President Debra Delpha’s Message:

Everyone seems to be surviving the Coronavirus Situation and following the restrictions in Glen Ellen. I would like to thank everyone for their cooperation.

The pool and hall have been opened, we thank you Equity Lifestyle Properties. If you have any concerns feel free to contact me in Mobile 334.

Animal Control has been going through the park to check to see if there are any strays, so if you let your pet, especially cats, run free beware. If the cat is picked up it will cost you money to get your pet back.

Be safe and enjoy the month of July!

Manager Bob Kelsey’s Message:

Just a special thank you to all the residents who are having their properties taken care of for the summer while they are gone which consists of weeding, pressure washing, cleaning driveways, etc.

The dog problem continues. Do not let dogs go right up to peoples’ trailers and do their business. This is disrespectful and inconsiderate.

THE SPEED LIMIT IS 10 MILES AN HOUR IN THE PARK!

As promised, the side streets have been paved. Glen Ellen is looking very nice thanks to everyone’s efforts.

Large Dumpster. The large dumpster is for furniture disposal, brush, limbs, and leaves. All dry materials. Do not put household garbage, moist garbage, dog feces in the large dumpster. The odor is terrible and draws rats. The rats down here are the size of a cat or small dog. If it continues the Board of Health will be coming by.

Do not leave furniture or large items near dumpster. There is a large door at the end of the dumpster to get these items in. If you wish to get rid of an appliance call Jim 727-644-3428 as to how to dispose of these items. Do not put beside dumpster.

I hope everyone has a great July. Enjoy everyone!

Points to ponder

- A conclusion is usually the place where most people get tired of thinking.
- Experience is something you don't get until just after you need it.
- For every action, there is an equal and opposite criticism.
- He who hesitates is probably right.
- Never do card tricks for the group you play poker with.
- No one is listening until you make a mistake.
- Success always occurs in private, and failure in full view.
- The hardness of the butter is directly proportional to the softness of the bread.
- The severity of the itch is indirectly proportional to your reach.
- For some people, two wrongs are only the beginning.

The silent treatment

A man and his wife got into a serious fight and ended up giving each other the silent treatment. It lasted for days.

One night the husband suddenly remembered that he had to get up at 6 a.m. the next morning to catch a flight for a business trip. He didn't want to break the silence with an alarm clock or his phone, so he left a note on his wife's pillow: "Please wake me up at 6 a.m."

He woke up the next morning and 9 a.m., missing his flight. Furious, he stood up to demand why his wife hadn't woken him up. On his pillow he found a note from her: "It's 6 a.m. Wake up."

The necktie

Jack, a recent college graduate living with his parents, woke up late on the day of his first big job interview. Frantically he threw on a suit. “Oh, no!” he thought. “My tie!”

Jack had never learned how to tie a necktie. His parents were already at work, so the house was empty and there was no one to help him. He grabbed a necktie at random and ran out the door.

“Excuse me, sir,” he said to a crossing guard at the corner of his street. “I have an important job interview and I have no idea how to tie a necktie. Can you please help me?”

“Sure,” said the guard. “Just lie down on this bench.”

Jack thought that was odd, but if someone was going to help him he wasn’t going to ask any questions. After the crossing guard finished and the tie looked good, however, Jack just had to ask why he had to lie down.

“Well, in my previous job I learned how to tie neckties on other people when they were lying down. “

“What was your previous job?” Jack asked.

“I was a mortician.”

Cutting in line

---

A group of senior citizens, socially distanced, stood in a long line at 7:45 a.m. at a grocery store that opened at 8 a.m. for seniors only.

A young man ran from the parking lot and tried to cut in at the front of the line, but an old lady beat him back with her cane.

When he tried to cut in again, an old man punched him in the gut, then kicked him to the ground and rolled him away.

As he approached the line for the third time, he said, “Listen, if you don’t let me unlock the door you’ll never get in there.”

Boost your creativity when social distancing

The stress of dealing with the COVID-19 pandemic can make it hard to stay creative, especially when you're social distancing. Working from home means you don't have your co-workers to bounce ideas off. The Entrepreneur website shares some exercises for keeping your mind and imagination fresh and active:

- Freewriting. Sit down at your keyboard and just write whatever comes into your head. Don't stop, don't edit, don't worry about punctuation or grammar, just let the words flow. If you're lucky, you'll generate ideas. Even if you don't, you'll loosen up your brain so you can go back to work with an open mind.
- Time tracking. Turn your everyday tasks into a game. How quickly can you finish that report? Challenge yourself to do something in less time than you usually use. Use a timer to stay focused.
- Mindstorming. When you've got a problem to solve, write it down and then quickly generate 20 possible solutions. The first four or five will probably come easily, but don't stop until you've hit 20. This will stretch your mind and force you to be more creative. You'll also gain confidence when you succeed.
- Sketchnoting. Don't limit yourself to words. When searching for ideas or trying to solve a problem, try drawing pictures. This can put you in touch with the other side of your brain and lead to different solutions.

Without creativity, there would be no progress, and we would be forever repeating the same patterns.

Edward de Bono

There is only one of you in all time, this expression is unique. And if you block it, it will never exist through any other medium and it will be lost.

Martha Graham
