July Birthdays:

- July 5 - Bill Reilly
- July 13 – Gail Lariviere
- July 13 – Gale Egnasher

Manager Marilyn Sisti’s Message:

July – Independence day – Be thankful and enjoy!

Just a few friendly reminders:

- No parking up by the clubhouse. This area is for visitors only. If you have a visitor that needs to park in the lot please have them come to the office and get a parking permit, for residents you should only have enough vehicles that fit in your carport, the front parking is not for overflow of too many vehicles. Specific details concerning parking permits, please check with the office.
 - This is hornet season! If you have any nest around your home, please be sure to remove or spray them. Hornet stings are very painful and life threatening to some people and pets.
 - Please be sure to keep your pets on a lease at all times. Also, please respect the others property. If you see a resident who is allowing their pet to go on your property tell the office and we will address this to the resident, also with cats, you will need to get the cage from Jim and catch them, call animal control and they will pick up the cats.
 - The speed limit is 10 miles per hour in the community.
- Glen Ellen is addressing the electrical boards and poles in the park; we are taking the worst first and then moving on to the others.
Thank you!

Scribe Nancy Labbe’s message:

July, another year half over. We are right into the middle of summer – Try to stay cool and enjoy!
There will be a 4th of July celebration hosted by Joan Schuring. There will be flyers distributed to each mobile and information posted on the bulletin board in the clubhouse for more details.
If anyone wishes to have a function during the summer please contact me in Mobile 121.
Thank you!

Did you know that July is also...

National Cell Phone Courtesy Month. As the cell phone has developed into the smartphone, it's become one of the biggest distractions of all time. National Cell Phone Courtesy Month was founded in 2002 with the intent of making cell phone users more respectful of their surroundings.

Eye Injury Prevention Month. According to the American Academy of Ophthalmology, an estimated 90 percent of eye injuries are preventable with the use of proper safety eyewear. Even a minor injury to the cornea from a small particle of dust or debris can be painful and become a lifelong issue, so take the extra precaution and always protect your eyes.

Independent Retailer Month. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers locally, nationally and globally. Support and shop at independent retailers year round and use July as a time to unite as a celebration for the independent retailers across the country and in your community.

National Farriers Week, July 9-15. Honoring the men and women who care for and maintain the hooves of horses, a highly specialized trade that requires skill in hoof care, blacksmithing, and the care of injured and diseased hooves.

Captive Nations Week, July 16-22. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. It began in 1953 and declared by a congressional resolution and was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

National Parenting Gifted Children Week, July 16-22. Parents of gifted children need special understanding in order to raise and advocate for the social and emotional needs of their unique children. NPGC Week celebrates the joys and challenges of raising, guiding, and supporting bright young minds.

Canada Day, July 1. A national holiday celebrating the Constitution Act of 1867, which united the separate colonies of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick into a single dominion within the British Empire called Canada.

Independence Day, July 4. The date of the Declaration of Independence, formally announcing the separation of the original 13 colonies of the United States from Great Britain.

Official Shark Awareness Day, July 14. Much as we love to fear this predator of the seas, the shark has a key role to play in keeping marine ecosystems in balance.

National Mutt Day, July 31. Also known as National Mixed Breed Dog Day, National Mutt Day is all about embracing, saving, and celebrating mixed-breed dogs. (It's also celebrated on Dec. 2.)

Underwater cave fish is first found in Europe

The first cave fish in Europe has been discovered by a German underwater cave explorer, according to the U.S. News & World Report website.

Cave fish have been discovered in other parts of the world, but the German discovery is the first time one has been found as far north as Europe. Scientists believe it arose some 20,000 years ago and has evolved to live in an underground environment.

The diving spelunker encountered the fish while exploring an underwater cave in southern Germany. The fish is almost colorless and resembles the stone loach found in rivers close by, although it has smaller eyes and larger nostrils.

Enhance your success with kindness

Nice people can finish first, insist Lisa Kaplan Thaler and Robin Koval in The Power of Nice: How to Conquer the Business World with Kindness (Currency). The book's core tenets remain worthy of consideration. Improve your "NiceQ" with these exercises:

- Be kind to yourself so it's easier to be nice to others.
- Share credit and treat everyone with respect instead of "kissing up and kicking down."
- Say no when necessary—but present it in a positive light. When turning down an assignment, help find someone else who can take it.
- Plant seeds of kindness by doing five nice things every day that have no quick payoff.
- Complete the statement "If I were a kinder person I would ..." and then act on it.

Don't let these get in your way

Often the biggest obstacle to our success lies in our way of thinking. Self-help guru Tony Robbins points out three mistakes you may be making that undermine your progress:

- Confirmation bias. When looking for data or advice, do you have a truly open mind or are you just looking for information that confirms what you already believe? If the latter, you could miss important facts.
- Recency bias. Everything changes, but if you ignore this fact of life you may end up repeating the same steps without making real progress. Just because something worked once doesn't mean it will continue to be successful. Review your strategies on a regular basis and be ready to change if they're no longer applicable.
- Loss aversion. Some of us tend to dwell more on our failures than our success, leading us to avoid risks at all costs. Anticipate failures so you can prevent them. Learn to accept and learn from your failures so you can move forward.

No guessing required

A farmer was tending a flock of sheep in a field when a man in a sleek sports car screeched to a stop on the road nearby. The driver, a young man in expensive designer clothes and sunglasses, leaned out of the window. “If I tell you exactly how many sheep you have here, can I take one?”

The farmer looked the young man up and down and answered, “Sure, why not?”

The young man stepped out of his car holding a state-of-the-art laptop computer. Using all the resources of the internet, including GPS and satellite imaging, he came up with a number: “You have exactly 800 sheep, including six rams and 184 lambs.”

“That’s right,” said the farmer. “I guess you get to take one of my sheep.” The young man made his choice and led the animal to the back seat of his car. But before the man could drive off, the farmer said, “Hey, if I can tell what you do for a living, will you give that back to me?”

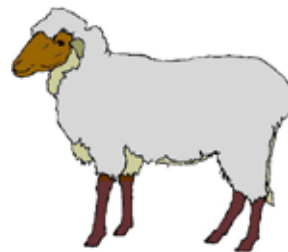

“Sure,” the young man said, feeling confident.

Without hesitation the farmer said, “You’re a business consultant.”

“How did you guess that?”

“I didn’t guess anything,” the farmer replied.

“You showed up here without being asked, you took a fee for an answer I already knew to a question I never asked, and you don’t know anything about my business. Now give me back my dog.”

Alleviate the split-shift blues

Today’s nonstop global economy can be tough on marriages and families. Separation and divorce tend to be higher among couples who work different schedules—and even when just one spouse works a night shift. How do you keep in touch—and keep your marriage and family strong—when you work a different shift from your partner? Here are some suggestions:

- Set aside an hour or two to talk. Make this together time for just the two of you a priority. Schedule it at least once a week, or as often as you need to.

- Keep it fun. When you and your spouse are together, make sure you make room for fun. Talk about the other niggling stuff like bills and errands at your weekly meetings or over the phone.

The evolution of Independence Day

If Americans have one holiday in common, it's the Fourth of July. How long have we officially been celebrating independence from Great Britain? Here's a timeline:

- July 4, 1776. Members of the Second Continental Congress meet in Philadelphia and adopt the final draft of the Declaration of Independence.
- July 4, 1777. To commemorate the first anniversary of the signing, Philadelphians light candles and set off firecrackers. Yet with no sure outcome in the war for independence, celebrations are kept to a minimum.
- July 4, 1778. On the second anniversary of the signing, Gen. George Washington issues his troops a double ration of rum and orders a Fourth of July artillery salute.
- 1781. Massachusetts carries out the first official state celebration of the Fourth of July.
- 1801. The White House hosts its first public Fourth of July reception.
- 1870. Congress establishes the Fourth of July as an unpaid holiday for federal employees and the District of Columbia.
- 1938. Congress establishes the Fourth of July as a paid holiday for federal employees.
- 1941. Congress expands the 1938 law to include the District of Columbia.

A salute to the Fourth of July

On 1776, the Continental Congress adopted the Declaration of Independence, initiating 200+ years of annual fireworks, outdoor concerts, and picnics. Still, there may be a few things you don't know about our most patriotic holiday:

- The resolution to dissolve ties with Great Britain was actually introduced on June 7 and approved by 12 of the 13 colonies on July 2. New York voted aye a week later.
- It was August before most of the 56 signers managed to affix their signatures to the document. One, Thomas McKean, didn't sign until 1781.
- The Fourth of July is one of only four holidays still observed in the U.S. on the proper calendar day. The others are Halloween, Christmas, and New Year's Day.

If you can keep it

One afternoon in the 18th century a young man approached Benjamin Franklin outside Philadelphia's Independence Hall. Throughout the broiling hot month, the statesmen of the young nation had been debating furiously over the establishment of the Constitution of the United States. The young man asked Franklin, "Well, sir, what sort of government have you given us? A monarchy or a republic?"

Franklin, understanding the importance of popular support in keeping democracy alive, responded, "A republic, if you can keep it."

The power of short words

Mark Twain once told the story of a Missouri farmer who ran five times for the state legislature without winning. He practiced his campaign talks every day while milking his cow. He filled his speeches with wordy expressions, referring to himself as "my humble aspirant" and his audiences as "my enlightened constituents." He talked of "obtaining a mandate" for his "legislative mission."

Then one day the cow kicked him in the teeth. With his front teeth knocked out, the farmer could speak only words of one syllable. The result? He won his next election and got re-elected many times after that.

No answer

A powerful king once undertook an expedition to conquer foreign lands. A counselor asked him, "Great king, why do you propose to set out on this endeavor?"

"First I shall become master of Asia," the king replied. "Then I'll invade Arabia. After that I will conquer Europe and Africa, and finally, when the whole world is under me, I shall rest and live at ease without worries."

The wise counselor replied, "But what keeps you from resting and living at ease here and now, if that is what you want?"

The king had no answer.

Things work out best for those who make the best of how things work out.

—John Wooden

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Keep your marriage happy with these money tips

Disagreements over money can turn a happy marriage into a battleground. Don't take the risk. Follow these tips for dealing with money in your marriage without sparking conflict:

- Talk about priorities. Before you get married, and on a regular basis after the wedding, sit down and talk about what's important to both of you. If your financial goals are different—saving for college vs. traveling the world, for example—you'll always be fighting about what you want.

- Find the right balance. Don't let one person's needs overshadow his or her partner's. Work out a plan to save money while leaving the door open to a nice vacation or at least a fancy dinner once in a while. You can't splurge all the time, but don't let an obsession with money warp your relationship.

- Ignore everyone else. Don't try to maintain a “keeping up with the Joneses” lifestyle on a limited budget. Choose your house, car, and other possessions based on what makes sense for you, not your neighbors. In the long run you'll be better off and happier by living within your means.

Drive away with the best deal

Buying a new car is a big decision—and a costly one. To get the best deal, follow this advice from the GOBankingRates.com website:

- Plan ahead. Start shopping before you need a new car. Give yourself time to do as much research as you can.

- Watch your timing. You can get a better deal if you know when to buy. At the end of the month, salespeople may be more likely to give you a break in order to meet their quota. At the end of the model year, a car dealer might be motivated to clear all the unused cars off his or her lot at a reduced price.

- Decide on what you want. Don't go in blind. Before you go to a dealership, be clear on exactly what make and model of car you want—and how much you're willing to spend.

- Be friendly. Salespeople will try to build rapport with you, and you can do the same. Focus on what's best for both of you instead of turning the negotiation into a battle.

- Study pricing. Be aware of what dealers are offering—and what they aren't. Taxes and fees might not be included in a car's list price. Certain offers may only be available to buyers with top-tier credit. Fees for license, title, and registration can vary from state to state, so check up on those first.

Artificial intelligence is coming

Artificial intelligence sounds scary in science fiction stories and movies, but it's becoming a big factor in business success, according to a report from Tata Consultancy Services. Its survey of 834 executives across 13 global industry sectors found that 84 percent of organizations see AI as essential, and 50 percent believe it will transform their businesses.

AI doesn't appear to be cheap, though. Seven percent of business survey said they invested more than $250 million on AI in 2016, and 2 percent expect to spend a billion dollars by the year 2020.

Energy drink and vodka? Think again

Energy drinks like Red Bull or Monster Energy are all the rage, and so is mixing them with alcohol for a more potent cocktail, especially among young people. But is it safe? In research reported on the WebMD website, the answer looks like "no."

Canadian researchers analyzed 13 studies involving alcohol mixed with highly caffeinated energy drinks. They found a higher rate of injury among people indulging in such cocktails compared with simply drinking alcohol by itself. Injuries included car accidents, falls, violence, and suicidal behavior.

The authors point out that the stimulant effects of energy-drink caffeine can mask the impact of alcohol, even though alcohol still has an impairing effect on the body and the brain.

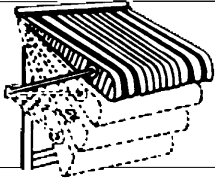

Watch your waist in your 40s to avoid dementia later

Carrying belly weight during the 40s appears to increase the risk for dementia in the 70s, whereas carrying extra midsection weight later in life isn't as accurate an indicator. Researchers say these findings are disturbing because 50 percent of adults in the United States are considered abdominally obese.

Researchers at Kaiser Permanente studied 6,583 people who were between the ages of 40 and 45. An average of 36 years later, 16 percent of the participants—who had been measured for abdominal density—were diagnosed with dementia. Abdominal obesity increased the risk of dementia regardless of whether people had normal overall weight or were overweight or obese overall—and regardless of the health conditions including diabetes, cardiovascular disease, and stroke.

Credit card debt on the rise

Financial counselors usually advise consumers to pay off their credit cards every month, but more Americans are carrying credit card debt from month to month since the most recent recession, according to the National Foundation for Credit Counseling.

A survey of more than 1,600 U.S. adults conducted in March found that 39 percent carry debt from month to month, up from 35 percent in 2016. Sixteen percent are carrying more than $2,500 monthly, compared with 14 percent last year.

Other results from the survey: Younger adults were more likely than older adults to be denied a credit card (11 percent vs. 6 percent). They were also more likely to make a late credit card payment (11 percent vs. 5 percent), miss a payment (12 percent vs. 4 percent) or pay less than the minimum amount required (13 percent vs. 3 percent).

Online shopping: The latest stats

Shopping online is big business these days. A survey of more than 1,000 U.S. consumers by e-commerce platform provider Big commerce found that 96 percent of Americans shop online, accounting for 36 percent of their purchases.

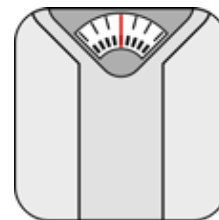

The survey found that 80 percent of consumers make online purchases at least once a month, and 30 percent buy something at least once a week. Forty-eight percent reported spending more than they had originally intended.

Millennials do half their shopping online. Sixty-seven percent of them, along with 56 percent of Generation Xers, would rather shop via the internet, a preference shared by 41 percent of Baby Boomers but only 28 percent of senior citizens.

Giving up on losing weight?

The obesity trend in the United States continues, with the number of adults who are either overweight or obese expanding from 53 percent to 66 percent over a 26-year period from 1998 to 2014. Apparently many of us have given up trying to fight it. According to the Journal of the American Medical Association (JAMA), the number of people actively trying to lose weight in the past year dropped from 56 percent to 48 percent over the same period.

Researchers theorize that the decline is due to changing perceptions about acceptable body weight.
