SHUFFLEBOARD

Joyce Herbort

Hi shuffleboard fans! We're having a great time playing this year. We've had 11 or 12 players several weeks. It is more fun when we have more players! If you're looking for something to do on Monday afternoon come out & play shuffleboard with us. We start at 3 PM and I ask that you come at 2:45 so I know how many courts to set up. Be sure to bring a quarter with you since that is our prize money. The low score gets their quarter back, and the high score gets the rest. Anyone can play. Come have fun with us!

SINGLES LUNCHEON

Jan Troke

Our Host this month is: Fritz Baker

A special thanks goes to Jo-Anne Pumphrey, who was our hostess for February.

We had a great time at Finley's Irish Pub & Eatery.

Glenwood Cooks!

CANTALOPE SOUP

1 medium to large cantalope, ripe
1/3 to 1/2 of a can of frozen orange juice, unconstituted
6 fresh mint leaves, or season to taste
Plain yogurt

Peel and seed cantalope and cut into chunks. Puree in batches in a blender or food processor. Add orange juice and mint leaves to the blender while pureeing the cantalope. Then refrigerate. Make the day before serving so flavors will blend.

Serve the cold soup in bowls. Size depends on how much soup per person you wish to serve. Top with a dollop (1 tablespoon) of yogurt and add small mint leaves in the middle of the yogurt for decoration.

Glenwood Gang I

Judy Lee

The gang is composed of 19 homes who donated to the Dunedin Community Chorus - collected $225 for the February 25th concert. More than 30 enjoyed the concert and compliment our two participating singers, Jan Kearney and Jerry Archambault. The last concert for this season is April 8 and features patriotic music. We have many veterans of the five military branches in Glenwood which makes it especially enjoyable. It begins at 3:00. Parking is a challenge so an early arrival is suggested.

Another Glenwood Gang volunteers annually in early March to beautify our entry area and the palm bed at the Clubhouse. They weed, prune, mulch, sweep, and plant flowers for the enjoyment of our own residents and our many spring visitors. The gang who spent time recently includes Rick Geary, Ray Toth, Dave Rutledge, Dan Pysson, Tony Altieri, Al Halm, Nonza Neal, Joadee Edwards, Dave Schultz from the BOD and Paul, our day employee. Give a warm thanks to these guys when you see them as this is their fourth year to participate in the project. Other help behind the scenes purchased the mulch and distributed it to various sites. Residents appreciate that our Board feels it is important to finance these projects and real estate people love to show our units to interested buyers!

TOURS AND TRAVEL

Joyce Herbort, Jo Anne Pumphrey

If you're looking for something to do "Travel is Fun" has a lot of good day trips. On April 4 they're going to the big cat habitat in Sarasota, April 5 is a trip to Snook haven. Listen to the banjo players, have a great lunch & enjoy sitting under the trees by the Myaka river. Its the Lake Ridge winery blues fest on the 15th. You'll want to do that after you do your taxes! Come on. Get out there and have some fun! Check out the papers we put in the clubhouse. You'll see something you want to do!

Burn and extinguish candles safely

Whether you enjoy candles for a romantic dinner or holiday celebration, you should handle them carefully. The National Candle Association says to properly put out a candle's flame, hold your finger in front of the flame and blow at it. The air will flow around the finger and extinguish the candle from both sides, preventing hot wax from splattering.

Other tips for candle keeping and use:

- Never leave a burning candle unattended.
- Keep lighted candles out of the reach of children and pets.
- Keep burning candles away from combustible materials like drapes.
- Store candles in a cool, dark, dry place.
- Before using, light and extinguish the candles so they burn better.
- Avoid drafts to prevent rapid, uneven burning or excessive dripping.

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Autism Awareness Month. With one in 68 children in the United States diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder, the focus of this month is to educate the public in an effort to foster an atmosphere of acceptance and understanding in our society.

National Garden Month. Grow herbs in a window box, plant flowers that will attract the butterflies and bees, or cultivate a melon patch on a vertical grid. There's still time to plan what you will grow in your garden this year.

National Humor Month. Laughter truly is the best medicine, so why not strengthen your funny bone? Visit HumorMonth.com to find projects and resources that will help bring the laughter.

National Library Week, April 8-14. If you haven't been to your local library in a while, you're missing out on all of the free yet valuable resources they provide to your community. Visit a branch this week to learn all of the ways "Libraries Lead," which is the theme of this year's campaign.

National Volunteer Week, April 15-21. Let a cause near and dear to your heart inspire you to take action. Go to AllForGood.org to find a service project in your area and get involved this week.

Week of the Young Child, April 16-20. The National Association for the Education of Young Children shines a spotlight on the importance of early childhood education. Go to NAEYC.org to find out what you can do to engage the little ones in your life.

World Immunization Week, April 24-30. "Protected Together, #Vaccines Work" is the message the World Health Organization is sharing to remind individuals and governments that fatal yet preventable diseases are an all-too-common reality for more than 19 million children throughout the world.

Start thinking green this spring

Most of us can do a lot better when it comes to being ecofriendly. Here are two areas where we can improve upon our good intentions while we lessen our negative impact on the environment:

• Recycling. It's great if you always throw your empty soda cans and water bottles in the recycle bin, but are there other items you are overlooking? If your municipality has a recycling program they probably have a set of guidelines posted online that explains what they accept and how you should prepare those items for disposal. Even though that peanut butter jar is marked as being recyclable, it might be considered garbage if traces of peanut butter are still in it. Find out what you need to know and make a commitment to recycle as much as possible, properly.

• The brown bag lunch. Embrace sustainability when you take your lunch to work by eliminating the amount of disposable products you use. Carry your lunch in a cloth sack, bento box, or small basket. Pack food in glass, metal, or some other kind of reusable containers. Swap out paper napkins with cloth napkins, and plastic straws with metal ones. Consider keeping a coffee mug and set of flatware at your desk in an effort to generate less waste.

A broadband of conservation

In 1989, attorney and activist Susan Tixier mobilized a group of “mature” women on a hike through Utah’s Grand Staircase-Escalante. Most of them were already involved in wilderness preservation efforts, but their goal was to discuss conservation issues surrounding many of the U.S. national monuments and make sure that the voices of older Americans were represented in that conversation.

A member of a passing group of hikers saw them and said, “What a bunch of great old broads!”

On that day, Tixier and her colleagues decided to officially call themselves “Great Old Broads for Wilderness.” Since then they’ve grown their membership to 8,000 across 38 “Broadbands” nationwide.

The group advocates for issues affecting the environment and wilderness protection causes. Their ranks include “Young Broads,” and men of all ages, “Bros.” They host “Broadwalks” where they dedicate a day of stewardship to an area, address conservation issues there, and spend time hiking and exploring.

Visit GreatOldBroads.org to learn more about the Broadbands and the work they are doing.

The mask of kindness

There once lived a man who was disliked by everyone in his village because of his surly demeanor and foul temper. He was known to mumble and grumble unpleasanties to passersby and therefore had no friends. He lived alone, with the only knocks at his door coming from the rocks thrown at his cottage by the children of the village.

One day after his kitchen window was smashed by a rotten gourd, and the man visited the village elder to complain about his miseries as well as the ill treatment he felt he was subjected to by the other villagers. He demanded that something be done.

“I have a solution for your problems,” the elder said, and he disappeared into an adjoining room where he could be heard rummaging through a great many things.

He returned holding a mask of a smiling face. “What I’m about to share with you will have the power to transform your life,” the elder said.

“The only thing that needs transforming is my broken window!” the man sneered.

The elder let out a heavy sigh. “As I was saying, this mask will not only transform your life, but it will correct any grievances you might have. Though, I must warn you,” he continued, “to wear this mask carries a great responsibility, an obligation to speak kind words, think kind thoughts, and perform random acts of kindness. Can you agree to uphold this edict?”

The man grudgingly agreed, reminding the elder he was owed a new window before he put on the mask and began the walk back to his home. Along the way the people he encountered greeted him with a wave or a smile. Occasionally someone inquired about his day. Because of the mask, he felt inspired to answer with a positive remark and this led to a pleasant conversation with a neighbor who noticed the man’s broken window and offered to fix it.

As the days and weeks passed the man grew more grateful and astonished by the effect the mask had on him. Because of the mask, the man never let a stranger pass him by without expressing a kind thought; he sought out opportunities to help others; and now had friends. For the first time ever, he was happy. The mask had transformed his life.

One day there was a knock on the man’s door. It was the elder, who’d come to take back the mask.

“But without this mask I will lose the ability to smile and show kindness,” the man objected.

“The mask didn’t make you kind,” the elder said. “The mask simply revealed to you all of the possibilities that exist when you are kind.”
