As we journey together through the uncharted territory of COVID-19, remember these words of strength:

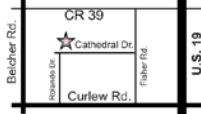

So do not fear, for I am with you; do not be dismayed, for I am your God. I will strengthen you and help you; I will uphold you with my righteous right hand. Isaiah 41:10

For God has not given us a spirit of fear, but one of power, love, and sound judgment. 2 Timothy 1:7

Our prayers are with those affected by COVID-19, as well as all health care workers, first responders, and those on the frontlines. Please use "sound judgment" and follow the guidelines set for us so that you may stay safe and stay healthy.

This year as our membership increased we needed to purchase additional cribbage boards.

We were able to purchase 4 new Cribbage boards with help from the Honeymoon Park Community Association, cash donations from our Cribbage members, and Dick Brown who purchased an individual board.

Thank you all for your generous gifts to make this possible!

Can't wait for us all to be together again!

Euchre

Just wanted to thank all the people who came out this year to play Euchre Thursday nights. We averaged four tables every night. That was the most we have had in the last five years! So thanks again and look forward to maybe having five tables next year.

All the best for a good summer.

Carolyn Carr

Carolyn also has some daily smiles for us.....

After all these years my wife still thinks I'm sexy. Every time I walk by, she says "What an Ass."

For those who don't want Alexa listening in on your conversations, They're making a male version...it doesn't listen to anything.

I asked my wife if I was the only one she'd been with. She said yes, all the others had been nines and tens.

I really don't mind getting older, by my body is taking it badly.

So it turns out that being an adult is mostly just googling how to do stuff.

Getting older is just one body part after another saying, “Ha ha. You think that's bad? Watch this.”

My mind is like my internet browser – 19 tabs open, 3 of them are frozen and I have no idea where the music is coming from.

I miss the 90s, when bread was still good for you and no one knew what kale was.

If you see me talking to myself, I'm having a staff meeting.

Do you ever get up in the morning, look at yourself in the mirror and think...”That can't be accurate.”

I wanna be 14 again and ruin my life differently. I have new ideas.

As I watch this generation try to rewrite history, one thing I'm sure of....it will be misspelled and have no punctuation.

I don't always go the extra mile, but when I do it's because I missed my exit.

Most people don't think I'm as old as I am until they hear me stand up.

“Where's your husband?”

“I didn't see him.”
“You just need to dig a little.”

Shout-Out

Here's a shout-out to Larry Hoffman, who has been crushing cans single-handedly since the middle of March. Hip-hip-hooray! Larry noticed that the aluminum cans were piling up, so he now checks them regularly and takes them to the crusher. If anyone would like to help out, see Larry.

Entertaining Ourselves

We have all been trying to entertain ourselves during this time when everything is closed and we are supposed to be staying in except for necessities and exercise. Many people are walking and bike riding.

Betty Hoffman has made her own little beach in her backyard. Sometimes friends come over to enjoy the sand and pool.

And sometimes you just feel like dancing, so Pam Newman cranked up her line-dancing music, and we danced on Second Street.

Hip-Hip-Horray

Another Hip-hip-hooray goes out to all the ladies who fired up their sewing machines to make masks for their neighbors. I know of Pam Newman, Nancy Hopkins, and Joanne Gramley. Thank you all.

Then there is the story of the Brown sisters. They were called into action by several members of their extended family who, being on the front lines, had a need for cloth masks to cover their N95s. So masks were made for all the family including the medical workers.

Their next project was head coverings. Karen and Maureen cut out the material, Georgia and Theresa did the sewing, then Karen and Maureen ironed them. Lessie was in charge of the elastic. A real family affair. The hats went to hospitals in Louisville and Castro, California. After a short break, they will be back at it again.

First Shipment of 60 Hats

Pretty Hat

Thanks to you all, whether you sew, check on your neighbor, run errands or get groceries for others. We live in a very special place.

We are living in very strange times now, and no one knows when we will get back to normal, or even what normal will look like. As Eddie used to say at Kaffee Klatch, do your best to be your best, and stay on the right side of the grass.

Be safe, stay well.

May Days

Hug Your Cat Day, May 1. You should be doing this every day, but in case you're not, today is the day to show your kitty some affection.

Learn to Ride a Bike Day, May 2. Slap on the training wheels if it makes you feel better. The point is, just get on a bike and go for a spin.

No Diet Day, May 6. You don't have to follow the latest trends to change your relationship with food. Start today with a commitment to live a healthier life by decreasing your consumption of junk foods.

Letter Carrier's "Stamp Out Hunger" Food Drive, May 9. Check with your local postal carrier and station to find out what items they are accepting during the largest national food drive in the U.S.

Stay Up All Night Night, May 9. Reconnect with your inner child and have some fun as you stay up (and out) well past the time when the streetlights come on.

Mother's Day, May 10. She carried you in her womb for nine months, and that did a number on her back. Now give her some flowers and take her out to brunch. It's the least you can do.

How to set reasonable goals

Setting a goal is important, but setting a good goal is what really counts. What is a good goal? A good goal usually has a few definable characteristics. Good goals are:

- Specifically focused.
- Neither too hard, nor too easy.
- Shared and agreed upon with others who will be working on them.
- Written down and visualized.
