!" (or just pay separate processing and handling!)

Now I won't attempt to pass judgement on the quality of the items being hawked in those ads. Some of them might truly be useful while others might not be. After all, "usefulness" is a subjective thing that can only be determined by the folks who actually use a given item. But I can tell you that the "buy one, get one free" angle is almost always a scam. Sure, they'll send you "two widgets for the price of one" if you only consider the purchase price, but the purchase price isn't where most of their profit comes from. In reality, most of the profit from these deals is hidden in the inflated (and often downright bogus) "processing and handling" fees. That life-changing $6 item they're selling you for $19.95 (the profit margins on things like these are typically at least 400%) and the second one they "throw in for free" could easily end up costing you $30 by the time you add in the second bloated "processing and handling" fee. Is that really a bargain?

Well, that's a tough question to answer, and only you (and you alone) are qualified to answer it. If the item works as described, truly adds value to your life, AND you consider it to be worth the total cost you'll have to pay in order to buy it and have it delivered to your home, then the answer is probably yes. Some of the items being hawked on TV just might be good products that could possibly make your life better in some way.

Which brings us to an important question... Even if you believe a product will serve a useful purpose, will the benefits it could provide make it worth paying up to two and a half times the stated purchase price for the "buy one get one free" deal bundle, especially when a significant portion of the price you'll end up paying is for a duplicate item that you might never even need or use?

I'm not saying that all those ads hawking two amazing widgets for the price of one are necessarily bad deals. I'm just saying it makes sense to consider what you'll actually end up having to pay for the package as a whole (including the duplicate item).

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

George Lordstrom, Saint Petersburg, FL

visit: www.ascaluminum.com

Bottom line: While any given product could itself be legit, the “We’ll send you a second widget free!” angle is almost always a scam since you won’t truly get a second item for free. That doesn’t necessarily mean the overall deal isn’t worthwhile, but it’s definitely something that should be considered when deciding whether to make the purchase or not. And always remember, the “get a second free” angle is virtually always a scam because it isn’t truly free.

The old adage still applies...Buyer beware!

GATEWAY MEN’S GOLF

Gateway golfers have been splitting their early morning Tuesday and Friday rounds between Mainlands Golf Club and Cypress Links at Mangrove Bay.

For you new golfers at Gateway, we play twice weekly (early mornings) Tuesday and Friday. Mainlands Golf Club offers a very affordable Back 9 with a cart for the first 6 tee times. Cypress Links is Par 3, comparably priced with Mainlands with a cart, though some choose to walk. Cypress Links is located east of 4th Street off 62nd Ave North, while Mainlands is accessed off US 19 just north of Walmart/Park Blvd. Each are between 10 and 15 minutes from Gateway. Following our round we often stop for coffee and chat at the 4th Street McDonald's just south of Gandy or breakfast at Spring Gardens on 62nd Avenue.

For information regarding golf in the area, new residents or visitors can contact Dick Gilbert at 815-236-9946.

ATTENTION

After 2 years of researching into new cart manufacturers, we have chosen to represent JH Global "Star Cars" line of new vehicles. They have a 14 year proven track record in manufacturing & customer service and all of their major electrical components are US made instead of imported.

Over the years we have seen numerous new carts come and go from the market, leaving customers hanging with useless warranties and no parts available.

Don't be fooled!
