Manager Marilyn Sisti's Message:

I want to wish everyone a Happy New Year and I hope that 2016 turns out to be healthy and prosperous for everyone.

I am going to be repetitive with this subject but it seems some dog owners are not listening. You cannot have your dog off a leash in this park, if you commit these violations I am afraid that the pet will have to leave. Also do not let your pet go on other people's property even if you do pick it up, this is not respectful. Do not tie your pet outside alone this will not be tolerated and if again you have more than two violations the pet will have to leave even if it is a service dog. We accommodate them but you have to follow the rules just as everyone else does.

Stephanie is doing a terrific job in keeping up with site inspections, but there seems to be a few of you that are totally ignoring this. Please note it is a park violation for a resident to not maintain their home or yard therefore it is grounds for eviction. If you have received more than three notices and have not done anything and just ignored them, then you will be put on the eviction list. We want our community to shine and those of you who do not respect this just don't understand the pride of ownership.

If you have any questions or concerns, please come to the office.

A special surprise for the day of love. More information to follow at a later date.

The history of Black History Month

We owe much of our greater understanding of black history to Carter G. Woodson. Born to former slaves, Woodson worked hard and against the tide of prejudice to obtain his own education. In earning his doctorate from Harvard, Woodson was disturbed to find that during his studies, history books virtually ignored the black American population. So he decided to take on the challenge of writing black Americans into the history books.

He established the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History (now called the Association for the Study of Afro-American Life and History) in 1915, and a year later founded the widely respected Journal of Negro History. Then in 1926, he launched Negro History Week, the precursor to Black History Month, as an initiative to bring national attention to the contributions of black people throughout American history.

February was chosen as Black History Month for the significant events and people who figured prominently in black American history. For example:

- Feb. 23, 1868: Civil rights leader and co-founder of the NAACP, W.E.B. DuBois, was born.
- Feb. 3, 1870: The 15th Amendment was passed, granting blacks the right to vote.
- Feb. 25, 1870: The first black U.S. senator, Hiram R. Revels (1822-1901), took his oath of office.
- Feb. 12, 1909: The National Association for the Advancement of Colored People was founded by a group of concerned black and white citizens in New York City.
- Feb. 1, 1960: A group of black Greensboro, North Carolina, college students began a sit-in at a segregated Woolworth's lunch counter. The event marks a watershed moment in the civil-rights movement.

Valentine's Day doesn't have to break the bank

Looking for something to do with your sweetheart on Valentine's Day that's not too expensive? Try these ideas:

- Read a story together. Buy two copies of your favorite book or story (or borrow them from your library) and spend the evening discussing it. You may both learn things you didn't know about the story (and each other).
- Team up on a new recipe. Instead of going out to a restaurant, delve into your cookbooks and find a meal to collaborate on. Choose something different and challenging, and enjoy the results.
- Visit a museum. Your town probably has a museum (or two) that you've never been to. Or a landmark you haven't seen yet. Select someplace new and check it out together.

Cold weather dangers to watch for.

Winter is far from over, and that means staying safe in cold weather is still important. Remember these tips for getting by until spring:

- Frostbite. Frostbite can occur in a short amount of time, especially with children. They can lose body heat quickly, sometimes in as little as 20 minutes. Dress kids warmly, but don't over bundle them, which can cause sweating and speed the loss of body heat. Also, discourage kids from eating snow, since it lowers body temperature, which can decrease resistance to frostbite.
- Carbon monoxide. Check your furnace and other heating appliances to make sure they aren't creating a danger to your co-workers or family. Carbon monoxide poisoning is often mistaken for the flu. The symptoms include achiness, headache, and nausea. Carbon monoxide is odorless and colorless, and it can affect children before it affects adults.
- Vehicles. We all know to walk carefully on icy roads and sidewalks during winter. But injuries can also stem from sliding and skidding vehicles that may not be able to stop before hitting someone. Be sure to walk in bright or reflective clothing, and be careful when walking near snow piles and drifts that may obscure your view or the view of a driver.

Expect to win

In 1974, Notre Dame's basketball team faced the national championship team from UCLA in a game that everyone expected Notre Dame to lose. According to motivational guru Zig Ziglar in his book, Success for Dummies (IDG Books Worldwide), Notre Dame coach Digger Phelps decided that his team was going to win.

The game was scheduled for Saturday afternoon. At the end of Monday's practice, he told his players to cut the nets from each basket. In basketball, cutting down the nets is a celebration of victory. After Tuesday's practice, he again told the players to cut down the nets, and every day after that. By Friday, they were cutting the nets down with confidence and enthusiasm.

And on Saturday, Phelps' team was able to cut down the nets for real, after beating UCLA in the game that Notre Dame was certain to lose. Although cutting down the nets alone didn't ensure the victory, it did get the players into a positive mindset. By the end of the week they expected to win, and so they did.

Be happy with who you are and what you do, and you can do anything you want.

—Steve Maraboli

Pay Dirt

Two young boys decided to dig a deep hole behind their house. As they were working, their parents came out on the porch to watch.

“What are you doing?” asked the mother.

“We’re going to dig a hole all the way to the other side of the world!” said one of the boys excitedly.

The father began telling them that digging a hole all the way through the earth was impossible. After a moment, though, one of the boys picked up a jar full of spiders, worms and a wide assortment of insects. He removed the lid and showed the wonderful contents to his parents. “Even if we don’t dig all the way to the other side, look what we found along the way!”

You may not reach all your goals and make all your dreams come true. But when you fall short, remember all the good things you picked up along the way.

The job’s not done until everything’s done

We all learn important lessons in our first jobs. Jay Chiat, co-founder of the advertising firm Chiat/Day, told Inc. magazine once about working as a short-order cook at his family’s drive-through Long Island restaurant. The worst part of the job, Chiat recalled, was cleaning up after the restaurant closed at 1 a.m.—scraping the grill, mopping the floors, and everything else despite being exhausted and wanting nothing more than to go home and get to bed.

But the experience taught him at least one lesson that proved helpful in his later career: “You learn that you’re not done with a project until it’s completely ready for inspection.”

Taking leave of a saint

Two brothers in a small town had a reputation for bad behavior. But they were rich enough to avoid the consequences all the time.

The pastor of the local church knew them well and tried to find the good in both of them, although this was next to impossible.

One day one of the brothers died suddenly. The other came to the church and asked the pastor to speak at his funeral.

“To be honest, I wouldn’t know what to say,” the pastor replied.

“Here.” The brother took out his checkbook. “I’m writing you a check for $10,000 for the church renovations you’re always talking about. All you have to do is tell everyone at the funeral that my brother was a saint.”

The pastor thought for a moment, then accepted the check.

At the funeral, the pastor stood before the townspeople come to see the last of one of their disliked neighbors. “I didn’t know this man well,” he said. “I do know that he cheated on his wife, and cheated everyone he did business with. But I can say one thing about him: Compared to his brother, he was a saint.”

Self-employment supports the U.S. economy

Self-employment is alive and well in the U.S., according to a Pew Research Center analysis of Census Bureau data. Ten percent of Americans workers—14.6 million people—reported being self-employed in 2014, and another 20 percent (29.4 million) said they worked for self-employed bosses.

Although the self-employed do hire others, their hiring is on a smaller scale, with only 1 in 4 having any paid employees: a median of 3 people, and an average of 8.6.

The Pew statistics show that self-employment plays a vital role in the U.S. economy: Eighty-one percent of people in the agriculture, forestry, and fishing industries were either self-employed in 2014 or worked for someone who was, along with 68 percent of workers in the construction field, and 53 percent of those in professional and business services.

Technology taking over the college classroom

College students used to invest in pens, pencils, notebooks, and maybe a pocket calculator before going to class. That's so 20th century. These days 81 percent use a mobile device like a smartphone or a tablet computer to do their studying, according to research by McGraw-Hill Education and Hanover Research.

Smartphones in particular are becoming the tool of choice, with 51 percent of students now using them for study, up from 36 percent in 2013. In general, 77 percent of college students say that technology has helped improve their grades, and 48 percent feel they save time with it.

Reduce stress with these simple steps

Stress can undercut your effectiveness at work. Every job has less than enjoyable moments, but when you start feeling ready to burst, put some of these techniques into action:

- Take a 15-minute break. Once a day, spend 15 minutes relaxing. Try meditation, a quick walk, or some inspirational reading. Don't think about your problems, just immerse yourself in the activity. You'll feel better when you get back to work.

- Learn to say no. You probably can't turn down orders from your boss, but you can take more control of your time by not letting co-workers bury you with requests. Help out as much as you can, but let people know—politely—that you've got to stick to priorities. You'll avoid being overwhelmed by extraneous tasks.

A simple favor

A man taking a walk one day noticed a small boy trying to use the doorbell on a house across the street. The boy was very short, and the doorbell was too high for him to reach.

After watching the boy's efforts for a minute, the man crossed the street to help. "Hello there," he said, ringing the bell. "What do we do now?"

The boy looked up at him. "Run!"

Best boss ever

Samantha walked into her boss's office. "Tom, my daughter's class is taking a field trip tomorrow, and they want me to drive a dozen third-graders across town to the zoo and stay there with them all day."

Tom shook his head. "Sorry, Samantha, but half the office is out sick. I can't give you the day off."

"Thanks, Tom," she said with a sigh of relief. "I knew I could count on you!"

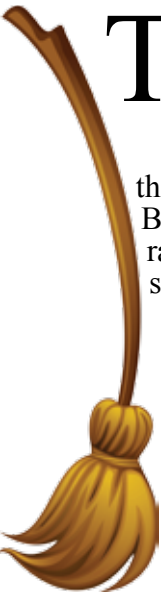

The best example

The master of a monastery in China was known for his wise teachings. Instead of lecturing people, though, he would demonstrate his purposefulness by sweeping the steps of the monastery every morning with all his being.

Would-be disciples would come to the monastery and ask the man sweeping the steps where the master was. He would reply, "The teacher is teaching now." Because most of the aspirants were looking for a man dispensing advice, they rarely recognized the master—or understood that his "teaching" was meant to show that he was always present in his approach to work and to life.

The price of success is hard work, dedication to the job at hand, and the determination that whether we win or lose, we have applied the best of ourselves to the task at hand.

—Vince Lombardi

February Is...

American Heart Month. Heart disease kills an estimated 630,000 Americans each year. February has been celebrated as American Heart Month since 1963 as part of the effort to urge Americans to join the battle against heart disease. Learn how to reduce your risk through lifestyle changes and, in some cases, medication.

Black History Month. An annual observance in the United States, Canada, and the United Kingdom to commemorate the history and contributions of black people. Black History Month was officially recognized by the U.S. government in 1976, with President Gerald R. Ford urging Americans to “seize the opportunity to honor the too-often neglected accomplishments of black Americans in every area of endeavor throughout our history.”

Grapefruit Month. Rediscover the naturally invigorating grapefruit. Loaded with vitamin C, grapefruit helps boost the immune system during these winter months when colds and flu are at their peak. Whether you enjoy it fresh from its golden skin or straight from a glass, there’s nothing quite like the bold taste and healthy goodness of grapefruit.

Library Lovers’ Month. Library Lovers’ Month is a month-long celebration of school, public, and private libraries of all types. This is a time for everyone, especially library support groups, to recognize the value of libraries and to work to assure that the nation’s libraries will continue to serve.

Weekly

National School Counseling Week, Feb. 1-5. Sponsored by American School Counselor Association, National School Counseling Week highlights the impact school counselors can have in helping students achieve school success and plan for a career.

Valentine's Day, love, and money

Money may not buy you love, but on Valentine's Day it can buy a lot of flowers, candy, and jewelry. Americans last year spent $18.9 billion on Valentine's Day, with the average person paying $142.93—$96.63 on their spouse or significant other, and the rest going to gifts for family members, co-workers, teachers, and others.

Men spent more than women—an average of $190.53, compared to $96.58. Almost 52 percent of men bought candy for their partners, 61 percent went for flowers, and 21 percent splurged on jewelry.

The gift giving wasn't limited to people, either—21.2 percent bought something for their pets.

Up all night? Fight insomnia with this information

Approximately 6 percent of people in the U.S. suffer from insomnia and the negative effects it can have on health. If you can't fall asleep at night, these facts from the Live Science website may help:

- Keep a consistent schedule. If you can't get to sleep after a weekend, the reason may be that you've stayed up later for a couple of days. Stick to a consistent routine so you're rested on Monday morning.

- Sleeping pills aren't the answer. Specialists caution that medications don't cure insomnia and may increase other health problems.
- Hormones may play a role. Women are twice as likely to struggle with insomnia than men, studies show. Sleepless nights may be associated with women's menstrual cycles, as well as pregnancy, menopause, and other hormonal changes.

Nobody wants to fall into a safety net, because it means the structure in which they've been living is in a state of collapse and they have no choice but to tumble downwards. However, it beats the alternative.

Multiply Your Monthly Mania!

As you probably already know; patronizing the advertisers in this newsletter also pays YOU with our Monthly Mania Cash Give-a-Way. We pay out $400 every month to residents who submit tickets they have received from using the businesses in the newsletter. Winning is easy, just patronize any advertiser in the newsletter, then submit either the ticket or a paid receipt to us for your chance to win!

Now You Have More Chances to Win!

We are now offering unlimited entries into our Monthly Mania drawing by just SUGGESTING a business to advertise.

Here is how it works:

1. Call our office and suggest a business to advertise in the newsletter
2. We will take down your information (name, address, phone number) and enter you into the next month's drawing for over $400 in cash prizes
3. The more businesses you suggest, the more chances you have to win.
(To qualify each resident can only suggest a business once)
