WHEN TREATING A HEART ATTACK OR STROKE, TIME IS OF THE ESSENCE. EVEN DURING THESE TIMES.

Don't hesitate when it comes to getting emergency treatment.

Even during a pandemic, you still need to be treated immediately if you have an emergency. Debating whether or not to risk going to an emergency room during a heart attack, stroke or other health emergency—waiting even a few extra minutes—could be harmful. That's why in all BayCare hospital emergency rooms, patients who have symptoms of COVID-19 are isolated from other patients. This helps keep emergency room patients and our team members safe. So if it's an emergency, don't wait. For more information: BayCareEmergencyCare.org

Thank You

George and Lessie Brown would like to thank everyone who helped make their 70th Wedding anniversary so very special.

They were touched by all the cards and the lovely parade in their honor.

Thank you so much. HMHP is a special place with wonderful friends and neighbors!

Saturday Morning Bike Ride

Larry Hoffman would like to invite one and all to join the Saturday morning bike ride to Dunedin. Meet in front of the clubhouse at 8:30am and enjoy a leisurely ride on the Pinellas Trail to historic downtown Dunedin and back.

Or, how about joining the bowlers? Everybody is welcome to join in, Wednesday mornings at 9:00am at the Dunedin Lanes, 405 Patricia Ave. in Dunedin. The rates are reasonable, and you don't have to be a great bowler. It's just a lot of fun. If you need a ride, get in touch with Dale Wittig.

Thank You

Dave and I would like to thank everyone who welcomed us back for the winter when we arrived on October 31st. As we were unloading the car, about 10 golf carts came down the street honking and waving; made us feel real special!

Tom Lenard shares this story:

A Priest was about to finish his ten-year tour of duty and was leaving his Mission in the jungle where he has spent years teaching the natives about the Bible and Christian values, in their own language, when he realizes that the one thing he never really taught them was how to speak English.

He reasons that the most efficient way to encourage the tribe to learn would be to give a crash course to the smartest man in the village and to leave an English Bible with him. So he takes the chief, whom he had befriended, for a walk in the forest. He points to a tree and says to the chief, "This is a tree."

The chief looks at the tree and grunts, "Tree."

The Priest is pleased with the response.

They walk a little further and he points to a rock and says, "This is a rock."

The chief looks and grunts, "Rock."

The Priest was getting quite enthusiastic about the results when he hears a rustling in the bushes. As they peek over the scrub bushes, they see a couple of natives in the midst of heavy sexual activity. The Priest is really embarrassed and flustered. Not knowing what else to do he quickly says, "Man riding a bike."

The chief looks at the couple briefly, pulls out his blowgun and kills them both right in front of the Priest.

The Priest goes ballistic and yells at the chief that he has spent years teaching the tribe the virtues of Christianity, the Ten Commandments, the Golden Rule, and how to be civilized and kind to each other. So how on God's green Earth could he kill these people in cold blood that way?

And the chief replies, "My bike."

Enjoy your day and remember to keep off the main roads when riding somebody else's bicycle!

Aluminum Cans

Good news on the can-crushing dilemma—Dale Wittig and Larry Hoffman have volunteered to take over the task. So continue to save your aluminum cans and deposit them in the clearly marked receptacles by the pool, in the clubhouse and by the trash bins. Contact Larry or Dale if you would be willing to help out once in a while. It is an easy way to make money for the association, and that is helping to pay for our free Thanksgiving dinner this year.

Veterans Day Parade

November 11th was another interesting day in the up-side-down year of 2020. Instead of the annual golf cart parade honoring our veterans, we were all hunkered down waiting for the rain and wind from tropical storm Eta to go away. She did move on and the sun came out again, and the Veterans Day parade was held on (gasp) Friday the 13th!! We Honey-mooners do love a parade!

Poem

Long ago and far away, in a land that time forgot,
Before the days of Dylan, or the dawn of Camelot.
There lived a race of innocents, and they were you and me,

For Ike was in the White House in that land where we were born.
Where navels were for oranges, and Peyton Place was porn.
We longed for love and romance, and waited for our Prince,
Eddie Fisher married Liz, and no one's seen him since.
We danced to 'Little Darlin,' and sang to 'Stagger Lee'
And cried for Buddy Holly in the Land That Made Me, Me.
Only girls wore earrings then, and 3 was one too many,
And only boys wore flat-top cuts, except for Jean McKinney.
And only in our wildest dreams did we expect to see
A boy named George with Lipstick, in the Land That Made Me, Me.

We fell for Frankie Avalon, Annette was oh, so nice,
And when they made a movie, they never made it twice.
We didn't have a Star Trek Five, or Psycho Two and Three,
Or Rocky-Rambo Twenty in the Land That Made Me, Me.

Miss Kitty had a heart of gold, and Chester had a limp,
And Reagan was a Democrat whose co-star was a chimp.
We had a Mr. Wizard, but not a Mr. T,
And Oprah couldn't talk yet, in the Land That Made Me, Me.
We had our share of heroes, we never thought they'd go,
At least not Bobby Darin, or Marilyn Monroe.
For youth was still eternal, and life was yet to be,
And Elvis was forever in the Land That Made Me, Me.

We'd never seen the rock band that was Grateful to be Dead,
And Airplanes weren't named Jefferson, and Zeppelins were not Led.
And Beatles lived in gardens then, and Monkeys lived in trees,
Madonna was Mary in the Land That Made Me, Me.

We hadn't seen enough of jets to talk about the lag,
And microchips were what was left at the bottom of the bag.
And hardware was a box of nails, and bytes came from a flea,
And rocket ships were fiction in the Land That Made Me, Me.

T-Birds came with portholes, and side shows came with freaks,
And bathing suits came big enough to cover both your cheeks.
And Coke came just in bottles, and skirts below the knee,
And Castro came to power near the Land That Made Me, Me.

We had no Crest with Fluoride, we had no Hill Street Blues,
We had no patterned pantyhose or Lipton herbal tea
Or prime-time ads for those dysfunctions in the Land That Made Me, Me.

There were no golden arches, no Perrier to chill,
And fish were not called Wanda, and cats were not called Bill.
And middle-aged was 35 and old was forty-three,
And ancient were our parents in the Land That Made Me, Me.

But all things have a season, or so we've heard them say,
And now instead of Maybelline we swear by Retin-A.
They send us invitations to join AARP,
We've come a long way, baby, from the Land That Made Me, Me.

So now we face a brave new world in slightly larger jeans,
And wonder why they're using smaller print in magazines.
And we tell our children's children of the way it used to be,
Long ago and far away in the Land That Made Me, Me.

We'd never heard of microwaves, or telephones in cars,
And babies might be bottle-fed, but they were not grown in jars.
And pumping iron got wrinkles out, and 'gay' meant fancy-free,
And dorms were never co-Ed in the Land That Made Me, Me.

We hadn't seen enough of jets to talk about the lag,
And microchips were what was left at the bottom of the bag.
And hardware was a box of nails, and bytes came from a flea,
And rocket ships were fiction in the Land That Made Me, Me.

Sad News

Cases of Covid-19 are rising all over the country, but I have been fortunate not to have been affected by it, until now. In October four couples we know met for dinner at a restaurant. Shortly after, two couples came down with the virus. Three of the people recovered, but Jim had trouble breathing, so went to the hospital, where he spent the last 3 weeks of his life in ICU. The last 2 weeks he was on a respirator, in an induced coma, no chance for a hug, or to say goodbye. He passed away in the early morning hours of November 12th. He is my age, with other health issues, so they had been pretty careful about being out with other people. But..... I urge you all to keep on taking precautions. Wear your mask and wash your hands and keep your distance. This deadly virus is not done with the world yet.

The Night Before Christmas in Florida

'Twas the night before Christmas and all though the town,
no noses were frozen, no snow fluttered down.
No children in flannels were tucked into bed;
they all wore their shorty pajamas instead.
To make wreaths of holly, it wasn't too hard,
for holly trees grew in most every back yard.
In front of the houses were daddies and moms
adorning the fruit trees and coconut palms.
The slumbering kiddies were dreaming in glee,
in hopes they'd find water skis under the tree.
They all knew that Santa was well on his way,
in a shiny red sports car, instead of a sleigh.
He zipped up the highways and zoomed down the road.
He drove with the top down, delivering his load.
He raced through the night in the balmy, salt air.
Like tourists in Florida, he had not a care.
The tropical moon gave the cities a glow,
and lighted the way for old Santa below.
As he jumped from the auto he gave a wee chuckle.
He was dressed in Bermudas with a Disney World buckle.
He paused on the lawn to take in the night,
and marveled at the twinkling of thousands of lights.
Each house and been dressed to welcome him in;
it warmed his old heart to be treated like kin.
There weren't any chimneys, but that caused him no gloom;
Santa came in through the Florida room.
He stepped into the house, but stayed only a minute,
to empty his sack of stuff that was in it.
Before he departed, he treated himself to a big glass of orange juice left on a shelf.
He turned with a smile and dashed to the car.
He'd made only half his deliveries so far!
He shifted the gears and stepped on the gas,
and up U.S.19 he went like a flash.
And I heard him exclaim as he went on his way,
"Merry Christmas y'all, I wish I could stay!"
from Ruth Cote
