There will be no newsletter in July. Instead, the Park Phone Directory will be published. Snowbirds can pick up their copy of the directory from the office when they return in the fall.

June 8th is the deadline for submitting information to Ann Scott for inclusion in the directory. Thank you, Ann, for all your work in putting this directory together.

Don and Maggie Nowers' grandson

As many of you already know, Don and Maggie Nowers' grandson Grady was born November 15th with Hypoplastic Left Heart Syndrome. Their daughter Janice has been spending the majority of her time with him at Boston Children's Hospital, causing a hardship on the family.

If anyone would care to make a donation to the family it would be greatly appreciated. See Maggie Nowers, Lot #106.

An excerpt from “A Walk Through Time”

Honeymoon Park 30th Anniversary 1968-1998

---

“Residents have always enjoyed the company of wild life. Today parrots from the Bird Sanctuary loudly squawk at residents along lower East Street. A few regal white egrets visit their adopted families and enjoy treats of bologna, turkey dogs and cheese.

Doves can be heard in the morning and evening, along with the mockingbirds who repeat the calls.

Years ago some unwelcome guests of the wild variety were spotted. “Ted's Alligator” lived in the sewer at the lower end of East Street. It occasionally emerged to stroll across lawns and sun itself, frightening residents with his sly, toothy grin.

Many docile wild things entertained residents as well. Quail that lived in the woods where Publix now stands used to bring traffic to a halt on St. Mark Drive. The sight of the mother leading her half dozen babies was so adorable that even the most hurried motorist stopped to enjoy them.

One Easter Sunday a litter of rabbits was born in Betty Clyne's back yard. Perhaps the descendants of our very own Easter bunnies still hop around Honeymoon Park today.”

Speaking of those pesky rabbits which still abound in Honeymoon MHP, here's a few ideas on what to do with them.

Hasenpfeffer

The rabbit meat should be placed in a deep bowl and covered with equal parts of vinegar and water. Add one large sliced onion, salt and pepper to taste, cloves and bay leaves. Cover and place in the refrigerator. Let meat soak in the solution for two days, turning several times – then remove the meat and drain it. Brown pieces in hot butter.

Gradually add some of the liquid in which the meat was pickled. Cover and let simmer until meat is tender, 30 to 45 minutes. Just before serving, stir 1 cup thick sour cream into the sauce.

Rabbit Pie

- 1 rabbit, cleaned, washed and cut into 2 or 3 pieces
- Salt
- 3 Tablespoons butter
- 2 Tablespoons finely chopped onion
- 2 Tablespoons finely chopped parsley
- Flour
- Dash Tabasco
- Pastry

Place rabbit in a sauce pot and barely cover with water. Cover the pan and simmer rabbit until tender. Add salt to season when partially cooked. Drain and measure the liquid. Set aside. Remove the meat from the bones, keeping it in large pieces.

Heat butter in a skillet, add onion and parsley. Cook about 5 minutes, stirring constantly.

Measure 1-1/2 Tablespoons flour for each cup of reserved rabbit liquid, add flour to onion-parsley mixture in skillet and mix well. Add the rabbit liquid slowly, bring to boiling and cook 1 – 2 minutes longer, stirring constantly. Add more salt if needed and the tabasco. Mix well with rabbit meat and pour into a baking dish. Cover with pastry and bake at 350 for 35 minutes.

These recipes were taken from Pennsylvania Dutch Cookbook that I have had for years. Hope it gives you ideas about how to thin out the rabbits living in our park.

Cruises

Don't forget, Pat has a couple cruises going later this year. The first, on October 18th, is a 9-night cruise of the Greek Isles aboard Royal Caribbean's Jewel of the Sea. The ship boards in Rome, Italy, then cruises to Chania, Crete – Mykonos, Greece – Rhodes, Greece – Santorini, Greece – Athens, Greece – Naples, Italy – and back to Rome. Check with Pat on pricing.

If you would rather stay closer to home, the 4-night Bahamas cruise might be more to your liking. Royal Caribbean's Mariner of the Seas departs Port Canaveral to Nassau and Cococay, Bahamas on December 2nd, returning December 6th.

For more information or to reserve your cabin, contact Pat Gilliland at 727-733-5202.

This from Carolyn Carr

Yesterday my daughter e-mailed me, again, asking why I didn't do something useful with my time, like sitting around the pool, drinking wine isn't a good thing.

Talking about my “doing something useful” seems to be her favorite topic of conversation. She is only “thinking of me,” she said, and suggested I go down to the Senior Center and hang out with the fellas. So I did, and when I got home, decided to play a prank on her. I sent her an e-mail saying that I had joined the Senior Parachute Club. She replied, “Are you nuts? You're 73 years old and now you're going to start jumping out of airplanes?”

I told her that I even had a membership card and e-mailed a copy to her. She immediately telephoned me and yelled “Good grief, Dad, where are your glasses? This is a membership to a Prostitute Club, not a Parachute Club!”

“Oh man, am I in trouble,” I said, “I signed up for five jumps a week!” The line went dead.

Life as a Senior Citizen isn't getting any easier, but sometimes it can be pretty fun.

Boy, I sure do miss the lovely, warm Florida weather! Spring in northern Indiana has been chilly, cloudy, and rainy. The weather might keep me from pulling weeds and planting flowers, but it hasn't stopped me from connecting with family and friends. Been pretty busy doing that!

There isn't much news in the June newsletter. I welcome photos with a little write-up of any fun things that are going on. Send to:

Honeymoongazette@gmail.com

I am going to add some photos from different activities, see if you can figure out who and what. Sorry, no prizes!

Early birds versus night owls—who's better off?

The early bird gets the worm, and early risers enjoy other benefits, according to a story on the New York Post website. A survey of sleep habits involving 2,000 people found that, among other things, self-identified early birds have more sex on a weekly basis than their night owl counterparts.

The survey also found that early birds generally make more money, are more likely to work in an office setting, and describe themselves as happy. They're also more likely to be married with children in their home. On the other hand, night owls are typically shy and sarcastic, likely to believe in ghosts and cryptids, and more often single.

They tend to sleep about the same amount—seven hours a night for early birds and six hours for night owls. However, early birds are light sleepers, and they feel more well-rested when they get up than night owls.

Disconnecting may not lead to the benefits you're looking for

Ever feel the need to disconnect from your devices for a “digital detox”? The Yahoo Finance website reported on a survey by Mojo Vision (Saratoga, California), which found that people tend to use technology as much, if not more, after distancing themselves from their smartphones and tablets for a while.

The survey of 1,000 Americans found that 67 percent agree that technology makes life easier, but 55 percent believe that all that tech is a distraction, with one-third worrying that it hurts people's ability to connect with one another. Still, 54 percent said that abstaining from their devices didn't produce the positive benefits they'd hoped for—or at least were unsure whether it had a beneficial impact.

The most common strategies for “subtracting” tech are setting devices to send fewer notifications, putting them on a “Do Not Disturb” setting, scheduling times to not use their devices, or simply turning them off for a period of time.

A good decision is based on knowledge, and not on numbers.
