From Bob Kelsey: Community Manager

I would like to mention at this time, there has been no changes to the following. Activities are still being allowed, but they must be approved in advance by management of ELS and follow some minimum guidelines.

- Indoor attendance requires a mask (exception when sitting down eating or drinking)
- Group gathering of 50 or fewer and 6ft apart distance (unless your clubhouse is too small for this amount to adhere to social distancing). Glen Ellen max is 28 people allowed inside.
- No food will be prepared in clubhouse kitchen
- No potluck of food prepared from residents' homes
- Food should be catered, from a vendor food truck, or restaurant take out
- Recommended activities will be for residents only (Outside guests' participation can be considered and discussed depending on the event).
- ELS Management encourages activities to be outdoor vs indoor

PRESIDENT'S PODIUM....

Another Month gone by, closing in on the end of 2020. Will 2021 be any better? Let us hope so. Our Executive meeting will be held December 2nd, 10am at the clubhouse.

Our Membership meeting will be December 3rd, 9am. Members are encouraged to attend. If more than 28 members arrive, the meeting will be held outside (weather permitting).

Our annual Decoration of the Clubhouse will be Sunday December 6th starting at 11am. Come show your Christmas spirit, help trim the tree, hang some lights, or enjoy the cookies and coffee.

Everyone should have received the updated By Laws if you did not receive them please tell a board member and we will get you them.

We have a lot of activities happening this month, please enjoy them all. As a reminder, we must adhere to all the guidelines set forth by ELS to enjoy the clubhouse. These guidelines had been distributed to every lot in the community, ask any Board member if you would like a copy and they will get one for you. The Board of Officers and Activity Chairperson(s) must make sure all patrons adhere to these guidelines so we can enjoy the clubhouse.

Debra Delpha

'Tis the season: What we're celebrating this month

December is a month of holiday celebrations crossing different cultures and nationalities. Here's a quick snapshot of what people celebrate, and why:

- Hanukkah. An eight-day Jewish holiday beginning this year at sundown the day before Dec. 10, Hanukkah celebrates the rededication of the Temple of Jerusalem after the Jewish victory over the Maccabees in 165 BCE. Each night, families light one candle on the menorah, observing the traditional story of how the one-day supply of oil for the temple's eternal flame burned for eight days.
- Christmas. This Christian holiday, observed on Dec. 25, celebrates the birth of Jesus between the years 7 and 2 BCE. The date may have been chosen to correspond with the winter solstice, or to coincide with a Roman holiday honoring the sun during the same period. Christmas became a federal holiday in the United States in 1870.
- Kwanzaa. A seven-day celebration of African heritage and culture, Kwanzaa is observed from Dec. 26 to Jan. 1. Activist Ron Karenga created Kwanzaa in 1966 to emphasize African-Americans' shared history and experience. The name Kwanzaa is derived from "matunda ya kwanza," a Swahili phrase meaning "first fruits."

Try these alternatives to pricey wrapping paper

If you never seem to have enough wrapping paper for all your presents in December, or if you just don't want to head out to the store for yet another roll of high-priced, tissue-thin paper that will end up in the trash, consider these options for saving money and helping out the planet:

- Newspaper. Last week's newspaper—especially the comics section with all its colors—can serve as a wrapping substitute. A few ribbons or bows can dress the package up.
- Recycled paper. Save the wrap after the present has been opened. Large sheets can be reused easily.
- Cloth. If you have scraps of old clothing lying around (clean, of course), use those in place of paper for a homemade look.
- Gift bags. Save small paper bags with handles to stuff an assortment of gifts into. Again, you can dress them up with bows, photos, or shapes clipped from colored paper you may have lying around the house.

A few short ones

A police officer was interviewing a bank teller after the bank had been robbed three days in a row. The officer asked, “What did he look like?”

The teller responded, “He looked better every time he came here.”

Teacher: “Which book has helped you the most in your life?”

Student: “My father’s checkbook!”

A doctor got a phone call from one of his colleagues. “Hey, we need a fourth for poker.” The doctor replied, “I’ll be right there.”

His wife asked him, “Is it serious?”

He replied, “There’s already three doctors there and they need me.”

Speed limit

A state police officer parked by the side of the highway spotted a car driving only 22 miles per hour. He started up, turned on his lights, and pulled the car over.

As he approached the car, he saw the driver was an elderly woman with three friends, one next to her in the front seat and two in the back. “What’s the matter, officer?” the driver asked. “I wasn’t speeding.”

“No, ma’am,” the officer said, “but you were driving much lower than the speed limit, and that’s just as dangerous.”

“But the sign back there said 22,” the woman said.

The officer chuckled and explained that 22 was the route number, not the speed limit, which was 65. Embarrassed, the woman apologized and thanked the officer.

Then he peered into the car. “Ma’am, are your friends all right? They all seem a bit frightened.”

“Oh, they’ll be all right in a minute, officer. We just got off route 157.”

Smart lawyer

---

A man went to his lawyer. “My neighbor owes me $500 and he won’t pay up. What should I do?”

“Do you have any proof he owes you the money?” asked the lawyer.

“Nope,” replied the man.

“OK, then write him a letter asking him for the $5,000 he owes you,” said the lawyer.

“But it’s only $500,” replied the man.

“Precisely. That’s what he will reply and then you’ll have your proof!”
