Social Committee

ST. PATTY PARTY was held on March 13th with 124 attendees. Sally Landy won the St. Patty wreath with $100 cash. Penny Kinzer received $135 from the 50/50 drawing. The food provided by Kathy Moore and her volunteers was delicious, and Joey Royal's music provided lots of fun. We are so thankful that we got to enjoy ourselves that evening before COVID-19 put a halt to our community gatherings.

Due to COVID-19, we have had to close the clubhouse, pool, shuffleboard, and horseshoes to comply with the CDC Guidelines. At this time, we do not know when the social distancing guidelines will be lifted and when we can resume our social activities.

Once we receive permission to resume "normal" activities, we will post updates on the Glenwood Estates Face Book website, as well as posting info on the clubhouse bulletin board.

We pray that all our Glenwood residents will stay safe and well, and if you need any assistance, please reach out to the Glenwood office to obtain the resources you may need.

Sincerely Connie

Just For Giggles

Torrential rainstorms were knocking down power lines all over town. That meant, as a customer service rep for the electric company, I was dispatching repairmen right and left. When one lineman called a customer to get her exact address, he was told, "I'm at Post Office Box 99."

The weary lineman replied, "Ma'am, I'll be coming to you in a truck, not an envelope."

GLENWOOD NEEDLEWORK

Some thoughts about crocheting and knitting while we wait to get back together again.

Arts and crafts are more than just a fun pastime, they're truly healing and restorative and are actually very therapeutic. In fact, the healing benefits of crocheting (and knitting) are numerous.

These health benefits of learning a new craft like crochet range from simply calming you down and easing your stress to potentially relieving depression and reducing the risk of Alzheimer's Disease

When we do something we like, our brains release dopamine, a chemical that affects our emotions and functions like a natural anti-depressant. Scientists now believe that crafts, such as crocheting, can help stimulate that dopamine release to allow us to feel happier and better about ourselves.

Crocheting can reduce the risk of Alzheimer’s by 30-50%. By engaging in cognitive exercises and stimulating your mind, you can slow down or even prevent memory loss. Whether you plan on challenging your memory by learning a new stitch or technique or simply by reading and working up a pattern, by getting a little crafty, you’ll be helping preserve your memories.

Bereavement Committee

We offer our condolences to the two families who lost loved ones in March.
Kevin Ferguson #14 passed on March 21, 2020.

Charlotte Caron # 47 passed on March 26, 2020.

With the clubhouse not being used we are unable to have Celebrations of life at this time. Both families are interested in doing something after the virus has cleared up.

We will notify everyone as soon as we have the information. The Bereavement Committee is a part of the Social Committee. The Social Committee donates $ 50.00 to each family in memory of their departed loved ones.

Since we have so many new home owners in our park we thought we would explain why the flag is lowered at times. It is lowered when someone in park has passed. When a person who lives in the park passes away, we go to the family to see what we may do to assist them. We explain that they can have a Celebration of Life in the Clubhouse. We will assist by setting up the hall and helping the family. Often families share the memories of their loved ones is by providing Saturday morning coffee and confectionaries for their friends and neighbors in our community.

This year the Bereavement Committee consists of Jan Kearney and Marge Giroux. If you know of someone passing, please notify us.

Singles Luncheon

By Jan Kearney

Well ladies, we missed our lunch in April with Carol Smerker. I know we would have had fun but with the virus keeping us in our homes we missed another good lunch.

We are set up to go to the Bon Appetit in Dunedin next month. God willing we might be able to join Jan Kearney who is our hostess for the month.

If not we will have to wait until this virus is gone and arrange a nice lunch to see our friends once again.

Looking forward to see you real soon. Stay save and stay home until we get the news that we can go out.

Miss you all, Jan Kearney

This, too, shall pass

Easter was celebrated yesterday; all of us will remember these unforgettable times and how our lives changed over the past six weeks under "stay at home" rules. For our Canadian and snowbird friends and neighbors who quickly left Florida homes to return north, here are some reflections on our daily activities as they exist now. For Holy Week and Easter, virtual church on our computers or from television was our only option. Wednesday night cards, Thursday night Bingo, and Saturday morning coffee have not offered a virtual option! Those of us physically able get out to walk, bike and golf cart in our community at least once daily. Remember the men's biker group we saw all winter? Now we have a ladies' group each evening. We ask each other of needs or concerns and rejoice if there are none! Serious questions are considered: How can we get a haircut? How can we get our nails done? When will the stores have paper goods? When will the Tampa Bay Times print seven days a week? All these are kept at the social distancing of six feet or more!

Some activities continue as usual: homes being washed, trees being trimmed, gutters being cleaned, trash and recycling being collected and tree pollen being swept. We restrict grocery visits and adhere to careful lists. Publix make seniors welcome 7:00 to 8:00 AM on Tuesday and Wednesdays. Few of us enjoy being dressed for shopping at that hour! Tuesday at Bealls is not on our "must do" list! Can detect a bit of humor as you read?

On the more serious side, we are very grateful for some realities. No one of our community has been tested as positive, no one has been hospitalized, and our weather has been favorable for leaving our homes to exercise. Our distant families often call in concern. We are hopeful that an end to this tunnel is beginning to open. As we seniors know from a lifetime of experiences: "And this, too, shall pass." Judy Lee

Letters to the Editor

Here in Glenwood, many people have turned to walking , bicycling and riding in their golf carts during this period of "Safer at Home". I urge those that are in their cars, backing out of driveways, to really look around to make sure that no one is behind them. There have been many "close calls". We don't want to lose any residents due to carelessness, never mind a virus ! Thank you.

Sincerely, Lucy St. Pierre lot 91.

A message from your editor

Today April 15th, the world has recorded that 1938,840 people are sick with Covid 19 and 120,857 people have died from it. I am sure by the time our Gazette reaches your door these numbers will have changed dramatically. The countries that have been hit the hardest to date are:

The US. with 587,337
Spain with 172,655
Italy with 159,516
France with 136,779
UK with 88,621
China with 82,160 (Reported)

The world as we know it has changed, hopefully we will discover that expertise matters when it comes from health professionals, and we will demand more than social satisfaction from our governments all over the world. We will pay attention to science and critical thinking skills.

We will come away from 2020 with a different attitude on many things. It will force us to look at who we are and what we value. Many of us are rediscovering nature, and we will continue discover a different , and maybe a better version of ourselves, as people are finding a new way to connect and support each other. Social isolation has become social solidarity. Young people are reaching out to the elderly in acts of kindness, children are sending cards and well wishes to the sick and needy, big business and celebrities are giving back. Handshakes and hugs have now become phone calls and social media messages. Music is being shared all over the globe as we are taking time to connect. We are faced with a common enemy and this has inspired compassion, generosity and spirit of action.

Hopefully by the time this Gazette reaches you we will be seeing signs of hope that we are on the healing side of this pandemic. Pat and I look forward to a time when we are all sharing a song, dance or a meal at our club house. Continue to look after each other and stay safe.
