President's Report

By Ray Lamoureux #9

The park is totally empty this time of year. I will be leaving in a couple of days from when I'm writing this newsletter. The coffee hour has only about fifteen to twenty people attending on Wednesday.

This is a very busy month for the board with so many residents gone. We are having the cement work on the back gate replaced due to the heavy trucks breaking the cement and rail. We also had an area in the rear laundry repaired that was cracked and sticking up that could be a trip hazard to people using the clothes lines. The sidewalks are also being repaired throughout the park. The cement was removed in the area outside of Robert's work shop and laundry area and a hole was discovered. We are waiting for our insurance engineer to come and tell us what the problem is with this hole.

The clubhouse floor has been cleaned and the kitchen equipment and cabinets emptied and cleaned. The air conditioners are tuned up and the generator serviced. The lighting system in the building had an upgrade for more lights for Can Am. A new handicap electric door and push buttons are added to the handicap ramp by the pool.

We have a contractor coming this week to get estimates to have some bad spots in our roadways repaired and have the roads seal coated in September before most of the residents return.

The power panel that was damaged over the winter by unit 138 and 139 was replaced last week.

The oak trees were trimmed and the two palms in front of the office were moved because they interfered with the cameras. We also had to have a palm removed on First Street because it was dead and did not want it to fall during summer storms. The palms in the park had dead leaves hanging and needed to be fertilized.

The storm drains throughout the park were in bad need of repair and the culverts on third avenue need to be cleaned for storm water to flow.

The board hopes everyone has a safe trip home.

It has become very quiet here at Golden Acres. The only people left in the park now are all of us year-round residents (sun-birds). At last count that's about 76 of us!

Besides being hot and muggy, there are some perks to living in Florida in the summer. It's the only time that we can go to Clearwater Beach and find a parking spot! There are still things you can do to combat the heat too. Like mall shopping, taking in a good movie, going out to eat without the long wait times, going for a nice drive in your air-conditioned car (since the roads are less congested).

Let's not forget the summer thunderstorms. They come fast and furious and then they're gone (just like that). There's nothing better than sitting in your comfortable chair, in your air-conditioned room, reading a good book while the rain is pelting on the aluminum roof of your coach. It is such a comforting sound.

It's a slower pace during the summer months. We get a good respite from it and then we're ready to welcome all the snow birds back for another year of fun and friendship!

Wherever you are located, please keep in touch with all of us by sending articles and pictures for the monthly newsletter. We love to read about what's going on.

As June approaches, here are some notable events to remember:

June 14th is Flag Day in the US.

Father's Day is June 16th, so Happy Father's Day to all you Dads out there. I hope you have a very relaxing and memorable day!

June 21st is the first day of summer (Summer Solstice).

June is graduations in the northern climates and the promise of some time off for the summer for all students attending school.

June is also the month of weddings, so if your anniversary is this month, Happy Anniversary!

Until next time,

May God bless and keep you well and safe...

Welcome New Residents

By Elaine Janes #216

Bruce Dagsvik and Linda MacDonald are new Golden Acres residents. They are from Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. They bought coach #57.

Bruce manages large construction projects. Linda helps people manage their money. Both are still working but manage to spend 5-6 weeks a year in Florida. Bruce is hoping to have more time off in winters starting in 2020.

Until this spring, Bruce and Linda had a seasonal coach home in Largo but wanted to make the move to Dunedin. They heard about our park a year ago from mutual friends of Bruce Gunter and Staicy Boyd (lot 46). Once they drove through the park, they knew they wanted to own a home in Golden Acres.

Bruce and Linda enjoy Golf and Scootering. They get to do a lot of both during their time in Florida.

Linda and Bruce want to thank everybody who made them feel so incredibly welcome during the three weeks they were at Golden Acres the end of February.

Welcome, Bruce and Linda! We hope you enjoy every day at Golden Acres.

Easter Potluck Dinner

By Sue Bailey #188

Easter Dinner was an enjoyable event attended by 55 residents and families. Everyone enjoyed each other's company before, during, and after dinner. There was plenty of delicious food prepared for us to enjoy thanks to all the good cooks we have at Golden Acres.

A special thank you to Paula and Joe Bunevith #202 for guiding and helping Jack and me with our first dinner as hosts. There were volunteers to help us decorate the hall for the occasion on Saturday afternoon and I thank every one of you.

Since the clubhouse floors were going to be cleaned the following week, the board asked us to fold and store all the tables and chairs in the closet. Mark Johnson #174 announced the huge task and asked for volunteers to help. I was very thrilled with how many stayed after to clean up, take down decorations, and fold tables and chairs! All of you are so awesome and appreciated very much!

Practicing Gratitude (Ways to Improve Positivity)

From NIH (News in Health) newsinhealth.nih.gov

How often do you feel thankful for the good things in your life? Studies suggest that making a habit of noticing what's going well in your life could have health benefits. Taking the time to feel gratitude may improve your emotional wellbeing by helping you cope with stress. Early research suggests that a daily practice of gratitude could affect the body, too. For example, one study found that gratitude was linked to fewer signs of heart disease.

The first step in any gratitude practice is to reflect on the good things that have happened in your life. These can be big or little things. It can be as simple as scoring a good parking space that day or enjoying a hot mug of coffee. Or, perhaps you feel grateful for a close friend's compassionate support.

Next, allow yourself a moment to enjoy that you had the positive experience, no matter what negatives may exist in your life. Let positive feelings of gratitude bubble up. "We encourage people to try practicing gratitude daily," advises Dr. Judith T. Moskowitz, a psychologist at Northwestern University. "You can try first thing in the morning or right before you fall asleep, whatever is best for you."

Moskowitz has been studying the impact of keeping a daily gratitude journal on stress relief and health. Practicing gratitude is part of a set of skills that her research team encourages people to practice. These skills have been shown to help some people increase their positive emotions. Her team is trying to better understand how a daily boost in positive emotions can help people cope with stress and improve their mental and physical health. “By practicing these skills, it will help you cope better with whatever you have to cope with,” Moskowitz explains. “You don’t have to be experiencing major life stress. It also works with the daily stress that we all deal with. Ultimately, it can help you be not just happier but also healthier.” While practicing gratitude seems to work for some people, it doesn’t for everyone. That’s why Moskowitz’s research team teaches other skills, too. These include meditating and doing small acts of kindness. Her team has been developing and testing these skills with people who have illnesses like advanced cancer, diabetes, HIV infection, and depression. She’s also worked with people who care for others with serious illness.

When you make gratitude a regular habit, it can help you learn to recognize good things in your life despite the bad things that might be happening. Moskowitz says that when you’re under stress, you might not notice all the moments of positive emotion that you experience. With her research program, she’s trying to help people become more aware of those moments of positive feelings.

“Put some effort into experiencing gratitude on a daily basis and see how it goes,” Moskowitz advises. “It might just surprise you that despite how bad things are—there are things you feel grateful for alongside it.” And feeling grateful may help improve both your mind and your body.

Howard Ferris Obituary

From Debra Ferris #28

Howard E. Farris, 86, of Southwest MI, passed away 3/29/19 in Dunedin, FL, surrounded by loving family. He was born in Osceola, Arkansas in 1932, and moved to MI with his 3 brothers and 2 sisters at age 5, after the Mississippi River flooded. A cousin told them there was farm work in Michigan. They settled in Benton Harbor MI and grew up and got his diploma there; went into the Air Force (1952-56). Upon returning, he attended Benton Harbor Community College and got an AA, while working at Berrien County Sheriff's Dept and a Jailor and Water Safety Deputy. How then received bachelor's and master's degrees at Western Michigan University. He married and had 2 children (Debra and Brian). He later attended MI State and got his PhD there. He taught as a professor of Psychology at Beloit College, and then returned to Western Michigan University to teach for 35yrs. He retired in 2000 and moved to Grand Rapids to live with his wife, Gussie in 2003. He enjoyed running, sailing, music, cooking and creating wine on his grape farm in Mattawan, MI. He spent winters here in Dunedin, FL at Golden Acres.

(www.mossfeaster.com/obituaries/Howard-Farris-3/#!/Obituary)

He lived in the Golden Acres community for 20+ years and felt right at home here. He enjoyed the people, the location and the park activities. He was best known for his music, dressed as Willie Nelson, and participated in Can/Am skits numerous times. His daughter Debra is a co-owner and plans to keep their place as a family vacation home. Early birds versus night owls—who’s better off?

The early bird gets the worm, and early risers enjoy other benefits, according to a story on the New York Post website. A survey of sleep habits involving 2,000 people found that, among other things, self-identified early birds have more sex on a weekly basis than their night owl counterparts.

The survey also found that early birds generally make more money, are more likely to work in an office setting, and describe themselves as happy. They’re also more likely to be married with children in their home. On the other hand, night owls are typically shy and sarcastic, likely to believe in ghosts and cryptids, and more often single.

They tend to sleep about the same amount—seven hours a night for early birds and six hours for night owls. However, early birds are light sleepers, and they feel more well-rested when they get up than night owls.

Disconnecting may not lead to the benefits you’re looking for Ever feel the need to disconnect from your devices for a “digital detox”? The Yahoo Finance website reported on a survey by Mojo Vision (Saratoga, California), which found that people tend to use technology as much, if not more, after distancing themselves from their smartphones and tablets for a while.

The survey of 1,000 Americans found that 67 percent agree that technology makes life easier, but 55 percent believe that all that tech is a distraction, with one-third worrying that it hurts people’s ability to connect with one another. Still, 54 percent said that abstaining from their devices didn’t produce the positive benefits they’d hoped for—or at least were unsure whether it had a beneficial impact.

The most common strategies for “subtracting” tech are setting devices to send fewer notifications, putting them on a “Do Not Disturb” setting, scheduling times to not use their devices, or simply turning them off for a period of time.

A good decision is based on knowledge, and not on numbers.
