PRESIDENT'S PODIUM....

What a great Labor Day party (and BIG Birthday surprise for Ferec Boldizsar). Thank you, Agnes and Ferec, for the Delicious Hungarian Goulash, amazing. Thank you everyone for a great turnout. I would also like to apologize to the residents that did not receive a flyer, I ran out of them.

Do not forget our next big party on October 31st, Halloween Party and Dinner. Flyers will be distributed to all the residents with more information on them.

Just a reminder, due to COVID 19, we still have limited use of the Clubhouse. Coffee hour is being allowed if we follow the guidelines. Executive meetings will resume in October; however, the membership meetings will not resume until November.

SNOWBIRDS

As we close the summer months and open the fall air, we want to wish our Snowbirds a happy return. Thank you for being such a great group of friends. We hope you enjoy this coming year. Have fun and enjoy.

October Daily

International Coffee Day, Oct. 1. Celebrating coffee as a beverage, and also promoting fair trade coffee and raising awareness for the plight of the coffee growers.

World Animal Day, Oct. 4. An international day of action for animal rights and welfare celebrated on the feast day of Francis of Assisi, the patron saint of animals.

Columbus Day, Oct. 12. A federal U.S. holiday observing the arrival of explorer Christopher Columbus in the Americas in 1492.

National Boss Day, Oct. 16. Show your boss your appreciation. If you are a boss, let your employees know how much you appreciate them.

Halloween, Oct. 31. Trick or treat!

October Weekly

Fire Prevention Week, Oct. 4–10. This year’s campaign, “Serve Up Fire Safety in the Kitchen!” works to educate everyone about the simple but important actions they can take to keep themselves, and those around them, safe from fires in the kitchen.

Earth Science Week, Oct. 11–17. Since October 1998, the American Geosciences Institute has organized this international event to help the public gain a better understanding and appreciation for the Earth sciences and to encourage stewardship of the Earth. This year’s Earth Science Week will celebrate the theme, “Earth Materials in Our Lives.”

Medical Assistants Recognition Week, Oct. 19–23. Medical assistants are at the heart of health care. They play a crucial and versatile part of the health care delivery team. Celebrate these dedicated and compassionate individuals this week during the third full week in October and throughout the year.

Free Speech Week, Oct. 19–25. A yearly event to raise public awareness of the importance of freedom of speech and of the press in our democracy, and to celebrate that freedom. Individuals, schools, and all types of organizations are encouraged to recognize and celebrate Free Speech Week.

October Monthly

American Pharmacists Month. American Pharmacists Month promotes awareness of the many services pharmacists offer beyond the safe distribution of medications. These services include seasonal and lifespan immunizations; medication reviews to assess safety, effectiveness, interactions, and adherence; care management and counseling for disease states such as diabetes, high blood pressure, and high cholesterol; and smoking cessation counseling.

Blindness Awareness Month. Blindness Awareness Month is dedicated to taking the discussion of all things sight-related to the forefront of the public. It is about having good eye health as well as discussing blindness and visual impairment as a whole.

National Animal Safety and Protection Month. Our pets can't tell us what hurts, so it's crucial to understand what behavior and signs suggest that your pet may not be feeling 100% and what is normal. Breathing rate, dehydration, and temperature are all things to keep an eye out for.

National Substance Abuse Prevention Month. An observance that highlights the vital role of substance abuse prevention in both individual and community health—and to remember those who have lost their lives to substance abuse. The Office of National Drug Control Policy encourages prevention efforts this month and all year long to ensure the health of teens and young adults.

The one permanent emotion of the inferior man is fear—fear of the unknown, the complex, the inexplicable. What he wants above everything else is safety.

In search of the right job recruit

A recruiter asked a job candidate, “Can you handle a variety of work?”
The applicant replied, “I should be able to. I’ve had ten different jobs in four months.”

A recruiter asked a job candidate, “Why did you leave your last job?”
The job applicant replied, “It was something my boss said.”
“What did he say?”
“You’re fired.”

A recruiter asked a job candidate, “What’s your biggest weakness?”
The job applicant replied, “I don’t know when to quit.”
“You’re hired.”
“I quit.”

Hardest worker

An old ranch owner named John had a small ranch in Montana. The state government claimed he was not paying proper wages to his workers, so it sent an agent out. “I need a list of your employees here, along with how much you pay them,” said the agent.

“Well,” replied old John, “There’s my ranch hand Silas, who’s been with me for three years. I pay him $600 a week plus free room and board. The cook, Ben, has been here for 18 months, and I pay him $500 a week plus free room and board. Then there’s the half-wit who works about 18 hours every day and does about 90 percent of all the work around here. He makes about $10 per week, pays his own room and board, and I buy him a bottle of bourbon every Saturday night.”

“That’s the guy I want to talk to, the half-wit,” said the agent.

“That would be me,” replied John.

I enjoy life when things are happening. I don't care if it's good things or bad things. That means you're alive.

Halloween is scarier than usual this year

The COVID-19 pandemic has cancelled lots of celebrations and events this year—including possibly Halloween. Many communities are weighing the risks of letting children go trick-or-treating from house to house collecting candy.

Costumes and going door-to-door for treats can be traced back to pagan and Christian rituals from the Middle Ages. Trick-or-treating became an established fixture of American popular culture in the 1950s, when Walt Disney produced a cartoon called “Trick or Treat,” and an episode of the popular TV show Ozzie and Harriet showed children overwhelming the Nelson household in search of candy.

The Insight to Action website reports that 70% of parents plan to celebrate Halloween with their kids in 2020. Sixty percent of consumers expect their Halloween spending in 2020 to be the same as last year, about $89.

How can you celebrate safely? Consider these options from the Retail Me Not website:

• Decorate your home. Spooky lanterns, carved pumpkins, cobwebs, and hanging skeletons can still induce that thrill that makes Halloween so enjoyable.

• Zoom parties. Host a costume party via Zoom. Invite friends and kids to show up in their scary costumes and display their creativity.

• Trunk-or-treating. Some communities are organizing events in schools, church parking lots, or neighborhood driveways. Trunks are filled with candy, so kids can go trick-or-treating from car to car. Keep plenty of responsible adults on hand to supply hand sanitizer as costumed children collect their goodies.

• Drive-in movies. With indoor movie theaters shut down for the duration, drive-ins are experiencing a renaissance. Older kids may enjoy being creeped out by Night of the Living Dead, A Nightmare on Elm Street, or even (obviously) Halloween.

We make up horrors to help us cope with the real ones.

— Stephen King

Monthly Mania: It Pays (Up to $100) To Patronize the Advertisers in Your Newsletter

THOUSANDS manufactured home residents have won over $154,200 since our contest began. It's simple to play ... when you patronize a current advertiser, ask for a Monthly Mania ticket (or a reasonable facsimile) and fill it out completely. Put the ticket in our Monthly Mania drop box in your community or mail your paid receipt to us at Monthly Media • 220 Bahama St. • Venice, FL 34285. That's all you do. At the end of the month the Publishers will pick up the tickets and hold a drawing. If your ticket is drawn, we mail you a check.
