FROM THE OFFICE

Shut off water valves

If you are using the water outdoors, please remember to shut off the valve at the house instead of just turn the nozzle on the hose.

Maintenance Staff Assistance

If you identify a maintenance item around the Community, please ask someone in the office (Jane or a member of the board) to complete a work order for Lam or Les. This allows them to track, prioritize and complete their daily work load. Thank you!

Parking Request

Whenever you, your guests, or contractors need to park out on the street, please follow Community Rules!

- No parking on the sidewalks. Your maintenance fees pay for all repairs.
- Please use common sense and do not park near or on corners or close to intersections.

We would encourage parking on the same side of the street to avoid traffic having to “zig-zag” to get by. This causes obstructions and creates a dangerous situation for cars, golf carts and bicycles trying to proceed by the vehicles.

Soliciting

Soliciting of any kind is not allowed in Golden Gate. If anyone comes to your door trying to sell anything, please be safe and just say no thank you; close your door and call the police non-emergency number (on page 2 of the Golden Gate Telephone Directory (727) 369-7864. Do not confront the solicitors.

Articles for the Newsletter

Any article submitted to the Golden Gate Newsletter should have the author identified. If you have a computer with an email connection, articles may be emailed to ggmedia@tampabay.rr.com, preferably by the Monday before the third Tuesday of the month. The Board of Directors' Meeting is the third Tuesday of the month and the agreement with the publisher gives us up to the day after the meeting to deliver copy to be published. If you don't have a computer you may continue to deliver a double-spaced paper copy, again, preferably by the Monday before the third Tuesday of the month.

Light up at Night

If you are riding a bike or driving a golf car at night you should have lights on so others can see you.

A COMPLETE LISTING OF RESIDENT SERVICES
CAN BE FOUND ON THE PAGE BEFORE YOUR CALENDAR

WEED PROGRAM

As most of you are aware, we have a problem with the growth of weeds during the summer months, typically May through September. The weed problem we are concerned about is in the planter boxes and the front of the homes. Even those homes that have mulch or stones in the planter boxes will have weed growth.

The board does send "friendly reminders" to alert residents as stated in rule #16..."Each shareholder is responsible for the neat and orderly appearance of his or her premises at all times. However, the general response to the friendly reminders has been less than satisfactory.

We would like to aid in solving this problem by having our maintenance staff spray weed killer in the planter boxes or in front of the home for any resident that desires to participate. There will be a $40.00 per year fee to cover the cost of the material for spraying from May through September. If you wish to participate in this program, send a check or pay cash to Jane in the office. If you choose to participate in this program, our maintenance staff will spray, beginning in May and ending in September. However, if you have ornamental plants that could be harmed by the spraying, you will have to make other arrangements, since we will not be responsible for any damages. If you choose not to participate, the weed issue for planters and the front of your home will continue to be your responsibility, and be subject to the terms of rule #16 concerning work done in your absence.

SUMMER OFFICE HOURS

The Office will be closed on Fridays, starting Friday, July 1, 2016 through Friday, September 2, 2016. Please plan to conduct any office business you may have from Monday through Thursday during this time period. Don't forget, there is a self-serve copy machine in the hall near the entrance to the Patio for your use. If you have an emergency and need something from the Office on a Friday during this time-frame, you can call the out-of-hours number (727)-578-2891) and the Director on call will assist you. Thank you and have a GREAT Summer.

OPEN DOOR POLICY

The Board of Directors at Golden Gate have always had an “open door policy”. There are a number of ways for you to discuss any Community issue with them either during the summer months or during the peak season. At least one Director is in the office between the hours of 9:00 AM and 11:00 AM that you can request to speak to; you can write a letter or email, or there are intake forms to submit issues that will be kept confidential and responded to, and they conduct Director’s Workshops on Thursday mornings at 9:30 AM to discuss, plan and schedule work programs on items as they arise. A notice of these workshops is posted on the bulletin board by the Tuesday of the week they are scheduled.

As you know, being on the Board is a volunteer job. Please utilize any way listed above to bring issues to their attention. Please respect that outside of these venues, they are retired citizens just like you and enjoy their “free” time with their spouses in this beautiful Community you all enjoy.

THANK YOU MESSAGES

Thank you for all your support, concern and caring during our 26 years in Golden Gate Park. To all of you, we express our sincere thanks and appreciation. Your many acts of kindness and sympathy continue to be a great comfort in our time of sorrow.
God Bless You! The Family of William L. (Bill) White

Thank you to my Golden Gate Park friends and neighbors for your prayers, cards, calls, help, and food during my hospital stay and rehab time.

GOLDEN GATE WOMEN'S CLUB

Pat Stephenson

The Dog Days of Summer (July 3 – Aug. 11) aren't officially here, but sure feels like it. Days have been hot and humid. Colin, the first Tropical Storm, has passed without a lot of damage. YEAH.

We had a couple of Happy Hours with great turnouts. Check the Bulletin Board or read your flyers to see when we will have others. Hope to see you there.

Father's Day was a success with 60 people attending, thanks to Doree Barbetto and her helpers. Food was catered by Boston Market. Hope everyone enjoyed.

Don't forget the 4th of July celebration, picnic and parade, sponsored by the Women's, Nuggets, Shuffle and Theater Clubs. Enter your golf cart, bicycle, scooter or wheel chair in the parade and win a great prize.

July 30th the Women's Club will be hosting a "Christmas in July" celebration to benefit the Salvation Army Program "Toys for Tots". There will be an open salad bar. Price of admission will be an unwrapped toy. There will be a sign up sheet in the clubhouse if you want to contribute your favorite salad let us know.

Join us for Happy Hour

Making room

A farmer lived in a small house with his wife and six children. The lack of space was driving him crazy, and in desperation he sought advice from the local rabbi.

The rabbi listened sympathetically to his problem. “I can help you,” he said, “but you must do exactly as I say.” The farmer agreed.

“Do you own any animals?”

“Yes,” the man said. “I have a cow, two goats, and some chickens.”

“Good. When you get home, bring all your animals into the house with you.”

The farmer was puzzled, but he did as the rabbi advised. The next day he returned, complaining, “Rabbi, the animals are all over my house! What should I do?”

“Go home and take the chickens outside,” the rabbi said.

The man went home and took the chickens away. The following day he went back to the rabbi’s house. “The chickens are outside, but we still have two goats and a cow getting in the way.”

“Take the goats back outside,” the rabbi instructed.

The day after that, the man returned again. “The goats are out in the yard, but the cow is everywhere.”

The rabbi nodded. “Now take your cow back to your field.”

The farmer came back smiling the next day. “It’s amazing! The house is quiet and we have room to spare! Thank you, rabbi!”

Not so obvious

A math professor had a very rapid and hectic lecturing style. He often simply turned his back on the class and scribbled equations on the chalkboard while speaking so fast many students couldn’t keep up.

One day a student asked a question about one of the problems. The professor replied, “Well, that’s obvious!” But the student persisted. The prof listened thoughtfully, nodding, then went out into the hallway to think. He paced the hall for 10 minutes, then returned to his classroom.

“I’ve thought it over,” the professor said. “I was right: It is obvious.” And he went right back to his lecture.

Balance your internal ‘thinker’ and ‘doer’ to bring ideas to life

Creative people can have dual personalities: the “thinker” who comes up with bright ideas and the “doer” who puts plans into action. How can you help them work together effectively? Follow these steps:

- Record your revelations. When an idea strikes in the middle of a task, don’t stop what you’re doing so you can ponder your brainstorm. Instead, keep a notebook where you can record sudden inspirations to review at a more appropriate time.
- Take time to think. Set aside some time each day when you can forget about performing tasks and quietly focus on shaping your ideas.
- Conduct a weekly review. Bring the thinker and doer together each week to decide how to turn vision into reality. Review your ideas, then create action steps to ensure they come to fruition.

Take the risk of being creative

Creativity is a risky business. Your best ideas may get shot down—or never even make it into the air. If your worries are interfering with your ability to find creative solutions to problems, keep this advice in mind:

- Practice. Don’t wait for the pressure of a crisis to start flexing your creativity. Envision some possible scenarios where you’d have to think fast to find a solution. When real problems arise, you’ll be better prepared to deal with them.
- Seek feedback. Look for people who can help you evaluate your ideas fairly. They should challenge you, not just say, “Great idea!” This will help keep your thinking sharp.
- Take small risks. Get used to uncertainty by using your imagination when the risks are minimal. You’ll build confidence as you learn what works and what doesn’t.
- Search for data. Be on the lookout for all the information you can gather about the problem you’re trying to solve—and about your organization and industry. The more facts you have, the better the creative decisions you’ll make.

When you’re heartbroken, you’re at your most creative—you have to channel all your energies into something else to not think about it.

—Florence Welch

Did You Know That July is Also...

Independent Retailer Month. Support and celebrate independent retailers across the country. Independent Retailer Month encourages consumers to shop at independent retailers in their communities, highlighting their positive social and economic impact local, nationally, and globally.

National Black Family Month. During this month, African-American families celebrate their connection, common heritage, and commitment to one another. Families around the nation seek to implement positive changes, connect through old traditions, create new ones, and participate in activities that can be continued throughout the year.

Parks and Recreation Month. Sponsored by the National Recreation and Park Association, the leading nonprofit organization dedicated to the advancement of public parks, recreation and conservation. Discover wildlife and outdoor fun at your local park.

Captive Nations Week, July 7-13. A week aimed at raising public awareness of the oppression of nations under the control of Communist and other nondemocratic governments. Begun in 1953, it was signed into law by President Dwight D. Eisenhower in 1959.

Sports Cliché Week, July 10-16. It's time to celebrate—or possibly get rid of—such common sports clichés as “We’re taking it one game at a time,” “He gave 110 percent,” “Step it up,” and more.

National Zoo Keeper Week, July 17-23. Sponsored by the American Association of Zoo Keepers to advance excellence in the animal keeping profession, foster effective communication beneficial to animal care, support deserving conservation projects, and promote the preservation of our natural resources and animal life.

World UFO Day, July 2. Look to the skies for evidence of alien visitors.

Independence Day, July 4. Celebrate the birthday of the United States of America.

Global Forgiveness Day, July 7. Begun in 1994 to help people around the world identify with their personal need to forgive and be forgiven.

Space Exploration Day, July 20. Neil Armstrong and Edwin “Buzz” Aldrin first walked on the moon on this day in 1969.

World Ranger Day, July 31. Sponsored by the International Ranger Federation to celebrate the work rangers do to protect wildlife.

Advice from the A-List

Celebrities aren't necessarily smarter than the rest of us, but their success speaks for itself. Here's what they have to say about achieving success in any endeavor:

- Leonardo DiCaprio, actor: "I've been very lucky to have achieved a lot of the things that I dreamt of achieving as a young man. But at the end of the day—and I truly believe this—it is not about achieving great wealth or success, because they don't bring happiness ultimately. They really don't. What matters is whether or not you've fulfilled the idea of having led an interesting life, whether you've contributed in some way to the world around you."
- Beyoncé, singer: "The reality is, sometimes you lose. And you're never too good to lose, you're never too big to lose, you're never too smart to lose; it happens. And it happens when it needs to happen. And you have to embrace those things."
- Justin Timberlake, singer: "I like being a beginner. I like the moment where I can look at everyone and say, 'I have no idea how to do this. Let's figure it out.'"
- Chris Pine, actor: "Fear runs our lives. It doesn't matter who you are. You have to understand your relationship with fear. Whether you're scared of getting into a relationship or taking the new job or a confrontation—you have to size fear up."
- Ellen DeGeneres, talk show host: "Never follow anyone else's path, unless you're in the woods and lost and you see a path. Then, by all means, follow that path."

Succeed with kindness—and these kindly tips

Nice people can finish first. The key is knowing how to use kindness to your advantage. Practice these habits until they become second nature:

- First, be kind to yourself. You'll find being nice to others easier if you build your self-respect with positive thoughts about your personality and achievements.
- Treat everyone with respect. Don't worry about who's on top. Treat everyone the way you want to be treated, regardless of their position or job title.
- Say no when necessary. You can't do everything. But when you do say no, be polite and positive.
- Plant seeds of kindness. Do something nice every day even when your kindness may not have an immediate payoff.
- Complete this statement: "If I were a better person I would ____." Then act on it.

Stories to tell your grandkids

Most children enjoy hearing their grandparents tell stories. You can captivate your grandchildren for hours at a time with some of these tales that are certain to pique their interest:

- How their grandparents met. Did you meet your future wife in grade school? Did you initially dislike the man you eventually married? Children are often curious about how people in their lives ended up together—and they’ll like the joy they see in your eyes as you talk about your enduring love.
- The day their parents were born. Kids usually like hearing about their parents. Describe in detail what happened the day their father or mother was born: what time they came, what you were hearing, who helped out, and most important—how you felt.
- The day they were born. Do the same with a story about your grandchild’s birth. What preparations did you make? What did you expect? When did you first see your grandchild? What did he or she look like?
- School days. School has changed a lot since you were a child. Talk about what your typical day was like. Describe your favorite teacher. Discuss challenges you had. Tell children what life in a classroom was like without computers, DVDs, and other modern technology they take for granted.
- First jobs. Talk about the restaurant where you washed dishes, or the shop where you stocked shelves. Tell children about your best and worst bosses, experiences helping customers, and what you learned from each position.
- Proudest achievements. Think back to the moments in your life when you felt proud. You’ll teach your grandchildren to try hard, never quit, and take pride in their accomplishments.

The water cure

A man went to the doctor because he had no energy. After asking a few questions, the doctor wrote a series of prescriptions.

“Now,” she told the patient. “I want you to take the red pill with two glasses of water in the morning, the yellow pill with two glasses of water at lunch, and the green pill will three glasses of water before you go to bed.”

“Wow,” the man sighed. “What do the pills do?”

“Nothing. You’re not drinking enough water.”

Pacific weather may signal heat waves

We don't usually expect weather forecasters to predict temperatures more than a few days ahead of time, but some meteorologists think they may soon be able to forecast periods of extreme heat up to 50 days in advance.

According to the U.S. News & World Report website, when a certain Pacific Ocean region experiences an extreme mixture of temperatures (unusually warm in the south and unnaturally cold in the northeast), a condition called the Pacific Extreme Pattern signals the likelihood of a heat wave to one in four 50 days in advance, and one in two at 40 days. If true, such forecasts could help farmers, cities, and utilities plan for dangerous conditions.

White dwarf is one of its kind

Astronomers have located a white dwarf star that seemingly breaks the rules. A white dwarf is formed when a dying star flings off most of its gaseous body into space, leaving behind a hot, exposed core. Most retain an atmosphere of hydrogen and helium, with heavier elements like oxygen and carbon sinking deep to the center of what's left of the star.

But the Science News website reports that scientists have discovered a white dwarf in the Draco constellation, some 1,200 light-years away, with an atmosphere that's rich in oxygen—affording astronomers a clear look into the interior of the body that they haven't had before.

One theory is that another nearby star might have pulled gas—and mass—from the star as it decayed, leaving the oxygen behind. Another explanation is that a heavy layer of hydrogen might have triggered a massive thermonuclear explosion and ripped off the white dwarf's outer layers.

This is the only white dwarf of its kind observed so far—but exceptions can help scientists understand the rules behind how the universe runs.

We are trying to prove ourselves wrong as quickly as possible, because only in that way can we find progress.

—Richard Feynman

'Hobbits' older than thought

Scientists discovered ancient human fossils on the Indonesian Island of Flores more than 10 years ago and nicknamed the new species “hobbits” because of their diminutive size, about 3.5 feet tall. They believed these small humans (official name: homo floresiensis) lived about 18,000 years ago, or perhaps even later.

But according to an article in The Christian Science Monitor, the remains may be much older. Some scientists are now arguing that erosion made the fossils appear modern than they really are. Using such techniques as radiocarbon dating and uranium-series dating, they’ve determined that the fossils may be 60,000 to 100,000 years old. Artifacts made of stone discovered in the same area appear to be between 50,000 and 190,000 years old, pushing the date of the hobbits’ existence—and extinction—back further than previously thought.

Master the elements of successful innovation

Innovation is crucial to an organization’s long-term success. To help it take root, remember that successful innovation has these basic components:

- Imagination. Everyone on your team should be able to think creatively, find fresh solutions, make new connections, and take different approaches to everyday problems.
- Risk. Every new idea carries an element of risk. Don’t be reckless, but be ready to tolerate some uncertainty when you try something new.
- Work. Ideas won’t implement themselves. You and your co-workers should be prepared to do the hard work of bringing innovation to life.
- Optimism. You won’t always succeed, but you should maintain a sense of excitement and passion about every new idea. Some of them will work, feeding your desire to move on to the next project.

Creativity and insight almost always involve an experience of acute pattern recognition: the eureka moment in which we perceive the interconnection between disparate concepts or ideas to reveal something new.
