President's Report

By Ray Lamoureux #9

The virus is controlling what is happening in Golden Acres. All events have been cancelled for the remainder of the year. We do not have large gatherings of getting together and taking a chance with anyone's health. The board thinks this is the best way to proceed until next year.

The board met last week to go over the 2021 budget. The budget was changed to meet the current conditions going on in the United States. We think it was the best way to keep our community sound and not hurt anyone financially. The budget will be mailed out for all owners to read before the December 2nd budget meeting with the membership. The board has not discussed yet how or where the budget meeting will be held because we don't want a large group inside. If you are not going to attend please submit your vote before the meeting.

The Hardin house survey will be posted on the Golden Acres web site. We are going to have a video made of the house for the residents that can't make it back to see it in person. We know some of the Canadian's are not returning this year because of the virus and insurance problems that they face.

We had a water leak on Second Avenue. The leak was not an easy one to fix. The leak was originally at the valves and a backhoe was brought in to fix that leak. A couple of days went by and a leak down by 1st street showed up. The backhoe had to return to fix that leak also. It is not easy to determine where the leaks are going to happen.

Four new homes were installed in Golden Acres over the summer. One on B court, one on Fourth Street, one on F Court and one on H court. That is a big change for one summer. Also, the new owner of #20 has done major repairs to the coach over the summer.

As of this writing we have only two units for sale. The units for sale are 44 and 211. Two units were sold in the last couple of weeks. Sales are still happening during these trying times with the virus.

Try to stay safe and well.

From the Editor

Happy Thanksgiving, All activities for the month of October were canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The clubhouse is open, but no park activities are scheduled for the month of November.

Some important dates to remember in November include: Daylight savings time ending on November 1st so don't forget to set your clocks back an hour and gain an hour of sleep. Veteran's Day is November 11th (Remembrance Day in Canada) to honor and give thanks to all the men and women who have served and are serving in the Armed Forces. November 26th is Thanksgiving in the USA.

Since Golden Acres hasn't had any activities scheduled in months, I want to thank all of you who stepped up and answered my plea to provide articles and pictures for this month's newsletter! In addition to a monthly article from the Fraud Watch Network; an article from News in Health; and a reminder of our 50th Anniversary Celebration; you will read about the cancellation of our Odd Ball Golf tournament; an unscheduled coffee hour get together; reminder of property taxes due; blood drive; an update of what you can recycle and not; an update on Beekeeping; a hobby of raising Monarch butterflies; and a new arrival. All of it is so interesting and again, we sincerely appreciate it.

We welcome articles of your hobbies, passions and experiences, so we can get to know you better and to share. Who knows, we may be able to create new relationships with our commonalities. Please continue to keep in touch with all of us by sending articles and pictures for the monthly newsletter.

If you are traveling to Golden Acres this month, have a safe and enjoyable journey.

Until next time,

May God bless and keep you well and safe...

Greetings from the Office

By Karin Desmone #1

Please welcome Catherine Johnson #144 to the neighborhood. Correction: Last month's newsletter was published with different owners. Please disregard and welcome Catherine as the new owner. May her new address provide lots of happiness, peace and enjoyment.

Wishing you well and hope to see you return healthy and happy. When you arrive in the park, please sign in at the office or the library upon your arrival. A mailer is being sent to you from PMI the first week of November, and I need to tell them what address it needs to be mailed to.

All Activities are canceled through the end of 2020

Due to the uncertainty of this Covid-19 pandemic and the restrictions imposed, a decision has been made that it is in the best interest and well-being of everyone that there be NO events held through January 1, 2021, including New Year's Eve. The situation will be re-evaluated in early 2021.

I am sorry to advise you of the following: The annual New Year's Day Odd Ball golf tournament is canceled for 2021. We will have to have twice as much fun on Jan.1st, 2022. Stay healthy.

Unscheduled Coffee Hour on Wednesday October 7th

Picture submitted by Carol Spinney #187

Editor's Note: Although there are no activities scheduled through the end of 2020, a group of 9 residents met at the clubhouse, at their own risk, to enjoy some social time together. They brought their own coffee and breakfast treats and followed the CDC guidelines of social distancing and wore masks.

What Can I Recycle?

By Elaine Janes #216

Are You Recycling Right?

This information is from the 2020 Pinellas County Recycling Guide. Below are the key points to remember for using the blue trash bin:

What Can I Recycle?

Metal Cans No lids, labels okay

Glass Bottles and jars No lids, labels okay

Plastic Bottles and Jugs No caps, labels okay

Paper and Cardboard
Clean and dry, no shredded paper

Cartons
No caps or straws

Recycle Nothing Smaller Than Your Fist!

Small items don't sort correctly and end up in the glass. That contaminates the glass when it is recycled.

What Does Not Recycle?

By Elaine Janes #216

What Can Not Be Recycled? When In Doubt Throw It Out

 Other Plastics	 Plastic Bags	 Ceramic Dishware
 Styrofoam	 Cords, Wires, and Hoses	 Food-Soiled Items

Pinellas County offers a household electronics and chemical collection center:

Monday – Saturday, 7 a.m. – 5 p.m.

What They Accept:

- *Automotive Products: Oil, antifreeze, gas and diesel cans
- *Batteries (tape terminals): Single-use batteries go in the trash
- *Electronics: Cellphones, computers, items with rechargeable batteries, TVs
- *Household Chemicals: Aerosols, cleaners, cooking oil, paints
- *Lawn and Garden Chemicals, thermometers, and light bulbs

Honeymoon Island Link

By Manfred & Debbie Grasser #178

I found this article about Honeymoon island. Thought it might be a good read to share.

Editor's Note: If you have access to the Internet, these are very good articles regarding Honeymoon Island and touring of our city of Dunedin from their website. I urge you to read them. Very interesting.

Bee Keeping

By Norma Moore #54, Summer Home in Braeside, Ontario

If you remember, you read about our beekeeping hobby earlier this summer. A lot has happened since then! The bees worked hard all summer bringing in pollen and nectar, filling the frames of honeycomb in the hives with honey.

In August, George extracted the honey. The frames of honey, covered with wax, have to have those honey cells revealed. A hot uncapping knife removes that cover of wax and then the frames are put into the extractor. An extractor is basically a centrifuge which spins the honey out of the comb to the sides of the cylinder. It runs to the bottom where it is next filtered, then poured into jars.

The honey is totally natural, not pasteurized or changed in any way. Eating local, natural honey is good for your health, not to mention absolutely delicious!

In the picture of the fall blooming Sedum blossoms you see the bees are very busy bringing in more nectar to store up as honey for the winter. On a sunny, warm day the garden is full of bees doing just that. But they need a lot of honey stored to get them through the winter, so George feeds them a sugar/water solution to build them up. Feeders are on the hives that you see in the picture. They are busy coming and going from the hives and congregating in front.

People often think that bees hibernate over winter, but they do not. They form a mass of worker bees around the queen to keep her warm. Each bee takes turns going to the outside of the mass where it is colder, then moving to the centre again.

In late fall George wraps the hives up, after first insulating them so that they have protection from wind and snow. It is a long cold winter and there are lots of reasons why the bees don't always make it through to spring, so we just hope it will be a good winter for them.

Raising Monarch Butterflies

Submitted by Norma Moore #54 for Gizele Wood #80

Three years ago, my friend Ilah from Grand Bay Park in Palm Harbor showed me how to raise Monarch butterflies. Since then I've been doing my part in saving the Monarch population.

Every year I raised only two or three butterflies. This year, back home in Miramichi, New Brunswick, and isolated due to the pandemic, I accepted a challenge and raised and released 46 Monarch butterflies and two black swallowtail butterflies.

I start by finding eggs on the milkweed plants. The female monarch butterfly only deposit eggs on that plant. As milkweed plants are very toxic, when the caterpillar eats this plant, they also become toxic to birds, squirrels, ants etc. so predators leave them alone. They are not a tasty meal. I bring the eggs, which remain on the leaves, inside because spiders, ants, and wasps will make a feast of them due to their high protein content.

The eggs hatch in 2-3 days as they become tiny caterpillars which then take between 10 to 15 days to grow from dots to 2 1/2-inch-long caterpillars. During this growing period, you must make sure to have enough milkweed leaves to feed them because they eat a lot.

They are confined under a fine netting, so they do not have the run of the house.

After the 10 to 15 days, they will crawl to the top of the netting where they hang and wrap themselves in silk and become a chrysalis. Finally, the chrysalis will change colour from light green to black and the chrysalis will burst open and a beautiful monarch butterfly is born. Amazing!

Our New Arrival

By Marty & Linda Wittenbols #153

Finally, after a 6-month delay... The new 2020 Mid-engine Corvette Stingray Hard Top Convertible arrived in the driveway.. Just a pleasure to drive.

Linda and I will not be going down to GA this winter for obvious reasons...Wishing everyone the best and a better New Year...

“Fishful” Thinking!

By Roz Frabotta #72

This summer Leigh Herington (#83) celebrated his third 25th birthday by enjoying one of his favorite hobbies-fishing!

He was a good sport when Roz Frabotta (#72) and her sister, Vinny, spoofed Leigh with a birthday fishing “outing” at Vinny’s home.

A typical angler, Leigh had a whopper of a fish story to share!!!

How to Stay Safe from Online Banking Scams

By Sue Bailey #188 as an AARP Fraud Watch Fighter

Free Helpline at (877) 908-3360 or

<https://www.aarp.org/benefits-discounts/all/aarp-fraud-helpline/>

A June survey by digital payments provider Zelle found that 82 percent of consumers ages 55 to 72 who have a smartphone and a checking or savings account are doing more of their banking online. Fifty-five percent are using mobile tools to manage their accounts more often.

Fraud experts warn this new normal could create ripe opportunities for scammers to exploit the newer, older ranks of people banking electronically. Crooks posing as bank representatives can email, call or text customers hoping to pry loose private information that gets them access to online accounts.

“We’re all now digital bankers, whether you wanted to be or not,” says Donna Turner, chief operations officer at Early Warning, the parent company of Zelle. “What we see right now is this perfect storm for the bad guys to really focus and dive in.”

Online banking scammers may target older people for several reasons, says Brian Krebs, a journalist who runs the respected cybercrime website KrebsOnSecurity. After decades of work, older adults are more likely to have higher incomes and greater assets. They are often perceived, fairly or not, to be less tech savvy and more inclined to answer the phone.

Isolation can also be a factor, particularly amid the pandemic, notes Amy Nofziger, director of fraud victim support at AARP. “When people are in crisis — and who’s not in crisis or at an elevated emotional level right now with COVID — they actually want to connect and speak with somebody,” she says.

Ways to bank online safely and avoid scams:

- The first defense against banking scams is knowing that a reputable bank will not contact you out of the blue and ask for your Social Security number, online account password or other personal information. It won’t ask for money. Anyone that does is almost certainly phishing.

- Choose a unique account password. Don't use the same or similar passwords across multiple websites. That's "far and away the biggest source of cybercrime today. It's just epidemic," says Krebs
- Use two-factor authentication. With this extra layer of protection, you get a one-time code (via text or email) whenever you log into your online account. It's an additional way for the bank to confirm your identity and keep crooks out of your account. But beware: A scammer who has obtained your password through a hack or other means might try to persuade you to get a two-factor code and read it back to them — thus giving them access. "This is really, really common," Krebs say.
- Make sure you're on your bank's genuine website — especially if you got there via search, which scammers can game to usher you to a phony site. Check that the web address contains your bank's true domain, with no extra or substituted characters. Look for a padlock symbol in the browser's URL field; that's an indicator the connection is secure
- Make sure you're using your bank's official app. Download it from a trusted source, like an official app store or your bank's website, and keep it updated. The FBI warns that rogue actors create lookalike apps that mimic those of major financial institutions in a bid to get your log-in credentials.
- Read the security and privacy sections of your bank's site. Get to know about alerts and other protections the bank makes available for online customers, Turner recommends
- Only bank using secure Wi-Fi, like your private home network. Public Wi-Fi is more susceptible to hacking.
- Regularly review your bank statements and activity, and report anything that looks questionable to the bank, immediately.

Yoga for Health – Positioning your body & mind

From NIH (News in Health) newsinahealth.nih.gov

Several studies have shown that yoga can help those with chronic low back pain. Some experts now recommend it as a first-line treatment for low back pain, among other non-drug treatments.

There's also evidence that yoga may be helpful for some medical conditions. It's improved sleep in studies of older adults and people with cancer.

Research into yoga is ongoing. Studies are now looking at whether yoga is helpful for specific groups of people. For example, whether it can reduce chronic pain for military veterans or improve quality of life for people who have had breast cancer. New studies are also looking into whether yoga may help mental health conditions like anxiety, depression, and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD). If you're interested in starting yoga, consider these tips on getting started:

WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."
