Decorations

Once again our park has been beautifully decorated for the Christmas season. Thanks to Linda Rennie and Heather Murrin for all their work. They buy the materials to make the beautiful bows that they then place on the fence leading into the park and at the clubhouse. They decorate two trees in the clubhouse. This is the first year that none of the decorations disappeared over the summer!

Fantastic job, girls!

The Newfoundlanders and The Albertans

One morning, three Newfoundlanders and three Albertans were in a ticket counter line at a train station. The three Albertans each bought a ticket and watched as the three Newfies bought just one ticket.

'How are the three of you going to travel on only one ticket?' asked one of the Albertans.

'Be watchin and learnin,' answered one of the Newfies.

All six boarded the train where the three Albertans sat down, but the three Newfies crammed into a toilet together and closed the door. Shortly after the train departed, the conductor came around to collect tickets.

He knocked on the toilet door and said, 'Ticket, please.'

The door opened just a crack and a single arm emerged with a ticket in hand. The conductor took it and moved on.. The Albertans saw this happen and agreed it was quite a clever idea. Indeed, so clever they decided to do the same thing on the return trip and save some money.

That afternoon when they got back to the station, they bought a single ticket for the return trip and watched, while to their astonishment, the three Newfies didn't buy even one ticket!

'How are you going to travel without a ticket?' asked a perplexed Albertan. 'Be watchin and learnin,' answered the three Newfie boys in unison.

When they boarded the train, the three Albertans crammed themselves into a toilet and the three Newfies crammed into another toilet just down the way. Shortly after the train began to move, one of the Newfies left the toilet and walked over to the toilet in which the Albertans were hiding.

The Newfie knocked on the door and said, 'Ticket, please.'

Thanks, Carolyn Carr for sharing this story.

Pinellas Trail Pedestrian Bridge

Finally, work has begun on the Pinellas Trail pedestrian bridge over Alt U.S. 19 and Orange Street, right outside our back gate.

The pedestrian bridge was closed in September of 2017 because of excessive rusting of the steel trusses. The old trusses have been removed and the new ones have been lifted into place. Concrete decks will be poured in early January, and the work should be completed by mid-February.

This work was done from 9:00PM to 5:00AM from December 3rd through 5th. I heard from a reliable source that some residents at the north end of Honeymoon MHP gathered around a campfire to keep watchful eyes on the work, until 2 in the morning!

It will be great to have the bridge open again, because it's closure has made leaving from our back gate quite hazardous.

Bake Sale

Donna Hill is planning another bake sale to benefit Doug and Barb Hendricks. It will be mid-January, so watch the bulletin boards for specific information. Save your money and dust off your baking sheets! Let's make this bake sale as successful as the last one!

Breakfast

The breakfast crew is back! Gus and Kathleen, Rick and Kathleen, Ken and Marie, and Guy and Claudette have returned and are ready to start serving their tasty repast. The first will be Saturday January 12. They plan to work their magic the second Saturday of February, March, and maybe April.

They do a great job, and we look forward the culinary delights.!

Entertainment

Rick Kerwin has lined up some parties with live music! Tangent Singing Duo will be performing at our clubhouse January 11th. Rick has tickets, please check the bulletin boards for further information.

The Duo will return February 8th and March 8th.

BBQ

Sunday, January 20th, Bud Newman is going to fire up his new smoker and serve up BBQ pork from 5:00pm to 7:00pm. This will be his third annual BBQ!

Helping Out

Many park residents have been finding ways to raise money to help out with Doug and Barb Hendricks' expenses. Anyone who would like to donate can send money to the family, or they have set up a Go-Fund-Me page. In addition, be sure to purchase baked goodies at the January bake sale. Karen Briggs has put together two lovely gift baskets that she has sold chances for, with the proceeds going to the family. Martha Howarth was the most recent winner at Kaffee Klatch December 6th.

Karen and Dale getting ready to pick a winner

Karen promises a really great item coming up soon! And I wouldn't be surprised if more gift baskets will be coming along.

Karen and friends are planning a Casino Night on Friday, January 18th to benefit the Hendricks. Be sure to check it out!

Deep Thoughts – Why we shoot deer in the wild.

Dave Richards brought me a "story" that was in the November issue of Gulf Coast Motor Sports paper.

Deep Thoughts – Why we shoot deer in the wild.

I had this idea that I could rope a deer, put it in a stall, feed it up on corn for a couple of weeks, then kill it and eat it. The first step in this adventure was getting a deer. I figured that, since they congregate at my cattle feeder and do not seem to have much fear of me when we are there (a bold one will sometimes come right up and sniff at the bags of feed while I am in the back of the truck, not 4 feet away), it should not be difficult to rope one, get up to it and toss a bag over its head (to calm it down) then hog tie it and transport it home.

I filled the cattle feeder then hid down at the end with my rope. The cattle, having seen the roping thing before, stayed well back. They were not having any of it. After about 20 minutes, my deer showed up—3 of them. I picked out a likely looking one, stepped out from the end of the feeder, and threw my rope. The deer just stood there and stared at me. I wrapped the rope around my waist and twisted the end so I would have a good hold.

The deer still just stood and stared at me, but you could tell it was mildly concerned about the whole rope situation. I took a step towards it, it took a step away. I put a little tension on the rope, and then received an education. The first thing that I learned is that, while a deer may just stand there looking at you funny while you rope it, they are spurred to action when you start pulling on that rope.

The deer EXPLODED. The second thing I learned is that pound for pound, a deer is a LOT stronger than a cow or a colt. A cow or a colt in that weight range I could fight down with a rope and with some dignity. A deer – no chance. That thing ran and bucked and twisted and pulled. There was no controlling it and certainly no getting close to it. As it jerked me off my feet and started dragging me across the ground, it occurred to me that having a deer on a rope was not nearly as good an idea as I had originally imagined. The only upside is that they do not have as much stamina as many other animals.

A brief 10 minutes later, it was tired and not nearly as quick to jerk me off my feet and drag me when I managed to get up. It took me a few minutes to realize this since I was mostly blinded by the blood flowing out of the big gash in my head. At that point, I had lost my taste for corn-fed venison. I just wanted to get that devil creature off the end of that rope.

I figured if I just let it go with the rope hanging around its neck, it would likely die slow and painfully somewhere. At the time, there was no love at all between me and that deer. At that moment, I hated the thing, and I would venture a guess that the feeling was mutual. Despite the gash in my head and the several large knots where I had cleverly arrested the deer's momentum by bracing my head against various large rocks as it dragged me across the ground, I could still think clearly enough to recognize that there was a small chance that I shared some tiny amount of responsibility for the situation we were in. I didn't want the deer to have to suffer a slow death, so I managed to get it lined back up in between my truck and the feeder – a little trap I had set before hand...kind of like a squeeze chute. I got it to back in there and I started moving up so I could get my rope back.

Did you know that deer bite? They do! I never in a million years would have thought that a deer would bite somebody, so I was very surprised when I reached up there to grab that rope and the deer grabbed hold of my wrist. Now, when a deer bites you, it is not like being bit by a horse where they just bite you and slide off to then let go. A deer bites you and shakes its head – almost like a pit bull. They bite HARD and it hurts.

The proper thing to do when a deer bites you is probably to freeze and draw back slowly. I tried screaming and shaking instead. My method was ineffective.

It seems like the deer was biting and shaking for several minutes, but it was likely only several seconds. I, being smarter than a deer (though you may be questioning that claim by now), tricked it. While I kept it busy tearing the tendons out of my right arm, I reached up with my left hand and pulled that rope loose.

That was when I got my final lesson in deer behavior for the day.

Deer will strike at you with their front feet. They rear right up on their back feet and strike right about head and shoulder level, and their hooves are surprisingly sharp. I learned a long time ago that when an animal – like a horse – strikes at you with their hooves and you can't get away easily, the best thing to do is try to make a loud noise and make an aggressive move towards the animal. This will usually cause them to back down a bit so you can escape.

This was not a horse. This was a deer, so obviously, such trickery would not work. In the course of a millisecond, I devised a different strategy. I screamed like a woman and tried to turn and run. The reason I had always been told NOT to try to turn and run from a horse that paws at you is that there is a good chance that it will hit you in the back of the head. Deer may not be so different from horses after all, besides being twice as strong and 3 times as evil, because the second I turned to run, it hit me right in the back of the head and knocked me down.

Now, when a deer paws at you and knocks you down, it does not immediately leave. I suspect it does not recognize that the danger has passed. What they do instead is paw your back and jump up and down on you while you are laying there crying like a little girl and covering your head.

I finally managed to crawl under the truck and the deer went away. So now I know why when people go deer hunting they bring a rifle with a scope – to sort of even the odds!!'

All these events are true so help me God

VINYL IS FINAL

"...I am so happy with my new windows...I'd like to commend your work crew. Earbie and Larry were fantastic! I couldn't believe the clean-up EVERYDAY! The whole job took just a week even with all the rain delays. I would and WILL highly recommend your company to my friends and neighbors. Of course I won't need to say a word - the house is doing all the talking! Thank you so much for my beautiful new house."

Carol Zapiecki, Clearwater, FL

"Just a short note to express my appreciation for the work done on my mobile home. The crews that worked here...were gentlemen at all times, efficient, knowledgeable and prompt. You can be sure if I run into anybody who needs your type of work, I will surely recommend your company. It has been a very satisfying experience!"

A recipe from MaryJo Boyle

Chocolate 'Crack'

CAUTION: This salty and sweet treat is super easy to make and you may find yourself addicted!

Ingredients:

- 51 saltine crackers (approximately)
- 1 cup butter
- 1 cup dark brown sugar
- 1 teaspoon vanilla extract
- 12 oz your favorite chocolate chips
- 1 cup chopped, toasted almonds (optional)

Directions:

Preheat oven to 350°F.

Line a 12 x 17 inch jelly roll pan with foil.

Place saltine crackers salt side up and side-by-side in the pan as tightly as possible without overlapping. Cut or break crackers into smaller pieces to fill any gaps. Set aside.

In a medium saucepan melt butter over medium heat stirring frequently with a spatula. Once butter has melted, add brown sugar and vanilla stirring to combine. Cook for about 5 minutes or until mixture is an even dark brown color and has begun to bubble. Remove from heat and pour over saltines using spatula to spread sauce over all the crackers.

Bake crackers for 5 minutes or until butter mixture begins to bubble. Remove from oven and sprinkle evenly with chocolate chips allowing the heat to melt the chocolate. Spread chocolate evenly with the spatula so all the crackers are completely covered.

Evenly distribute optional chopped almonds.

Refrigerate until chocolate sets and hardens. Break apart and serve.

MaryJo also says – Most people go through life never realizing that there is a street right in front of their house that will take them anyplace in the world.
