Scribe – Nancy Labbe’s Message

February was a very successful month thanks to the efforts of Fred Gillespie, Nancy Labbe and Sharron and Joel King plus all the kind individuals who volunteered their time to help out. We sincerely thank everyone!

Winners of the Super Bowl Pool were Marge Adams 1st and 2nd quarter, Mickey from Parkwood the 3rd quarter and Bill Gigg from Parkwood the final.

The Association elections are March 2. If anyone is interested in running for office please see Ted Czaplewski or President Bill Reilly.

Manager, Marilyn Sisti’s Message

A Few Reminders Regarding Pets:

Do not walk your dog on other resident’s lawns.

Do not tie your dog outside alone at any time, if you are outside with the dog, the leash has to stay well within your yard and does not go anywhere near the street or sidewalk. If your pet has a tendency to jump at people or bark at people walking by, the dog must be taken into the home.

Pick Up!! Pick Up!! Pick Up!! Please.

Second Street in Glen Ellen is scheduled to be paved. Notices will be given well in advance to accommodate residents.

Help for Severe Aortic Stenosis

Severe aortic stenosis is a narrowed aortic heart valve that doesn't open and close properly, reducing blood flow to the rest of the body.

Morton Plant Hospital is now enrolling eligible patients in the Medtronic Evolut R low-risk trial, which investigates the safety and effectiveness of a transcatheter aortic valve replacement (TAVR) system in patients with severe aortic stenosis who are at a low surgical mortality risk. TAVR is a minimally invasive alternative to open-heart surgery used to treat failing aortic heart valves in patients with severe aortic stenosis. Morton Plant Hospital was chosen as the first hospital in Tampa Bay to offer the TAVR procedure for patients with severe aortic stenosis who were at an intermediate or high surgical mortality risk. Our team has completed more than 700 TAVR procedures over the last five years.

To see if you or a loved one with severe aortic stenosis may be eligible for this trial, or for more information on the trial, call the Center for Advanced Valve and Structural Heart Care at Morton Plant Hospital at (855) 44-VALVE (855-448-2583) or visit MortonPlantValveTrial.org.

Keep your home safe with these tips

Your home is your castle, but you don't have a moat to protect it from intruders. Burglars are always looking for vulnerable targets, so be careful of these flaws that they can too easily exploit:

- Alarm panels. If you have a home security system, don't place the panel where it's visible through a door or window. Burglars can peer inside to check whether the system is armed, and if it isn't, they'll be tempted to break in.
- Motion sensors. Be sure to place a motion detector near the window of your master bath. It's a favorite spot for burglars to enter, and it's usually right next to the main bedroom—where you probably keep most of your valuables.
- Audible alarms. An audible alarm will make most intruders hesitate. Even if they continue to break in, that short pause will cut down on the time they're willing to spend in a house and risk getting caught. Plus, neighbors will be more likely to call police if they hear an alarm.

Sahara Desert wasn't always a desert

The Sahara Desert is a dry, waterless, dusty place, as seen in countless photos and movies. But it wasn't always a sandy, desolate wasteland. Some 6,000 years, the Sahara was covered in grassland and received significant amounts of rainfall. So what happened?

According to the Science Daily website, scientists think the dramatic shift in climate was caused by the Hadley circulation, a tropical atmospheric phenomenon that rises near the equator. Related to the subtropical trade winds and tropical rainbelts, it can influence the position of severe storms, hurricanes, and the jet stream. When it lowers on the subtropics, it can create desert-like conditions. Most of the world's arid regions are located in areas beneath the descending parts of the Hadley circulation.

The scientists' findings indicate that rainfall can migrate from one part of the world to another even though the Hadley circulation doesn't. Their observations may be useful in predicting future climate changes related to El Niño and La Niña, which can cool or warm waters in the Pacific Ocean and influence weather patterns around the globe.

Monthly

American Red Cross Month. For more than a century, the American Red Cross has harnessed the generosity of the American people, mobilizing the nation in the wake of disaster. The American Red Cross and its international partners have served during crises across the United States and around the world. During American Red Cross Month, Americans celebrate the nation's humanitarian spirit and recommit to providing relief and hope in times of crisis.

Brain Injury Awareness Month. Sponsored by the Brain Injury Association of America, which conducts an awareness campaign each March. The theme for the 2017 campaign is "Not Alone," providing a platform for educating the public about the incidence of brain injury and the needs of people with brain injuries and those in their families.

Music In Our Schools Month. An annual celebration of music educators, students, and communities nationwide, all promoting the benefits of high-quality music education programs in schools. Music In Our Schools Month began as a single statewide event in New York in 1973 and grew to become a monthlong celebration of school music in 1985.

Women's History Month. Women's History Month had its origins as a national celebration in 1981 when Congress requested that the president proclaim the week beginning March 7, 1982, as "Women's History Week." Throughout the next five years, Congress continued to pass joint resolutions designating a week in March as "Women's History Week." Since 1995, Presidents Clinton, Bush and Obama have issued a series of annual proclamations designating March as "Women's History Month."

Weekly

Professional Pet Sitters Week, March 1-7. An annual observance that honors professional pet-care providers, seeking to educate the pet-owning public about the advantages of professional in-home pet care and encourage pet-loving entrepreneurs to explore professional pet sitting as a viable career.

Dental Assistant Recognition Week, March 5-11. Dental assistants are a key part of the dental practice year-round. During Dental Assistants Recognition Week, dentists in the United States and Canada celebrate by honoring their dental assistants for the variety of duties they perform and helping them provide patients with top-quality dental care.

Women in Construction Week, March 6-12. The focus of Women in Construction Week is to highlight women as visible members of the construction industry. The National Association of Women in Construction's thousands of members across the country raise awareness of the opportunities available for women in construction and emphasize the growing role of women in the industry.

Tough interview

Singer/songwriter and Nobel Prize winner Bob Dylan is known for his idiosyncratic and iconoclastic ways. His sometime guitar partner Bruce Langhorne tells a story of one time the two were being interviewed on a talk show in 1965.

Les Crane, the interviewer, was getting frustrated with Dylan's brief, uninformative answers to his questions. So at one point, when Dylan joked, "That's a nice tie, though," Crane pointed out that Dylan never wore neckties, and then gave the musician his tie to calm the tension.

Dylan responded by saying he liked Crane's boots. Crane didn't turn them over. Instead he said, "Hey, Bob, that's a nice harmonica." But Dylan refused to give it up.

Hotel concierges go above and beyond

Hotel concierges have to deal with some pretty unusual situations sometimes. Here are some of their most outlandish stories, from the Huffington Post website:

- One guest in a London hotel requested wild goat's milk for his bath. The concierge had to take a cab to Wales (£600) to buy the milk (£50). Then the milk had to be heated for the bath, and the concierge also had to supply 50 bottles of Evian water to wash the milk off after the bath.
- A bride-to-be spilled coffee on her satin wedding dress, and the concierge spent hours washing the stain out and then drying the dress with a hand dryer, consoling the bride all the while.
- One guest asked for 20 pounds of ice to be delivered to his room for his penguins.
- A couple checking into a luxury hotel in New York for their wedding asked for a life-size chocolate statue of themselves.
- A crew of commercial filmmakers asked the concierge to find them a trained monkey for their shoot when the monkey they had originally arranged for didn't show up.

Ancient gold belt dug up in U.K.

Archeologists in the U.K. have dug up a 3,000-year-old gold belt in Cambridgeshire, and it's now on display at the British Museum in London.

The object, known as a torc, is the largest ever unearthed. Torcs were usually worn around the neck, but this one measures 49.6 inches, suggesting it was worn as a belt between 1300 and 1100 B.C., or that it was worn by a sacred animal slated for sacrifice. The torc, made of 20 karat gold, weighs 1.6 pounds.

British scientists examining the artifact have found little sign of use or wear on the links used to fasten the torc together, so its original function remains a mystery.

Astronomers discover the sky's smallest asteroid

The universe is full of objects large and small: Sharp-eyed astronomers have recently discovered a near-Earth asteroid just 6 feet in diameter.

The asteroid, named 2015 TC25, was discovered in October 2015 by scientists working with the Catalina Sky Survey. It's one of the brightest of its kind ever observed, reflecting about 60 percent of the sunlight that hits it, and it's one of the fastest spinning. Astronomers speculate 2015 TC25 was chipped off another asteroid, (44) Nysa, a large bright object in the main asteroid belt that's about 44 miles in diameter.

The small rock is about the size of many meteorites that fall to Earth, but astronomers believe there's little likelihood of 2015 TC25 dropping on our planet very soon.

New light on our oldest ancestor, Lucy

The remains of "Lucy," the name given to the oldest human ancestor yet discovered, were found 42 years ago, and ever since scientists have debated whether she spent most of her time walking on the ground or climbing through the trees. The journal PLOS One reports that new evidence suggests the three-million-year-old woman had muscular arms, indicating that she may have been a tree dweller, at least some of the time.

A CT analysis of Lucy's fossilized skeleton shows that her arms were heavily built and similar to those of chimpanzees. Scientists speculate that Lucy may have slept up in the trees to avoid predators at night, spending as much of one-third of her life above the ground. The fact that Lucy may have died from falling out of a tree adds weight to the theory.

Fresh or frozen? The choice is yours

Mom may tell you over and over again to eat fruits and vegetables that are fresh, but nutrition experts say that frozen produce isn't necessarily inferior. According to The New York Times, most nutrients are surprisingly hardy: Iron, for example, stands up to freezing quite well, and fiber does its job whether it's frozen or fresh.

Scientists at the University of California-Davis analyzed the vitamin content in several different varieties of fresh and frozen produce, including blueberries, broccoli, carrots, spinach, and strawberries. They found no significant differences between fresh and frozen items, and even discovered that frozen broccoli contains more riboflavin—a B vitamin—than the fresh selection. Similarly, frozen blueberries have more vitamin C than fresh.

Experts recommend looking for produce frozen using the IQF process—individually quick frozen—for the highest quality.

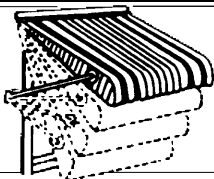

Watch for these sources of illness while traveling

Traveling has enough hassles—check-in lines, lost luggage, bad airline food—without adding germs to the mix. Be safe by watching out for these common sources of germs and bacteria that can make you sick when you travel (from the CNN website):

- Washroom stall locks. In one test, airport stall locks were found to have an average of 70 colony-forming units (CFUs) per square inch. Use soap and water or a good hand sanitizer after touching them.
- Seatbelt buckles. Clean your hands after buckling up. Airplane belt buckles can have up to 230 CFUs per square inch.
- Lavatory flush buttons. These can get pretty nasty, containing 265 CFUs per square inch (although overhead vents and tray tables have more).
- Drinking fountains. Thirsty? Maybe buy a bottle of water instead. The buttons on airport drinking fountains have been found to hold 1,240 CFUs per square inch.

Good insurance

A lawyer and an engineer were fishing at an expensive resort in the Caribbean. The lawyer cast his line. “I only have the money to be here because my house burned down, and everything I owned was destroyed by the fire. Fortunately, the insurance company paid for everything.”

“What a coincidence!” The engineer cast his own line. “I’m here because my house and everything else were destroyed in an earthquake, and my insurance company also paid for everything.”

The lawyer looked confused. “How did you start an earthquake?”

Proof

A woman went to a lawyer. “My neighbor owes me $500, and he won’t pay up. What should I do?”

“Do you have an IOU for the money?” the lawyer asked.

“No, it was just a promise.”

“Here’s what you do,” the lawyer said. “Write him a letter asking for the $5,000 he owes you.”

“But he only owes me $500,” the woman said.

“And when he writes you back to say that, you’ll have your proof!”

Joy in one’s heart and some laughter on one’s lips is a sign that the person down deep has a pretty good grasp of life.
—Hugh Sidey

"Have you experienced the Sunset Appliance Difference? It's all about our Service!"

Technology changing our TV habits

The days of the whole family sitting around the TV watching the same show are over. We're still watching programming, but the options have boomed. According to The New York Times, the average American adult watches five hours and four minutes of TV per day, most of it live programming—about four and a half hours, with another 30 minutes coming from DVRs. That sounds like a lot, but it's actually down by 19 minutes from two years ago.

Most live programming is watched by people over 50. People 24 and under view about two fewer hours of live TV and DVR programming per week than they did in 2015. Millennials (25- to 34-year-olds) watch an hour less per week than that, down from 27.5 hours to 26.5. Viewers between 35 and 49 now mostly watch about 22 minutes less live programming per week.

Approximately 50 percent of U.S. households have subscriptions to online streaming services like Netflix or Hulu. With tablets increasingly common—58 percent of U.S. homes have at least one—time spent consuming media on them has risen 63 percent from 2015.

Books: Not going away

Since the rise of e-books and e-readers like the Kindle, pessimistic pundits have predicted that the physical book would soon become obsolete. That isn't happening yet, though. A study from the Pew Research Center found that 73 percent of Americans have read at least one book in the last 12 months (a number unchanged since 2012), and most of them are reading print books: The survey found that 65 percent of Americans picked up a physical book when they read in the past year, far more than those who read at least one e-book (28 percent) or listened to an audiobook (14 percent).

We're living in a yoga nation now

Everyone seems to be into yoga these days, and the numbers show that it's growing in popularity. A 2016 survey by the Yoga Journal and Yoga Alliance found that some 36 million Americans practice yoga, up from 20.4 million in 2012. Yoga practitioners spent $16 billion on classes, clothing, and equipment in 2016, an increase of $10 billion from 2012.

Women make up 72 percent of yoga enthusiasts, although men are catching up. The survey found that 34 percent of Americans—approximately 80 million people—say they're likely to try yoga for the first time in 2017. The main reasons for doing yoga? Flexibility (61 percent), stress relief (56 percent), general fitness (49 percent), improved overall health (49 percent), and physical fitness (44 percent).

Don't let these habits ruin your workout

Regular exercise is important to good health and a long life. Just don't sabotage your workout with these common mistakes:

- Overestimating the impact. A 20-minute workout won't erase all the calories in a 12-inch pizza. Walking or running a mile, for example, only burns about 100 calories.
- Overeating before exercise. You need energy to exercise, but don't overdo it. A small snack rich in carbs is best—along with being hydrated.
- Overeating after exercise. Don't pig out after you work out. Fix a meal rich in protein and healthy carbs, like an egg on whole wheat toast or oatmeal with blueberries.

If we are creating ourselves all the time, then it is never too late to begin creating the bodies we want instead of the ones we mistakenly assume we are stuck with.

—Deepak Chopra

Take prompt action on eye injuries

Your eyes can be the most vulnerable parts of your body at work. Accidents like chemical splashes or bumps can happen all too easily, and the first aid that you apply to your eyes can mean the difference between minor eye damage and blindness. Here are recommended first-aid techniques for some common situations:

- Foreign objects. Don't rub your eyes. Instead, lift your upper eyelid outward and gently pull it over your lower lashes. This will cause your eyes to tear, which can wash out the foreign object. However, if an object is embedded in your eye, don't try to remove it—immediately seek medical attention.
- Chemicals. Immediately flush your eyes with cool water for at least 15 minutes. If possible, keep your head under a stream of water from the faucet, or slowly pour water from a cup to your eyes. If you wear contacts, remove them immediately and then flush your eyes. See a doctor right away.
- Cut or penetration. Gently cover your eye with a bandage or gauze and go to a nearby hospital. Don't try to flush it with water, remove the object, or apply medication.
