"Thank you for doing a very professional job on my roof. I am not easily pleased with most contractors, ASC is the exception! Your crew was on time, sometimes even early. There are no leaks and it looks great. ASC was not the cheapest, which proves you get what you pay for."

Dunedin Community Chorus

The concert program for February 23 was distributed today, Jan. 7, and I can only say I wish there were 3 acts, not just 2! Show music in Act I features Oklahoma, South Pacific, My Fair Lady, and Camelot. In Act II we will hear music from It's A Grand Night for Singing, Oliver, Hello Dolly, and Les Misérables. Put the date on your calendar now so you will plan to attend at the Community Center in Dunedin. This concert is most attended by our Glenwood neighbors with most of us here for the winter. For many years we have contributed our February individual donations into a Glenwood Gang fund and are designated as Golden Angels. If you choose to donate in this way, please place your gift into the bank bag that is carried by JR Hall or Judy Lee, usually at Saturday coffee. Hope to see many Glenwood residents on February 23!

MAD HATTERS LUNCHEON

The Glenwood Mad Hatters ladies went to Rumba's Tap & Grill in Clearwater with hostess

Jan Kearney. We had good food and a lot of good conversations.

We will be hosted next month by Linda Geary and Glenna Fasold

Ladies if you are new to Glenwood this is a fun something to do the first Tuesday of each month. A person volunteers to call their favorite Restaurant to make arrangements for all of us to join them. If you need help the first time, please do not hesitate to ask for assistance. We would like see more of the new ladies who have moved into Glenwood and of course our ladies who only come down to stay with us in the fall, winter and spring. This would be a good chance to meet others. If you are interested I would be most happy to show you how is done. It is very simple and we are looking for new places to go, and maybe you have found the place we have been looking forward to going.

SINGLES LUNCHEON

Jim Wildes will be our host for the Singles Luncheon on Friday, February 14th, 2020 at 12:30 PM.

We are going to Crabby Bills.
401 Gulf Blvd, Indian Rocks Beach
Phone 727 595 4825

A special thank you goes to Sue Kelly who was our January hostess.
We had a great time at Roosterfish Grill.

Just for a giggle.

I went to the liquor store Friday afternoon on my bicycle, bought a bottle of scotch and put it in my basket.

As I was about to leave I thought to myself that if I fell off my bike the bottle would break. So I drank the scotch before I cycled home.

Turned out to be a very good decision, because I fell off my bicycle seven times on the way home.

Playing with gusto

What could you achieve if you didn't place any limitations on yourself? Jazz pianist Art Tatum — called “the eighth wonder of the world” by Count Basie—is a perfect example of a man who knew no boundaries.

Though blind, Tatum expressed an interest in the piano as a youngster. He listened to the musical stylings of Fats Waller and Lee Sims on the radio for hours, hoping that someday he would be able to perform as well as they did. Of course, that meant he'd have to learn to play, but unfortunately, like many families in the 1920s, his had few resources to spend on music lessons. As Tatum neared adolescence, he devised his own method for learning the instrument.

He persuaded friends to escort him to a local honky-tonk, where he was given permission to sit at the player piano. As the music played, Tatum kept his fingers hovering lightly over the falling keys, feeling his way through the songs. He practiced late into the night, as often as he could—in spite of his age, his schoolwork, and his part-time job. Learning to play piano in this manner was difficult, but not just because he was blind.

What Tatum didn't realize was that player piano rolls of that era were the result of two pianists playing together. He was learning to play with two hands what normally took four. As a result, he developed an incredible dexterity that enabled him to master the piano.

Art Tatum's strong will overshadowed any real or imagined challenges that could have prevented him from learning to play the piano. At the age of 17, Tatum began playing professionally in a career that spanned decades. What began as a desire to sound like Fats Waller developed into a four-handed playing style that would astonish Waller and fellow musicians throughout the 20th century.

It's not easy to be a pioneer—but oh, is it fascinating!

—Elizabeth Blackwell

Heavy sigh, eye roll

According to the “Workfriend” advice column in The New York Times, replying to an email or text with “OK” is interpreted by the younger generations (Z and millennials) as a passive-aggressive way of telling someone to drop dead.

Seriously.

Instead of using “OK,” you should write “kk” or simply “K.”

However, there is another alternative preferred by those of us with common sense who don’t defer to manufactured grammar rules of unknown origin: You can simply say what you mean and mean what you say and try not to be mean about it, OK?

Now that’s cold

You’re shut in due to the snow and cold weather, and your cousin in northern Florida calls to complain about the chilly 50-degree temps and having to wear a sweater. Not to make light of their discomfort, but you might suggest they invest in fleece pajamas; then share this list of some of the coldest cities in the U.S.:

Place	Coldest average winter temperature (Fahrenheit)	Average number of days below freezing
Deadhorse, Alaska	-23.1	291.9
Crested Butte, Colorado	-7.6	265.7
Stanley, Idaho	-1.8	291.6
Allagash, Maine	-7.6	208.1
Embarrass, Minnesota	-6.2	227.2
Wisdom, Montana	1	277.2
Belcourt, North Dakota	-6.2	205.2
Coalville, Utah	4.7	258.4
Sutton, Vermont	-1	204.8
Bondurant, Wyoming	-3.1	264.9

It is of practical value to learn to like yourself. Since you must spend so much time with yourself, you might as well get some satisfaction out of the relationship.
—Norman Vincent Peale

Chocolate may be the perfect cough medicine

Good news if you've got a cough you can't get rid of—especially if you're a chocolate lover. The Shape magazine website reports that an influential authority on respiratory medicine believes chocolate can do a great job of soothing coughs because it forms a protective coating inside your throat that shields the nerve endings that make you cough. Melted chocolate's viscosity permits a natural ingredient to defend those nerve endings and help them calm down.

The expert notes that drinking hot chocolate won't have the same cough-soothing effect because it's too diluted to have a long-lasting effect on throat nerves. You're better off sucking on a piece of chocolate and letting it melt down slowly to coat your throat.

Penicillin allergy may be less common than thought

Many people are allergic to penicillin—or think they are. According to the Medical News Today website, as much as 10% of the U.S. population reports being allergic to the antibiotic, but as much as 90% may have outgrown the allergy, or never even been allergic in the first place.

One study of 52 patients who tested negative for the allergy found that 29% had a penicillin allergy label in their medical records, and 24% had a similar label in the pharmaceutical records. A reaction to the antibiotic from years ago, then, can still show up on one's medical records even though it's no longer accurate.

Doctors recommend being tested by an allergist to confirm their sensitivity to it.

Your health is what you make of it. Everything you do and think either adds to the vitality, energy, and spirit you possess or takes away from it.
