Shuffleboard Club News

Almost all of our regular shuffleboard members have now returned for the winter. We're happy to have them back and also welcome new player, Mary Holbrook who has joined the team. Any park residents who wish to shuffle on the teams are always welcome. Just contact any team member and indicate your desire to play.

Clair Sutherland & Robert Strang coordinated and chaired the annual Turkey Shoot Fun Shuffle in December. Many Hillcrest residents enjoyed shuffling around and through the obstacles on the courts in order to score. The turkeys for the winners were provided by Hillcrest Management. We thank the Management, Clair & Robert for another successful fun event. Also thanks to all the shuffleboard members who helped at the courts that day.

Our Big Ten League games began on Monday, November 12, 2018. "B" Team plays on Mondays and "A" Team plays on Wednesdays. After the first month of our 2018-2019 season, the "A" Team is in 5th place in the Big Ten League and our "B" Team is in 8th place. Keep up the good work teams, have fun, and enjoy meeting and socializing with many nice people from other parks!

Vice President Robert Strang, and Dick & Morna Rankin attended the Big Ten League Fall meeting November 16th at Embassy Park. Plaques were received for our team member winners who participated in the Big Ten Tournament in Clearwater in the spring. Ralph Webb & Robert Strang finished 3rd in the "A" Team Main Event. Roy Morgan & Fred Reynolds finished 2nd in the "B" Team Consolation Event. Congratulations to all for doing so well!

We continue to do a 50/50 split club raffle at each of our home games to raise extra funds to help cover expenses. Hope everyone continues to support this endeavor.

Fun Shuffles started in December and will continue every Friday @ 2:30 p.m. The cost is $1.00 per person and all park residents are welcome to come out and have some fun.

Social Club

We are about to embark on a new season of events. First up is the MEET YOUR NEIGHBOR party on December 1st. At this time we are planning on dinner to start around 6:00 p.m. and entertainment by JELVIS beginning at 7:30 p.m. Watch the memo boards and the bulletin board for more information. This is a free event, so plan on stopping by, even if only for a moment. Bring a neighbor, meet a neighbor and gain new friends.

Our first meeting will be on Friday, December 7th at 7:00 p.m. We will be discussing the upcoming season, forming committees, and asking for input on activities.

New officers will be elected in January and the nominating committee will be looking for candidates. Please consider volunteering for an office. Contact Carole Sutherland, Janet Boswell, or Jan Schuneman to volunteer or for more information.

New Year's Eve Party will be December 31st. Entertainment will be by 2 DOG NIGHT. Tickets will be available beginning the middle of December

Coffees will be held on December 8th and 22nd at 9:00 a.m. Bring your coffee cup, $1 and invite a neighbor. This is a way to find out what is going on with all the clubs.

Potluck

Potlucks are held on the 2nd and 4th Thursday of each month at 6:00 p.m. Occasionally there is a change in day for special events. We request that you sign up in the red book located in the clubhouse so there is enough entree for everyone. You need to bring your place setting and a side dish to share with the group. There is a sign up sheet available if you would like to be hostess of a potluck. The office provides money for the main dish and on the first Thursday an extra amount for a birthday cake to celebrate all birthdays of the month. Clean up help is always appreciated.

Shuffleboard Club News

Our 2018-2019 Big 10 League games began on Monday, November 12, 2018. "B" Team plays on Mondays and "A" Team plays on Wednesdays, except Thanksgiving Week when the games are played on Monday & Tuesday. We will continue doing a 50/50 Split Club Raffle at each home game to raise extra funds to help cover expenses. Hope everyone will support this endeavor.

Fun Shuffles will continue every week. Check the bulletin board for day & time. The cost is $1.00 per person and all park residents are welcome to come out and have some social fun.

Pinellas Senior Services

There comes a time when driving a car to get around is no longer an option. In today's mobile society this can be a huge inconvenience. This is where Pinellas Senior Services comes in. This is reliable door to door transportation. They will transport you to doctor or therapy appointments, including disability assistance throughout the trip. You can use their service to pick-up prescriptions or do grocery shopping or run other errands. You can schedule visits with friends, relatives, social or religious functions, and even entertainment events.

Pinellas Senior Services is more than Door to Door service. They understand that their services don't always end when they arrive at the destination. They are happy to stay and provide comfort, advocate services or just hold a friendly conversation while you wait for your appointment.

If this is a service that might be beneficial to you , call 727-417-1269 for more information and to make a reservation.

Social Club

Submitted by Pat Jones

The first meeting of the season was held on December 7th at 7:00 p.m. Upcoming events were discussed. New Years Eve tickets will be priced at $10 for members and $12 for non-members of the social club. Performers will be 2 Dog Night. It was suggested that we start now to find less expensive entertainment for this night.

The membership drive has started and several people volunteered to go door to door. So watch for these people: 1st street - Robert and Simonne, 4th - Juanita, 6th - Vera, 7th - Andree-Anne and Jeff, 11th - Pat W.

Please consider supporting the Social Club. We would love to see some of our newer residents attend our functions. Coming up in January is a yard sale (es, we need help to run this), a Dinner and music event. The following months feature Valentine's Day, St. Patrick's Day, Easter and an End of Season Party.

Coffee will now have a coordinator to run the Saturday morning event. The money involved will be audited at the same time as the Social Club books are audited. Carole S. has volunteered to handle the Coffees for this season. We will still need people to actually host the coffee. If you would like to be a hostess there is a sign up sheet at the front of the Red Book, located in the Clubhouse.

Potluck

Potlucks take place on the second and fourth Thursday of each month. The first potluck of the month features a birthday cake to celebrate all birthdays that month. We will need hosts for potlucks, there is a sign up sheet in the front of the Red Book located in the Clubhouse. As host the dinner menu is your choice. If there are specific sides you would like to see you can put the suggestions at the bottom of the sign up page.

When you attend a potluck you need to bring your place setting and a dish to share. Please do NOT plan on using the stove or microwave to heat your dish. The dish should be hot when you arrive. The hosts will be using the equipment in the kitchen to prepare the entree and need the space.

The office will supply the funds for the entree, with extra money on the first potluck of the month for the birthday cake.

All residents are welcome at potluck and we ask only that you sign up in the Red Book so we can be sure to have enough entree.

Meet Your Neighbor Party

This was the party to kick off the 2018 - 2019 winter season. Dinner was served at 5:00 p.m. and was prepared by Capogna's Dugout Restaurant. Turnout for the dinner was very good. Everyone enjoyed the meal. Following dinner was a basket raffle. Baskets for the raffle were donated by the following (alphabetical order): Janet and Dave Boswell, the Craft Club, the Friendship Club, Pat Jones, Andree-Anne and Jeff LaBella, Janet Lawrence, Jane and Skip Perley, Morna and Dick Rankin, Carol and Bob Rice, the Shuffleboard team, the Social Club, and Simonne and Robert Strang. People bought tickets and then deposited them in containers in front of each basket. A winner was chosen from each container. The following people were winners of the baskets (in alphabetical order): Jennifer Anthony, Pat Jones, Barb Morgan, Roy Morgan, Vera Murphy, Jane Perley, Morna Rankin, Carol Rice, Simonne Strang, Peter Tarpey, and Diane Welch. Some were multiple winners.

Following the basket raffle, the entertainment started. The evening's performer was "Jelvis." This performer was high energy and gave a very good performance.

Friendship Club

Submitted by Janet Boswell

Friendship Club's first meeting of this season was on November 20. There were 13 members in attendance. Lemonade, ice tea and muffins were served on the lanai due to renovations in the clubhouse. Menu for the Christmas luncheon was announced and will be lasagna, garlic bread, salad and dessert with croissant sandwiches available as an alternative. The luncheon will be on December 11 at 1:00 p.m. and anyone interested in coming will have to sign up in the red book inside the clubhouse. All are welcome and the meeting in January will be on the 15th and we hope to see you there!

The rest is history

This is the time of year we dream big, vow to make changes, create goals, and promise to transform into a new and improved version of ourselves. Then we allow life and other responsibilities, naysayers, doubt, and fear to veer us of course.

As you follow your bliss and explore your passions, draw inspiration from the following individuals who found success in spite of the odds against them:

- Fred Astaire. He sang and danced his way into our hearts on the silver screen, but his first audition for a major studio was a bomb. The executives were underwhelmed by his performance and offered this critique of Astaire: “Can’t act. Can’t sing. Slightly bald. Can dance a little.”
- Wayne Gretzky. Widely regarded as one of the greatest pro hockey players, Gretzky was considered too slow and too small at the start of his career. The popular opinion was he’d never be a success in the NHL.
- Sir John Gurdon. He is a pioneer in the fields of nuclear medicine, cloning, and cellular development. Among his many honors are a cancer research facility named in his honor and a Nobel Prize. Yet Gurdon finished last in his prep school biology class because his ideas about science were not aligned with the curriculum of that time.
- Im Dong-Hyen. This South Korean archer has won medals and set records. He even competed in the 2004, 2008, and 2012 Olympics—despite being legally blind.
- George Lucas. There wasn’t a single studio in Hollywood interested in Lucas’ script for Star Wars. He endured four years of rejection before an executive at 20th Century Fox decided to give Lucas a chance—not because he liked the script, but because he liked Lucas’s film American Graffiti.

What you know

A CEO was asked by a new hire for any words of wisdom that would be helpful in developing a successful career. “Never lose your sense of curiosity, and always be on the quest to learn something new,” was the executive’s reply.

“When I first started here,” the executive continued, “I never imagined that I would one day become the CEO. In fact, I wasn’t sure if the job I had was a good fit, so I worked in different departments over the course of a few years. Then I became curious, and everything I learned led me on a quest to learn more.

“I talked with the salespeople and learned about the market for our products. I toured the factories and saw how the products were assembled. I even traveled around the world to visit different vendors who supplied materials for everything we manufacture.

“Being successful,” the executive said, “is not about what you study or what you read or what you think. It’s about what you know.”

Coffee aids in kidney disease fight, study says

Among coffee's health benefits may be a reduced risk of death from kidney disease, according to the Healthline website.

A study recently written up in the journal Nephrology Dialysis Transplantation examined data from 4,863 Americans.

The subjects were divided into four groups. Group One consumed the amount of caffeine in one cup of iced tea per day. Group Two took caffeine equivalent to one cup of coffee per day. Group Three had one or two cups, and Group Four had multiple cups per day.

Subjects in Group Two, researchers found, had a 12 percent lower risk of dying from kidney disease. Group Three showed a 22 percent lower risk, and Group Four, which consumed the highest amount of caffeine per day, saw a 24 percent lower risk.

Scientists caution that caffeine poses other health risks, and patients on fluid-restricted diets should take coffee into account of their daily fluid intake. Cream, creamers, and syrups can also cause problems for people with kidney disease, including increased phosphorus and potassium levels. Check with your doctor, as always.

Water might help reduce women's UTIs

Women who suffer from frequent urinary tract infections (UTIs) may find relief by simply drinking more water, an article on the WebMD website advises.

A yearlong study in Europe followed 140 premenopausal women who experienced recurring UTIs at high rates. At the beginning, the subjects drank less than six eight-ounce glasses of water per day. As the year went on, half the participants drank slightly more than six glasses, while the rest kept to the same regimen.

Researchers found a significant reduction of UTIs among the women who drank more water per day. The average number of UTIs among subjects in the first group was 3.2, but dropped to 1.7 for women whose water intake increased.

“Drinking more water to improve one’s health is probably safe and, if tap is used, pretty inexpensive,” said one doctor (who was not involved in the study). “Producing additional urine—and thus increasing voiding frequency—may raise one’s awareness of the importance of keeping the bladder as empty as possible, which can help reduce UTIs.”

3 ways to persuade your teens to give back

Some high schools require students to complete a certain number of community service hours before graduation, but if you are raising your teens to be generous and thoughtful individuals, stressing the importance of giving back should be taught at home as well. Here are three ways you can help your teen cultivate a spirit of generosity and a willingness to serve:

- Make it a family affair. Be the example of stewardship you'd like your teens to follow. Find an organization or a cause that the entire family can get involved with and participate in together.
- Let them decide. Your teens might have a service project in mind that they want explore. Support them in their efforts. Their ideas are being shaped by their interests and experiences. Your encouragement at this crucial stage in their development will help to validate their sense of self-worth and provide an additional boost of motivation.
- Even small gestures count. Raising money for charity or volunteering a couple of hours a week at a food bank are great ways to give back. So, too, are neighborly deeds such as shoveling out an elderly neighbor's driveway or pulling their trash cans out to the curb. Teach your teens never to overlook small ways they can make a difference.

A New Year's resolution for fiscal fitness

Most New Year's resolutions revolve around getting fit. Although that frequently means losing weight, one area you want to fatten up is your money supply. Here are some simple resolutions for adding some healthy heft to your overall financial profile:

- Pay down your mortgage. You can save more than $63,000 on a 30-year, $200,000 mortgage by paying just $100 more a month.
- Save 10 percent. Put aside 10 percent of your income for long-term investments and retirement savings before paying any bills.
- Track your expenses. Record every dollar you spend, for at least one week. You'll get a clearer idea of where the money goes and what you can cut back on.
- Energize your house. Look for ways to make your house more energy efficient. You'll save on heating and cooling costs and help the environment.
- Stay home. Resist the temptation to eat out. Cook more meals at home. Instead of going to the movies, stream a video, read a book, or play a game with your whole family.
- Don't rely on credit cards. Credit card debt can eat up your savings and your future. Start reducing your debt, and don't buy anything on credit if you don't have the money to pay the bill off promptly.

Save money at the grocery store

You have to eat—there's no getting around it for long. You don't have to sink all your money into your next trip to the grocery store, though. The Reader's Digest website shares these tips for saving money on groceries:

- Know your store's coupon policies. Many stores offer their own printable coupons on their websites. Some allow you to use that coupon with a manufacturer's coupon (that's called "stacking"). Ask your store what it allows and what's off-limits.
- Join loyalty programs. You can get discounts and money back on your purchases through your store's loyalty program. Sign up and check all the rules so you get maximum value from it.
- Look for final markdowns and clearances. Many grocery stores place clearance items in a designated area, or use special stickers to help shoppers identify them. Find out what your store does, and keep an eye open for food you can use.
- Be careful with multiples. They can trick you into spending more than you want. For example, if a sign on a bag of chips says "Two for $5," and a single bag of chips is $3.29, you're getting a good deal (if you want chips). On the other hand, a sign that promises "10 for $10" for ramen noodles when they're individually priced at $1 apiece isn't offering any savings. Do the math, and be choosy.

Many folks think they aren't good at earning money, when what they don't know is how to use it.

—Frank A. Clark

Monthly

Financial Wellness Month. Are you saving enough for retirement? Are you saving at all? Will you owe the IRS money this year toward your 2018 taxes? What are your financial goals for 2019? These are just a few of the questions to ask yourself while you review your spending habits and determine your preparedness for any "rainy days" ahead.

Get a Balanced Life Month. It's the start of a new year. Use this new beginning as time to review, reconsider, streamline—and maybe even eliminate—the unnecessary commitments, responsibilities, and activities that fill your days.

Get Organized Month. It's cold outside, and more than likely you're spending more time indoors fretting that there's nothing to do. Here's an idea: Don't wait for spring to purge your work and living spaces of unnecessary clutter and unused or unwanted items. There's no better time than the present to restore a sense of order to your life.

Learn to Ski and Snowboard Month. If saying "yes" to new adventures tops your to-do list this year, why not start things off right by developing your ski legs? Go online to learntoskiandsnowboard.org to find information on destinations, deals, and other considerations.

Weekly

Someday We'll Laugh About This Week, Jan. 2-8. Don't let the failures and embarrassments of the past continue to cast a shadow over you. Laugh and get over it. Let someday be now.

Sugar Awareness Week, Jan. 14-18. Has your daily consumption of sugar gotten out of control? Are you ready to do something about it? Take the challenge and give up sugar for five days. To learn more, visit <http://sugarawareness.com/>

No Name Calling Week, Jan. 21-25. Educators and students in K-12 schools, along with nonprofit partner organizations, focus on themes of inclusion, anti-bullying, and anti-discrimination this week to promote kindness as the guide of actions and conversations with peers. To learn more, go to <https://www.glsen.org/no-name-calling-week>

Hunt for Happiness Week, Jan. 20-26. The Secret Society of Happy People wants you to find your joy and be on the lookout for others doing the same this third full week of January. Visit <https://sohp.com/> for ideas and challenges that will help you get happy.

Trading places

A world-famous scientist was being driven to a university where he was scheduled to give a lecture. During the drive he complained to his chauffeur: "I'm not sure how much longer I can do this. I'm so bored with giving the same lecture at every campus we visit."

"I have an idea," said the driver. "I've been listening from the back of the room each time you've given this lecture. I know the material pretty well. Why don't we trade places today? I'll take your notes and give your speech, and you can sit in the back of the room and observe."

"I'll take you up on that offer," replied the scientist. Before they arrived at their destination, the pair pulled into a rest area and traded clothes. The scientist then drove the rest of the way while the driver sat in the backseat reviewing the lecture notes.

The driver was able to pull off the lecture with no one in the audience aware of the deception. Several minutes into the Q&A portion of the presentation a student asked a rather complicated question. The scientist began to panic. This was something they hadn't anticipated.

Yet the driver, standing confidently at the podium, maintained his composure as he said, "The answer to that question is so simple, I'm going to let my driver, seated in the back of the room, answer that."

Congratulations!

Four expectant fathers are nervously pacing around the hospital waiting area. A nurse comes into the room and says to the first man, "Congratulations! You have twins!"

"That's interesting," the new father says. "I work for the Minnesota Twins."

The nurse returns a short time later and says to the second man, "Congratulations! You are the proud father of triplets."

"That's interesting," says the man. "I work for 3M."

Another nurse walks into the room and says to the third man, "Congratulations! Your wife just had quadruplets, and all of the babies are beautiful and healthy."

"That's interesting," says the man. "I work for the Four Seasons."

The fourth man in the room buries his face in his hands and begins to sob loudly.

One of the fathers asks, "Hey, buddy, what's wrong?"

The man composes himself momentarily and replies, "I work for 7-Up."
