From The President

Kathy Bornick

Many of you will be heading back up North to your summer homes. Please remember to fill out your departure slips at the office before you leave and include who is taking care of your property while you are away.

Have a safe and healthy summer. We look forward to your return

From The Office

Pat Merl, LCAM

VOLO VILLAGE: Over the next few weeks, the office will be mailing letters to residents that will provide log in and password information for the Volvo Village Communication System. This letter will tell you how to log yourself into the website. Once you have logged in, you will be able to edit or add whatever contact information you wish, to your personal record.

Please be sure to verify that your information is complete and correct. Initially, the only information that will be entered into your personal record is the information listed in the Park directory. It will be up to you to enter your email address and any other method of communication you would like to provide with which to contact you.

Most importantly, please rest assured that any information you enter into your Volo Village record is strictly confidential. There is no way anyone can go into your record without having your log in and password. Needless to say, you should not provide this information to anyone, unless you are sure it won't be passed on to anyone else.

Should you have further questions, once you have visited the Volo Village website, please feel free to contact me at the Park office (727-393-5916) Monday through Friday from 9 AM to 1 PM and I will be happy to answer them.

I've enjoyed personally meeting so many of you over the past few months. Spring is on its way and it's time for many of you to return to your northern homes for the summer. Have fun, take care, and I'll see you next season!

FRIENDLY REMINDERS:

PETS: We are still having issues with pet owners who fail to curb and clean up after their pets. As per the Rules and Regulations, Pet owners are responsible for cleaning up after their pets immediately and at all times. Failure to do so is a violation of this rule.

As March winds begin to blow, activities began fun and informative programs. We enjoyed seeing a number of residents joining with us to go over all of our things going on this month. We hope we can touch on different programs to bring more of our new and old residents to their clubhouse.

We were fortunate to engage a duo called Frank and Dean. Over 140 people joined us on March 12th to a great performance! Thanks Tom and Eva.

Karen Truman graced our stage on March 13th with her expertise on dementia. We had 35 to listen to an interesting and informative talk.

The wearing of the green for our St. Patrick's Day dance was very enjoyable with a few surprises as only the Walls and their crew can provide. Danny Helou entertained us with his special talents.

Doug Brown has organized our garage sale on March 24th. Thanks Doug! Hope all our participating residents do well.

Thanks to Joanne Collis for leading our ladies with some water aerobics. Come join the group on Wednesday and Friday at 10. Good exercise and if nothing else we exercise our jaws.

Watch a-frames for April's activities including pancake breakfast on April 7th, fashion show on April 10th and luau on April 15th.

GOLF: HOLIDAY CHIPPERS

Mark, Shirley, Diane, and Priscilla

On a beautiful Saturday in February twenty-two golfers came out to show their putting skills. Dave Crosman came in 151 for the men with 17 putts. There was a three way playoff for 2nd and 3rd places, with 18 putts each. Jim Barton came in 2nd and Dave Harrison was 3rd •• For the ladies, Merrill Morrissey was 151 with 18 putts. Linda Dunn was 2nd with 19 putts. There was a playoff for 3rd between Jan Harrison and Pat Knight. Jan was the winner Barry Talley won the mystery hole and Dave Nichols is $10.00 richer because he won the hole-in-one contest.

The 50-50 raffle had two lucky winners. Oscar Kinyon and Jim Keady each received $32.00 each.

We welcome anyone in the park to come out and enjoy this event, which is the third Saturday of the month. Dues, which is $2.00, was due in January, and can be paid when you sign up to putt.

For all you newcomers, there will be hot dogs, done by our chef, Bill Wall, and drinks for you to purchase. We also have beer, for a reasonable donation, available, too. There is a 50/50 draw and who knows you may be a lucky winner.

Golf is $1.00 to play and if you haven't paid your dues for this year, it must be paid in order to win any prize. For your dollar you putt for nine holes, have a hole-in-one contest, and a mystery hole.

Looking forward to seeing many our residents showing off your putting skills. We do have equipment for you to use.

See you on the putting green. Priscilla Donegan

Theater

David Middleton

The Phantom – You Can Kiss My Mask, this year's production from the Way Off Broadway Theatre Group, hit the stage on March 5, 6 and 7th and from the reviews by those who saw it, the show was a huge success. The cast and crew put in many hours of hard work and Director David Middleton would like to thank each and everyone associated with the show for all their efforts. The cast included: Rose Maiolino, Peggy Wallace, Peggy Beane, David Helms, Linda Dunn, Lyne Barton, Ruth Kredovski, Bill Close, Vickie Nichols, George Novak, David Middleton, Nita Anderson, Ken Abkemeier, and Phoebe Garrett. Anna Martorana was Stage Manager with Julie Pion and Judy Garneau as Production Assistants. Behind-the-scenes help included Dave and Jean Crosman on lights with Bob Fuller running spotlight, Jim Russell on Sound with Karen Raineri and Lorna Langford helping backstage. Many thanks to Dianne Wall for organizing the ushers: Eva Domen, Mary Fuller, Marilyn Handy, Sue Mesarich, Tom Moffatt, Dave Nichols, Pat Osentoski, Joan Taylor, Carolyn Trotter and Ken Trotter. Concessions were coordinated by Jim Barton, Anne and George Belanger. Karen Raineri and Tammy Prochaska sold the tickets and did a marvelous job.

Our next meeting is scheduled for Tuesday, April 3 at 2 pm in the home of David Helms and David Middleton. We will be planning our events for next season and any help or suggestions will be welcome.

Below is a review of the show from Sharon Price, one of the editorial contributors to The Theatre Grapevine Publication. Sharon and Grapevine Publisher, Dee Crews, were in the audience on Wednesday, March 7, 2018.

"We have discovered where Elvis lives! Right here! Yes! Elvis is in our midst - he is our own mild mannered (think Clark Kent) David Middleton by day, and by night he is the devious and scoundrel"ish" Phantom of the Paris Opera. He has, with amazing skill, transformed 13 unassuming Holiday Shores Park residents into brash, skillful, sexy rascals. Bound together by their desire to perform at the Paris Opera, they bravely wore beautiful and sometimes comical costumes, sang witty and often scathingly true lyrics to each other and their joyful audience. Fun and laughter was unavoidable! Bonking of heads on a box of broken chandelier was unavoidable! But I digress...Our hero, Rollan Encash was handsome and debonair, our heroine, Pristine Déjà Vu was a sweet and (sorta') innocent beauty, Hedda Highnote (a lady with a snake), Madame Vermin, (a woman hungry for success - and money), Madame Goth, (of the sultry, Greta Garbo accent), Megatha Goth, (does she really dance like that?) Ima Extra, (extra, extra, read all about what she did) Inspector Clueless, (Ooo, those merry, Irish eyes), Carlotta Ricotta (what a good sport she is - just ask her about the horse!) Buffet Banquet (quit dropping the chandelier!), and the others so insultingly referred to as Supporting Characters (they did way more than support!) so endearingly gave the audience one heck of a rousing good time. OH! Did I forget Elvis? Never happen! That skillful ability to convince others of their hidden comedic talents, the dedication to creating a masterpiece of laughter and wit, the genius of costume ideas and a magnificent wig cannot be forgotten or denied; The Phantom, a.k.a., Elvis, a.k.a. David Middleton is, bar none, our true HERO. Kudos to all associated with this very entertaining production. YOUR AUDIENCES LOVE YOU!" – Sharon Price

Shuffleboard News

Priscilla Donegan

The shuffleboard courts have really been busy the past few weeks. So nice to see so many of our residents participating in this event. During the month of March we had our annual shuffleboard tournament and also the blind shoot at the picnic. The results will be reported in next months media.

Since the last article, we have lost one of our shuffleboard players, Carole Wagner. She will be missed and our thoughts & prayers go out to Skip & Carole's families.

We invite anyone to join us on Monday, Wednesday, or Friday at 1:00 for an afternoon of fun. There is equipment for you to use and anyone of the members would be happy to help you. It's a great way to meet your neighbors and make new friends.

For those of you who will be traveling North for the summer, safe travels, and have a great summer.

NOTES ON MUSICAL WEDNESDAY

If you saw our play "PHANTOM ..... YOU CAN KISS MY MASK" you heard one definition of "A flat and B sharp.

Come out and prepare to be amazed, hear another definition of" A flat and B sharp.

If you play an instrument, sing or enjoy tapping your toe to good music, come and join in for a fun afternoon 12:00 to 3:00 pm

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word – the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

Burn and extinguish candles safely

Whether you enjoy candles for a romantic dinner or holiday celebration, you should handle them carefully. The National Candle Association says to properly put out a candle's flame, hold your finger in front of the flame and blow at it. The air will flow around the finger and extinguish the candle from both sides, preventing hot wax from splattering.

Other tips for candle keeping and use:

- Never leave a burning candle unattended.
- Keep lighted candles out of the reach of children and pets.
- Keep burning candles away from combustible materials like drapes.
- Store candles in a cool, dark, dry place.
- Before using, light and extinguish the candles so they burn better.
- Avoid drafts to prevent rapid, uneven burning or excessive dripping.
- Keep wicks trimmed to one-half inch.
- To remove wax from fabrics, scrape off excess and run boiling water through the material.
- Remove wax from holders by running hot water over them.
- Candles refrigerated before use will burn more slowly and evenly.
- Extinguish candles when they get within 2 inches of the bottom.

Walk safely in traffic

Now that spring is here and walking is more manageable in milder weather, here are some reminders about walking safely along busy streets:

- Stay on the sidewalk and crosswalks. If you can't avoid walking on roads with no crosswalks or sidewalks, walk facing traffic.

- Cross at intersections. Most people are hit by cars when they cross the road at places other than intersections. Make sure you stop at the curb. This signals to drivers that you intend to cross.

- Stay out of the driver's blind spot. Make eye contact with drivers when you cross busy streets.

Did you know that April is also...

Alcohol Awareness Month. Since 1987, the National Council on Alcoholism and Drug Dependence has focused on raising awareness of the struggles associated with alcoholism during April. Go to QuitAlcohol.com to learn more.

 Autism Awareness Month. With one in 68 children in the United States diagnosed with Autism Spectrum Disorder, the focus of this month is to educate the public in an effort to foster an atmosphere of acceptance and understanding in our society.

National Garden Month. Grow herbs in a window box, plant flowers that will attract the butterflies and bees, or cultivate a melon patch on a vertical grid. There's still time to plan what you will grow in your garden this year.

National Humor Month. Laughter truly is the best medicine, so why not strengthen your funny bone? Visit HumorMonth.com to find projects and resources that will help bring the laughter.

National Poetry Month. Reading a poem each day is one of the 30 ways the Academy of American Poets suggests you celebrate poetry this month. To learn more, visit Poets.org.

National Library Week, April 8-14. If you haven't been to your local library in a while, you're missing out on all of the free yet valuable resources they provide to your community. Visit a branch this week to learn all of the ways "Libraries Lead," which is the theme of this year's campaign.

National Volunteer Week, April 15-21. Let a cause near and dear to your heart inspire you to take action. Go to AllForGood.org to find a service project in your area and get involved this week.

Week of the Young Child, April 16-20. The National Association for the Education of Young Children shines a spotlight on the importance of early childhood education. Go to NAEYC.org to find out what you can do to engage the little ones in your life.

World Immunization Week, April 24-30. "Protected Together, #Vaccines Work" is the message the World Health Organization is sharing to remind individuals and governments that fatal yet preventable diseases are an all-too-common reality for more than 19 million children throughout the world.

Earth Day, April 22. Since 1970, people around the world have focused on issues that affect our planet. The theme of this year's campaign is "End Plastic Pollution." Go to Earth-Day.org to find out how you can be an environmental steward.

Start thinking green this spring

Most of us can do a lot better when it comes to being ecofriendly. Here are two areas where we can improve upon our good intentions while we lessen our negative impact on the environment:

• Recycling. It's great if you always throw your empty soda cans and water bottles in the recycle bin, but are there other items you are overlooking? If your municipality has a recycling program they probably have a set of guidelines posted online that explains what they accept and how you should prepare those items for disposal. Even though that peanut butter jar is marked as being recyclable, it might be considered garbage if traces of peanut butter are still in it. Find out what you need to know and make a commitment to recycle as much as possible, properly.

• The brown bag lunch. Embrace sustainability when you take your lunch to work by eliminating the amount of disposable products you use. Carry your lunch in a cloth sack, bento box, or small basket. Pack food in glass, metal, or some other kind of reusable containers. Swap out paper napkins with cloth napkins, and plastic straws with metal ones. Consider keeping a coffee mug and set of flatware at your desk in an effort to generate less waste.

A broadband of conservation

In 1989, attorney and activist Susan Tixier mobilized a group of “mature” women on a hike through Utah’s Grand Staircase-Escalante. Most of them were already involved in wilderness preservation efforts, but their goal was to discuss conservation issues surrounding many of the U.S. national monuments and make sure that the voices of older Americans were represented in that conversation.

A member of a passing group of hikers saw them and said, “What a bunch of great old broads!”

On that day, Tixier and her colleagues decided to officially call themselves “Great Old Broads for Wilderness.” Since then they’ve grown their membership to 8,000 across 38 “Broadbands” nationwide.

The group advocates for issues affecting the environment and wilderness protection causes. Their ranks include “Young Broads,” and men of all ages, “Bros.” They host “Broadwalks” where they dedicate a day of stewardship to an area, address conservation issues there, and spend time hiking and exploring.

Visit GreatOldBroads.org to learn more about the Broadbands and the work they are doing.
